"PEACE IN SIGHT," SAYS GERARD IN BERLIN INTERVIEW

Mauna Loa's Great Lava Flow Caught in First Photos

Molten Stream and Burning Forest, With Visitors Safely Gathering Specimens, Shown Here

The great lava flow down Mauna Loa is pictured above. Top photo shows lower end of flow as it swept slowly but relentlessly down the slope, about 1/2 miles above Honomāliia ranch-house. Lower photos show lava coming down from three miles to a mile and a half above the ranch house, and the forest set on fire by the molten rock. As proved above, it is perfectly easy and safe for visitors to walk up to the flow and secure specimens of the rock. The photos give a good idea of the depth of rock at the lower end of the flow. These photographs were taken early this week, between 8 and 9:30 in the morning, by Dr. Y. E. Colville of Hilo, who went to the flow, climbed all around and in many places over it, and obtained the splendid pictures which the Star-Bulletin is enabled to present herewith. Though thousands of visitors have gone to the flows, only three minor accidents have occurred.

U. S. AMBASSADOR DECLARES HE IS CONFIDENT OF WAR'S END; FIGHTING GOES FURIOUSLY ON

Vienna Asserts Italians Lose Heavily—Rome Reverses Roles—French Retake Part of Cumieres

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 27.—The first step in a projected policy of "internationalism" for the purpose of insuring world peace was taken today. The Federation of Women's Clubs adopted the recommendation of Mrs. Percy Penypacker as president of the convention that the women's clubs of the three Americas meet in 1920.

BERLIN, Germany, May 27.—James Gerard, U. S. ambassador at Berlin, declares that he believes peace is in sight. This notable utterance by the U. S. plenipotentiary is made in an interview given out today in which he emphasizes his belief that the end of the war is approaching. "Nothing can shake my confidence that peace is on the way," he says.

His interview refers to the settlement between Germany and the United States as preparing the way for peace. "The president has now greater freedom of action," he said, in commenting upon this phase of the situation.

Italo-Austrian Claims Contradict

VIENNA, Austria, May 27.—Storming the Italian positions one after the other on the mountains of Cornicampe from Verde to Maata, the Austrians in the last few days have won repeated successes and are inflicting much damage on the enemy. They have captured 2500 Italians and consolidated the positions they took.

ROME, Italy, May 27.—After furious battling in Lagarine valley the Austrians have been reversed and the Italians are now on the offensive here. The Italians have also checked the Austrians everywhere except the sector of Astico and Roverto, where the Italian have retired from advanced positions and taken those better protected.

French Retake Part Of Cumieres Posts

PARIS, France, May 27.—The French have recaptured part of the positions at Cumieres, on the Verdun front, and have taken trenches northwest of Cumieres. On the opposite side of the Meuse a German effort to gain the neighborhood of the fort Douaumont was repulsed.

BERLIN, Germany, May 27.—The French succeeded today in forcing their way into a part of the positions at Cumieres, but were later eliminated. The fighting in this section today was exceedingly fierce and bloody.

Sunk Unwarned?

THOUSANDS VISIT SCENES OF FLOWS

Reports Today Say That Progress of Stream Stopped; Jaggar Will Make Survey When All is Quiet

HILO, Hawaii, May 27.—Superintendent Augus of the Hawaii Telephone Company, who has just come from the scene of the lava flows down the slopes of Mauna Loa, says that the flows have absolutely stopped. There is little activity higher up the mountain now but the sight continues wonderful.

Prof. T. A. Jaggar, the director of the Volcano observatory at Kilauea, was at the Honomāliia flow yesterday. He says he will not visit higher up until all is quiet so he can make an accurate survey of everything.

Thousands have seen the flows and at least 20 have gone to the source up the mountain.

LARSEN CHARGES GENEROSITY OF CITY IS ABUSED

Supervisor Says Patients Able to Pay Go to Hospital at City's Expense

Supervisor William Larsen said right out in meeting last night what he has been saying in private for several weeks—that patients are being sent to the Queen's hospital by the city and county physician, Dr. J. T. Wayson, without examination, either as to their physical condition or as to the state of their pocketbooks. And he gave a reason for it. He stated that it was done in an effort to discredit the emergency hospital physician.

When Dr. Ayer was made emergency hospital physician under Dr. Wayson trouble began, say members of the board. Charges and counter charges were made verbally before meetings of the health committee of the supervisors but never backed up by a written charge that could be presented to the board. There was a conflict of authority.

Then, the emergency hospital was made a separate department, under the jurisdiction of the sheriff, Dr. Wayson was to have nothing to say about it.

And he hasn't. But Larsen last night charged that he is sending every patient he can to the Queen's hospital in order to discredit the emergency hospital, for when the new institution was first established the city and county's bill at the Queen's hospital decreased remarkably.

Larsen alleged that many of the patients sent to the Queen's hospital at the city's expense are admitted on telephone application to Dr. Wayson. And he said some of the persons sent to the hospital as indigents and treated at the city's expense are well able to pay their own expenses.

He asked for an investigation of his charges and sat down and voted against an appropriation of $2000 for hospital expenses for the city's indigent sick. Nothing was done on his request for an investigation and the appropriation was passed. It is needed to carry the fund through the beginning of the next fiscal period, July 1. The appropriation for this half year has been exhausted.

CITY AFFAIRS AND SUPERVISOR NOTES

Payrolls passed.

Consideration of the amendments to the purchasing agent ordinance was postponed.

There was a little informal talk on the proposed bond issue last night, but no action was taken towards pushing it.

A plan to charge $5 for the use of the city ambulance for private purposes was referred to the police committee.

The inspection trip of the mayor and supervisors around the island planned for Sunday has been postponed for a week.

Next meeting of the supervisors will be Friday night. The city engineer promises to have some sidewalk ordinances and a call for bids for the Beach Walk project ready to submit.

Installation of water meters in the business district will cost the city about $5500, as voted last night, but it will all come back into the treasury as a charge is made for each meter.

The $300 asked by the city attorney for investigation expenses was voted on second reading last night after a further examination of the facts by the finance committee. There was some question at the last meeting as to whether it could properly be voted.

An ordinance regulating the slaughter of swine and cattle was introduced and referred to the police committee, as Supervisor Horner, chairman of that committee, who introduced the ordinance, wanted to amend it so as to include poultry. Supervisor Hollinger contended that it should properly go to the health committee, but he was overruled when it came to a vote.

A request by Supervisor Horner for more benches in the parks was met by Supervisor Hollinger, chairman of the park committee, with the statement that there was no money to buy them. He asked Horner to remember his request and vote for the appropriation for them and for more playground equipment when the budget comes up for consideration next month.

Final award of the contract for the improvement of Lusitana street was made to the Lord-Young Engineering Company. This was merely a formality, as work has been in progress on the project for several weeks. The contract specifies that the company is to accept bonds in place of cash for

GAS COMPANY TO BE HEARD NEXT MONDAY

Further hearing of the Hawaiian Electric Company before the public utilities commission has been postponed until the commission's auditor has completed the filing of data on which he is now at work. The hearing of the Honolulu Gas Company, which was set to begin yesterday, but which had to be postponed on account of the other hearing, will begin next Monday at 1:30 o'clock.

Information sought by the company will include detailed statements of the capital and character of the plant, financial statements such as profit and loss, running expenses, and amount, nature and source of income.

How the plant is operated with respect to the safety of the public and of the plant's employees, working hours of employees and other subjects considered necessary by the commission will also be taken up during the hearing, which began yesterday afternoon.

COMPLAINTS AGAINST WAIKAEKA-SCHOOL ANSWERED BY KINNEY

Answering a complaint that the Waikae-ka school, this island, is "six miles from anywhere," that the only access to it is over a railroad track and that the government should not compel children to attend under these conditions, Henry W. Kinney, superintendent of public instruction, calls attention to the fact that, where primitive conditions used to prevail, the government now has provided adequate instruction in pleasant and well equipped quarters. He also points out that the people in the district invariably use the railroad tracks as a thoroughfare and that it is hardly more dangerous for the children to use the tracks when they go to school than on other occasions.

It was decided to accept the offer of the polo association to erect a comfort station in Kapiolani Park, on a site chosen by the park committee, and credit the city's ten per cent of the net earnings of the races there against its cost until paid for. The site chosen is under the banyan tree between the tennis courts across from the public baths. The tennis players have been clamoring for a comfort station there for some time, according to John Wise, the superintendent of the park.

After a long dispute as to the facts between Supervisors Arnold and Hollinger a resolution appropriating $500 for the public baths passed first reading. The baths are about $370 behind and need the $500 to carry them through until July 1, the beginning of the next fiscal period. Part of the money is to be used for the purchase of refreshments, cigars and tobacco to be sold over the counter. The proceeds go into the city treasury, not into a fund with which more goods can be purchased. Hollinger says that when the books are balanced July 1, it will be found that the baths have at least broken even, if not made money. The greatest profit is derived from the rental of bathing suits.

PRIVATE FACTORIES FOR U. S. MUNITIONS

No one can conceive of a government, whether it be our own or any other, which can, through taxation or otherwise, construct and maintain in time of peace a plant which will be qualified to turn out enough munitions to supply the fighting line in time of war, says Howard E. Coffin, in World's Work. This means that even though we have Government-owned plants—and the ideal thing would be to have several of them scattered through the Middle West—but even though we have them to act as educational institutions and to act as clearing houses for specifications and blueprints, in the last equation, in any future war in which this country is engaged, it is going to be the privately owned manufacturing plants of this country which must feed the guns that will save the nation.

If we can have Government-owned plants they will come in as assembling plants and as clearing houses for specifications, tools and skilled munition workers. But we must not overlook the fact that congressional action toward the establishment of Government-owned plants may be on a false basis. As I see it, one of the greatest dangers of this country at the present time is that through the passage by the houses in Washington of bills creating a larger army, an increased navy and a few munition plants, the country may sit down and fold its hands and say "We are prepared." As a practical working out of industrial organization for national defense, we purpose to give the private plants of this country small annual orders for munitions.

Green bugs are reported to have infested the fields of several counties of Kansas.

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL SUGAR STOCKS MAKE ADVANCES IN ABSENCE OF DEFINITE NEWS

Oahu is Feature of Market in Week Marked By General Gains in Prices

In the past week there have been no definite developments relative to any particular stock listed on the local exchange, that is there have been no directors' meetings at which important policies were determined or extra or special dividends declared. The news of the week has been almost entirely of the rumor variety. Sugar quotations declined to 6.92, but this had no effect on the local stock market, that figure being considered as satisfactory to producers and to stockholders of the producing companies.

The one real development of the week was the filing of a suit in ejectment against the Waiialua Plantation Company by the Bishop estate. This suit is in the nature of a friendly action to secure an interpretation of the meaning of a covenant, it is claimed, but it had the effect of causing Waiialua to sell off $2 a share, later recovering half of that loss and closing yesterday at the same figure as a week before.

All through the week Oahu was in much demand chiefly because of rumors that there is to be a $2,000,000 stock increase. This rumor it has been impossible to confirm or deny beyond the statement that no action has as yet been taken by the directors. The rumors did not say that it had been determined, but that it would be. The opening of the Oahu irrigation system through the Waiialua tunnel, which occurs today, has also had some effect on the stock of the company.

Olaa has recovered the slight loss which followed the action of McBryde directors and has reached a new top figure, $23.

During the week 10 stocks showed gains and three losses. The stocks to advance were Ewa, ¼; Haiku, 20; Hawaiian Sugar, ¼; Olaa, 1 ¼; Oahu, 4 ½; Onomea, ¼; Pauhanu, ¼; Pala, 5; Pioneer 3 ¾; Tanjong Rubber, 2. Those sustaining losses were Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar; Honokaa, 1 ½; and McBryde, ½. Mineral Products has been gaining in strength and yesterday was reported as selling at $1.07 ½.

An Associated Press report that the President has been asked by the secretary of war to conserve all California oil lands appears to have had some slight effect on Honolulu Consolidated Oil, which, however, was yesterday quoted at $3.35-$3.50.

Sales for the week were slightly over 30,000 shares.

OAHU AND OLAA KEEP CLIMBING IN SHORT DAY

Advances Are Rule With Sugar Stocks and Demand Far Exceeds Offerings

Again this morning Oahu over-shadowed all other securities in interest in the trading. It was strong and the demand was far more active than the offerings. Before the session, which was held at 10 o'clock, so that the stock exchange members might attend the opening of the Waiialua tunnel project, it had risen to and was freely sought at $43.59, marking new figures in its recent rapid rise. Brokers were hurrying from office to office seeking to fill orders and with only small amounts of the stock in sight in most instances.

Activity of Oahu was in connection with repetition of the reports or rumors of dividend and stock insurance rumors which have been so freely circulated this week. It was further rumored that there was to be some sort of announcement made out at the opening of the irrigation project today. As to what the nature of the announcement might be the rumor was indefinite, some claiming it would be relative to dividend policies, although it has been stated that the directors have not acted on such matters, and others that it would pertain to the cost of the irrigation project and what that project would mean to the company.

Mineral Products showed strength all day yesterday, selling at $1.10 afternoo, and this morning

M'CORD SPEAKS UPON 'PLAGUES'

"The Seven Last Plagues" was the subject of the lecture delivered last night at the "Peace Palace," when Evangelist Mc'ord opened one of the mystery chapters of the Book of Revelation. Opening his Bible to the 16th chapter of Revelation, he introduced the prophecy in these words:

"Our God in mercy has not only told His children here upon earth of the home that awaits the faithful, but has warned them of the intervening time of trouble that will come upon the earth as a result of the sin of mankind. We cease to be touched by the many blood stained pictures that come to us from the battlefields of Europe, but the picture painted by the writer of the Apocalypse is a Dante's Inferno compared to these. Man is naturally loath to think of the immediate future, but of all times, we should be most intelligent regarding what this time has in store for us."

"The falling of the seven last plagues as mentioned in Rev. 16, at once reminds the student of the Bible of the ten plagues that fell upon Egypt at the time of the Exodus. There is a striking resemblance between these two events. Each precedes a time of Exodus—the first for the oppressed Hebrews, when they left the land of bondage for the land of the promise, and the latter, the transmigration of the soul from the body of death to the sun; and when Pharaoh finally consented to let Israel go his only and last hope had been taken from him in the death of the first born."

The subject for tonight is entitled, "Rome's Mysteries Unveiled," and will be a lantern lecture. All welcome and seats free.

Accumulated Stocks in Local Warehouses Amount to Under 400,000 Cases

In two months the accumulated supply of canned pineapples in the islands has been reduced by a quarter to a third despite the freight congestion that has been and is felt in all shipping circles. There still remains a vast stock on hand here but the situation has been improved and is now considered as highly encouraging.

Two months ago it was estimated that there were on hand, stacked up high in the warehouses of Honolulu, between half a million and 600,000 cases of canned pineapples. The Matson company was doing all in its power to handle this freight, and 20,000 cases were to go on every trip. Meantime there has been further production and despite this and adverse conditions in freight movement, it is now estimated that by the end of this month the stock on hand will be not to exceed 400,000 cases. After that still more rapid disposal is expected and hoped for.

At the office of the Hawaiian Pineapple Company Thursday it was estimated that its stock on hand in the islands was about 180,000 and that by the end of this month that would have been reduced to about 135,000. This quantity is expected to be further materially reduced next month. It was stated in the Star-Bulletin a short time since that the company had chartered two vessels to expedite the delivery of its products to the mainland and since then it has chartered a third which is now loading and will carry 25,000 cases. It is hoped that conditions will be such that the stored cases will have been practically all disposed of by the end of July.

Two Pineapple Producers' An- nounce Increase Will Be Ef- fective in a Few Days

Wages paid to plantation laborers are to be raised by at least two of the large pineapple producers, the Hawaiian Pineapple Company and Libby, McNeill & Libby. The former will put its new scale in operation during the present month and the latter June 1.

Ten per cent increase in wages will be paid to plantation laborers by the Hawaiian Pineapple Company. Other arrangements have been made with lunas and salaried men and with contractors. All in all these increases will form an important addition to the pay roll, but beyond the statement of increase to plantation labor no figures have been made public. No increase in wages paid to canners is mentioned.

Libby, McNeill & Libby state that they have made similar raises in their wage scales, but figures are not given out. In this case also the enlargement in pay rolls will form an important item. This company also says nothing of contemplating raising canners' wages.

The wage increase by these two pineapple companies comes as a voluntary offer on their part and before any demands for higher wages have been made. It is stated that a year ago when prices for products were down and there was little or no market, the companies kept their forces at financial sacrifices to themselves. And it is further stated that, while higher prices for the canned goods are now being received, higher prices are also being paid for cans, labels and sugar, so that the increase in price does not carry with it an increase in profit that is at all commensurate. But nevertheless they have taken the initiative in the matter and mark time to the wave of advancement that is sweeping over the industrial world.

DEMAND FOR HOMES IS SHOWN IN PURCHASES OF VACANT PROPERTY

Within the past few days the Trent Trust Company has made a number of sales. While none of these was of especial magnitude, they show a considerable activity in lower-priced properties in some instances, and in other instances they are significant of a demand for homes. Among these transactions may be mentioned the following:

August Banke to the Trent Trust Co., trustee, premises on Kuakini drive, $1100.

From James A. Lyle, for a client, premises on Beachwalk, $3235.

Frank E. Thompson to Charles Lambert, lots and three small houses in Kalia for $3000.

C. M. Cooke, Ltd., Charles Huztace, Beretania, near Thomas square, $3480.

G. J. Waller to Tony Tuck, vacant lot in Kalia, $575.

James Lyle to F. H. Hazleton, Pearl City lot, $300.

For A. Uyoko, a lot near the Nuuanu school for $1500.

For a client, lot and three houses, Auwahi, for $3900.

For a client, house and lot in Center-town tract near King and Pitkof, for $2750.

Two lots on 11th avenue, Kaimuki, for $1800.

Three lots on Beach Walk for $1350, $1500 and $1600.

TWO HOMES COMPLETED.

Jack Milton has completed two residences at Lewers road and Kalakaua avenue. Into one of them he has moved and the other is occupied by Glenn Jackson.

BUILDING AND SALES SHOW NO REAL DULLNESS

Large Transactions Are Few But Modest Home Building Much in Evidence

While large single transactions may be infrequent in real estate circles in the past few days, there is a considerable volume of small transactions, in the purchasing of small homes and in the purchasing of unimproved lots with the object of home building. An example of this is given by one salesman who in one day made seven such sales which, in the aggregate, amounted to $19,500. Owners of new subdivisions report an inquiry for lots and a glance at the conveyances filed for record shows that there is no dearth of smaller transactions.

In building permits for the past seven days it has been the same way; there have been 16 issued and they total $26,836.

Of the building permits issued the more important improvements will be made by H. E. Savage, a residence in Manoa costing $4800; Mrs. Rosalie Tripp, Puuowai drive, residence, $2576; Mrs. Kate Wright, residence, Nuuanu street, $4650, and T. D. Chandler Kahala, a residence costing $3500.

COLLEGE CLUB BACKS WORK FOR CHILDREN.

THE College Club closed its season on Saturday, May 20, with a luncheon, followed by its annual meeting. The gathering was held at the historic home of Queen Emma on Nuuanu street, with Mrs. Arthur Alexander as hostess. The cafeteria luncheon was served under the supervision of Mrs. Harbid Lyon and about 90 members were seated at small tables.

At intervals during the luncheon hour an interesting program was rendered. Miss Charlotte Hall read a paper prepared by Mrs. Taylor for the Daughters of Hawaii, giving an interesting sketch of the history of the famous old mansion. Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, who was a guest of the club, contributed some delightful personal reminiscences of Queen Emma and read extracts from some of her letters to an intimate friend. Miss Woodford brought forth merry laughter by a clever monologue satirizing the modern club woman who takes herself very seriously. A group of girls from Kaula Home furnished charming Hawaiian songs from time to time.

But the business meeting that followed the luncheon was perhaps the most interesting part of the day's program. The annual reports from the retiring officers were followed by reports from the committees in charge of the various kinds of work which the club carries on. The Dr. Day memorial fund is devoted to the maintenance of anti-tuberculosis work and the history of this work by the College Club covers the period of the anti-tuberculosis work in Honolulu. The students' aid committee rendered a brief but suggestive report of the quiet efforts of the College Club to assist girls in gaining higher education. This is also a line of work that has been in progress for many years.

The president's report reviewed the story of the efficient work done by the club in establishing a system of medical inspection in the public schools.

The 90 members woke to real enthusiasm when Mrs. D. Scudder read the sketch of vacation school plans and purposes prepared by Mrs. Mary T. Moore, the superintendent, engaged by the club to carry out its plan of a recreation school during July and August. Mrs. Moore was introduced amidst vigorous applause, and Mrs. Scudder made a warm appeal for assistance from the College Club members. Sundry sheets of paper were distributed for signatures of those willing to help in the good work and in a few moments they were well filled with names.

Mrs. P. L. Weaver, the chairman of the committee, reported that she had received the most generous and encouraging responses from clubs, organizations and public officials that had been asked to cooperate in the work. The College Club assumes full financial responsibility for the enterprise during the month of July and subscriptions have been coming in to provide for its continuance through August.

It was with real regret that the members of the College Club saw Mrs. Arthur Alexander retire from the president's chair after her three years of enthusiastic service. But they were ready to greet the new officers with the promise of support in future undertakings.

The new officers are: President, Mrs. W. J. Forbes; vice-president, Mrs. Alfred Castle; secretary, Miss May Fraser; treasurer, Mrs. Ernest Clark.

Members of the board of governors—Mrs. Arthur Alexander and Mrs. Dorcas Scudder.

With the leadership of this group of women the College Club looks forward to a year of efficient service, made more vigorous by the intellectual and social comradeship of the members.

The following were present at the luncheon: Miss Mary C. Alexander, Mrs. Arthur Alexander, Miss Edna I. Ally, Mrs. Carl Andrews, Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, Mrs. E. G. Bartlett, Mrs. L. F. Beardmore, Miss Ruth Benedict, Mrs. Charles A. Bon, Mrs. Ralph Borden, Miss C. Brawthen, Mrs. W. A. Bryan, Dr. Jeannette Burnham, Miss Edna Bryd, Mrs. Will Carden, Miss C. Chase, Mrs. E. Mrs. Clinton G. Ballentyne's Luncheon. Mrs. Clinton G. Ballentyne complimented Mrs. Arthur Greenwell of Kona on Friday by giving a luncheon in her honor. The table was most attractive with its central adornment of golden shower and lace fern. Four small silver baskets at different parts of the table held sprays of the shower blossoms. The center was banked with maidenhair ferns. At each name place was a dainty corsage bouquet of lavender sweet peas, and the name cards were of Chinese rice-paper mounted on yellow satin.

Mrs. Ballentyne's guests were Mrs. Arthur Greenwell, the guest of honor; Mrs. Leopold G. Blackman, Mrs. Edgar Russel, Mrs. Archibald A. Young, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mrs. John E. Baird, Mrs. E. L. Gordon, Mrs. Albert Horner, Mrs. Renton Hind, Miss Anne Hartnagle, and Miss Marie Ballentyne. The time after lunch was occupied in conversation.

Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell's Chowder. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Bush, just back from the mainland, were the guests of honor at a chowder supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell at their Kabala home. It was a very enjoyable affair and a delightful welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Bush, who have been in New York for a visit. A swim was enjoyed after which the following friends dined full justice to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell's chowder: Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Blake, Mrs. Fred Lyser, Mr. and Mrs. John Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gere, Mr. and Mrs. St. C. Sayres, Mrs. Phillip Frear, Madam Sayres, Miss Dorothy Hawk, Miss Margene Hubbard, Mr. Shirley Bush, Mr. Fred Bush, Jr., Mr. Leroy Bush and Mr. Albert Bush.

Mrs. Jack Dowsett's Pot Supper. Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Phillips were the guests of honor at a pot supper given on Wednesday night by Mrs. Jack Dowsett at her Punahou street home. The table was exquisitely decorated. Mrs. Dowsett's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Klebahn, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Miss Helen Kimball, Mrs. Herman Focke, Mrs. Faxon Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. George Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halstead, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Richardson, Miss Margaret Walker, Mr. Paul Muhendorf, Mr. Hobron Walker and Mr. Lewellyn Dowsett.

Engagement of Honolulu. An announcement which will be of much interest here, particularly among the school set, is that made in Oakland a few days ago of the engagement of Miss Tallulah Sinclair of that city to Mr. James Albert Gibb, a Honolulu boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibb of Alea.

The Oakland Tribune publishes the following account: "One of the weddings of the late summer will be that of Miss Tallulah Sinclair, daughter of Mrs. B. P. Sinclair, who announced her engagement to James Albert Gibb of Honolulu last Friday at a pretty bridge luncheon at which she presided."

Miss Sinclair, who is a graduate of Dominican convent at San Rafael, just returned in February from a year's stay in the Hawaiian islands, where the romance began. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibb of Alea, Hawaii, and is at present interested in the sugar business. He has many friends here as he is a graduate of Stanford university, where he was affiliated with the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

The luncheon at which the announcement was made was given at the home of the bride-elect's mother in Park boulevard. Pink and white sweet peas formed the decorations and covers were laid for 12: Mrs. W. H. Stafford, Miss Florence Catton, Mrs. Howard Reamer, Mrs. J. W. Greene, Mrs. B. McKibbin, Miss Genevieve Young of Honolulu, Mrs. J. B. Sinclair, Miss Edith Gibb of Honolulu, Miss Madeline Work, Miss Margaret Allen, Miss Margaret La Bree and the hostess.

Miss Edith Gibb, sister of J. A. Gibb, is at present the house-guest of Miss Sinclair, having come over for the wedding.

COL. AND MRS. FREDERICK P. REYNOLDS ENTERTAIN.

Gen. and Mrs. John P. Wisner were the honor guests on Thursday evening of Col. and Mrs. Frederick P. Reynolds. The table was most artistically attractive with radiantly pretty pink gladiolas and stately lilies. Tulle and lighted candles added greatly to the attractiveness of this well-appointed dinner. The Reynolds are great favorites here and when they sail hence on the July transport a real aloha goes with them. Such is the life of the soldier and sailor. We grow to love them as if, their three years' tour of service here is up, and they are ordered away.

Music was the pleasure of the Reynolds' guests for the hour after luncheon. These guests were Gen. and Mrs. John P. Wisner, Gen. and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Col. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson, Col. and Mrs. Daniel L. Howell, Col. and Mrs. Chas. Lincoln, Maj. and Mrs. Edgar Russel, Col. William C. Rafferty and Maj. Matthew De Laney.

DINNER AND THEATER PARTY.

Mr. Charles Dana Wright entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. Gilmore, Mr. Frank Howes and Mr. Robert Scott at dinner on Saturday evening. The table was most artistic. A low bowl filled with yellow cornucopia and lace fern graced the table center. A peculiar coincidence was shown when the name cards were seen to be yellow tickets and after dinner Mr. Wright took his guests to the theater, where they enjoyed the production of "The Yellow Ticket." After the theater the party spent an hour of dancing on the roof garden.

MR. AND MRS. S. S. PAXSON ENTERTAIN.

On Wednesday evening at the Country Club Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Paxson gave a dinner complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sweeney of San Francisco. The table center was most attractive with its brilliant arrangement of red, carnations and lace fern. The place cards were extremely pretty and harmonized beautifully with the rest of the table appointments. A quintet of Hawaiians furnished music during the dinner hour and also for dancing after dinner. The Sweeneys are very well known on the coast, where Mr. Sweeney has gained fame as a cartoonist.

Mr. and Mrs. Paxson's other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Shedy.

MRS. DAVID L. STONE ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON.

At her pretty Nuuanu home Mrs. David L. Stone entertained on Thursday with a farewell luncheon in honor of Mrs. Clyde B. Crusan of Scheffield Barracks, who, with her husband, will shortly leave Hawaii. The table with its handsome appointments of rock crystal and silver was exquisitely enhanced with a basket filled with pink gladiolas and fragrant pink sweet peas. The name cards were daintily painted heads. Cards and music made the afternoon hours go rapidly.

Mrs. Stone is a delightfully charming woman and her friends are always glad to be with her. Those who enjoyed her luncheon party were Mrs. Clyde B. Crusan, the guest of honor; Mrs. Edward C. Carey, Mrs. Thomas R. Lowe, Mrs. Harry E. Knight, Mrs. Jerome G. Pillow, Mrs. Douglas McCaskey, Mrs. Charles L. Willard, Mrs. Chalmers G. Hall, Mrs. George Kumpke, and Mrs. William S. Browning.

MRS. LOUIS E. DAVIS A HOSTESS.

Thursday Mrs. L. E. Davis was hostess at the second of her series of luncheons and a very delightful affair it was. Quantities of exquisite pink begonias and baby fern made the table a pretty picture. The name cards were bits of local effects. The time after luncheon was devoted to sewing and pleasant social chat.

Mrs. Davis is an attractive hostess and it was a real pleasure for Mrs. Frank E. Blake, Mrs. Fred Lyser, Mrs. Thomas Church, Mrs. Fred Bush, Mrs. J. L. Young, Mrs. George David and Mrs. Guy Gere to be her guests for the day.

MISS ROSIE HERBERT A COUNTRY CLUB HOSTESS.

Around a table made exquisite with silver baskets filled with dainty and fragrant pink sweet peas and pink shaded lighted candles; and with an unusual center piece made of clouds of three shades of pink tulle and lace fern, Miss Rosie Herbert entertained on Monday evening at the Country Club in honor of Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Durney of Maui. It was a delightful evening and the dinner was thoroughly enjoyed. After dinner Miss Herbert took her guests to the Roof Garden. Miss Herbert's guests were Dr. and Mrs. Charles P. Durney of Maui, Mrs. Edward D. Tenney, Mrs. John S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. George Collins, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Ruth Seper, Miss Dorothy Guild, Mr. Douglas Dawson, Mr. Grey Zabriskie, Mr. "Kit" Carson, Mr. "Kelly" Henshaw, Mr. Walter Argabrite and Mr. Coxhead.

MRS. F. J. LINDEMAN A HOSTESS.

On Wednesday Mrs. F. Lindeman was hostess at a very pretty luncheon. The table was attractive with a basket of spring blossoms and lace fern. Mrs. Lindeman's guests were Mrs. George David, Mrs. Phillip Frear, Mrs. Fred Lyser, Mrs. John J. Belsler, Mrs. St. C. Sayres, Mrs. George Angus, Mrs. Percy Morse, Madame Morse, Mrs. Samuel De Freat and Mrs. John Drew.

DR. AND MRS. FREDERICK MORONG'S INFORMAL PARTY.

Thursday evening Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Morong entertained a few friends at a very informal dance, after which refreshments were served. Their guests were Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Harriet Young, Miss Danford, Mr. Marshall, Miss Hazel Buckland, Mr. Ware Camp, Mr. John Macarday, Mr. Sidney Carr, Mr. Bristcan and Mr. Abel.

MRS. J. L. YOUNG A LUNCHEON HOSTESS.

On Wednesday at her pretty Manoa home Mrs. J. L. Young was hostess at a yellow and green luncheon, and very attractive indeed it was with its gaily nodding cornucopia and lace fern as appropriate floral decoration. The name cards were very pretty hand painted bits.

Mrs. Young is very delightful with a gracious personality and always the hospitable hostess. Bridge was the Henry and was married May 1 at St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD IVERS' CHOWDER.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers entertained at their delightful beach home at a chowder. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Cooper, Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, Lieut. and Mrs. R. H. Kimball and Maj. Matthew De Laney.

MRS. ALEXIS GIGNOUX A HOSTESS.

Mrs. Alexis Gignoux was hostess yesterday at a very charming luncheon. Covers were laid for 12 guests. After luncheon the hours were devoted to bridge.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY MACFARLANE'S DANCING PARTY.

At the Country Club last evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane entertained with a very handsome dancing party in honor of Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker, Mrs. Frederick Kohl and Mrs. Eugene Murphy, of San Francisco, who are here for a two months' visit, occupying the W. G. Irwin home on the beach at Waikiki. The Country Club, which lends itself so admirably to all social functions, was especially attractive last evening. The pillars are all covered with a vine that twines itself very naturally. Rustic baskets were attached, showing hundreds of Chinese asters ready to descend. Colored lanterns lent the festive air while quantities of green and white bamboo were artistically arranged. Under the central light a huge partly over-turned basket revealed Chinese asters and from this illusion was gracefully arranged.

The dance was unusually pretty. Mrs. Crocker, Mrs. Kohl and Mrs. Murphy naturally were the center of attraction. The evening was marked by the most gracious hospitality. Mr. and Mrs. Macfarlane are very popular with all. Mrs. Macfarlane being considered one of the most charming of Honolulu women. This is the first of an almost continuous social whirl for the visitors.

Miss Marion Zelle, who is one of the same set of San Francisco society women, is the guest of Mrs. Harold Dillingham, and many things are planned for her, too, so the visitors will not find the hours dragging while they are here. Mr. and Mrs. Macfarlane's guests were:

THE JUNE FANTASY.

Next week will see the presentation of the much-talked-of June Fantasy at the Opera House. It is to be a unique affair. A great deal of work and thought has been expended, and from the present outlook crowded houses will greet those taking part. Mrs. Edward M. Watson is chairman. Several society women of San Francisco who are here visiting will pose in living pictures. The list of the pictures and those posing assures tableaux of interest. Such pictures have been greatly in vogue both east and west this winter, yet it is the first time in years that the old world masters have been seen in the life.

Among those posing will be Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker, Mrs. Frederick Kohl and Mrs. Eugene Murphy of San Francisco; Mrs. Alexander Gilchrist Hawes, Mrs. Harold Castle, Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mrs. Harold Giffard, Miss Marion Zelle of San Francisco, and Miss Ramona Morgan.

Mrs. Harold Dillingham has charge of the living pictures and no trouble has been spared to have them correctly done. Mrs. Frederick Kohl will lend her perfect voice in song as will Prof. Joaquin Wanrell. The Evans brothers and Eaton Magoon will add a musical number. Last comes the

Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker of San Francisco, a Honolulu visitor for a few weeks. She will have a prominent part in the June Fantasy. Mrs. Crocker's costume below is the picturesque and extremely beautiful creation she wore as Queen of the Mardi Gras in San Francisco recently.

After the Bijou performance, Mr. Wright took his guests to the Rathskeller, where supper was served. On to the Roof Garden was the next move and here a delightful hour was spent. Mr. Wright's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Buchly, Mrs. D. M. Beall, Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Atkinson, Capt. and Mrs. Frederick H. Foucar and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Macintosh.

MR. AND MRS. R. G. MOORE'S CARD EVENING.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews were the honor guests at a bridge evening on Friday given by Mr. and Mrs. Randolph G. Moore. Twenty-five friends played and a charming evening was enjoyed.

THE DEUTSCHE FRAUEN VEREIN SOCIAL EVENING.

The second anniversary of the Deutsche Frauen Verein was held on Tuesday evening in the school room adjoining the German church. This society started two years ago with 29 members and now has 75 members, showing the lively interest taken. A very interesting talk was given by Pastor Schafhirt. A musical program was then rendered and greatly enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.

The officers for the year are: President, Mrs. J. J. Lecker; vice-president, Mrs. Carl du Roi; secretary, Mrs. Agnes Lempe; treasurer, Mrs. Louis Berndt.

MISS MARY LOW'S INFORMAL POI SUPPER.

Friday evening Miss Mary Low had a few friends in to enjoy Hawaiian delicacies at her beach home. The table was decorated in yellow corks and ferns. A dip in the ocean was a feature greatly enjoyed. Miss Low's guests were Mrs. Frank Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. Ernest Parker and Miss Rose Brown.

MAJ. FRANCIS E. LACEY'S DINNER.

Saturday evening Maj. Francis E. Lacey gave a dinner at Haleiwa hotel. Covers were laid for 40 guests. After dinner the guests enjoyed the dance that was on at the hotel.

MISS EDNA McDUFFIE AND MISS ADELINE SMITH'S DINNERS.

Saturday evening at Haleiwa Miss Edna McDuffie and Miss Smith were hostesses at a very pretty dinner. The table was decorated with pale pink hibiscus and lace fern. The hour after dinner was devoted to dancing and was greatly enjoyed. Miss McDuffie and Miss Smith's guests were Lieut. and Mrs. John N. Hauser, Miss Dorothy Martin, Miss Ruth Soper, Mrs. George Fuller, Mr. Bob McCriston and Dr. Smith of Schofield.

MR. AND MRS. ALEXANDER GILCHRIST HAWES' DINNER.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gilchrist Hawes entertained at dinner at their home on Pensacola street. The table was most attractive with its central adornment of pink roses, sweet peas and forget-me-nots. It was a delightful affair as all of Mrs. Hawes' parties are. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Betty Case, Mr. C. L. W. Pflueger and Capt. John Johnson. After dinner the Haweses took their guests to the Country Club to enjoy the Macfarlane dance in honor of Mrs. Templeton Crocker.

DINNER AT PEARL HARBOR.

The public works officer of the naval station, Pearl Harbor, and Mrs. Parks entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of Gen. and Mrs. Wissner, U. S. A., who leave soon for the mainland.

The other guests were Admiral and Mrs. Boush, U. S. N.; Col. Rafferty, U. S. A.; Lieut. Kimball, aide to Gen. Wissner, and Mrs. Kimball, Miss Mattie Gray Morris, Miss Isabel Frear and Civil Engineer Norman Smith, U. S. N.

CAPT. AND MRS. GIENY ENTERTAIN.

Capt. and Mrs. Daniel H. Giény had dinner at their home, Schofield Barracks, last Wednesday, the 24th, for Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Daly, Lieut. Fred Pitts, Mrs. Ellen Jordan, Mrs. Wood of Honolulu, Chaplain Fesly, Capt. Richard M. Thomas and Capt. and Mrs. Giény.

MISS EDNA McDUFFIE AND MISS SMITH ENTERTAIN.

Last Saturday evening Miss Edna McDuffie and Miss Smith, who are visitors here, gave a swim and supper at Haleiwa. After a pleasant swim supper was served on the beach. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rogers, Miss Ruth Soper, Lieut. Oswald H. Saunders, Lieut. Wallace Philoon and Dr. Jay D. Whitham.

MR. AND MRS. JACK LONDON'S LUNCH AND SWIM.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Jack London had as luncheon guests Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton P. Agee, Miss Florence Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Rodrick O. Matheson, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sweeney, Mr. Alexander H. Ford and Mr. John K. Bulger, U. S. Supervisor of Steamboat Inspection, of San Francisco. The table was gracefully strewn with African daisies, maiden-hair fern and tulle. Some time after luncheon was spent in the ocean, all having a thoroughly happy day. Mr. Sweeney is the noted newspaper cartoonist who has recently come for a visit.

MRS. REYNOLD MCGREW ENTERTAINS.

As a farewell to Mrs. Paul Withington, Mrs. R. B. McGrew asked a company of friends in to do honor to this popular and much-feted visitor. The table was made to represent a Japanese garden, done in miniature. The name cards were of old ivory tint with an embossed monogram. Covers were laid for 12 guests.

MR. AND MRS. R. W. ATKINSON'S DINNER.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Atkinson entertained at a charmingly appointed dinner. The table was decorated with flaming crimson gladioli artistically arranged in a tall silver vase. Candelabra with pierced silver shades, with a bit of red showing through, made the table very lovely. Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson and their guests attended the Macfarlane dance after dinner.

The guests were Mrs. Julia A. Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mrs. Alice Schultz, Mr. Alan Lowrey and Mr. Charles Herbert.

Mrs. D. M. Beall, daughter of Commodore Dennis H. Mahan (retired), now a resident of Honolulu and socially active.

CAPT. AND MRS. JACK HAYES' CARD EVENING.

Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes entertained Monday evening with a four-table bridge party. The house was beautifully decorated with golden corks and asparagus fern. Mrs. W. P. Kendall won the first prize, a half-dozen Madeira handkerchiefs; the second went to Mme. Bongardae and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln.

while Col. Kendall was given the gentleman's gift, a very handsome framed picture. Capt. and Mrs. Hayes' guests were Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Jordan, Lieut. and Mrs. James Gallogly, Col. and Mrs. William P. Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Rendon Hind, Maj. and Mrs. Charles Rangan, Col. and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln and Mme. Bongardae.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED IN A NOVEL WAY.

An afternoon shower party this week for a bride-elect was turned into a double event of unique appropriateness when Miss Ruth Richards was hostess at a shower party on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Laura Atherton, whose wedding takes place in a short time, was the honor guest. To those invited to honor her and to spend a happily informal afternoon there was announced the engagement of Miss Richards herself to Mr. Frank E. Midkiff.

The affair took the form of a hostess party. A basket was brought to the bride-elect, Miss Atherton, and she was asked to remove its contents, which she did. At the very bottom lay a tiny box and a small suspicious envelope. On opening the box a scroll was exposed to view and on opening the envelope the betrothal of Miss Ruth Richards to Mr. Frank E. Midkiff was announced.

The thought had been whispered about this such an announcement might possibly be made, yet by many friends it was not expected to be given when it was.

The house was on Wednesday afternoon abloom with pink roses, pink gladioli and pink sweet peas, a charming setting for one of the most interesting betrothal announcements of the year.

Miss Theodore Richards, mother of Miss Richards, was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Frank C. Atherton.

Miss Richards has been home from college a year. She is one of the best female tennis players in the islands, and has versatile talents.

The wedding date has not been announced but in all probability this will be a winter wedding.

The young folks invited to do honor to Miss Laura Atherton by Miss Richards were Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Pearl Sutherland, Miss May Sutherland, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Lucy Campbell, Miss Ramona Marks, Miss Ruth McCarthy, Miss Helen McLean, Miss Lillian Morgan, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Marie Bullentyne, Miss Mary Schuman, Miss Pauline Schuster, Mrs. Stanley McKeanie, Mrs. Percy Nott, Mrs. Jack Young, Mrs. Jack Clark, Mrs. Alfred W. Eames, Mrs. Theodore Cooke, Mrs. Edward Loomis, Mrs. Cyril Hoogs, Mrs. L. Hooper, Mrs. Norma Adams, Mrs. John Fleming and Mrs. Harry Irwin.

Miss Richards is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Richards and one of Honolulu's most charming and popular girls. Mr. Midkiff is a member of the Punahou faculty, with which he has been connected for some years. He is a graduate of Colgate University, where he made not only a fine scholastic record but was a prominent athlete. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and has a wide circle of friends here.

JUSTICE AND MRS. EDWARD M. WATSON'S DINNER.

Mr. Hugh Halston was the guest of honor at a dinner given on Friday evening by Justice and Mrs. Edward M. Watson at their home. The table was extremely attractive, with a central decoration of a gilded basket artistically filled with pink gladioli and snowy white chrysanthemums. The name cards were very pretty being bits of local coloring. Pink shaded silver candles were used. The hour after dinner was devoted to bridge.

Mrs. Halston is a visitor here, a decidedly charming southern woman she plans to remain until the middle of July with her son, Mr. Cornell Franklin.

Justice and Mrs. Watson's guests were Mrs. Hugh Halston, Captain and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton P. Agee, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Buchly, Miss Florence Butler, Mr. Bob Scott and Mr. Cornell Franklin.

MR. AND MRS. JACK LONDON ENTERTAIN.

Today Mr. and Mrs. Jack London are having a luncheon and a swim with several guests. The table was decorated with a basket filled with pink gladioli and pink begonias and lace fern. The Londons leave Honolulu in two months, to the keen regret of a large circle of friends.

Their guests for today are Col. and Mrs. Charles Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lytell, Brig.-gen. and Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson, N. G. H., Miss Mary Lee, Mr. C. D. Wright, Mrs. Mabel Gibson and Mr. Cykler.

MR. AND MRS. GIDEON McD. VAN POOLE'S DINNER.

Thursday evening at their Lunalilo street home Mr. and Mrs. Van Poole gave a very pretty dinner. The table was most attractive with its golden brown basket filled with cressopsis and lace fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Poole's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Raymond, Col. and Mrs. James B. Howell, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes and Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Plisterer.

MRS. JACK HAYES A LUNCHEON HOSTESS.

One of the most elaborate luncheons given in Honolulu for some time was that on Thursday by Mrs. Jack Hayes in honor of Mrs. John P. Wiser. It was a pink affair and carried out in detail. The effect was charming. A canopy with slender rods formed a high arch over the table, gracefully arranged with pink begonias and sweet peas. Artistic bows of tulle and miline lent themselves gracefully to the design. In the table center was a gilt basket filled with pink and white blooms and the handle was tied with pink mallow. Four smaller baskets graced the table. Silver candlesticks with pink silken shades were most artistic. The whole dining room was a pink garden and the hostess was showered with compliments for the pretty picture her home presented. The table was covered with a hand-some white cluny lace cloth, beautifully embroidered in pink chrysanthemums and sprays of lace fern added a cool touch of green.

Miss Hazel Buckland, whose esthetic dancing in the coming June festival will be a special feature.

Dainty Japanese maids dressed in pink silk kimonos were on the place cards.

The time after luncheon was devoted to bridge.

Mrs. Hayes is one of the most popular of the service women and this affair fully maintained a reputation for hospitality.

The friends who enjoyed Mrs. Hayes' hospitality were Mrs. John P. Wiser, the guest of honor; Mrs. William P. Kendall, Mrs. James B. Howell, Mrs. Edwar Pussell, Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Mrs. James A. Gallogly, Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Mrs. Frederick Plisterer, Mrs. Edward Dekum and Mrs. A. W. T. Bottomley.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD TENNEY'S DINNER.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney entertained at a very handsomely appointed dinner. The table was exquisite with its lovely sprays of orchids, daintily arranged in large and small silver baskets. They were beautiful specimens of purple and lavender.

The Tenneys' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. John S. Walker and Mr. Gray Zabriskie.

MR. AND MRS. FAXON BISHOP'S OUTING.

Last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Faxon Bishop took a party of friends to the Holloway place at Kahala-wai for a day in the country. A very pleasant day was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Bishop's guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Klebahn, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodiek, Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacFarlane, Mrs. Sperry, Mrs. Katherine Bodero, Mrs. Senni, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mrs. Alice MacFarlane, Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, Mr. H. H. Walker and Mr. Vivian Dyer.

MR. AND MRS. BERT LYTELL ENTERTAIN.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lytell invited Captain and Mrs. C. W. Van Way, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Unzer, Lieut. and Mrs. F. A. Sloan, of Shafter; Captain and Mrs. Joseph Janda, Miss Jane Darwell, Mr. Phillips Tead and Mr. Alexis Luce to be their guests, part of the friends for the play and all later at Heine's Tavern, where around a table made most attractive with a center piece of pink roses and lace fern, the jolly party gathered. Dancing was enjoyed afterwards.

Ralph C. Holliday, Lieut. and Mrs. Douglas T. Greene, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Lieut. Albert Lyman, Lieut. Charles Lyman, Major William W. Keel, Dr. Harry DeBer, Lieut. Arthur T. Dalton, Dr. Oscar Skelton, Miss Catherine Lemann, Miss Dorothy Barker, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Lieut. Adrian Polhemus, Mr. Camp and Mr. Ware Camp.

MRS. GUY GERE A LUNCHEON HOSTESS.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Guy Gere entertained at a charmingly appointed luncheon. Covers were laid for eight guests. Bridge was played after luncheon.

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE SMART SET.

Captain and Mrs. Edward Carpenter have invited a company of friends to chowder and swim in honor of Mrs. C. Templeton Crocker. Mrs. Frederick Kohl and Mrs. Eugene Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ranney Scott have invited a few friends for luncheon on Sunday at their Manoa home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick MacFarlane have invited friends to dine with them Monday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell and Miss Helen Kimball leave for the volcano today for a two weeks' trip. The activity of the crater at Kilauea and Manna Loa's flow call them to witness the unusual display.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Spalding leave shortly for a month at the Volcano House, where they will be joined by their daughter, Mrs. Howard Body.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drew gave a dinner on Tuesday evening of this week.

Mrs. Jack Guard is entertaining on Wednesday of next week for Miss Laura Atherton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson and little Ellen Tree Williamson have gone to the island of Hawaii for a month's vacation trip.

Miss McCue, a sister of Mrs. Charles Ragan of Fort Rucker, is visiting Mrs. Robert H. Danner of Schofield Barracks.

Mrs. Frank C. Atherton has a company of friends invited for next week in honor of Miss Laura Atherton.

Mrs. John Fleming is entertaining next week in honor of Miss Laura Atherton, who is to be Mr. James F. Merzan's bride on the 8th of June.

Miss Letitia Morgan is entertaining on Wednesday next in honor of Miss Laura Atherton, who is to be a June bride.

Miss Dorothy Guild has asked a company of friends in for next Friday to do honor to Miss Laura Atherton.

Mrs. Paul Withington, who has been in Honolulu for the past four months, was a departing passenger on the Wednesday steamer. Mrs. Withington has been extensively entertained during her visit home, her friends all being anxious to extend the usual Hawaiian "aloha."

Dr. Paul Withington is to coach the football team of the University of Wisconsin this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Damon have moved to the Dr. Holets home at Kahala-wai for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacFarlane and Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton are in the John Gould home at Kahala-wai for a month.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams have asked a few friends for dinner on the 8th of June. At 7 o'clock a large company will come and enjoy the Chinese play that Mrs. Adams has arranged for the pleasure of their guests. This party is in honor of Mrs. Templeton Crocker, Mrs. Eugene Murphy and Mrs. Frederick Kohl.

Mrs. J. E. C. Hagens was hostess of a pot luncheon on Monday of this week at her charming Peninsula home.

An Extract From America's Foremost Dry Goods Journal In Regard To Sport Garments

This Is Authentic Fashion News

Never before have sport garments been so prominent. All classes of women are wearing them, not only on athletic fields, golf links, tennis courts and in the country generally, but also on city streets, in restaurants and at theater matinees. Thus sport clothes have assumed a richness and an elaborateness never before apparent. They will be especially good at seaside and mountain resorts during the coming summer.

For high class sport clothes silk jersey and wool jersey are indicated. Combinations of plain colored jersey with a jersey having the same color in the stripe are excellent, and so, too, are plain and striped pongee and beach cloths in similar color combinations. Checks and plaids are also accepted.

All sorts of combinations have taken hold of the public fancy; plain skirts with striped jacket or blouse, or the reverse; plain skirt and blouse with bands of contrasting plain materials; white skirt with colored Russian blouse, or colored jacket trimmed with white.

So strongly has the sport idea won adoption that dresses of such materials as linen, voile, taffeta and plain satin are made with sport features, including the Russian blouse, large patch pockets, flat collars with tie finish and deep cuffs.

The wearing of smocks is also very pronounced, the making of which comes within the scope of even the most amateur seamstress.

MILLS COLLEGE ANNIVERSARY.

The 50th anniversary of Mills College, Oakland, Cal., was celebrated by the Mills Club of Honolulu last Thursday. This club is a representative of the educational institution. In it are women who knew Dr. and Mrs. Mills at Punahou and who attended Mills seminary and later Mills College in California. It is no longer a seminary but is absolutely a college.

The home of Mrs. A. J. Campbell was turned into a miniature theater; the stage represented a glade in the woodlands of Hawaii. Tall palms and ferns lining the walls, the towers of the wood, the glorious white and gold lines—Mills College colors. The rays of sunlight were represented by banners of white and gold tulle radiating from the central light. The whole effect was most beautiful. The hall had been transformed into a shaded woodland and there beneath the palms and ferns were placed the tables, where delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. J. Campbell is noted for her artistic decorations and certainly her home warranted the highest praise.

Mrs. C. H. Kluegel, president of the Mills Club of Honolulu, welcomed the guests, her speech sounding the keynote, many recognizing the message from Mrs. Mills as spoken by Mrs. Kluegel and if it were possible one might have heard these words repeated the president of this club: "Well done, Mrs. Campbell."

During the program all enjoyed the musical part of the program. Mrs. Furer has gone a long way on the road of music. Her understanding and touch were those of an artist and in the piano she gave much pleasure to her friends as they listened to her interpretation of one of the master's songs.

Miss Fairweather, another of Honolulu's talented women, added to the pleasure of the afternoon. Certainly Honolulu is well represented in the world of art; such artists as Mrs. Furer and Miss Fairweather are to be commended. Miss Fairweather understands the piano, then Miss Fairweather understands how to hold her audience with her power of song.

Later in the afternoon Miss Alice Doughty, a Mills seminary graduate, gave of her talent. She has won admission in the music world. Mills Club appreciates the fact that she could be with them on this anniversary, and as memories came they seemed to enrich, if possible, the tone and richness of her voice as she sang her message to the alumnae.

The address of the afternoon was given by Miss Helen W. Kimball of Oakland. She spoke of "The Historical Growth of the Tree." She said in speaking of history one not only thinks of the development of events but of the individuals that have led the way up through the days, weeks, months and years to the present time. All life is a development, an unfolding of that which is.

She compared the growth of the college to a tree, developing upward in the sunshine and air, sending its roots downward and outward into the fundamental foundations of life's soil. "As the gardener prunes away the broken and barren branches, so time, the gardener of life, prunes the broken branches, the mistaken ideas. We do not see the severed branch but the perfect tree filled with the power of possibilities.

"Today we look upon the tree of education as it is, as it was in the seed 50 years ago. Whence came this seed? What caused it to grow?"

"Then she traced the influence that was felt by Dr. and Mrs. Mills in their own eastern homes; during college days; their teaching in India. Their purpose to aid humanity, but in giving they were receiving the love of humanity and the far-seeing sight of possibilities.

The next development was here in Hawaii; this reference to the close connection of Mills College and Punahou and she asked the question, "Why does Punahou prepare for a college that has been so vitally influenced by itself? For the third development is to be found in your school.

"It was here that Dr. and Mrs. Mills dwelt, drank in and absorbed the wonders of this land, influencing the life of the tree which they were to plant. "No one can flee the sun as it appears above the horizon, your ever-changing shadows on mountain cliffs and slopes, caused partly by the drifting clouds, the green of your verdure, the beauty of your sea, the coloring of the sun as it sinks only to shine on another land, your night sky with its stars and golden moon; and then your people, the people of a golden legend—Mary lore—no one can drink in this truth of nature without bringing to themselves the golden thoughts of the Universe.

"Dr. and Mrs. Mills were preparing for their life work. The seed was planted at Benicia, California; there it sprang into the visible world, then transplanted to its present location, where it has grown into the tree. The heart, the spirit of its founders, the sapwood, the educational institution, through which flows the great streams of knowledge and as it nourishes the tree we observe the growth and each year the blossoms—the graduation class."

Then the speaker painted a glowing picture of the future with Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt as President—"One who will prune and graft, and nourish our tree until it grows into the great western college for women. May she become part of the heart, inspiring the future growth, and each year may your foot, branch, leaf and blossom give to the world a better womanhood, a finer motherhood."

"Each year the unfolding of the plant that lay concealed in the seed, taking and giving to the Universal World."

In the recitation, "When I was a Girl at Mills," written by Mrs. Fanny Rice Carpenter of New York and rendered by Mrs. A. J. Campbell, the keynote sounded again. Mrs. Campbell's art of recitation has been known but her histrionic ability was a surprise to her Miss Ruly I. Galett of San Francisco, visiting with Capt. and Mrs. C. J. Campbell of Honolulu.

Friends. As the last stanza was given a figure appeared through the woods an East Indian woman, and to the question of Mrs. Campbell "Who are you?" she replied, "I am India." She spoke of her country as "unknown and misunderstood," but that she had come to pay tribute to the memory of Dr. and Mrs. Mills who had done much for her people.

As she leaves she says, "Now I return lack to my own country there to watch and wait a great good to all humanity."

Hawaii next appeared, dressed in a tapa costume (all the costumes were designed by Miss Frazier), and to the question "Who are you?" replies, "It is well that you ask who I may be, for times have changed and I hardly know myself. I was and I am Hawaii. My spirit still lives in the mountains and in the valleys; on the land and in the sea; in the waterfalls that leap downward, in the streams that rush upward, in the pools and their reflected leaty; in the trees and in the flowers; in the rainbows that span the sky and kiss the earth.

"The spirit of dawn, noonday and eventide; the spirit of starlight and moonlight.

"My songs I sing in the heart of nature; listen, can you not hear them in the song of the bird, the swish of the sea and the sounds of the shore. I am the spirit of my people."

Again in the conversation between Hawaii and the hostess was featured the work of Dr. and Mrs. Mills at Punahou during which Hawaii claims to have given to California.

Next California, dressed in a flowing white robe, crown of gold upon her head and carrying a bunch of California peonies, demands what Hawaii has given to California. "The proudest of the United States, the land of sunshine and flowers, the land of golden opportunities. We came from the eastern shores of America, not from the islands of the Pacific."

Hawaii conquers California by her courtesy and again the author speaks of the islands, calling them the islands of peace and tranquility.

California is followed by two of her children, they are the Mills girls—seminary and college. Seminary days are about to vanish, for college days come, but no, the author has college days admit the truth. From India, from Hawaii, from seminary days, has arisen the cause of our existence. You the cause, we the results, and always we will go down life's path together. Out on the campus, in the halls, there she will find her sister of yesterday helping to mount one more rung in the ladder of success. Building more perfect the master mountain and knowledge to the memory of their alma mater, father and mother.

California, secretary and college days return home, and the last thought in this little playlet is spoken by Hawaii as she leads the hostess into the heart of her country. "Come to my courts with me, into the heart of nature; away from the haunts of men; listen to my songs and my words of wisdom."

The characters were well sustained. Mrs. Willie Campbell made a beautiful Hindu woman, and in her interpretation of character, one might say truly she was of that land.

Miss Frazier assumed, although a college graduate, the part of the Seminary girl with all the attractions of the under-graduate. Miss Frazier is talented in many ways; she designed and painted the costumes and helped the author to produce the playlet as it should be presented.

Miss Kimball said, "Please take the playlet as a bit of sentiment not as a literary production. It has given me the opportunity to add my voice to the praise of alma mater, it also gave me the opportunity to give voice to my admiration of your land. 'The Islands of the Pacific.'"

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star Bulletin Correspondence) FT. SHAFTER, May 27.—Lieutenant and Mrs. John B. Richardson entertained informally at supper last Sunday evening at their home in the cantonment.

Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum spent the past weekend as the house guest of Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Woodfin G. Jones entertained informally at dinner in their home in the cantonment last Saturday evening for Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Miss Dorothy Harker, Lieutenant W. E. R. Cavell and Dr. H. M. DeBer.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Thomas J. Camp spent the past weekend camping near Haleiwa, returning to the post Sunday evening.

A delightful picnic was enjoyed by quite a few from the post last Saturday. The party left the post in the morning, motored out to Haleiwa, and after a delightful swim had luncheon on the beach near where the company of engineers under the command of Lieutenant P. R. Reinicke is in camp, returning to Shafter the latter part of the afternoon. Among those who enjoyed this delightful day were: Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Pearson, Lieutenant and Mrs. H. C. K. Muhlenberg, Lieutenant and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. John C. Grady, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Ralph Holliday, Lieutenant and Mrs. Edwin W. Kimmell, Lieutenant and Mrs. Thomas J. Camp, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Lieutenant and Mrs. Theodore Martin, and Captain Smith.

Captain and Mrs. James E. Bell were host and hostess for the Monday Evening Card Club last Monday evening and Mrs. Lloyd Fredendall having the highest score won the prize, which was a most attractive Chinese sewing basket. There were four tables of bridge and among those playing cards were: Mrs. Daniel L. Howell, Mrs. F. F. Black, Colonel and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Mrs. Wittzell, Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Mrs. Thomas J. Harker, Mrs. Ralph Holliday, Madame Fredendall, Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall, Captain and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Madame Cochran, Lieutenant and Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham, and Captain and Mrs. James E. Bell.

Mrs. Paul B. Malone and the Misses Kerwin, who made the trip to Hilo last week, returned to the post on Tuesday morning after a most delightful weekend and most enthusiastic over the wonders of the volcano. Captain Paul B. Malone did not return with his family but had his leave extended that he might take advantage of the opportunity to visit Mauna Loa.

KILL COCKROACHES

Easy Matter to Exterminate These Fiftly Pests.

Even a feeble imagination can think of the germs the cockroach must bring as it crawls around the kitchen and pantry, contaminating and spoiling food. Now is the time to kill off the cockroaches and free your home from the repulsive insects. A dozen cockroaches killed now is better than killing hundreds later.

A two-ounce box of Stearns Electric Paste, which you can get for 25 cents from any drugist, will rid your home of cockroaches or water bugs. It is much better than powder, as it can not blow away and get into the food. Easy to use and an absolute exterminator. Directions in 15 languages in every package.—Adv.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, May 26.
—This week the entertaining in the garrison has been chiefly for those who are to sail for the home land on the transport in June. Capt. and Mrs. John Fair of the 4th Cavalry have been the recipients of many graceful social courtesies, their many friends of Schofield wishing to make their last days in the post ones to be remembered pleasantly. On Tuesday evening Lieut. and Mrs. Leonard Prunty of the 4th Cavalry were dinner hosts, entertaining in honor of Captain and Mrs. John Fair, later taking their guests to the hop in the 1st Infantry pavilion. Pink was chosen by the hostess to be the color note of the table, which was appointed very attractively and set with covers for eight. A low bowl of rose tinted candelabra shades lent a gracious aspect to the affair, their pink tint being also present in the shaded candles and in the dainty cards which marked the places. These present were Col. and Mrs. John Guilfoyle, Maj. Ralph Harrison, Capt. and Mrs. John Fair, Maj. Walter Short and Lieut. and Mrs. Leonard Prunty.

Sylvia Strain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truxton Strain of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Strain and her daughter are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dekum.

On Wednesday evening before the hop in the Mounted Service Club a very enjoyable supper was given by Lieut. and Mrs. Williams Swift Martin of the 4th Cavalry in honor of Capt. and Mrs. John Fair. The color scheme of this affair was yellow, which was carried out in the fragrant coveis of the centerpiece and in the dainty candelabra shades. Covers were placed at several tables for Captain and Mrs. Fair, Col. and Mrs. John Guilfoyle, Col. and Mrs. William W. Forsyth, Col. S. D. Sturgis, Col. and Mrs. Frank Keefer, Maj. Hedekin, Capt. and Mrs. J. P. Barney, Capt. and Mrs. William Browning, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Post, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Lieut. and Mrs. John Herr and Lieut. and Mrs. Martin.

Lieut. and Mrs. Roland Gaugler were hosts at supper on Wednesday evening, their party later attending the hop. A number of tables were placed through the living rooms and on the porch, each pretty in their white and pink decorations. Bowls of tall candelabra shades of the lovely pink and white varieties combined with long fern fronds made effective central motifs, while the shades on the candle sticks and the dainty flowered cards which marked each place showed the pink tones. The guests on this occasion were Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Miss Hazel Haynes, Capt. and Mrs. John Boniface, Maj. William Guignard, Col. John McMahon, Dr. and Mrs. Warren Torrance, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vandever, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph Daly, Mrs. Henry Lantry, Dr. and Mrs. George Callender, Lieuts. Eugene Lohman, Raymond McQuillan and George Gay.

Mrs. John Fair was the honored guest at the bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Frank Keefer on Thursday. The guests were invited for 10 o'clock in the morning and enjoyed a number of rubbers of pivot auction before the luncheon hour. At one table Mrs. John Guilfoyle was the winner of the high score and the prize, which proved to be a dainty bit of fingerie. Mrs. Fred Pick, of the other table, was the lucky winner of the attractive non-dour cap of lace and silk. Mrs. Fair was given a pretty luncheon set of the tinted Japanese tissue as guest prize. The round table where the luncheon was served was garnished with a lovely scheme of pink, three bowls holding the fragrant pink sweet peas in the centerpiece, while pink shaded candles and dainty pink satin baskets for the nuts carried out the color note. The covers were marked with flower cards and those present were Mesdames John Guilfoyle, John Fair, Allen Smith, Clarence Day, Walter Short, Fred Pick, Pelham Glassford and the hostess.

Last Saturday evening at the Haleiwa hotel Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Daly of the 1st Field Artillery entertained with a very attractive dinner for 25 guests, all of whom were officers and ladies of Schofield Barracks. Three tables were placed on the cool lanai, each having for decorations the lovely red double hibiscus blossoms with their glossy garb green foliage forming an effective background on the white cloth. The guests included Col. S. D. Sturgis, Col. John McMahon, the Misses Carrie and Esther McMahon, Col. and Mrs. Frank Keefer, Maj. William Guignard, Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Capt. and Mrs. John Boniface, Capt. and Mrs. Clyde Crusan, Capt. and Mrs. Henry Kilbourne, Capt. and Mrs. Pelham Glassford, Lieut. and Mrs. William McCleave, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vandever, Dr. and Mrs. Warren Torrance, Lieut. and Mrs. Karl Truesdell, Mrs. Ellen Jordan, Capt. Charles Ferris, Chaplain Fealy, Mrs. Henry Lantry, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph Daly and Lieuts. Bertram Frankenger, Clift Andrus and Frederick Stewart.

On the same evening Major and Mrs. Francis Lacey of the 1st Infantry gave a dinner at the Haleiwa Hotel. The scene of this affair was the dining room of the hotel, which was decorated beautifully with tall palms and hanging baskets of vines and flowers. Red gladioli in tall baskets made lovely table decorations, with the place cards and many shaded candelabra carrying out the brilliant color note of the flowers. The guests included Col. and Mrs. Henry C. Hodges, Miss Evelyn Hodges, Col. and Mrs. George G. Bailey, Miss Stella Lacey, Major and Mrs. Lewis Soley, Captain and Mrs. George Kump, Captain and Mrs. Edward Carey, Lt. and Mrs. John D. Burnett, Lt. and Mrs. Swift Martin, Lt. and Mrs. Elvid Hunt, Major and Mrs. Guy Palmer, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Mrs. Crandall, Miss Lacey, Major Ralph Harrison, Lt. and Mrs. Gustav Ganser, Lt. and Mrs. Fred Pitts, Miss Della Wilson, and Lt. Frank Schell, also James Uilo, John Smith, John Williams, Robert Snow, and William McCleave.

On Thursday morning the Reading and Current Events Club met with Mrs. Clarence R. Day. Mrs. Day read a number of interesting articles of current topics, and in addition plans were discussed relative to the organizing of a class among the ladies of the post for the purpose of taking the Red Cross course of first aid and hygiene.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Clyde B. Crusan was the guest of honor at the bridge luncheon given by Mrs. David Stone at her home in Nuuanu valley. Captain and Mrs. Crusan are also among those who are to leave us so soon, and will be greatly missed by the garrison. Mrs. Stone's charming affair was one to be remembered. The decorations of the round table were very lovely, a basket filled with pink gladioli and ferns made the centerpiece, while grouped around the basket resting on the cloth were twelve corsage bouquets of pink sweet peas, maidenhair ferns and gardenias disposed so that their stems pointed toward each cover. Present were Mesdames Clyde Crusan, Charles Willard, Jerome Pillow, George Kump, William Browning, George G. Bailey, Thomas Lowe, Douglas McCaskey, Chalmers Hall, Edward Carey and David Stone.

Mrs. Neal Wood, who has been the house-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Pitts for a few days this week, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Major and Mrs. E. H. Harnett on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Edward Carey on Wednesday gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Evelyn Hodges, daughter of Colonel Henry C. Hodges of the 1st Infantry, and in farewell to Mrs. Clyde Crusan.

The guests included the Misses Carrie and Esther McMahon, Dorothy Forsyth, Evelyn Hodges and Hortense Short, Mesdames Harry Knight, Jerome Pillow, Thomas Lowe, Robert Sears, Walter Pridgeon and Clyde Crusan. The centerpiece of the attractive table was a basket of pink sweet peas and gardenias, the same flowers being combined into dainty corsage bouquets found at each cover.

Mrs. Clyde Crusan and Mrs. John Fair will be the guests of honor at the bridge tea to be given on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Henry Lantry and Mrs. Joseph O. Daly. The affair will take place in the rooms of the Mounted Service Club, and will have a great many of the ladies of the garrison as guests.

Mrs. Willis Wood and Miss Ada Lee Wood were the overnight guests of Mrs. Joseph Daly and Mrs. Henry Lantry on Thursday, for whom they entertained at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Wood are passengers on the Tenyo Maru, returning to the coast after an extended trip through the Orient. Those present at the dinner were Mrs. and Miss Wood, Major William S. Guignard, Lieuts. Ballard Lyerly and Clift Andrus, Mrs. Lantry and Lieut. and Mrs. Daly.

Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Burnett will entertain with a dinner at Haleiwa on Saturday night, the occasion being Mrs. Burnett's birthday.

On Thursday Captain and Mrs. Paul McCook entertained with a dinner of eight covers. Deep purple asters in a cluster arrangement filled a tall basket as centerpiece for the pretty table, around which covers were placed for Captain and Mrs. J. P. Barney, Lt. and Mrs. John D. Burnett, Lt. and Mrs. Charles Rich and the hosts.

Lt. and Mrs. Walter Pridgeon gave a dinner on Tuesday before the 1st Infantry hop when they entertained for Lt. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Lt. and Mrs. Charles Daly, Lt. Charles Bankhead, and Lt. and Mrs. Byard Sneed. A profusion of yellow daisies ornamented the center of the table.

On Friday before the hop in the "25th" Club, Lt. and Mrs. Richard Taylor gave a delightful hop supper for twenty. A lovely and unusual color scheme was used at this affair, the appointments being carried out in several shades of violet, the dainty flowers forming the centerpiece for each table, with the candle shades reflecting their tints. The guests were General and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Col. and Mrs. Samson Lane Paison, Major and Mrs. Guy Palmer, Major and Mrs. Frank H. Albright, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Lt. and Mrs. Robert Harbold, Lt. and Mrs. Donald Hay, Lt. and Mrs. Barrett Glover, Lt. and Mrs. William E. Shedd, and Lt. Wallace Philon.

Mrs. Karl Truesdell gave an attractive bridge tea on Thursday afternoon entertaining for twenty ladies of the Garrison, including Mesdames Charles Daly, Albert White, Raymond Bliss, Richard Taylor, Charles Wyman, Warren Torrance, William Shedd, Samuel P. Lyon, Ellen Jordan, Madame McCleave, Ely Denson, Frank Halstead, Clarence Tinker, Donald Hay, American Mitchell, John Corby, Thomas Schley, Frank Albright, James Chaney, John Waring, and Mrs. Brown and Miss Lee from Honolulu. The prizes were dainty little work bags made of Dresden ribbon in delicate colors, and they were won by Mesdames Mitchell, White, Denson, and Bliss.

NO. 2 OF HONOLULU'S LITTLE MEN AND WOMEN OF A DECADE OR SO AGO—WHO ARE THEY?

Here's a children's party in Honolulu something over a decade ago. The babies in this group are now grown-up and in society. Recently a group of the "old-time youngsters" aroused much speculation as to identity. What about these?

Music and Stunts Tonight by Glee Club of Kamehameha

Above are shown Messrs. W. De La Nux, J. Smythe, G. Crabbe and V. Kane, members of the "Pirate Quartet from the South Seas," who will perform tonight in the concert to be given at the Kamehameha schools by the schools' glee clubs. An elaborate program is prepared and everything is ready for one of the most pleasing entertainments ever given at the Kamehameha schools. The boys' glee club has surprised those who have it in charge by getting into such fine singing trim at the last minute, for during the year the club has not been up to the standard of last year. However, by extra hard work the rough edges have been worn off, until now the club of 1915 is as good, if not better, than any other similar organization that has represented Kamehameha during the last four years. They sing with "pop," rhythm and harmony that is catchy and entertaining, and in their new medley they have a combination of old and new songs that probably will make this the most popular number on the program. The concert is to be given tonight under the trees at the Kamehameha Girls' school and the proceeds are to go to the athletic association of the boys' school. The program: Boy's Glee Club. "Soldiers' Chorus" (from Faust).....Gounod "The Rosary".....Nevin "Mamma's L'il Pigeon".....Pearl "The Cossack".....McDowell 1916 Medley—Original. Piano Solo. "Polonaise Triomphale".....Primo Miss Edith C. Gattfield. Quartet. "Four Pirates from the South Seas." Messrs. Kane, Crabbe, De La Nux and Smythe. "Prep" Stunts. "Tinkers' Song".....De Koven "Newboys' Chorus".....Prinegar (Words by Mrs. F. D. Day.) Boys' Chorus. "Hawaiian Hymn".....Newcomb "Kaahumanu".....Beamer Girls' Chorus. Ballet from "The Garden of Japan".....Wareing "Shooby Shoo".....Mayhew "Kamehameha School Songs" by all. The program is under direction of G. A. Andrus, Miss Gertrude M. Knowles and Miss Frances Lemon.

POLITICAL BOSS FINELY PLAYED

All good things must come to an end and as a consequence "The Reform Candidate," featuring Maclyn Arbuckle, closes at the Liberty theater tonight after a most successful run. Arbuckle is one of the strong magnets in the photo-drama and is easily in the class of "leading stars" of the Paramount picture service. Also, Arbuckle is a Pallas Pictures star and Pallas appears to have corralled a goodly number of splendid artists and to be willing to use them liberally. While Arbuckle is the feature star in "The Reform Candidate" he is surrounded by a number of Pallas stars that make the offering come within that greatly abused term, an "all star" cast. The story of "The Reform Candidate" is based on the political situation in a small town. "The Boss," that's Arbuckle, is in command and has held the reins for a number of years. An ambitious neighbor envies this leadership and decides to fight for it. He therefore becomes a "reformer" and candidate for mayor. There is a deep laid plot to defeat the boss and in the unwinding of the plot much of the inner working of political life is brought to light. There is also a love story entwined within the political fight and it is through this love episode that order is restored and everyone ends on the most friendly terms. It is a lever and refreshing picture.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

ETHEL KAUFFMAN IS BRIGHT STAR

The gresome and the morbid always have an attraction for the devotees of stage or silent drama and this fact could hardly be better exemplified than in the present offering at the Hawaii Theater, Marie Corelli's "Wormwood," the story of the wreck and ruin wrought through the use of absinthe. Prominent in the cast of "Wormwood" is Ethel Kauffman, one of the youngest stars of the screen. A star at 18 is rather an unusual situation, but Miss Kauffman is in this position, and is in every sense of the word a star. The delicate, flower-like character of Miss Kauffman's beauty and her dainty, girlish charm combine to render her probably the only actress so perfectly endowed by nature to depict the unfortunate little heroine of the Coralli book, whose life ends in the night-shrouded Seine. Miss Kauffman comes of a theatrical family and was born in Germany. She played many important child parts in the Kaiser's realm and achieved quite a little fame as a juvenile actress. When her family came to this country Miss Kauffman deserted the stage and devoted herself to educating her voice and to acquiring perfection in her profession. She has played in several companies headed by well-known stars, but it was in the motion picture field, which she only recently entered, that this newest and daintiest of screen stars was destined to attain the summit of her ambition.

BY C. A. PEDRICK. In the future Vivian Marston will appear only in Morosco-Paramount pictures.

The Pallas pictures presented Lenore Ulrich with a new auto in lieu of her clever work in "The Heart of Paula," her latest hit.

There are three girls' clubs on the coast named after Florence Dagmar, Lasky ingenue. She is silently becoming a great favorite.

Pearl White, the champion heroine of movie perils, exploits, plots and conspiracies—the girl with 99 lives—still lives.

Shakespearean actors are gradually turning to the films for their Bacon. There may be risks in movie acting, but at least there are no eggs to be dodged.

Latest, via wireless: Anna Held vs. The Censors. Kansas board endeavored to hamper work in "Madame la Presidente." Enter Anna Held—loses temporary control of her eyes—film passes.

Fannie Ward, Lasky star, the victim of a tricky automobile, is now confined to her bed. While not badly hurt, she was seriously shaken up. It would seem, from her strenuous work in "The Cheat," she should have been able to withstand most any kind of a shock.

Gladys Smith appeared for the first time on any stage in Toronto, Canada, in the role of Mignon in "Bootsie's Baby." Well, what of it? Only this: After a little experience since that date, January 21, 1911, this little person adopted her mother's name, Mary Pickford.

Valesca Suratt, a new star to Honolulu, but one of the favorites for many years back, will make her debut here for four days, beginning tomorrow, in "The Immigrant," by Marion Fairfax. It was Miss Suratt who brought with her from New York to Los Angeles her $200,000 collection of jewels, employing a private detective to guard her constantly. She has been the topic of much comment in California since her work in this picture and rarely in Los Angeles has a woman attracted such wide attention from the press. "The Immigrant" is a tense drama, dealing with a Russian girl who comes to America in the steerage to live with her sister. The story carries her to Arizona, where are laid many exciting scenes, including the blowing up of a dam and the destruction of the city below. There is romance and tragedy in the usual Lasky fashion and it has made for Miss Suratt a new laurel in her wonderful career.

There'll be "Old Homesteads" galore in Honolulu next week. It is the common claim, coming from our great movie actors, who have deserted the speaking stage, that they get more realism into their work through the application of natural scenery to the midst of civilization she is kidnapped. The events that follow make a most unusual narrative. Cook and Oatman have been engaged to appear at Schofield Baracks Sunday night.

SWEET 'POLLY' TO LEAVE BIJOU THIS EVENING

"Polly of the Circus" leaves the Bijou theater after the performance of tonight, and with the passing of this offering Honolulu loses one of the sweetest, one of the cleanest and most interesting plays ever presented here; also, one of the best works of the Lytell-Vaughan players. However, there is one consolation, for the early half of next week another of the same "homey" plays will be on the boards. "The Old Homestead," and Bijou patrons will meet another set of "regular folks" just like those of the circus and the little village in the Middle West in which the story has its setting. The scene shifts, however, in "The Old Homestead," and the incidents are down east.

Evelyn Vaughan is splendid in her role of Polly, the little circus girl, who comes from several generations of circus riders; the little circus girl who meets with the inevitable accident and is hastened into the home of a young minister, where she is cared for by the minister and his colored servants and nursed back to health and sunshine. Meantime, she brings to the life of the minister numerous rays of sunshine and gladness and drives into his heart a dent like unto the Hoosac tunnel. Also, she learns to love "Mr. John," as everyone calls the minister.

Opposed to the circus girl and her new-found life are the members of Mr. John's congregation who are unable to disassociate the circus from the workings of the devil himself. They protest and, upon appealing to the girl, induce her to leave and return to a life in the sawdust ring, even though she leaves her heart behind.

plays. Furthermore, the complete story is possible in motion pictures as the camera can follow every move of the player in or out of doors. The Liberty will present the Daniel Frohman production of Denham Thompson's "Old Homestead" for three days, beginning next Thursday, with Frank Losee and Croighton Hale, who starred in the "Elaine" serial. Every effort to bring realism into the play has been employed, including the actual use of the original New Hampshire old homestead, where the scene in Denham Thompson's story was laid. As there will be a presentation of the same play at the Bijou early in the week, it is but one of those rare opportunities for the public to see both versions, enabling them to decide for themselves whether the silent or speaking drama best carries out the theme of the author. The Paramount production will be presented at the Liberty.

ST. LOUIS HOLDS PUNAHOU SQUAD HITLESS FRIDAY

Boy Wonder and Baptiste Send Puns Back to Bench; Kamehameha Defeats Mills

W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	5	0 1000
Kamehameha	2	667
Punahou	2	333
McKinley	2	333
Mills	2	285

YESTERDAY'S SCORES.
St. Louis 14, Punahou 5.
Kam 8, Mills 5.

No one has been able to find a team to beat St. Louis. Yesterday afternoon they decided that when the whistle blew they would stop work, but the aggregation representing the St. Louis College made up for overtime by doing considerable work in the nine innings, and opposed to Punahou, if one might use the term, garnered 14 runs to 5 for the Puns.

This pitching problem of St. Louis is answered. Yesterday Kid Hayselden, the boy wonder, held the Punahou squad to nary a bingle, something that he has been in the habit of doing at times. St. Louis netted 17 hits and had a merry little picnic. Baptiste, who occupied the mound for a part of the game, had a sweet time holding Midkiff's crew to hitless hits.

MATHEMATICS WRONG HERE.
Sporting Editor: I notice that the Kalmuks claim that their pitcher held the Pacifics to two hits in a recent game. In answer to this statement I will say that the Pacifics secured eight hits off the delivery of the Kalmuki slabster. We scored our winning run in the last of the ninth inning on a wild throw.

ALL-STAR SHOW PROVES SUCCESS AT ASSOCIATION

Waialae Boys Score Hit in Pyramid Building at Y. M. Geier Men Please

Boys by the hundreds congregated at the Y. M. C. A. last evening to take part in the all-star athletic program conducted in the Games Hall by Samuel W. Ribley of the association. Every act was a feature, as one man said last night, and to the credit of Ribley it must be stated that "he made it look like a real dyed-in-the-wool show."

The games hall was crowded with spectators when the first event was called, and from the time the orchestra started things off with a selection from some famous composer until the boys completed the obstacle race the spectators were amused, and it was the consensus of opinion that this kind of a program is worth while.

Waialae Boys Please. One of the big features of the athletic program was the work of the boys from the Waialae School. Their pyramid work was well handled, and each and every one went about the work in a manner that met with approval. One little fellow perched up four high, handling himself like a top liner in Barnum & Bailey circus. This act received a big hand.

The work of the men from the Geier on the horizontal bars was one of the acts that proved that they had previous experience in this work.

The roll races, obstacle races and other events vied with the more pretentious numbers, and the mat exercises gave the spectators an idea of the work that is done in this department. Physical Director Glenn Jackson gave an idea of the work on the various implements used in gym work.

SECOND TEAM OF DEES DEFEAT REGULARS IN GAME AT FT. SHAFTER

The first team at Shafter aren't the only teams doing good work in the series. In a recent game the second team of Company D picked up a squad and defeated the first team by a score of 10 to 3. Higgs pitched good ball for the second team, holding the opponents to four hits.

The lineup of the teams was as follows: Second Squad—Horn, c; Higgs, p; Sirvin, 1b; Lipps, 2b; White, 3b; Taylor, ss; Carr, cf; Jones, rf. First Squad—Mayo, c; Jackson, p; Milton, 1b; Medina, 2b; Tucker, 3b; Bennett, ss; Wenzel, lf; Carter, cf; Bischoff, rf.

Enthusiastic fans who engage in seat "cushion fights" at the Chicago National League Park will be arrested hereafter, several persons having been struck and injured by the cushions.

YESTERDAY'S SCORES:
D Company 3, A Company 1.
K Company 2, M Company 1.

Two topnotchers in baseball were pulled off yesterday at the Fort Shafter diamond when A Company dropped from its exalted position as No. 1 in the league and was taken into camp by the last D Company aggregation to the tune of 3 to 1, and K Company humiliated its old M Company enemy after a desperate battle with a 2 to 1 victory.

These games were both pitchers' contests and more than once the occupants of the bleachers were on their feet when there seemed a chance of a score, for in each instance a run meant a tie or a victory. Probably the second game (the K-M contest) was the more fiercely fought, as it took two extra innings to decide the result and it was anyone's game until the last ball was pitched.

Dees Beat A Company. For the first three innings neither side could do any damage and the old-timers shook their heads, for it looked like a 0 to 0 game. D Company fooled the crowd in the fourth, however, and made the pill visit all parts of the field.

A Company came back strong when it came to the bat, but couldn't manage to chalk up a score. Herrington drove a long liner to right for a two-bagger and reached third base when Cassell singled to right field, but all was off for A Company when the wily Peed sent the next three men back by the 1, 2, 3 route. D Company looked as though it would score again in the fifth inning when Wenzel and Bennett reached first and second on safe hits, but Herrington couldn't see it that way and the men died on bases.

The pitchers' battle continued until the seventh inning was reached (the prescribed number of innings a game) the score was still tied, no damage was done after the fourth inning, and at the end of the eighth no further runs were made. In ninth K Company made its winning run, as Williams was walked, made second on Wood's safe hit and by unexpected play on M Company's part both men stole two bases, which allowed K Company to take home the bacon.

neither team being able to score until the fourth inning, when each made a run. K Company was the first to the bat and made its run when Simmons made a single, went to second when Dupre made a bad throw to second and scored on Williams' drive to center field. Wood followed with a safety, but the men died on bases, as the next batters were all struck out. For M Company Kirk was walked and stole second and third and reached home when Jones knocked a hot liner over third base.

It was purely a pitchers' battle and both men produced the real goods. The game was a pitchers' duel.

Girl Swimmer to Compete in Coast Meet on July 4th

A Honolulu girl swimmer will go to San Francisco to compete in the 100-yard girls' championship race in that city on July 4. Who it will be is not known, and a race will be held in the near future to decide which swimmer is entitled to make the trip.

In the past there have been few entries in the girls' races, but the promise of a trip is sure to bring the young ladies out, and boom swimming, among the fair sex. It has been proved conclusively that the public want to see the girls' exhibitions, and the more entries the better for the promotion of the sport.

Among the swimmers who will participate in the national championship meet are the Misses Olga Dorfner, American champion of Philadelphia; Claire Galligan, of New York; Frances Cowells, Dorothy Becker, Ethel Day, Dorothy Burns, and Wally Mahn, the sensational 18-year-old girl star. It is expected that more than 20 swimmers will enter the championship event.

BIG FEET MAKE FIGHTERS CALL LEWIS A DEMON

Ted—they sometimes call him Kid—Lewis, the Briton, is one of the real cards of the boxing game. To explain why he is a card will require considerable space, but one of the principal reasons is the fact that this same Lewis has a pair of feet which beat anything in the pugilistic line by several miles.

Lewis' feet are "the talk of the town" wherever he fights. In the first place, he claims that he is a lightweight and able to make the poundage for scraps in that division, but his failure to do so makes it a certainty that he doesn't belong in that class, but in the one higher—namely, the welter-weight division.

In several of his recent fights the Briton has appeared before the fans of the Chicago, and he also mixed with Joe Mandot, the southern champion, who hails from New Orleans. He recently defeated Willie Ritchie in New York. He has also scrapped a number of other times in New York, but never to the recollection of the boxing promoters. He has made the weight required. He has agreed to notch 135 pounds for bouts, but when it was time to step on the scales it always has been discovered that he was anywhere from three to eight pounds over the poundage agreed upon.

When it has been found that they would have to scrap Lewis at a handicap his opponents invariably have accepted the handicap rather than see the chance of letting a little coin get away from them. That was the only thing they could do to prevent the show "blowing up," and with the promoters hounding these boys to take a chance they have done so.

But the answer to this acceptance of a weight handicap was a defeat for the boys who met Lewis, for the Briton, aside from his feet, has a lot of fighting ability. He knows the game and, despite his big feet, makes good like a whirlwind.

All those who have seen Lewis box, including the promoters who have made matches for him, believe that it is Lewis' feet which cause so much trouble when it comes time for the boys to mix wallops. His pedal extremities, it is declared, extend some ten inches, and in order to get them out of the way when swinging the mitts he turns them sideways. Perhaps Charley White's picture of Lewis' feet is as good as that of any other boy who has met Lewis.

White's View of Lewis. Here's what White has to say: "When I met that bird I thought he was just like anybody else, but I found out I was wrong. His punches are just the same as those of any other scrapper, and I might say that he is clever in letting go with either hand. But those feet were enough to stop anybody. I don't know how he is able

THOMAS LEADS EWA SWATTERS

M. Thomas is the leading hitter of the Ewa team in the Plantation League. His average to date is 34. He also leads in runs scored and stolen bases, having purloined 11 sacks in 10 games. The following figures show the average of each player for the first series:

Name	G.	A.B.	H.	Ave.	R.	S.B.
Thomas, M.	19	41	14	34	12	11

Eklund, W.	3	11	3	273	4	0
Cordiers, P.	19	41	10	244	10	4
Travens, J.	16	35	9	257	2	7
Leo San	6	24	6	250	5	1
Rhats, P.	7	24	4	168	3	3

Ornellias	8	21	2	95	1	1
Cheng	7	17	0	000	2	0

to get them out of his way when he tries to move around. He stands sideways when he is milling, and his toes sometimes turn backward.

White gives Lewis all credit for being a clever performer, but insists, as does Mandot, that Lewis is getting away with something because he does not make lightweight poundage.

Among others who have seen Lewis in action is Kid Howard, the Chicagoan who manages Andre Anderson and Ever Hammer, the most recent lightweight to spring into the limelight. Howard was in New York with Anderson when the latter met Battling Johnson and during his visit there fought Leach Cross. Howard saw that contest, and after the bout was finished he went to Lewis' dressing room to meet the Briton.

Howard had to admit it. "I'm some fightah, am I not?" came back Lewis.

When Mandot met Lewis in Boston he was forced to take several pounds the worst of it when they weighed in or else see the bout declared off. So he agreed to go on, and as the result he lost the decision, for Lewis knocked him down twice and won off by himself.

After that defeat Mandot and his manager, Tommy Walsh, had something to say about feet. Walsh allowed that Lewis should make weight for his feet before considering other parts of his anatomy. "It was weight and nothing else that beat Mandot," said Walsh, "and when I say weight I mean feet, for I never say a pair of standers like that fellow has."

DOUBLE HEADER ON TOMORROW AT ATHLETIC PARK

Nippons and Chinese to Clash in Open; 25th Infantry to Meet Chinese Seniors

Games Tomorrow at Athletic Park.
1:30 p.m.—Nippons vs. Chinese, Junior League.
3:30 p.m.—Chinese vs. 25th Infantry, Oahu League.

Tomorrow afternoon the baseball fans of Honolulu will have an opportunity of watching what is considered two of the best games scheduled for some time. Two rivals of the Junior League will meet at the opener, and the two rivals of the Oahu League will clash in the second game.

The Nippons and Chinese of the Junior League are considered to rank with the teams of the older league in fielding, and inasmuch as China and Japan will settle their differences tomorrow, there is a grand game of ball coming if one is to believe the statements of the rival captains.

Nippons will have Komeya, one of the leading first-sackers in the game on first; Okano at second, Tsukiyama, considered to be a great fielding star, at short, and Yamaguchi on third. In the outfield Murahige and Kurasaki are two stars in Junior League ball. Fukushima and Doi will form the battery. Araki will perhaps go to right field.

Kau and Kam will form the points for the Chinese, and in the game with the Braves the Chinese pitcher showed up well. Lai Shin will be at first, Kim Wal, the swimmer and baseball star, at second; Bun at short, and Kong Tai, who played a great game at third the last time out. This infield should compare favorably with the Nippons. Tam Lo, Fun Luke and Kong Sing will take care of the outer garden, making a trio of good ball chasers.

In the second game Rogan will bring his stars out to battle with the Chinese, and if the latter team plays as well as on last Sunday, there may be considerable trouble for the 25th Infantry. The fans want to see the high mucky-mucks shoved down a peg, and Messrs. Hoon Ki and Luck Yee are itching to get a chance at them.

On dope the colored soldiers should win. The fact that they haven't lost yet is a heap in their favor, but there never was a team that couldn't be beaten, and Manager Kim Luke is laying his hopes on his thought.

The Chinese want a chance at Jasper, but it is doubtful if Rogan will send him to the firing line, as there is a great rivalry between these teams and the wrecking crew captain isn't taking any chances, and may decide to take the mound himself. If so, then Chinese players please watch out.

Two Honolulu Mothers Are Prize-Winners In "Practical Hints" Contest of Baby Week

Keen Interest Displayed in Star-Bulletin's Competition for the Best Suggestions of Care of Children—Judges Pick Papers With Simple Recommendations—Articles to Be Published for Information of Parents

Two well-written, helpful and eminently practical papers on the care of children have won first and second prizes in the Star-Bulletin's Baby Week contest for Honolulu mothers.

The winners are:

First prize, $15—Mrs. Julius Nunes, 446 Kuakini street. Subject, "The Care of the Baby."
Second prize, $5—Mrs. W. H. Thoenes, 2611 Puunui avenue. Subject, "The Care of the Child from Birth Until School Age."

The Star-Bulletin offered these two prizes for articles which would give in concise form some direct suggestions to mothers, and specified that the contestants must be Honolulu mothers.

Mrs. Nunes is the mother of two children. She was awaiting the arrival of the second at the very time she was preparing her article for the Star-Bulletin, and it was born a few days ago.

Mrs. Thoenes is the mother of nine. Both are very successful in their care of children.

The committee of judges who considered the various papers was composed of Miss Janet M. Dewar, superintendent of Kauikoolani Children's Hospital; Mrs. Philip L. Weaver, practical mother and active child welfare worker; and Miss Emily V. Warinner, journalist.

The contest has been an emphatic success, not only in the wide interest and number of carefully-handled responses it brought forth, but in the material thus gained for publication which will be of much value to the mothers. The committee of judges was named by the Baby Week management, and for its painstaking work the Star-Bulletin wishes to extend sincere thanks.

In making its decision, the committee sends the Star-Bulletin the following explanation:

"The papers for the most part were sane and instructive, and their publication in succeeding numbers of the Star-Bulletin will furnish an admirable aftermath to Honolulu's recently inaugurated Baby Week."

"In awarding the prizes the judges considered not only the practicality of suggestions and their intelligent grouping, but those obviously gained from actual experience. Several very admirable papers were barred because of their too close resemblance to lectures and medical books. Mrs. Nunes' paper was given first place because of the faithfulness of detail, and the fact that the hints it contained were those especially for the very young baby, precluding the rules of discipline somewhat over elaborated in others."

"The wisdom of just two statements in Mrs. Thoenes' paper were questioned by the judges. These were the discounting of the doctor's fitness to judge of a child's condition and the unsatisfactory features in connection with breast feeding. It is possible to know when sufficient nourishment has been gained because when the child has had enough it is contented and sleeps. Mrs. Thoenes' point was that the bottle is the only satisfactory medium of measurement."

The Star-Bulletin will publish a number of the papers submitted in this contest. That by Mrs. Nunes is published today, to be followed by Mrs. Thoenes'. Others will succeed these.

THE CARE OF A BABY.

By Mrs. Julius Nunes, 446 Kuakini Street.

The care of a child is by no means an easy matter, nor is it anything to be neglected or trifled with. Very few mothers are prepared with the necessary knowledge to rear the little one when it arrives.

When a child is born it should receive its first bath, which, according to taste, either consists of a thorough cleansing with sweet oil (with the use of abundant absorbent cotton) or warm water and a sponge. Some mothers use first the oil and then the warm water. Castile soap is the best for baby's skin; or Ivory soap may be used, as it is best in purity. Next follows the very careful drying with a soft towel. A piece of old linen serves the purpose. The parts then are carefully powdered with a good borated talcum, and not anything that is highly perfumed, as this injures the delicate skin of the baby.

Baby's body ready for its clothes. The navel should be attended to by an experienced person who will either use the "old fashioned" burnt rag or sweet oil as a dressing. The navel is first drawn through a hole in a square piece of soft cloth (about four inches square) and then turned toward the child's chest. Over this goes the dressing and a warm bandage, which should be comfortably pinned or sewed around baby's belly.

The little undershirt comes next and a warm cap should be used at first and discarded for a cooler one as soon as the weather permits. Then the diaper should be pinned on comfortably and changed as soon as it becomes soiled to prevent chafing. So many infants suffer from this on account of mothers not wanting to disturb baby when he is asleep, consequently the little one will lie one or two hours in a wet diaper. Besides becoming chafed many catch a cold in this way. A preventive is better than a cure! Should chafing occur, however, use powder freely, first sponging the parts with warm water and drying carefully and apply the fresh diaper. If the chafing is very bad pure vasoline used freely will relieve and readily cure it.

A diaper should never be hung out to dry and then used the second time without first being properly laundered. Give the diapers a daily scalding and then hang them out in the good, hot sun and they will always remain nice and clean. Next to the undershirt baby should wear (at first) a little flannel petticoat over which a cool slip should be worn. Then after the third month the lower the clothes the better, in this climate.

Feeding seems to me the most important part of a child's bringing up. This should be so regular that the child will get up for his meals at exactly the right time without being disturbed. For the first three days the child lives on practically nothing but the watery fluid obtained from the mother's breast. Do not mistake baby's crying as a sign that it is hungry at this time. Nature would have provided food for it sooner if it were necessary; so give baby nothing but an occasional sip of warm water. This, of course, should be sterilized. After the third day, when there is plenty of milk, baby should be nursed every two hours; first at one breast and then at the other (at the same feeding), which not only teaches the child to become accustomed to lying on either side, but is also good for the mother. This feeding should commence at 6 a. m., and continue every two hours thereafter until the 6 p. m. feeding, when baby should be put to bed and not disturbed again until 10 p. m., its last feeding, after which it should not be disturbed before morning.

After the first month the baby should not be nursed as frequently, but every two and a half or three hours until the sixth month, after which it should be nursed every three and a half or four hours. Every mother should nurse her baby, if we are fortunate that most of our Hawaii mothers are able to do this. If, however, on account of illness or scanty milk a mother finds herself unable to do so, she should consult her physician as to the next best substitute. He will either recommend properly diluted and sterilized cow's milk or a good prepared food such as Horlick's malted milk or Mellin's food. The choice of these usually depends upon the child's stomach, whether it agrees with it or not.

If the child is bottle-fed great care should be given the proper cleansing of bottles and nipples. These should be sterilized once daily. Fill bottle with cold water and place it and nipples in a saucepan half full of cold water. Set saucepan on the stove and heat slowly until the water boils and allow boiling to go on for five or ten minutes, after which bottle and nipples will be free from germs and ready for use. Care should be taken in cooling off bottles as so many are cracked in the process of cooling. Some mothers leave the sterilization until the last minute and then take bottle out of boiling water and cool under faucet. Therefore cool slowly by having bottles sterilized long before they are needed.

Baby's milk should always be fed warm, but not reheated after once being left over. Baby should sleep by himself in a little crib, no matter how crudely made, perfect cleanliness playing the all important part and not the locks of the crib. A fine mesh net should be used to keep off mosquitoes and flies, which, besides being such a nuisance to the little one, carry disease germs. If any pillow at all is used it should be rather flat, to prevent round shoulders. Baby sleeps better without a pillow than upon an unusually high one.

Most bedrooms have two windows

Mrs. Julius Nunes, winner of the first prize. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nunes on May 13, and it was while she was awaiting the arrival of this, her second, child that she wrote the paper on infant care which won first prize awarded by the committee of judges.

and these should be kept open from the top and bottom, the space above and below depending upon the kind of day.

Do not let baby sleep in a draft or an unexpected cold will follow. During the day let the child sleep and remain out of doors as much as the weather will permit. It needs all the fresh air and sunshine it can get.

Baby's bowels should move regularly, usually after the first feeding, and as soon as baby can sit up he should be taught to use the chamber. If the child happens to become constipated do not neglect to attend to its bowels immediately or some trouble is sure to follow.

If my baby's bowels do not move before 10 a. m., I give him a teaspoonful of castor oil or Castoria. This, however, does not happen often, as baby gets orange juice at 9 a. m., and this seems to be all the necessary medicine.

If baby gets a cold, attack it immediately by giving him a laxative. This, of course, should be recommended by your physician. Rub the little one's chest with camphorated oil before putting him to bed. Keep him warm at night and until his cold gets better it is best to leave him in the same room during the day to guard against differences in temperature, which only makes the cold more stubborn. After baby has been made comfortable and he is not anywhere near feeding time give him a drink of water (again, sterilized water). If baby is very young and unable to turn himself, change his position.

In a few words: Take good care of baby's stomach and that will take care of the rest. Regular time for bathing, feeding, sleeping, outing, etc., and absolute cleanliness all tend to make a good, strong, happy baby.

JURISDICTION OF NINTH CIRCUIT APPELLATE COURT HAS BIG FIELD

Covers Larger Territory Than Any Other Tribunal; Judge W. W. Morrow is Member

The United States circuit court of appeals, of which court Judge W. W. Morrow, now in Honolulu, is a member, has the most extensive jurisdiction of any court in the United States. It includes the federal appellate jurisdiction for the states of California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Montana, Idaho and Arizona, the territories of Hawaii and Alaska, and the whole appellate jurisdiction over the four American courts established by treaty in the principal cities of China, namely: at Tientsin, Shanghai, Hankow and Canton.

The peculiar feature of its Alaska jurisdiction is the fact that it is the appellate or supreme court in all cases other than those involving constitutional questions where the amount in controversy exceeds $500.

In addition to its federal appellate jurisdiction for Hawaii, the circuit court of appeals is the appellate court in all cases other than those involving constitutional questions on appeal from the supreme court of Hawaii where the amount involved exceeds $5000. This latter jurisdiction was recently transferred by Congress from the supreme court of the United States to the circuit court of appeals. The judges of the circuit court of appeals are authorized by law to sit in the district courts and try cases—an authority that is frequently exercised in important cases and where the judges of the district courts are disqualified, as Judge Morrow is now exercising that authority in the district court for Hawaii.

The judges of the circuit court of appeals for the ninth circuit are Judges William B. Gilbert, of Portland, Ore., presiding judge; Erskine M. Ross, of Los Angeles; William W. Morrow, of San Francisco, and William H. Hunt, of Helena, Mont.

The circuit court of appeals meets in San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington.

From an advertising and editorial standpoint, the Star-Bulletin is putting forth big, worth-while efforts to make Kamehameha Day celebration a business getter for you, Mr. Merchant.

NOTABLE PROGRAM FOR PUNAHOU'S SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION; PAGEANT DAY CHANGED

Committees are Getting Final Plans Into Shape for Three-Day Exercises Centering Around Historic Educational Institution

PUNAHOU SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY—PROGRAM OF ANNIVERSARY WEEK

TUESDAY, JUNE 20.—Anniversary Day. Evening, 8 o'clock, Anniversary Exercises.
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21.—Pageant Day. Afternoon, 3 o'clock, Punahou Pageant.
THURSDAY, JUNE 22.—Punahou Day. Morning, 10-12—Reception by President and Trustees; Historic Punahou Games. Noon, 12—Basket Lunch. Afternoon, 12:30—Meeting of all Punahou with reports, talks and jollification. Afternoon, 2 o'clock—Gymnastics and Esthetic Dances by Academy Girls; Military Drill by Cadet Corps; Baseball.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] OAHU COLLEGE, May 27.—It will be noted that there have been several important changes in the program, as heretofore announced. The pageant is to be on Wednesday, June 21, instead of Thursday. Punahou Day is to be Thursday, June 22, instead of Wednesday; there is to be no links night, alumni night or parents' meeting as heretofore stated, but the alumni night and links night are combined into one celebration to be held Thursday noon, after lunch. This new schedule will be a great improvement, securing convenience of all.

The anniversary celebration will be inaugurated by a most important program Tuesday evening, June 20. At this commemorative program Judge Sanford B. Dols will preside. William R. Castle will speak of Punahou's historic origin; Dr. Doremus Scudder will represent the American Board of Foreign Missions, under whose auspices the missionaries were sent to Hawaii. Dr. Scudder will deliver the message of the Board of Foreign Missions. Two able addresses will be presented by Prof. Charles M. Gayley of University of California and by Prof. William Lyon Phelps of Yale University. Walter F. Dillingham will have charge of the music of the evening.

The second day of the celebration, Wednesday, June 21, will be the day of the storied pageant. The pageant will be presented on Alexander field at 3 p. m. The Pageant Book was written by Miss Ethel M. Damon and illustrated by Miss Jessie C. Shaw. Miss May Fraser and James A. Wilder. It is a most artistic, faithful and instructive work. It reviews Oahu College from the legendary goods Kane and Kanaoia until the present year.

The general pageant committee is

COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN IN GENERAL CHARGE

Albert F. Judd

Mary P. Winn, chairman; Mrs. Isaac M. Cox, Beatrice Castle and Ethel M. Damon. The elaborate preparations for staging the pageant are in charge of L. Young Corretters. No pains are being spared to carry out the ideas of Mr. Corretters and the committee for accomplishing splendid pageant effects.

The Pageant Book abounds in excellent music; many of the old time songs composed and sung by all periods of the past, as well as a large number of meritorious songs just written for the diamond jubilee by Mary Dillingham Frear, Margaret E. Clarke, Vernon E. Tenney, Philip H. Dodge and Mrs. Isaac M. Cox.

Already there have been many rehearsals of the episodes and music. The first four of these episodes—Hawaiian episodes—are in charge of Mrs. A. P. Taylor.

A committee of which Mrs. Wade Warren Thayer is chairman has charge of costumes. These costumes are a big feature of the pageant, and they are carefully selected to represent the dress of the various periods portrayed in the Pageant Book.

The Pageant Book will be on sale prior to the day of the pageant. To fully appreciate the historical value of the action one should read the book. Tickets for the pageant will cost fifty cents.

The third and last day of the cele-

Girls and Boys to Show Student Activities, While Elders Will Illustrate the Old-Time Games; Military Drill to Be Given bration, Thursday, June 22, is the day for the grand reunion of true Punahouites. The campus will be the center, all during the day, of the alumni, parents and friends of Punahou.

The day's program—in charge of W. R. Castle—is very full and unusually interesting. First is a reception by President and Mrs. Griffiths and the trustees and their wives, assisted by Professor Wm. Lyon Phelps and Mrs. Phelps and Professor Charles M. Gayley. Next, the old grads will carry on a most exciting contest in aipuni, wickets, pee-wee and "nigger-baby." Judge Whitney, of "nigger-baby" fame, will have charge of the best athletes of the islands of this day or any day previous will take part in these games and in the celebrated "ring tournament." In this tournament such men as Albert Judd, Walter Dillingham, Harold Castle and others will ride world famous polo ponies in this exciting sport, which is under the direction of George S. Waterhouse.

Another feature of this great day will be the baseball and basket-ball games between the old Punahou daughters and their fathers. If possible the alumni will form a nine to meet the present varsity.

Basket Luncheon. At noon all will mingle at a basket luncheon on the campus. For those unable to bring their baskets luncheon will be provided, so that all may mingle in the good fellowship of the luncheon hour.

Immediately after lunch all Punahou will meet for speeches, reminiscences, plans, projects and general fellowship. This is the most important of the celebration incidents and every one should arrange his affairs so as to be present at this time. Matters of utmost significance to the school will be presented then.

Following this meeting a review of Punahou's modern physical activities will conclude the anniversary celebration. Girls' gymnastics under the direction of Mrs. Agnes P. Driver, boys' athletics and military drill will be presented. The two academy companies will compete for drilling prizes, etc., there will also be a review of the battalions.

In the activities of these three days—June 20-22, thousands of people will take part. Old grads will be back, the present school will work to a man, parents, faculty and friends—all will do everything possible to make Punahou's seventy-fifth birthday party a grand success.

The committee for the corporation in charge of the entire celebration is: Albert F. Judd, chairman; Frank C. Atherton, Walter F. Dillingham, W. H. E. Abbott, W. R. Castle, W. L. Whitney and A. F. Griffiths.

BOARD WORKERS MAKE PROFITABLE TOUR OF HAWAII; SEE ERUPTIONS

Religious Work on Big Island Reported to Be in Better Shape Than Ever

Two representatives of the Hawaiian Board have recently completed a tour of the district of Kona, island of Hawaii. Revs. Akaike Akana, president of the Christian Endeavor societies of the territory, and Henry P. Judd, acting secretary of the board, left Honolulu for Kailua, West Hawaii, on Tuesday, May 16, on the Kilauea. Arriving at Kailua, West Hawaii, they made that seaport their headquarters for the next two days, spending the time in calling on the various people of Kailua and nearby communities. A well attended meeting was held in the old Mokuaukaea church, opposite the palace grounds in Kailua, and addresses were made by the two clergymen. Judge Kauikou presided at the meeting. The following day the Kekaha church parish was visited, calls being made in Kohala and Kailua, and a meeting held in the Kalea chapel that evening.

Cowboys from the Huehue ranch, coffee growers and small farmers were present. Friday morning calls were made in Laeoa and Kahauiua and a service held in the Helani chapel. The work of the Sunday school of that district is under the leadership of Henry L. Kawewehi, member of the legislature for the past eight years. Friday afternoon calls were made in the Kealekua region, also in Kanauiua, and a meeting held in the Lanakila church hall that evening. This hall is conveniently located near the church building and has just been erected to meet the social needs of the community.

Saturday morning was occupied in visiting the people of Keel-uka in company with Senator David K. Baker, a licensed preacher in the Kealekua church of Napoopoo. An 11 o'clock service was held that morning in the Keel-uka chapel, and after that a visit was made to Kealia and Hookena-uka. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haee was visited and the guests en-

The veterans of two wars unite for a memorial day service tomorrow evening, just before the annual memorial day. The rapidly thinning ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic will be supplemented by the members of the Spanish War Veterans.

The service will be held at the First Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock. The minister of the church, Rev. L. L. Looftbour, will preach. The subject of the sermon will be, "Lincoln, the Monumental Character of the Dark Days of the Civil War."

The music for the evening will be by the girls' vested choir, supplemented by the young people's chorus of the church, with Mrs. Charles L. Hall as soloist. Miss Harrison, who has charge of the music, will be at the organ.

The boys' clubs of the intermediate department of the Y. M. C. A. will also attend in the body as an honorary guard of honor for the old soldiers.

Harmony Chapter, Eastern Star, in Fifth Anniversary

Members of Harmony Chapter No. 4, O. E. S., celebrated their fifth anniversary on Saturday evening, May 20, in the Masonic Temple. With a large and enthusiastic audience of resident and visiting stars as inspiration, Harmony's officers conferred the Floral Degree upon six Past Worthy Matrons—Sisters Carrie B. Riley, Sallie L. Williams, Anna E. Wright and Nellie J. Stephens of Leahi Chapter No. 2; Sister Harriet McAllister of Lele Aloha No. 3; and Sister Edith Welbourne of Harmony Chapter No. 4.

This Degree is only conferred upon members of the Order as proof of fraternal friendship. On this occasion it meant something more—Harmony's appreciation of the assistance given her by her sister Chapters, and her eternal gratitude to the officers and members of Leahi Chapter who, under special dispensation from Bro. W. D. Engle, M. W. G. P., serving as Grand Officer, instituted Harmony Chapter No. 4.

Sister Ruby W. Smith, a Past Worthy Matron of Harmony Chapter, acting as Conductress, assembled the five Sisters, representing the five points of the Star, around the flower-decked altar, while the Chapter's quartette chanted sweetly "The Lord's Prayer."

After most impressive work done by Sister Smith, conductress; Sister Bigelow, associate conductress; Sister Jordan, Adah; Sister Gosling, Ruth; Sister Oliver, Esther; Sister McLennan, Martha; Sister Bonamy, Electa, and Harmony's Worthy Matron, Sister

Ethel Fairweather, Brother Ira D. P. Canfield, Worthy Patron, Brother Norman Fairweather, a Past Worthy Patron, acting as Chaplain, led them in prayer followed by the quartet chanting "Thy Will Be Done."

The candidates were then conducted by Sister Smith, in her usually capable manner, through an elaborate march to their seats. The officers then introduced another interesting march, forming the triangle and the letters O. E. S. It was all beautifully done. The Floral Degree is not well known here and therefore was greatly admired and proved most interesting to all who were fortunate enough to see it.

Speeches, many and lovely, followed. Sister Sallie Williams, in her prettiest manner, in behalf of the candidates representing Leahi and Lele Aloha, presented Harmony with an exquisite punch bowl, filled with dozens of glasses and tied with Leahi's red ribbon.

Sister Fairweather, Worthy Matron, accepted this beautiful gift in an especially happy speech, and after that was kept busy responding to the congratulations and good wishes of Harmony's guests.

Bro. John Burns, Past Worthy Patron of Harmony, presented Sister Edith Welbourne, the "Mother" and the first Worthy Matron of Harmony Chapter, with beautiful baskets of flowers, whereupon Sister Welbourne responded with a splendid speech, thanking Leahi and Lele Aloha for their interest and assistance, and reviewing the beginnings of Harmony from the time she first asked the General Grand Chapter for a dispensation.

Sister Welbourne took occasion to thank personally Sister Riley, who was appointed deputy for Bro. Engle, and who so ably conducted the institution of Harmony five years ago; also Bro. Barry of Lele Aloha, who has been most kind and generous in assisting Harmony Chapter at all times.

The Chapter was closed and Harmony's guests were invited to the card room to enjoy progressive whist and later cakes and ice cream, which was served with the green numeral in the white cream, again reminding us that Harmony was five years old.

It was an eventful night and will prove a delightful memory. God-speed to Harmony!

Today Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are enjoying a basket picnic at the Moanalua golf links. Shortly after 9 o'clock this morning the first motor busses left the Capitol grounds. In the first of these was the band and others followed along, a gay procession. Every half hour, beginning at 10:30 and until 3 this afternoon there have been busses meeting the Rapid Transit cars, at Kalihii and carrying the picnickers to the grounds. An interesting program of sports is being carried out with prizes for the winners, the 2d Infantry band is discoursing an excellent program of music, and in addition to the good things the baskets put up at home contain several thousand ice cream cones are being supplied by the ladies. The occasion for the picnic is the celebration of the 97th anniversary of the order.

With today's class photographed more than 100 of the local Elks will have faced the camera and have had their photographs added to the pictorial roster that is being collected for the lodge.

Last Saturday evening Schofield Lodge, F. & A. M., held installation of officers. Senior Warden Melvin L. Crisp was installed as worshipful master in place of the late Brother Rufus Edward Chappell, who died on February 15, 1916, and Ernest W. Ely was installed as senior warden. The district inspector acted as master of ceremonies.

In the near future plans will be submitted to the local Odd Fellows for a new home, which it is planned to erect when the present property of the lodge shall have been sold.

Leahi Chapter No. 2, O. E. S., held its regular meeting Monday.

Excelsior Lodge, I. O. O. F., met in regular session Tuesday evening.

Elks are forming plans for the annual observation of Flag Day, June 14. The ceremonies will be held in the lodge room and a committee on arrangements has been named.

Engle lodge met as usual Wednesday evening.

Third degree work was put on by Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M., Wednesday evening.

Honolulu Council No. 1, Knights of Kadosh, met for work in the 21st degree Thursday evening. Scottish Rite Masons were also in attendance.

Nearly 100 members of Ahakukamalu of Honolulu Council No. 1, Chiefs of Hawaii, have accepted an invitation to attend a ceremonial session of the order to be held at Nawiliwili, Kauai, on July 4. The session will be held at the home of Representative H. Coney and it is understood that the steamer Kilauea is to be chartered by the local chiefs for their pilgrimage.

Two local men received signal recognition at the 17th annual session of the subsidiary high court of the

SAM SCHILLER
Dictator, Honolulu Lodge No. 800, Loyal Order of Moose.

Sam Schiller was installed as dictator of Honolulu Lodge No. 800, Loyal Order of Moose, early in the present month. He came to Honolulu something more than six years ago and is now engaged in the hotel and automobile business. Brother Schiller is a charter member of Honolulu lodge and has worked his way to dictatorship by faithful attention to the affairs of the lodge, having filled all the chairs. Honolulu Moose lodge reorganized about three years ago. It now has a membership of upwards of 200 and is progressing and prospering.

The Order of Moose is back of a project which can be equaled by few if any other fraternities, Mooseheart. This project embraces an industrial school for the young and build up a community of 5000 souls. It has already accomplished much of what it has undertaken and has won the admiration of all who have seen it or have studied its purposes and results already achieved.

Other officers of the local lodge are G. A. R. Smith, vice dictator; F. H. Sherman, past dictator, and R. J. Blaisdell, prelate.

According to a despatch from Los Angeles, the Triangle Film Corporation, the Famous Players Corporation and the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Co. have been merged.

2:45 p. m., at Craigside. Mrs. Arthur G. Smith will conduct the second session of the mission study class institute. Tea will be served at the close of the meeting at 4 p. m.

Note—The offerings on Sunday, May 28, will be for church work on the islands. The offerings at the annual meeting of the woman's auxiliary will be for some object to be designated later.

TO OPEN NEW CITY MISSION IN FEW DAYS

W. E. Pietsch Will Be in Charge of Building Located Near Palama Settlement

The City Mission, adjoining the Palama Settlement, will be opened early next month. The services of a competent man to reside there have been secured. The downstairs will be equipped for the general mission purposes and reading rooms. The upstairs will be fitted for those who are in need of immediate material assistance, such as a bed and something to eat.

Those in charge are endeavoring to meet the situation, which is an urgent need at the present. The mission is to be non-sectarian, the aim and purpose being to preach the gospel and to bring men and women in vital touch with the Lord.

Meetings will be carried on nightly and different nights will be given over to the different nationalities. Evangelist W. E. Pietsch will take charge of the English evangelist meetings and will have general superintendence of the entire work.

HOLD MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES AT SHAFTER SUNDAY

In accordance with a custom inaugurated three years ago, the annual memorial service of Fort Shafter will be held by Chaplain William Reese Scott next Sunday, the Sunday nearest to the national Memorial Day, in the auditorium at 7:30 o'clock.

Hymns and music appropriate to the occasion and an address eulogistic of the departed heroes of America will form part of the service, while the roll call of the year's departed on the post will be announced by the chaplain, and taps will be sounded in commemoration of the solemn and military nature of the occasion.

The greatest incentive of increased patriotism and the spirit of preparedness is to assure the living soldiers that departed heroes of the nation are not forgotten, but that in return for the sacrifice of enlisting in the cause of the country will receive that highest tribute of a grateful land, namely, a grateful remembrance of the nation's departed heroes. It is a duty that the nation and each community owes to its dead, and the army at Fort Shafter will for this reason hold its memorial service next Sunday.

The other services will be as follows:

- Holy communion, 7:30 a. m.
- Sunday school and men's Bible class, 9:30 a. m.
- Morning prayer and sermon, 10:30 a. m.
- Morning services held in headquarters building, second floor.

FINE PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR UNION CHURCH

An especially interesting program is scheduled for the Sunday evening service at Central Union church. The course of talks on "Christ and Humanity's Problems" will be concluded in an address by Rev. A. A. Ebersole on "Christ and the Criminal Class" and George A. Andrus, in whose hands the direction of the evening music has rested since January, has arranged to have the choir of the Kamehameha schools give the music for the evening.

REV. C. D. MILLIKEN OF KAUAI WILL GO TO POST ON COAST

Rev. C. D. Milliken, pastor of the foreign church at Waiman, Kauai, has accepted a call to a church at Piedmont, California, just across the bay from San Francisco, and will shortly leave for his new post. People of Kauai, particularly of the Waimea section, will regret to learn of this, as Mr. Milliken had come to be regarded as an important factor in the activities of the local community, says the Garden Island.

Member of Famous Kong Family Launches New Chinese Mission

Kong Mau Tet, member of the well-known Kong family, who recently organized St. Steven's Mission in Honolulu, and Mrs. Kong.

St. Steven's in Emma Street Organized at Request of Young Christian Men

A venerable Chinese woman, who has reared a large family of sons and daughters and educated them as devout Christians, once more finds the satisfaction of seeing one of the members of that family accomplish a work which has not only added a new mission to Honolulu, but which is destined to do much good among the Chinese young men of the city.

That woman is Mrs. F. T. Kong, mother of Rev. Kong Yin Tet, pastor of St. Peter's Chinese church in Emma street, and the mission organizer is Kong Mau Tet, her son. The Kong boys and girls, all of whom are well known in Honolulu, were born in China. Their grandfather was converted to Christ when a very young man, and it was through his influence and the influence of their mother that the children decided to give their lives and efforts to work for the people of their own country.

Kong Mau Tet returned to Honolulu about two months ago, bringing the aged mother with him. His decision to establish St. Steven's mission came as the result of the wishes of a number of Chinese young men in Honolulu, as well as the desires of Rev. Leopold Kroll, principal of Iolani school, and Bishop Henry Bond Restarick.

World's Strides In Temperance

Liquor Crusade in Paris. Two great anti-liquor meetings were held recently, one in the Sorbonne and the other at Rouen. Prof. Paul Painleve, minister of public instruction, was the principal speaker at the Sorbonne gathering. He said the fight against liquor must be continued with the greatest energy. Both meetings adopted resolutions urging parliament to pass measures to suppress the liquor traffic.

New Brunswick. According to the Statesman, published at Winnipeg, Manitoba, the legislature of New Brunswick has passed a prohibitory measure to go into effect on May 1, 1917.

Make National Parks Dry. On April 26 the public lands committee of the United States senate favorably reported a bill which would make national parks and forest reserves dry. It would prohibit the secretary of the interior from granting permission to any hotel or any one to sell liquors in such parks.

Spokane, Wash. The board of county commissioners of Spokane county, Wash., the county in which Spokane city is located, closed the county honor farm where the county prisoners work out their fines. Since the prohibition law became effective the number of prisoners at the farm became so small that it did not pay the county to hire a guard for the farm.

Larger News Sales. Denver industries are feeling the good effects of the prohibition law in increased volume of business. This applies to the automobile industry, banks, groceries, markets, clothing stores, laundries and many another. The dealers in magazines and periodicals are among the latest to tell of increased sales the past three months. Denverites are great readers and leave annually at the news stands from $125,000 to $150,000, in addition to nearly twice as much paid out for magazine subscriptions.

Halifax. The bar rooms in Halifax are almost certain to be closed at the end of the present license term, in accordance with the provincial law. This will mean that all of Nova Scotia will be dry. This province, with the exception of the city of Halifax, has for some years been under the Nova Scotia temperance act. Halifax has had one saloon during this period to every 1000 of its population. A bill to bring the city under the provisions of the act has been before the legislature this current session.

Newfoundland. The license question in Newfoundland was settled by a declaration from the throne on the opening of the legislature at St. Johns on March 16, in which the governor stated "that a proclamation called for by the statute will be issued at an early date, prohibiting the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in this colony at any time after January 1, 1917."

Fewer Saloons Now. Chicago now has 31 fewer saloons than it had a year ago. With the expiration of the semi-annual license period it was found that 56 licenses had been allowed to lapse, and there is a doubt about the legal standing of 28 others. Fifteen of these were revoked by Mayor Thompson and probably cannot be restored during the new period.

Massachusetts. Lynn, Brockton and Lenox closed their saloons for at least one year at 10 o'clock on April 29. No disorder marked the passing of the licensed bar in any place. Eighty-nine licenses expired in Lynn, and while the re-

The morning sermon will be "The Advantage of Being Unable to Know God." The evening sermon will be "The Work of the Great Emancipator."

The Thursday morning study in "The Miracles of Prayer and Faith" will be held this week again, though it was omitted last week. It convenes at 10 o'clock.

Beginning the first Wednesday night in June there is to be a series of union mid-week meetings participated in by the Central Union church, the Methodist church and this church, and held consecutively in the various church buildings. The series will continue for six weeks.

This pulpit makes an especial effort to deal not with theories, but with experiences.

The Bible school, Alice L. Hopper, superintendent, phone 4446. School holds session each Sunday at 9:45 with classes for all ages and with lessons carefully graded to suit the needs of the various ages. The Bible School Council meets at dinner in the social hall of the church building at 6 o'clock on the first Wednesday of each month, for consideration of the business of the school.

Y. P. S. C. F., World's Peters, president; phone 3797. tailors and wholesalers did a big business on the last day, it is said that only a small number of the proprietors realized any profit.

'OPEN HOUSE' TONIGHT FOR M. E. LEAGUES

The Y. M. C. A. will keep open house tonight for the Epworth Leagues of the First Methodist church. This is a birthday party from the Y. M. C. A. to the leagues.

When the two organizations were formed Secretary Larimer was present as one of the speakers. Since it was customary, he said, to give birthday presents, he offered them an open house night at the association building.

The invitation was very gladly accepted. The presidents, Will P. Thomas of the senior league and Redwald Cooper of the intermediate, had charge of the appointment of committees.

The stunts will include bowling, billiards, volley ball and indoor baseball, as well as diving and racing stunts in the swimming pool for the men. It is understood that the youngsters have some tricks "up their sleeves" that will surprise the sedate people in their twenties.

The invitation was especially appreciated by the young ladies of the leagues, who do not often have the opportunity of inspecting Honolulu's big factory for making young men.

MISS McDONALD GIVEN DINNER ON DEPARTURE

The Sunday school family of the First Methodist church held a dinner last Thursday night in honor of Miss Joan McDonald, who left yesterday on the Makura for her home in Scotland.

Miss McDonald is a young woman of splendid character and training, having received her master's degree from Edinburgh university. She then spent eight years in missionary work in Lahore, India.

For the past year, while visiting with her sister, Mrs. A. B. Lindsay of Kaimuki, she has been a most ardent and successful worker in the Sunday school and league of the First Methodist church.

The dinner also celebrated the birthday of the superintendent of the school, Mrs. E. A. Cooper. The attendance was large, and the congratulations for the one of these two very efficient workers and the regrets on the departure of the other were equally hearty and sincere.

L. R. KILLAM TO SPEAK ON WORK FOR ORIENTALS

The Christian Endeavor Society of Central Union church is congratulating itself on having secured Lloyd R. Killam as the speaker for its regular Sunday night service, held at 6:30 in the parish house.

Mr. Killam is one of the secretaries of the Young Men's Christian Association and his work is particularly among the Oriental young men of the city. He will tell the society what his association is doing for Orientals in the city, and his first-hand experience in this work is bound to make this address especially interesting. Other special speakers on this theme will be Dr. U. Kawaguchi, Rev. C. C. Ramirez, and Paul Steel. All young people of the city are cordially invited to be present, as well as others desirous of informing themselves on this topic.

ISSUE MAGAZINE TO FURTHER THE STUDY OF BIBLE TEACHINGS

Evangelist W. E. Pietsch, in charge of the book rooms of the Hawaiian Board of Missions, has issued the third number of a bi-monthly magazine entitled "The Young People's Friend," which has a large circulation particularly throughout the mainland. The magazine takes up three special departments—young men, young women and the work of the missionaries. It also comments on timely subjects connected with every-day life.

The magazine is the outcome of a Bible study class carried on by Mr. Pietsch for several years and grown to such a large proportion that it necessitated getting out this magazine. It is entirely non-sectarian and desires to take up wholesome, sound scriptural teachings. It's aim is to get back to the fundamentals and not deal with some new theory of the 20th century.

Great Growth of Local Y. M. C. A. Is Evidenced in Annual Report

Religious Activities Claim Attention of Hundreds of Men and Boys of Honolulu

The annual report of the Honolulu Young Men's Christian Association which has just been issued, shows great activity in religious work during the year which closed April 30.

The work reported under three heads, Bible study, religious meetings and personal work, as follows:

1. Bible Study—Men's Classes: This year, 15; last year, 16.
- Total enrollment: This year, 322; last year, 210.
- Boys' Classes: This year, 9; last year, 9.
- Total Enrollment: This year, 125; last year, 141.

Of the 24 classes held this year, 21 were in the association building, one at the central fire station, one at the Filipino mission and one at the Oahu prison.

2. Religious Meetings—In Association Building: Number Men's Meetings: This year, 45; last year, 20.

Total Attendance: This year, 2091; last year, 573.

Total Attendance: This year, 5781; last year, 8238.

Number Boys' Meetings: This year, 52; last year, 3.

Total Attendance: This year, 2544; last year, 385.

The meetings in the building consisted of noon talks, lobby meetings, student assembly and special groups. Meetings outside the building were in shops, churches, Oahu prison and at Punchbowl. Street meetings were also held.

Personal Work: Religious Interviews: This year, 603; last year, 429.

Professed to Begin Christian Life: This year, 59; last year, 57.

MISS JONES TO BE SPEAKER AT JOINT MEETING

Miss Lillian E. Jones, who is visiting Honolulu in the interests of the Y. W. C. A., is to be the speaker at a combined meeting of the Epworth Leagues of the First Methodist church tomorrow evening.

Miss Jones is executive secretary for the states of California, Nevada and Arizona, and is the first general officer to come here since the local association was placed under the California jurisdiction.

Miss Jones is an enthusiastic advocate of Bible study for young people, and will speak on this subject tomorrow evening. Since the two leagues were organized at the Methodist church this is the first joint meeting.

PLAN PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN'S SUNDAY AT CENTRAL UNION

Interesting plans for the celebration of Children's Sunday, June 4, by Central Union Bible school, are being carefully worked out. Prof. Vaughan MacCaughey, who has but recently resigned as superintendent of the school, will speak, taking as his subject "Teaching Jesus." The program in detail will be announced later.

Algernon B. Corbin, 50, widely known among the older generation of Yale men, as photographer of the Yale crews, football, baseball and other athletic teams, dropped dead on the street in New Haven.

Put CRISCO to this Test

A severe test for any shortening is its use in hot bread. Make some Crisco biscuit; they are delicate—in looks, odor and taste. They are light and daintily brown. Break one open and you will be delighted with the appetizing aroma, free from any suggestion of lard. They are just as wholesome and digestible as their delicacy promises.

You will find equally as attractive points about Crisco in other branches of cooking. For instance, you can fry without smoke and odor. You can use the same Crisco for frying all manner of foods and all will have a new wholesomeness.

You can make a light rich cake with Crisco which will keep fresh and moist longer.

You will obtain delicious, digestible and economical foods by knowing Crisco better.

Below is a good biscuit recipe, or you may use your own favorite recipe by using from  $\frac{1}{2}$  to  $\frac{1}{4}$  less Crisco than you would of lard. Note how Crisco stands the test.

Baking Powder Biscuits

- 2 cupfuls flour
- 2 teaspoonfuls salt
- 2 teaspoonfuls baking powder
- 1 teaspoonful milk
- 2 tablespoonfuls Crisco
- $\frac{3}{4}$  cupful milk

(Level measurements)

Sift together the dry ingredients. Mix thoroughly with the Crisco, using a knife or spoon, and add gradually the milk, mixing with a knife to a soft dough. Toss on floured board, pat and roll to one-half inch in thickness. Shape with a biscuit cutter, place on a floured tin and bake in a hot oven 12 or 15 minutes.

GREAT INTEREST BEING SHOWN IN THE NEW AKOZ MINERAL

Honolulu Drug Co. Arranges for Introduction Here of John D. Mackenzie's Discovery

Full arrangements have been made by the Hollister Drug Company for introducing, commencing Monday in Honolulu, of Akoz, the remarkable new medicinal mineral discovered in the Sierra Nevada Mountains of California by John D. Mackenzie, former state harbor commissioner and state labor commissioner of San Francisco. Such marvels have been performed by the Akoz remedies when used elsewhere for stomach trouble, rheumatism, catarrh, skin diseases and other ailments, that an exceptional demand will undoubtedly be made on the Hollister Drug Company, beginning Monday forenoon with the opening of the demonstration.

Already much interest is being manifested locally as to just what the Akoz is. Mr. Mackenzie, the discoverer of the remarkable mineral, has the following to say regarding it: "Man's search for gold resulted in the discovery of this mineral which I believe is destined to bring far greater happiness to mankind than all the gold that has ever been produced. A prospector came upon a ledge in the Sierras that showed a trace of gold. Much to his surprise, after handling the ore, as prospectors will, the rheumatism left his hands. Being a Harvard graduate, he sought the reason. He suspected the rock had worked the cure, but he was not convinced until he had also relieved the ailments of his friends. "In time I learned of the wonders of Akoz and personally had numerous tests of the mineral made. After three years of experimenting I felt certain that Akoz was destined to be a great boon to humanity and so I organized the Natura Company of San Francisco, which is now putting the Akoz remedies on the market. It seems that the Indians were also aware of the curative powers of the rock in early days. By calling, phoning or writing the Hollister Drug Company further information may be had regarding this advertisement.

WILSON INDITES STRONG NOTE ON MAIL HOLDUP

Notifies Entente Powers High-Handed Policy Can No Longer Be Tolerated

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—In the strongest possible diplomatic language the government of the United States has notified the governments of Great Britain and France that it can no longer "tolerate" the interference with American and neutral mails, of which it alleges those governments have been guilty, in a communication handed to the French and British ambassadors last Wednesday.

The note, the contents of which were made public last night, insists that only a radical change in the policy pursued by France and England will be satisfactory to the United States government, and demands that prompt action be taken to redress the wrongs to which Americans have been subjected.

Indemnity Demanded.
The communication also serves notice that the United States is soon to press for the settlement of claims against France and Great Britain for damage already done to its citizens, and for losses already sustained.

"We can no longer tolerate the wrongs which American citizens have suffered and are continuing to suffer, through the utterly lawless practices in which those governments have seen fit to indulge," says the note, "and we feel that nothing short of a radical change in the whole policy to be followed by Great Britain and France in this regard can afford complete satisfaction to the government of the United States."

Rights of Neutrals Violated.
He points out that commercial interests in the United States have been gravely harmed by these methods, and that the "rights of property of neutrals have been violated without compensation, and the rules of international law and custom palpably disregarded."

In conclusion, Mr. Lansing announces that the government of the United States intends soon to prepare and bring before the governments of France and Great Britain formal claims for damages sustained by the interference with neutral mails by those countries, and will press for the speedy settlement of those claims.

POLICE LOOKING FOR RUNAWAY MEMBER OF PRINZ EITEL CREW

NORFOLK, Va., May 27.—The chief of police was notified by the commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, across the river at Portsmouth, that a member of the crew of the interned Prinz Eitel Friedrich is believed to have deserted the ship. The man's name is said to be H. W. Schultz, one of the stewards of the converted cruiser. He received permission yesterday to visit a dentist, having complained of his teeth and has not returned. Fifty dollars reward has been offered for his arrest.

MORGAN'S OFFICE BOY SUSPECTED OF STEALING GOOD-SIZED PAYROLL

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 27.—Officers of the J. P. Morgan & Co. banking house yesterday asked the police to search for William McManus, an 18-year-old office boy, formerly in the employ of the concern, who is believed to have run away with $10,515, the weekly payroll of the banking officers. The boy was last seen at noon and has not been seen since. The loss of the money was discovered shortly afterwards.

Members of the Wigwam of the Hawaiian Tribe, No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, will meet in Santo Antonio Hall, Vineyard street, at 8:30 next Tuesday morning for the purpose of assisting in the Memorial Day services, which are to be conducted under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic. At the regular meeting, June 6, the Wigwam will elect officers for the coming term and there will be work in the warrior and chief's degrees.
The secretaries or other officials of all lodges and fraternities are invited to use this column for news which they consider of interest to their members or to the public. To ensure publication such material must reach this office not later than Thursday afternoon at 4:30.

GERMANY READY TO LISTEN TO PEACE OVERTURES

Berlin Hears Col. House Is Booked for Another Trip to Europe

BERLIN, Germany, May 27.—Germany is prepared to grant complete restoration of Belgium and the portions of France her armies now hold, according to well defined reports circulating here.

This attitude, which has become evident within the last few days, was put into semi-official words yesterday following the repetition of a report from Washington and New York that Col. House of Texas, the personal friend and envoy of President Wilson, is about to make another trip to Europe.

This report was received without surprise in German official and intimate circles, and was even hailed with pleasure in many quarters where the belief was expressed that Col. House is coming with a proposal which will make possible the laying of firm foundations for future peace negotiations.

WASHINGTON INTERESTED IN BERLIN SENTIMENTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—The statement from Berlin regarding the attitude of the German government toward peace, which is regarded as having been inspired by the "highest Teutonic authority," was read by government officials last night with the most intense interest.

COL. HOUSE TEMPORIZES

NEW YORK, May 27.—Col. House, when seen last night, following the arrival of the dispatches from Berlin with the report that he is planning to pay another visit to Europe, merely smiled as he said: "As yet I have no plans for returning to Europe. That is all I have to say."

ELEVEN CLASSES OF WEST POINT PLAN REUNIONS

Eleven graduating classes of West Point have so far arranged to hold reunions at the commencement week exercises this summer which are set from June 6 to June 13. Copies of the program have been received by army officers here.

Those classes which will get together again at this time are of '65, '66, '67, '76, '80, '91, '96, '01, '06, and '11. The tentative program is as follows:

- Tuesday, June 6—Review by the superintendent, 4:15 p. m.; reception to the first class by superintendent, 5 p. m.; parade, 6 p. m.
- Wednesday, June 7—Subcaliber target practice 6 rifle, 11 a. m.; baseball, Colgate University, 2:15 p. m.; escort of the colors and battalion drill, 4:45 p. m.; parade, 6 p. m.; cadet hop, 8:15 p. m.
- Thursday, June 8—Polo, Squadron A, 10 a. m.; gymnastics, fourth class, in gymnasium, 11 a. m.; Mountain Artillery drill, Cavalry drill, Field Artillery drill, 3 p. m.; parade, 6 p. m.; band concert, U. S. M. A. Band, superintendent's quarters, 8 p. m.
- Friday, June 9—Field day, 9 a. m.; shalter tent pitching, 4 p. m.; parade, 6 p. m.; open air play, 8 p. m.
- Saturday, June 10—Equitation in riding hall, 10 a. m.; inspection, 2:00 p. m.; polo squadron A, 3 p. m.; cadet hop, 8:15 p. m.
- Sunday, June 11—Graduation services, 10:40 a. m.; dedication of class memorial windows, new cadet chapel, 3:30 p. m.; organ recital, new cadet chapel, 4 p. m.; parade, 6 p. m.; band concert, U. S. M. A. Band, at hotel, 8 p. m.
- Monday, June 12—Military culture, 10 a. m.; meeting of the Association of Graduates, 3 p. m.; review, secretary of war, 4:15 p. m.; reception to the secretary of war, 5 p. m.; graduation parade, 6 p. m.; graduation hop, 8:30 p. m.
- Tuesday, June 13—Graduation exercises, 10 a. m.

FIRM OBSERVES MEMORIAL DAY

ROCKEFELLER BOARD TO HELP WAR SUFFERERS

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 27.—The Rockefeller Foundation announced yesterday that the directors have decided to appropriate $1,000,000 for the benefit of the war sufferers in Poland, Serbia, Montenegro and Albania. The relief work already under way by the Red Cross societies of the various nations will be assisted and other relief work started.

State troopers arrested 36 I. W. W.'s at Boston Settlement, near Wilkes-Barre, Pa., following a riot at the Pennsylvania Coal Co. colliery.

FUNSTON ASKS NEW CONFERENCE WITH GAVIRA

Would Again Meet Carranza Leader in Hope of Promoting Harmony of Operation

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—With the killing of Gen. Candelario Cervantes, second in command to General Villa, and a bad fighter on his own account, by troops under General Pershing, near Cruces, Chihuahua, and a request made that General Funston and General Pershing be authorized to hold a harmony conference with General Gavira, the Carranza commander in Chihuahua, the Mexican situation is assuming a brighter hue. Mexican Attitude Changing?

General Funston last night wired to the war department asking that the request for conferences looking to a more complete cooperation between General Pershing and General Gavira, in running down the bandits that infest Chihuahua, be granted.

Men, Books, People & Things by E. S. Goodhue

By E. S. Goodhue, Honolulu, Hawaii. To what shameful lengths political "campaigning" will go is shown by a recent number of "Harper's Weekly" in which Robert H. Murray attempts to prove that our former Ambassador to Mexico, Henry Lane Wilson, was guilty of Madero's murder! "So Wilson went pat-patting about the City of Mexico. A neat, gray little man with a fox-like face, a perfect toupee, admirable clothing, stoop-shouldered, truculent, a trotting walk, a sniggling laugh; broad black pince-nez ribbon; taking counsel from the worst elements in the community." Could personal animus be more clearly exposed? In an editorial in the same number we have: "Taft proved by Mr. Brandeis six years ago to have suppressed the truth about natural resources by an elaborate series of offenses, including perjury in his assistants, explicit mendacity in himself, and through his Attorney-General such a trifling with a central document as in some jurisdictions constitutes forgery." Such charges, so made, are a disgrace to American journalism, and show how the mixed elements of a Democracy, raised to a "little brief authority" by the educational advantages it affords, are utterly without reason or respect towards respectfully constituted office; are utterly without a shred of common decency in their published statements. Another instance of similar demoralization, the result of personal "liberty" in the United States, is evidenced by the attack upon Mr. Osborne, prison superintendent in New York. From mere political opposition to him, and a dislike of his prison reforms, he has been charged with crimes and moral malfeasance. Of course, the truth will all come out, but in the meantime a good name has been blackened and a good man subjected to annoying scandal and persecution. There are a lot of people with low aims, muddy ethics, absolutely unprincipled methods, in this great country of ours. We are often very common. When we reverence God more and several varieties of gods less; when we respect father and mother as we should, speak of the President and those who have served us adequately, with more affection; when we cultivate a certain dignity towards even our political opponents, we shall be nearer to a realization of the sort of democracy Washington established, and Lincoln died to perpetuate.

Mr. Austin F. Bement, Secretary of the Lincoln Highway Association, has an interesting article in the "Scientific Monthly" for April on "The Economic and Strategic Value of the Lincoln Highway."

Very truly he says, "that brought face to face with the question of national preparedness, we have no more important factor to consider from an economic and strategic standpoint than the development of our road system."

No one road system is so important as the Lincoln Highway now being completed by the efforts and contributions of patriotic Americans from Maine to Hawaii.

In connection with this the "Report to Directors of the Lincoln Highway on Route Efficiency" by Henry B. Joy, Mr. Bement and H. C. Osterman, is relevant.

"It has been the constant aim of the Lincoln Highway Association, then, to procure a road across each state through which the Lincoln Highway runs as near 100 per cent efficient as is humanly possible and practical, and the efforts of the Association towards this end have been ably seconded by the communities along the route in each state, and by the people of the state, led by the patriotic spirited citizens who are acting in the

SLAVS THROW BACK TEUTON ATTACK IN EAST

BERLIN, Russia, May 27.—Desperate attacks by the Germans facing the Russian defensive positions north of Lake Mladzil were beaten back by the Slavs yesterday, according to the official reports issued by the war office here last night. This was the most important fighting of the day on the long eastern front where, for the most part, comparative quiet ruled.

PRESIDENTE SARMIENTO ARRIVES AT YOKOHAMA

(Special Cable to Hawaii Shipper) TOKIO, Japan, May 27.—The Argentine training ship, arrived in Yokohama yesterday afternoon. All on board are reported well. The ship came directly from Honolulu to Japan. She was welcomed at Yokohama by the mayor of the city and a delegation of naval officers.

ARMY STOCKS UP THIS YEAR WITH INDIAN MACHINE

Red Motorcycle Proves to Be Useful on Border; Chase for Villa Made on Indian

In the struggle now raging in Europe, the motorcycle has proven that it is an indispensable part of the modern equipment of war. War, with its mathematical exactness, with its demands upon mechanical genius, requires steeds and messengers of greater stamina than have ever been demanded hitherto.

A steed that never tires, to which distance is a nothing, that is not felled by a single shot, that does not require food and shelter, that has speed in its highest development—these are the requirements of modern warfare.

Horse going. The horse meets none of those requirements. The motorcycle meets all; and therefore comes a change which bids fair to relegate the horse to a secondary position in affairs maritime.

Chief among the motorcycles which through their performances have won recognition abroad is the Indian, manufactured at Springfield, Mass., by the Hendee Mfg. Co. This machine has "made good" under fire, and the history today in the making will some time give full record of the instances where the Indian carried the despatch that turned the tide of battle, or where the Indian bore the scout who located the enemy's vulnerable spot.

Used in U. S. Army. However, the greatest honor to the Indian has come here at home, where it has been distinguished by its selection for use in the United States Army. An order for 15 more of the Redmen has just been rushed through the factory and delivery made to the war department in record time, and these machines will shortly be in use in the chase after Villa now in progress in Mexico.

These latest additions to the army equipment represent the finest thing in motorcycle construction, embodying, as they do, the new powerplus motor, capable of developing from 15 to 18 horsepower, and able to travel at a speed of 70 miles per hour. Three speeds, self-starter, the Indian cantilever comfort saddle, and an improved clutch are other features which combine to make the Indian the stoutest machine made, and one especially suited to military purposes.

USES OIL ENGINES IN PLACE OF BATTERIES ON SUBMARINES

In an effort to dispense with the use of storage batteries such as are believed to have destroyed the submarine F-4, Secretary of the Navy Daniels has recommended a trial of the "Neff" system of propelling undersea boats by the same engines below the surface as above.

Among the questions that exist are how to eliminate the noise of the engine machinery and exhaust, and to avoid the telltale wake of air bubbles on the surface. A report of the naval board upon a trial of the Neff system on the Pacific coast is said to have satisfied naval authorities that it is a mechanical success. Secretary Daniels has asked Congress to appropriate $350,000 for the installation of the proposed system on an old boat.

As to how the present objections are to be eliminated the Army and Navy Journal of May 6, says:

"The noise from the oil engines under water, to which objection has been raised by navy officers in criticizing the Neff system, is caused by a final expansion of the gas after it leaves the cylinder. This is accompanied by rapid, sharp reports and a reverberating roar."

PATRIOTISM DID NOT LEAD COLUMBUS RAID

In the last days of March the best brains in the War Department regarded Villa as merely an incident, the particular incident which had precipitated a vastly more serious condition of affairs, says George Mervin in the May World's Work. As we regard patriotism in this country there was endemic and very little of that abstract emotion in northern Mexico.

"What are you fighting for?" one of our cavalry officers asks a peon. "We're fighting for Captain Pedro," is the answer. So far as principles or impersonal distinctions are concerned, it is a safe generalization that in all these years of revolution three-fourths of the revolutionists have never clearly understood just what in the way of principle they were fighting for.

AN IMPROVED QUININE DOES NOT AFFECT THE HEAD

Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAKATIVE BROMO QUININE will be found better than ordinary Quinine. Does not cause nervousness, nor ringing in the head. Remember, there is only one "Bromo Quinine." The signature of H. W. Grove is on each box.

HIGH TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF DEAD OFFICERS

"Modest and unassuming, devoted to their duty and to the highest ideals"—is the tribute that Col. Granger Adams, 5th Field Artillery, pays to 1st Lieut. Edwin E. Pritchett and Harold S. Naylor, who were killed in an automobile accident at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, early this month. The order issued by him is as follows:

"It has become the sad duty of the commanding officer of the regiment to announce the deaths on May 7, 1916, of 1st Lieut. Edwin E. Pritchett and Harold S. Naylor, of the Fifth Field Artillery.

"Entering the service at about the same time, these officers and their families were bound by an enduring friendship. The often expressed desire of the officers to be buried together has been granted, and save the parting from their families, they died together as they would have wished.

"Modest and unassuming, devoted to their duty and to the highest ideals, they possessed those rarer social qualities which endear men to their fellow beings.

"Although their service was cut short as they were entering the prime of life, their influence on the arm they loved so well will remain.

"On behalf of the entire garrison the commanding officer extends deepest sympathy to the bereaved families."

"Since building the first boat it is claimed that the inventors who have been working on it have silenced this exhaust. This is done by turning the exhaust of the engine into a condenser or a closed chamber, from which it is drawn at a partial vacuum and discharged overboard at nearly the outside water pressure. The remaining noise is due to the clicking parts of the machinery, and it is claimed that this has been dispensed with by a new system of regulation and adjustment.

WILL OPEN BIDS ON COFFEE FOR SOLDIER

Uncle Sam's boys on Oahu are to get all the coffee they want to drink, and preparatory to the 1916 supply bids will be opened, on Thursday, June 8, at the office of the department quartermaster.

Advertisements have been issued calling for bids in quadruplicate on 30,000 pounds of good coffee. The advertisements state that the successful bidder will be required to enter into a written contract with the government. Contracts have been awarded within the last few weeks for beef and mutton, flour, laundry soap, pineapples, and other commodities.

CHAPLAIN LENEHAN LEAVES ARMY

President Wilson has approved the resignation of Chaplain Jeremiah A. Lenehan, 4th Cavalry, to take effect August 1. Chaplain Lenehan has a leave granted to take effect on June 13 lasting until August 1, the date of his retirement from the service. Chaplain Lenehan has been in the Islands only a few months.

BRITISH OFFICER TELLS WHAT ENGLAND EXPECTS OF HER MEN

Straight-From-the-Shoulder is Talk to Juniors in Military Camp

That battles must be won by fighting, and that officers, in addition to their courage, must have knowledge and character are among the things driven home in a speech to a group of young officers by their senior in an English military camp "somewhere in France." The speech has been printed in the Weekly Times of London. Excerpts from it are given herewith:

You are responsible for the successful leading of your men in battle; you are responsible for their safety, as far as this can be ensured, while gaining success in battle; you are responsible for their health, for their comfort, for their good behavior and discipline. Finally, and not least, you are responsible for maintaining the honor of England, for doing all you can to ensure the security of England and of our women and our children after us.

To bear all these responsibilities successfully, you must acquire, first, knowledge. You must know what to do and how to do it, in order to lead your men with success and honor, and protect them from destruction or loss, which will be suffered if you are ignorant of your work and of your profession. Secondly, you must acquire character—that is, resolution, self-confidence, self-sacrifice—in order to inspire your men by your example, sustain their courage in danger by your example, and their endurance in hardship by your example.

Now, as regards the first, knowledge, remember two things: (1) Knowledge is not a heaven-sent gift, it is the outcome of study, hard work, and thought. (2) It is an absolute necessity to you as an officer. It is the foundation of your own character, for without it you cannot gain self-confidence. You must know your job. If you do not you can have no confidence in yourself, and the men can, and will, have no confidence in you either. Knowledge is therefore the first great essential for your capacity to command your men. . . . The men must have confidence in their officer. They must feel not only that he knows his job, but also that he will set the example of courage, self-sacrifice and cheerfulness, and that he will look after their welfare and comfort. It was to help you to this that these tactical schools have been started.

Now as regards the second requirement of an officer—character. . . . The character of the officer is the foundation of the discipline of his men. Men can only be commanded successfully by men. No troops ever possessed a discipline that was worth a damn, that could stand the great disintegrating strain of battle—who were commanded by weak, slow, irresolute "old women." "Old women" are not confined to persons who wear petticoats; nor to persons over 70 years of age. I have met "old women" in trousers, and of an age between 20 and 50. . . . Don't be an "old woman" whatever else you may be.

The creation of discipline and the maintenance of discipline are among your most important duties. Your orders, and the orders given by your N. C. O.'s, must always be obeyed without hesitation, with energy and with cheerfulness. Never pass any ### lapse from duty, however trivial, without taking notice of it. Drop hard on to slackness, disobedience, slovenliness. Never stand by, rot or nonsense. Insist on great cleanliness, on great alertness, quickness and cheerfulness.

I don't want you to go away, however, with the idea that the men must be treated like dogs—very far from it. You don't want to curse or damn every time you notice things wrong. Sometimes a word of encouragement, or a patient listening to an explanation, or a smile when pointing out the fault will go a long way. Remember that, though we are officers and the men are privates, still we are all comrades in the great dangers and the great struggle; make the men feel that you realize this comradeship and love it.

But you cannot be too particular in insisting on a smart, alert, cheerful appearance, and on the prompt and willing accordance of all honors and salutes. It is only that company or that battalion which shows attention to all this which really does possess discipline. Without discipline, no body of men will stand an hour of real danger. . . . These matters of appearance and respect to officers are not eye-wash. They are the outward and visible sign of the inward and spiritual grace, as the parson says!

The Officers' Looking-Glass.

The company or the battalion is the best looking-glass of its officers. In the company and the battalion you see the image of the officers—you see yourselves. When you note a company on the march—slack-looking, miserable, dirty, slow and almost sunk in coming to attention, with half a dozen stragglers creeping on behind, and the officers and N. C. O.'s taking no notice—you can tell at once that these are bad officers, and that no discipline and no energy exist there. On the contrary, when you see a company marching well closed-up—men with heads erect (even though covered with mud of trenches), and quick and energetic in the movements as they come to the salute—these show good officers and a well-disciplined company. . . . When you take your men into action, either in ordinary trench warfare or in a big attack, all this discipline will repay you and your men themselves a thousand-fold.

Keep up your own energy and that of your men, and maintain the offensive spirit most carefully. To do this, do not overlook the fact that one of your chief duties is to be always thinking. You have got brains; don't forget to use them. That is what you are an officer for. . . . You must always be thinking. How can you make the trench (or your position wherever it is) more secure, or more comfortable for the men? Or how can you attack the enemy? Or inflict some blow or less on him? As soon as the thought has entered your head, put it into execution; issue the necessary orders, and see them energetically carried out. Thus you will keep up the spirit of energy and of the offensive which are of such immense importance. . . . All energy is born of thought; therefore remember that to think is one of your great duties.

Try and carry out these principles, and put the knowledge you have acquired here into execution when you return to your battalion. Do not overlook the fact that—though you must

Fort Shafter Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

FORT SHAFTER, May 27.—Upon the recommendation of their respective company commanders, the following appointments and promotions have been made in the 2nd Infantry: A Company, Lance Corp. Edward Caperton, to be corporal, vice Ellison, reduced.

I Company, Corp. Anthony J. Morris, to be sergeant, vice Wright, appointed battalion sergeant-major.

Lance-Corp. Walter H. Stuckey, to be corporal, vice Morris, promoted.

D Company, Pvt. Patrick K. Cooper, to be corporal, vice Bittick, furloughed and transferred to the army reserve.

Pvt. Albert Langnickel, Company E, has been relieved from duty with the Mounted Orderly section, Headquarters Company, and Pvt. Alfred Gratton, Company K, has been detailed for duty with this organization.

Capt. Paul B. Malone, who has been on leave of absence for the past week, did not return with his family but had his leave extended so that he might have the opportunity to visit Mauna Loa. He returned to the fort on Saturday morning after a most enjoyable visit.

Sergt. Francis Leigh, band, 2nd Infantry, is a patient in the department hospital where it is necessary for him to undergo a minor operation. The sergeant is well known at the fort, where he is the leader of the orchestra and his absence will be felt by all the movie goers. While absent in the hospital the 2nd Infantry band will give special concerts at the aerodome.

Company I, 3rd Battalion of Engineers, commenced work on Wednesday to erect the roof over the aerodome. Lieut. Raymond Wheeler has the work in hand and has so arranged the construction that the regular plays will continue uninterrupted. The work will be completed about the middle of June.

Although rain during the past week has interfered with target practice, the past few days have been excellent days for the record practise and on Friday afternoon Companies G and H completed their record work, and if the good weather continues Saturday afternoon will probably see the entire battalion through its record. An unusually large number of men will qualify as experts, sharpshooters and marksmen in the battalion from all appearances.

On Sunday evening Chaplain William Reese Scott, 2nd Infantry, will hold memorial services at 7:30 in the aerodome and the entire post has been invited. This custom was inaugurated at the fort three years ago (and show that you possess) decision and resolution in order to instill discipline into your men—merely to insist on obedience, smartness, and compliance with all orders is not sufficient. Do not forget that the men are your comrades; and do not overlook the fact that the British soldier has a great soul, and can and does appreciate what courage, honor, patriotism and self-sacrifice mean. . . . Talk to your men often on these great qualities, both in lectures and to individuals personally. You will always find a ready response, which will one day stand you in good stead; and, what is more important still, will stand England and the Empire in good stead.

SCHOFIELD TO HAVE MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES

Memorial services will be held in the post chapel, Schofield Barracks, on Sunday, May 28, at 10:30 a. m. Chaplain W. A. Aiken, 1st Infantry, will officiate. 1st Infantry Camp and W. D. Beach Camp, U. S. W. V., will attend.

Following is the program: Processional Hymn—"Onward Christian Soldiers," Choir. Prayer of Confession. Responsive—Psalm 112. Scripture Lesson—Chaplain Aiken. Creed. Prayers. Hymn 119—Choir and Congregation. Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Sermon—"Lest We Forget," Chaplain Aiken. Hymn—"America," Choir and Congregation. Prayers and Benediction. Recessional Hymn.

BAKER TO HAVE 'CITIZENS ONLY' ON MINE-LAYERS

According to the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, Secretary of War Baker has ordered the discharge from mine-laying vessels of all men who are not native-born citizens of the United States.

"You are requested to discharge without delay all members of your crew who are not citizens of the United States. By citizens is meant native born citizens of the United States."

"This fact was disclosed here today," says the correspondent under date of May 10, "as the result of telegraphic protest sent to Representative Albert Johnson of Washington state by five foreign-born citizens, who were discharged as members of the crew of the mine-layer Ringgold. The action taken is believed to be due to a desire to prevent any possibility of disloyalty on the part of foreign-born men in case the United States should become involved in hostilities.

"The telegram received by Representative Johnson was sent from Lancaster, Wash., by John W. Carlson, Carl Thomasson, William Mathson, Alfred Christiansen and L. Hermansen, who charge "gross discrimination."

and on Sunday night the services honoring "the departed heroes of America" will form a large part of the services. Appropriate music and hymns will be rendered and after a roll call of the departed for the past year, "taps" will be sounded. The morning services will be held in the Post Headquarters building and will be as follows: 7:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 9:30 a. m., Sunday School and men's Bible class, and at 10:30 a. m., morning prayer and sermon.

Lieut. W. E. R. Covell, Corps of Engineers, received his commission as first lieutenant on Thursday. The lieutenant graduated from the military academy last June and since graduation has been stationed at Shafter.

The band and the 1st Battalion, 2nd Infantry, commanded by Capt. C. L. McKain, will leave the fort on Tuesday to participate in the Memorial Day services to be held in Honolulu. Maj. William R. Dashiell, 2nd Infantry, will act as grand marshal of the parade.

STATE MILITIAS ORDERED READY BY ARMY HEADS

Guardsmen Told to Hold Themselves in Readiness to Join Colors

That the national guard of all the states in the union have been given orders from the war department, is the contention of the Philadelphia Ledger. He says, under date of May 19: "The national guard of every state in the union has received orders from the war department to hold itself in readiness for a call to the colors. This was learned today from the division of militia affairs. The orders have gone forth to meet the contingency that the militia may be called into the federal service along the Mexican border or possibly in Mexico.

"It was stated that is merely a precautionary move, and that as yet there is nothing upon which to base the assumption that the guard will be ordered out. That will depend entirely upon developments.

"The preliminary arrangements for the mobilization of the various divisions of the national guard have been made. Pennsylvania will mobilize at Mt. Gretna unless some reason appears to change the place from that determined by the war department. Transportation has been looked after, and the commander of every regiment knows how long it will take to entrain his men and get them started for the mobilization point.

"Word has reached here that the prospect of the national guard being called into active service has stimulated an interest in the militia, and companies are being recruited to their maximum strength.

"The Oklahoma guard is protesting that it was not included with New Mexico, Arizona and Texas in the first call, and is preparing to respond to the next."

NEITHER FUSS NOR TEARS AS TRAIN DEPARTS

How the Vancouver troop train pulled out from the Union Depot at Portland, Oregon, following the call to Mexico issued recently by the war department, is told in an interesting way by The Evening Telegram, which says the occasion of the departure was solemn, and that there was neither fuss nor tears. Says the Telegram:

"The soldiers, khaki clad and withal very prepared looking stayed for the most part in their cars. Every window was up, though, and the men hung out the depot side, hoping that by chance they would see a familiar face among those who had come to the depot bearing Godspeed.

"The women showed they were not for the usual heroics of similar occasions.

"Here's something to remember me by," said the one with a black hat. Whereupon she handed a stick of chewing gum up to her soldier boy. He grinned and took it. "Hey, mail them, will yuh?" asked another soldier as he leaned out of the vestibule and hailed one of the passers-by. It was a bunch of picture postcards addressed to his girls, scattered about over the face of the United States. He must have been a sailor at one time, that soldier.

Preparedness reigned in the mess car. Great beef carcasses hung on hooks, numberless loaves of bread ranged up and down the walls. There were stoves, and even kindling wood all in readiness.

"The soldiers themselves looked exceedingly fit. None of them carried any excess flesh. Most of them had their uniforms brushed up for the occasion, and some even had them newly pressed."

THE WEEK IN MOTOR CIRCLES — WITH TRADE AND OWNER —

CHALMERS SIX ON PATHFINDER TOUR OF COAST

Car Selected as Official Pathfinder for Sociability Tour to Yellowstone Park

Announcement of the selection of the Chalmers Six-30 as official pathfinder for the sociability tour from Minneapolis to Yellowstone National Park has been made by President W. W. Smith of the National Parks Highway Association. With Driver W. S. Brooks at the wheel, the Chalmers pathfinder left Detroit May 9 en route for Minneapolis from which city the start was made on May 13. Three newspaper writers are making the trip. The big tour is scheduled for July, the A. A. A. sanction calling for the start on July 20. The Chalmers 3400 p. m. touring car will go over the route twice, marking it so that a schedule of about 20 miles per hour will be possible for the tourists. The selection of the Chalmers 30 was a distinct compliment to the power of the high speed motor and the easy riding qualities of the car, as the tour will traverse the difficult mountain ranges of the northwest in addition to crossing the prairie lands of Dakota. The Yellowstone tour will mark the first visit of a large body of motorists as the famous National Park has only recently been thrown open for motoring. Exports of merchandise from the port of New York for the week ended April 22 were valued at $37,648,518.

THE HYMN OF THE RACING SPEED KINGS

With speed that leaves the wind behind, you watch us thunder by, Eager and fierce you pack the seats that rise against the sky; In tens of thousands you turn out to see us win—or die. The earth we travel flies beneath the impact of each tire; From each exhaust there darts the flames of hungry tongues of fire; The hand that marks the speed creeps high, but still we push it higher. The spark is at the furthest notch; the gas is open wide. A leaping, snorting thing of steel is ours to drive and guide, And Death, upon his gaunt white horse, is racing at our side. There at our side we see him ride, but never halt nor cower. When he is fleet enough to beat our skill and motive power, At least we cross the border line one hundred miles an hour. —Walter Trumbull, in New York World.

CLOSE COMRADESHIP BETWEEN MAN AND CAR

"The comradeship existing between the average man and his car is as deep-seated as that between man and horse—or dog," said a local automobile dealer recently. "I have seen people fairly grieve at parting with an old car. They have come to understand it, to know just what to expect of it, to rely upon it to faithfully perform its part of the daily routine. Each car has traits of its own, even when built by the same workman, in the same way, perhaps on the same day. You can blindfold the average driver, seat him in turn at the wheel of his own and another car just like it, and immediately he will tell you which is his."

Howard Gar-liner Cushing, portrait painter, died suddenly in New York.

Barney Oldfield, Favors Firestone Tires

Barney Oldfield, world famous race driver, arrived in Akron on May 3, on the last leg of his Los Angeles-Chicago run, to pay his respects at the huge Firestone factory, the birthplace of the famous tire that has so often carried him to victory. Starting from Los Angeles on April 12, over the old Santa Fe trail, Barney, accompanied by David D. Joyce, millionaire lumberman, had an interesting 14-day trip with no particular object except to put Barney in condition for the summer racing campaign and give Joyce the opportunity of doing missionary work for the A. A. A., of which body he is chairman. Road troubles had been altogether absent and Barney had nothing but good to say of his big Firestone equipped Packard. Only one tire change was made and that in Kansas City, where one casing that had done 8000 miles before starting on the trip, and still carried California air, was changed only as a precaution. When asked if it was his intention to drive in the Indianapolis race, Barney replied with some energy, "You betcher." He expects to remain East until after this event. The accompanying photograph shows Barney in Akron and seated by him is H. W. Kugler, chief chemist of the Firestone Company. Barney's mechanic is at the side of the car.

While the magneto does not require much attention other than an occasional oiling, in accordance with the instructions of the makers, it is a good plan to remove the breaker box and distributor covers to clean these members. A small, soft brush will be of service. This should be done at intervals, especially if the magneto is exposed to dust, etc.

MULFORD'S RUN TALK OF MOTOR WORLD AS EVENT

Smiling Ralph Kicks Out Every Record for 24 Hour Grind in Hudson Super-Six

When Ralph Mulford, known to the automobile racing world as "Smiling Ralph," completed 1819 miles in 24 hours at the Sheepshead Bay speedway recently with the Hudson super-six, behind the wheel of which he has been cutting into all records during the winter and spring, the 24-hour performance became the talk of the automobile world. Mulford made his record in the non-competitive class under A. A. A. auspices, with electric timing operated by H. H. Knepper of Detroit. Every known record for 24 hours went by the boards. Some of the 24-hour records made in the past, that have been allowed, include the mile dirt track 24-hour record of 1198 miles established October 15, 1909, by Ralph Mulford and Cyrus Patchke. This was made at the Brighton Beach track, New York, and was a stock car event. Al Poole and Cyrus Patchke established a class C non-stop record at the Brighton Beach track October 19, 1910, when they covered 1253 miles. The first 24-hour record to be made on a modern speedway was established in April of 1911, at the Los Angeles mile board speedway, known as the Pic Plate, and built by Jack Prince, Verbeck and Hirsch with a Fiat car did 1491 miles.

DODGE BROTHERS CHIEF DECLARES PUBLIC HAS NEED OF STANDARD CAR

In reviewing what the automobile shows brought forth, Russell Huff, chief engineer of Dodge Brothers, says: "One of the impressive facts as revealed by an analysis of the inquiries received from automobile show visitors is the growing respect of the public for the established models of motor cars. "New types naturally have their attraction, but the serious-minded person looking for a real investment, and who cannot afford to play with an experiment, wants a model which has proven its reliability and established its worth by long use in the hands of thousands of owners. "The keen buyer of today is fully aware of the fact that proper motor car values are established and prolonged; first, by giving the public a car designed along sound engineering lines and built of high-grade materials; and second, by sustaining this model year after year and adding perfected details from time to time as dictated by continuous engineering study and manufacturing evolution. "Concentration is the safest and surest road to perfection. The enviable position of the Dodge Brothers car in the mind of the public today could not have been attained without following these common laws of standardization and concentrated effort. The car's freedom from shattered second-hand values confirms its stability and is a full vindication of the company's policy."

AUTO A GOOD THING BUT NOT 'JOY RIDE,' SAYS EVANGELIST

Brown, of Brown and Curry, States Motor Car Has Share in World's Progress

"The worst thing about an automobile is the joy ride that sometimes goes with it," said Evangelist "Brother" Brown when riding in a Saxon six. Evangelist Brown, who is conducting revival services in the big Brown tabernacle at 11th and Hope streets, Los Angeles, neither drives nor owns an automobile. He is a southern gentleman and a lover of horses, but he claims that he knows a good motor car when he sees one. "Brother" Brown is a hearty Saxon booster and he boasts for what he believes in, whether it is in the pulpit or on the street, whether it is religion or an automobile.

Should he find it possible to do so, "Brother" Brown intends, during his evangelistic campaign in Los Angeles, to make a number of addresses to working men, visiting their places of employment during the noon hour where permission to do so is granted by employers. In this work he will use a Saxon six as a pulpit from which to deliver his address. "As I remarked before," said the evangelist, "the worst feature of the automobile is the tendency toward what is commonly known as 'joy riding.' There is no doubt, however, that the motor car has had a great share in the general progress of humanity, and like many other things, the few evils attendant upon its coming and its presence are more than offset by the good it has accomplished."

MOTORCYCLE EXPERTS HAVE UNIQUE EXPERIENCE IN MEXICO CAMPAIGN

Two motorcycle experts with General Pershing's forces in Mexico recently completed an adventurous ride of 350 miles as far as Casas Grandes with an Indian motorcycle equipped with Goodyear bluestreak tires. Both had lieutenant's commissions in order to instruct the soldiers riding the new motorcycles purchased for the army. A good deal of the riding was through desert land, requiring great skill in handling the motorcycle. Thousands of mesquite bushes were encountered. These bushes have thorns over an inch long, and many times the tires were rushed through beds of these thorns, yet the bluestreaks came through without a scratch.

A newcomer in the accessories field that will be welcomed by motorists is the Goodyear tire-saver kit, a collection of just those articles a motorist should have to combat tire accidents. These are neatly packed in a khaki-colored canvas roll, and can be secured from all Goodyear dealers. Prospectors are reported to have made a rich gold strike at Boob and Tolstoi creeks, in the Inno district of Alaska.

SPEEDWAY CLASSIC WILL BE AUTO FEATURE MAY 30

Many Cars Will Race at Indianapolis in 300 Mile Event—Barney Oldfield, Ralph Mulford, Dario Resta, Gil Anderson, Eddie Rickenbacher and Other Stars Will Compete—Nine Foreign Cars Will Be Entered in Big Speed Classic

Indianapolis' speedway's 300-mile race has emerged from the clouds that overshadowed it, when the entries closed, as the final count showed 29 cars eligible to try for a chance at the $30,000 prize.

It has been the contention of the studios followers of the auto speed sport, since the construction of additional speedways, that Indianapolis, from the spectator's standpoint, will have the best race of the year, because it is the only course in the country where the public gets its money's worth in the exhibition of driving skill, and not a mere display of mechanical efficiency, in the production of high speed, which becomes monotonous.

Two Runners up In.

With nine foreign and 20 American cars, numbering among their drivers eight stars of the first magnitude, and the fame that goes to a winner on the Hoosier course, the race bids fair to fulfill all the predictions. With the race lowered to 300 miles the drivers will not save their cars as they would were it the five-century distance and the average for 300 miles will probably be as fast if not faster than DePalma's $9.84 for the last 500, if the same weather conditions hold. Should the day be warm it will hustle the winner to put the average at the 85-mile mark, even for the shorter distance.

In the field of 29 drivers, not a single winner of any of the 500-mile races can be found. Two runner-up pilots, however, have put in an appearance, Ralph Mulford, 1911 runner-up, drives a Peugeot, and Dario Resta, last year's second place man, has the same Peugeot that he piloted in 1915. The only one of the runner-up drivers in the five races now dead is Spencer Wishart, who held that place in 1913. Teddy Tetzlaff, 1912, and Arthur Duray, 1914, are not listed. Teddy is in California while Duray is serving with the French army.

The missing winners and the years they were victorious follow: Ray Harroun, 1911; Joe Dawson, 1912; Jules Goux, 1913; Rene Thomas, 1914; Ralph DePalma, 1915. Harroun has retired, injuries prevent Dawson's driving, Goux and Thomas are in the military service in France, while DePalma did not see fit to drive in Indianapolis. Cooper on Fensie.

Eight star drivers will face the starter on Memorial Day if their cars stand the test in the time trials. This may be increased to nine if pending drivers are Dario Resta, Barney Oldfield, Ralph Mulford, Eddie Rickenbacher, Joseph Christiaens, Louis Chevrolet, Gil Anderson and Eddie O'Donnell.

Two drivers nominated are coming back to the sport after a retirement of some months and years. Charley Merz, retired in 1913, after finishing the 500 with his Stutz car, after Harry Stillman, a former team mate of Ray Harroun, on the Marmon outfit, is the fellow who is doing the real "come back." Harry has not done much driving since 1909 and 1910, but has been employed by the Olds and Lyons-Atlas factories as an engineer. The veteran is carded to drive a Premier.

It may be a Chandler.

Among the 10 foreign cars are numbered four Peugeots, three Delages and two Sunbeams. The American field has four three-car teams, Frontenac, Premier, Crawford and Duesenberg. Two two-car teams are Maxwell and Erwin Special. Individual entries are Ogren Special, DuChesneau Special, Osteweg Special and that "Mystery" car from Cleveland. It is rumored that the last named car, entered by a Cleveland, is a Chandler car, with another name.

All but seven of the 21 cars for the New York sprint card are entered at Indianapolis, which will mean that the drivers in the Gotham events will have to work fast to get their mounts properly tuned for the Hoosier classic and take their trials Friday and Saturday, before the race.

WAY TO MORE MILEAGE FOR CAR OWNERS AND THOUGHTFUL DRIVERS

ARTICLE TWO

The application, care and usage of tires are necessary things to consider, but it is essential to good service that the correct type and size be adopted. Car construction, power, lateral strains and traction strains to the tires must be kept in mind when deciding upon diameter and cross section of tire equipment, but the weight of car is probably the most important thing.

The weight of the car can be ascertained by running the front half of it on platform scales, then rear half, and the weight carried by each tire will be one-half of the respective amounts. Middle of wheel base will be the weight dividing point between the front and rear halves of car. The approach to the scales should be level and, if reasonable care is exercised, the total of the two operations will be within 20 or 30 pounds of the weight of the car when all of it is upon the scales.

Tire Types.

Much delay and annoyance can be avoided when ordering new tires by specifying the style. Regular clincher cases have stretchable beads and are designed for use on regular clincher (one-piece) rims; they are sometimes used also on Quick Detachable clincher rims. When used on Regular Clincher rims it is desirable for sizes including the 4-inch and above, to use clips or stay bolts to hold beads securely in rim clinches. When using Regular Clincher tires on Quick Detachable Clincher rims, it is necessary to use flaps to protect the inner tubes.

Quick Detachable Clincher cases have non-stretchable beads and can only be used on Quick Detachable Clincher rims and the split type of Clincher rims. This style of tire should always be equipped with flaps.

Straight side or straight bead cases have non-stretchable beads imbedded in the base and are designed only for Quick Detachable Straight Side Rims and split type of Straight Side Rims. This style should always be equipped with flaps. Straight Side tires are sometimes used on Quick Detachable Clincher rims having filler beads fitted in clinches of rims. This is not to be recommended, however, as the base width of this style of rim is not suitable for Straight Side tires.

Akron, Ohio, is one of the tire companies whose experience extends back to the beginning of the industry, and was the first company to produce the straight side, or "No Hook" tire. Goodyear tires of this type were used by King Edward VII.

NEW ZEALANDERS LIKE CADILLAC AUTOMOBILE

How American autos and tires are successfully competing in foreign lands is shown by a letter just received by E. E. Bodge, manager of the von Hamm-Young Co.

This letter, which is from New Zealand, tells why the invasion of American-made goods has become effective, and why these goods are holding their own in the face of fierce competition.

Norman L. Emms, proprietor of the Takaka-Nelson Motor Service, a company that operates Cadillac motor cars equipped with United States Nobby Tread tires, between Nelson, Motueka and Takaka, New Zealand, writes that his motor stages average over 100 miles daily over roads that are very bad in many places.

REO CAR SALES MAKE RECORD

"Never before has the Reo motor car been in such popular demand as has been experienced in the past few months," says Mr. Geo. Wells, manager of the Royal Hawaiian Garage, local distributors for the Reo car.

"The absolute reliability and the wide flexibility of the Reo combined with the former reputation for incomparable service, has made the demand for Reo motor cars greater in the last three months than has been experienced in the last two years. And sales have jumped in the same proportion.

"The Reo has justly been called 'the acme of standardization,' for in the midst of sensationalism and experiment, the Reo has maintained its prestige for progressive conservatism. We believe the majority of buyers really want service rather than sensationalism, and that is the big idea back of the Reo cars.

"Our Reo engineers have concentrated on the perfection of present models to the point where the cost of maintenance is the lowest it is possible to attain. This, we find, is what the buyer wants."

The Royal Hawaiian Garage has made a record in the sale of Reo cars within the past few months and from the present demand, Mr. Wells says sales will strike an even higher average.

CLAIMS SUCCESS FOR GASO-TONIC

W. A. Anderson of the Acetylene Light and Agency Company, introducing the new product, Gaso-Tonic, to local owners, yesterday expressed unbounded satisfaction at the success which it has met with since its introduction.

"What Gaso-Tonic means to the motorist," said Mr. Anderson, is: "First, more power; second, more speed; third, more mileage per gallon of gasoline; fourth, carbon elimination; fifth, smaller repair bills.

"All these things come without the slightest injury, for Gaso-Tonic contains no acid, ether or other ingredients harmful in any way to the motor or to the car itself. This is absolutely guaranteed.

"There is no mystery about Gaso-Tonic excepting the manner of its making.

"The reason for its wonderful work can be told in two words: perfect combustion.

"Perfect combustion means more

"THE MARVELOUS MOTOR"

The Name Still Holds

WHEN the Chandler pioneered the light-six field and changed the trend of the whole motor car industry three years ago, enthusiastic Chandler owners named the Chandler Motor "The Marvelous Motor." It was the marvelous motor. And it still is the marvelous motor, —more marvelous now than then. In every fundamental way it is the same motor, though more powerful and more flexible, and three years have served to refine it wherever refinement was possible.

In the midst of extravagant claims for new theories and untried ideas, the Chandler motor stands free from any hint of experimentation. From coast to coast men KNOW what this motor does, men KNOW they can DEPEND on it, men KNOW its service quality is enhanced by the fact that it is a PROVEN MECHANISM.

And Chandler bodies, the new big seven-passenger touring car body with its walnut-paneled tonneau cowl and new four-passenger Roadster, are the most beautiful bodies of the year.

"PROPER INFLATION MEANS INCREASED MILEAGE"

Tire Properly Inflated

If you drive a car on a deflated tire, it is apt to be an expensive trip, for no combination of rubber and fabric can possibly withstand the severe bending and grinding that takes place between the road and the rim when a tire is deflated.

The accompanying illustrations show a tire properly inflated and the appearance of a tire under a load when partially inflated, also what happens to the tire in turning a corner when partially inflated.

Tire Rounding Corner When Insufficiently Inflated

Let these illustrations be object lessons to you. If you want to get the longest possible mileage from your tires and reduce your tire bills, this can be best done by simply remembering that air is the best tonic for them.

Tire Under Load When Insufficiently Inflated

MR. AUTO OWNER—HERE IT IS!

When installing tire chains it is not advisable to have them too tight. If the chains are held in a fixed position the tread of the tire is apt to be loosened at these points. If the chain is slightly loose it will work around to different positions and cause less injury to the tread.

The universal joints in the propeller shaft and clutch shaft are probably the most neglected parts of any car. These parts have considerable work to do and should be well lubricated. They should be inspected and lubricated approximately every 500 miles. Care should also be taken to keep these protected from dust and dirt.

When washing out a filter, such as an oil filter, care should be taken to pass the gasoline or other washing fluid through the wire gauze in the direction opposite to the normal flow of oil through the device. The reason for this is that if gasoline is passed through in the same direction as the oil it will probably leave particles of fluff or other substances that might have been caught, sticking just where they were, while washing in the opposite direction would dislodge them.

Quite often one of the valve push rods will stick in the guide and cause the motor to miss fire. A slightly warped valve stem will produce the same result. A push rod may be freed by rubbing down with emery, but it is best to replace a warped valve.

One of the most old-fashioned and, according to many who have used it, one of the best methods of cleaning and brightening leather upholstery, is to rub it well with a cloth or sponge dipped in white of egg that has been beaten up a little to prevent its being stringy, and then give it a final rubbing with a dry, soft cloth to remove all traces of the egg.

GOODYEAR MAKES HIT WITH LARGE PNEUMATIC TIRE

First to Use Pneumatics, Says Harry Parker of Auto Service and Supply Company

"Our constantly increasing output of pneumatic truck tires is one of the signs of the efforts truck manufacturers are making to furnish the most efficient tire equipment with their goods," says Harry Parker, manager of the Auto Service & Supply Co., local agents for Goodyear tires.

"We are the pioneers in introducing a big pneumatic tire for trucks and have necessarily had to blaze our own trail. At first real selling effort was required to introduce these big pneumatics, but now that they have vindicated themselves their sale has been greatly accelerated. The field for them is developing rapidly. Nearly every manufacturer in the country now honors specifications for our big pneumatics. Truck users and truck manufacturers are more and more coming to appreciate the value of extra cushioning in deadening vibration. Some have been seeking relief by the use of dual pneumatics, that is, two tires on each rear wheel. And now large fleets are mounted on single pneumatic equipment. The single tire obviously does away with the difficulty of maintaining equal air pressure in duals.

"Not only are these big tires proving their worth by providing greater cushioning and freedom from tire trouble, but they greatly reduce repair expense and increase the life of the truck. When we first introduced them their appeal was largely to truck owners hauling perishable or breakable goods, but so apparent have their advantages been that trucks in all classes of service are now using them.

"One field in which they have been signally successful is that of equipment on sight-seeing cars. To retain their popularity these cars must furnish easy riding. And as they are run on a schedule the likelihood of puncture or other tire trouble must be eliminated. That this condition is fulfilled by our pneumatic truck tire is evidenced by the fact that a set of these tires, now in service, has traveled 23,000 miles without having been removed from the rims. Big mileage has come to be the rule rather than the exception."

The foremost tire engineers in the country have declared in favor of the single pneumatic tire for trucks, and some have predicted that within the next three years practically all ton and 1½-ton trucks will leave the factory on pneumatic tires.

William H. ("Billy") Pickens, who is connected with Jack Prince in the construction and opening of the Kansas City speedway, is authority for the statement that Kansas City may have to start a dirt speedway, inasmuch as it has been impossible to secure the necessary lumber in that part of the world.

Interest has been aroused in the plans of New York promoters to revive 24-hour racing, with Sheephead Bay as the scene of the revival. New York was the original promoter of 24-hour racing contests and thousands of people attended the races, both night and day, the interest during the night being more intense than during the daytime, with larger crowds than at any time during the day, except at the finish. A. B. Corder and Tom Moore were connected with the former promotions of these races and, realizing the chances for records and startling contests on the fast Sheephead Bay course, they have secured permission to organize the "twice-around the clock" contest. The plans are to hold this race June 17.

A simple but effective way to take off or put on piston rings is to cut four pieces of tin about one-quarter of a inch wide and three or four inches long and slide them under the piston rings a little way apart. In doing this one may take them off or put them on with little trouble.

Sanction has been asked of the contest board of the American Automobile Association for the 300-mile professional race planned for Kansas City during the summer. The course is 15 miles around and extends through Grand View and Martin City. The start is from the clubhouse of the Automobile Club of Kansas City, at Hickman Mills. The officials of the Kansas City Club believe this course will be one of the finest in the United States.

It is not good policy to see how long the valves will hold compression without grinding. The valves should be re-seated about every 2,000 miles, whether the compression is good or not. Especially is this true with exhaust valves. If they are neglected too long they become pitted, and then it is difficult to grind them into good condition again. Very often after waiting until this condition arises it will be found necessary to install new valves.

The spring clips which hold the springs to the axles should be frequently inspected and tightened. A loose spring clip will cause a spring to break very quickly. A little oil and graphite injected between the spring leaves will also make them more flexible and prevent squeaks, due to rusting.

Through its adoption of rules for stock car racing and record breaking the contest board of the American Automobile Association has recognized the demand for stock car competition under a liberal definition. The stock car contests and records are styled "Class B," and in the days of cycle racing Class B contests were for men who were neither amateur nor professional—in other words, paid amateurs who earned a salary from the manufacturers for riding various makes of bicycles, but who raced for prizes and not money. Stock car racing will be for stock models especially prepared for competition, according to the understanding. The "Jimmie" of the car to make it go faster will be allowable. By "jimmie" engineers mean changes in gear ratios and other changes to add to the speed.

BETWEEN two cars, even of excellent riding qualities, you may be able to observe certain slight or indifferent distinctions.

But you will recognize that the difference between the smoothest, steadiest car you have ever known, and the eight-cylinder Cadillac, is not merely slight or indefinite.

It is impressively brought home to you that you must reject your previous ideals and that you must adopt new standards of what constitutes real motoring luxury.

Before you have ridden a mile in the Cadillac, you find that the qualities which you have most desired in a motor car, have been developed to a point that is absolutely new to you.

You discover—immediately the ear glides into motion—that the quality of quietness has been given a new significance.

You find that neither the engine nor any other part of the marvelously efficient mechanism intrudes itself upon you.

You find that you are traveling more continuously on direct drive than you had thought possible in any car.

Pick-up, from a snail's pace to express train speed, is accomplished with so little effort that it is scarcely apparent.

Hills which, before, had compelled a car to strain and labor, seem almost to subside into a level roadway—so easily, so quietly and with so little exertion does the Cadillac surmount them.

Fatigue and exhaustion, which may have characterized your journeys in the past, are replaced by a sense of intense exhilaration and keen enjoyment.

The most enthusiastic Cadillac admirers are those whose motor car experience has been most extended.

There have been no exceptions to the astonishment and delight of those who have ridden in this unusual car.

The handling and control are so easy; the springs and the deep, soft upholstery are so yielding; the smoothness, the quietness, the activity and the flexibility are so delightfully soothing; there is such a sense of velvet softness in every movement of the car, that you cannot resist its supreme charm.

And so, your experience with the Cadillac resolves itself into something even broader than complete satisfaction.

It carries with it the gratifying sense of owning something different and something superior—a car which surpasses ordinary standards and deepens and intensifies the enjoyment of every phase of motoring.

Copyright, 1907, by the MacMillan company.

Broken Tooth displayed remarkable agility in the game. He was "it" less frequently than any of us, and in the course of the game he discovered one difficult "slip" that neither Lop Ear nor I was able to accomplish.

When we were "it" Broken Tooth always ran out to the end of a lofty branch in a certain tree. From the end of the branch to the ground it must have been seventy feet and nothing intervened to break a fall.

I was "it" the last time Broken Tooth tried this. He had gained the end of the branch and begun his teetering, and I was creeping out after him, when suddenly there came a low warning cry from Lop Ear.

I heard the crackle of a dry twig and, looking down, saw my first Fire Man. He was creeping stealthily along on the ground and peering up into the tree.

It came to me instantly as I looked at him. This was the terror of the northeast, of which the mystery of smoke was a token. Yet I was puzzled. Certainly he was nothing of which to be afraid.

But he carried something in his hand that I had never seen before. It was a bow and arrow. But at that time a bow and arrow had no meaning for me.

The latter abruptly reversed his circling. Lop Ear, caught unawares, also hastily reversed, but did not win the protection of the trunk until after the Fire Man had twanged the bow.

The game continued a little longer, but Lop Ear did not expose himself a second time. Then the Fire Man gave it up. I leaned far out over my horizontal limb and chattered down at him.

The first arrow leaped upward, Broken Tooth yelled with fright and pain: It had reached its mark. This put a new complexion on the matter.

When Lop Ear had chewed off the head of the arrow the shaft was withdrawn easily enough. I started to go on, but this time it was he that stopped me.

When we went outside there was a crackle of frost under foot. One morning we discovered ice on the surface of the quiet water in the eddy where stage of the dream did I wake up screaming with fright—to find often my mother or nurse, anxious and startled, by my bedside, passing soothing hands through my hair and telling me that they were there and that there was nothing to fear.

CHAPTER VI.

My next dream in the order of succession begins always with the flight of Lop Ear and myself through the forest. The Fire Man and Broken Tooth and the tree of the tragedy are gone.

At last I gave up, crouching in the secure fork of a tree. Lop Ear went right on. I called to him most plaintively, I remember, and he stopped and looked back.

For some time we crouched there, Lop Ear nervous and anxious to be gone, perpetually and apprehensively peering this way and that, and myself whimpering softly and sobbing.

Once again Lop Ear tried to drag the arrow through the flesh, and I angrily stopped him. Then he bent down and began gnawing the shaft of the arrow with his teeth.

How Was I to Know That Death Lurked in That Bent Piece of Wood? Two of us, half grown cubs, in the childhood of the race, and the one mastering his fear, beating down his selfish impulse of flight.

When Lop Ear had chewed off the head of the arrow the shaft was withdrawn easily enough. I started to go on, but this time it was he that stopped me. My leg was bleeding profusely.

Well I do remember that first winter after I left home. I have long dreams of sitting shivering in the cold. Lop Ear and I sit close together, with our arms and legs about each other, blue faced and with chattering teeth.

When we went outside there was a crackle of frost under foot. One morning we discovered ice on the surface of the quiet water in the eddy where
