IOWA IN THE WORLD WAR.

Under the direction of Governor William L. Harding, Commander in Chief, Iowa sent into the Federal Service during the war with the Central powers, 1917-19, about 98,000 soldiers, 10,000 sailors and 600 Marines, all of whom accredited themselves honorably, reflecting luster upon the state.

The 98,000 soldiers comprised 9,719 National Guardsmen, 68,512 selected service men, and the remainder enlistments in the Guard, after federal draft August 6, 1917, the Regular Army, and officers commissioned from civil life.

When this is written May 17, 1919, it is estimated that the total losses, killed in action, died of wounds, accidentally killed and died from disease, are about 3,300 or 3 per cent, nearly the same as the per cent of losses in the Spanish American war, as against a percentage of losses in the Civil war of 17 per cent.

The general supervision of securing these men and sending them into Federal Service devolved upon Adjutant General Guy E. Logan until July 1918, when General Logan entered the Federal Service. After this date the work was completed by Adjutant General Louis G. Lasher.

On April 1, 1917 when it appeared certain that a state of war would be declared by the Congress against the Central Powers the military strength of Iowa consisted of 2242 Iowa National Guardsmen, partially disorganized because of recent service on the Mexican Border. The ranks of the three regiments of Infantry, one squadron of Cavalry, three batteries of Field Artillery and auxiliary troops were thinned because of the refusal of men to take a new Federal oath.

With the declaration of a state of war, the ranks of the Guard were quickly filled and new units organized. They were called into service by Governor Harding on July 15, 1917, mustered into service during July and drafted as organizations into Federal service August 5, 1917.

The Iowa National Guard organizations, with their federal designations were as follows:

Headquarters First Iowa Brigade, reorganized into the 67th. Brigade Headquarters, 34th Division, arrived at Camp Cody, New Mexico, August 25, 1917, arrived in Camp Dix, N. J. September 1, 1918, arrived at St. Medard, La Brede Area, near Bordeaux, France, October 12, 1918. Skeletonized at Le Mans, France, November 2, 1918, Headquarters returned to United States and mustered out of the service at Camp Grant, Illinois, February 12, 1919.

First Iowa Infantry, reorganized into the 133rd Infantry arrived at Camp Cody, New Mexico October 1st and 2nd, arrived at Camp Dix, New Jersey, September 1, 1918, arrived at St. Selve, France, October 8, 1918, Skeletonized at Le Mans and St. Aignan, France November 1st and November 12th, 1918. Headquarters returned to United States and discharged from the service at Camp Grant, Illinois, February 12, 1919.

Second Iowa Infantry reorganized into the 125th, and 126th Machine Gun Battalion and 133rd Infantry arrived in Camp Cody, New Mexico, August 30, 1917 arrived at Camp Dix, New Jersey, August 27th to 31st 1918, arrived in La Crede Area, France, October 10th and 12th. Machine Gun Battalions skeletonized at Le Mans, France, November 10 to November 15th, 1918. Headquarters returned to United States and discharged from the service at Camp Grant, Illinois, February 12, 1919.

Train Headquarters and Headquarters detachment returned to Iowa May 6, 1919, for muster out.

Field Hospitals 1 and 2 and Ambulance Companies 1 and 2 assigned to 109th Sanitary Train, 34th Division, arrived at Camp Cody, October 4, 1917, arrived Camp Dix, August 23, 1918, arrived France, November 1, 1918, skeletonized at Le Mans, France, November 20, 1918.

Work upon the Selective Service law commenced in May, 1917 and the first registration took place June 5, 1917, the second registration on June 5, 1918, the third on August 24, 1918 and the fourth on September 12, 1918. The total registrations were as follows:

	Registrants	Class 1 Fighting men
June 5, 1917	217,914	68,192
June-August 1918.....	21,571	13,151
September 12, 1918	283,893	36,247
Total	523,578	117,590

Of this number of Class 1 men the 112 Local Boards in Iowa inducted and sent to Camp 68,512 men, leaving 49,696 men ready to go when the Armistice was signed.

During the administration of the draft extending from May 18, 1917 to May 13, 1919, when the State Draft Headquarters were closed, about 11,666 Iowa men and women assisted in the administration of the work:

State Headquarters, officers and clerks	23
Registrants, 1st and 3rd registration	5,000
Members first registration boards	320
Members District Boards and advisors	21
Local Board members and Chief clerks	531

Associate Members Legal Advisory Boards	3,800
Additional Examining Physicians	179
Dental Surgeons for Local Boards	112
Members Boards of Instruction	431
Soldier clerks	112
Total Number officials and employees	11,666

The final financial report of Major Roy W. Snell, U. S. A. Disbursing Officer and Agent for Iowa added to previous expenditures shows a total expenditure of $423,045.52, an average cost per registrant in Iowa of 80 cents and an average cost per inducted man of $6.17. The Second Annual report of the Provost Marshal General shows the nation average per man inducted as $7.90.

In addition to Individual inductions, enlistments in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, of which no accurate record is available at this time, Iowa sent inducted men to camps as follows:

Camp Dodge, Iowa	36,577
Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana	152
Camp Alfred Vail, New Jersey	15
Camp Dix, New Jersey	142
Camp Meade, Maryland	20
Fort Meyer, Virginia	25

New York University, New York	100
Wisconsin University, Madison, Wisconsin	400
Fort Worden, Washington	500
Camp Humphrey, Virginia	7
Washington Barracks, Washington D. C.	2
Total	68,512

When the Armistice was signed on November 11, 1918 the following men were entraining for the camps named:

Camp Greenleaf, Georgia	2,500
Fort McArthur, California	1,400
Camp Dodge, Iowa	4,154

Of this number about 600 actually entered the service for a day or two and were discharged from the Army before reaching camp, the day the armistice was signed, November 11.

Camp Commanders assigned these selected men to organizations and the Adjutant General of Iowa has been unable to secure the names of the organizations in which they served, Camp Commanders uniformly asserting that they can not give this data. It is known that several thousand selected men sent to Camp Dodge served in France with the 88th Division but thousands of Iowa men were transferred from camp to camp and from organization to organization until it is impossible for the Adjutant General of Iowa to say at this time where they served a majority of their time in the Army. This record will be secured later from the Adjutant General of the Army for compilation by the Iowa War Roster Commission, which under the provisions of H. F. 362 by Williams, is at work gathering the individual record of each soldier, sailor and marine from Iowa.

A compilation of data secured from the 112 Local Selective Service Boards in Iowa in August 1918, while these boards were sending men to camp gives an incomplete record of the effect upon the farming industry. At that time it showed:

Farmers and farm laborers inducted	32,799
Men in other occupations inducted	30,461

This shows that of the men inducted 51.87 percent were farmers or farm laborers, but it does not take into account the National Guardsmen, nearly 10,000, practically all of whom were from the cities and towns.

The State census of 1915 shows the urban population to be 54.1 percent, a trifle more than half of the total population of the state. It therefore appears that the rural and urban districts of the states, each with about half the population furnished almost an equal number of men for the army.

(The foregoing was prepared by Frank E. Lyman, lieutenant colonel and aide on the Governor's staff.)

LAWS OF THE THIRTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA.

THE HOUSING LAW.

BY CURTIS W. REESE.

Senate File No. 475, Chapter 123, Acts of the 38th G. A., known as the Housing Law of Iowa, approved March 31, 1919, and effective on and after July 4, 1919, aims to promote the health, safety, and welfare of the people by requiring certain minimum standards as regards space, light, ventilation, sanitation, fire protection, and other features of dwellings.

This act is mandatory for every city of 15,000 or more population, and for every city as its population reaches 15,000. All cities and incorporated towns having a population less than 15,000 are empowered to adopt ordinances covering similar matters.

Enforcement is in the hands of the health officer or Board of Health of each city. The State Board of Health is authorized to examine into the enforcement in any city, to take steps necessary to secure enforcement, and to apply provisions of the act to mining camps.

The housing law, two enabling acts, and a concurrent resolution providing for the printing of the law, were passed by the 38th G. A. without a dissenting vote.

MEMORIAL BUILDINGS.

BY ORA WILLIAMS.

The people are given very wide latitude in the matter of purchase or erection of public buildings under a new law which provides that counties, cities and towns may purchase or condemn ground for and erect and equip buildings to be known as memorial buildings and such buildings may include military headquarters, memorial rooms, library, assembly hall, gymnasium, natatorium and club rooms or offices for cities and counties or, in fact, for almost any public purpose. Provision is made for a vote on the subject upon a demand for a certain number of voters after which bonds may be issued to finance the transaction and taxes be levied to pay the indebtedness and the support. There is also provision that gifts to cities, towns and counties are authorized and to be applied to such buildings or memorials. The general terms of the law are such that buildings for almost any public purpose can be erected at public expense under this law and be maintained.

There is no reason why any community, feeling the need for a public building, should not avail itself of this law to supply its needs and in future years it will undoubtedly be utilized as the means of securing a great many public buildings.

NEW HIGHWAY LAW.

BY DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

The 38th General Assembly took a long hoped for step toward making it possible for counties to make permanent road improvements by the enacting of the New Highway Law known as chapter 237. By this law the good faith of the state was pledged to meet with an equal sum the amount appropriated for road use in this state by the federal government. In order to meet such appropriation the legislature set aside the funds received from motor vehicle licenses.

The new law makes the following provision with reference to the improving of what is called the primary roads:

Each county, acting through its board of supervisors, shall have three options in the expenditures of its allotments from the primary road fund:

First, it may elect to complete the grading and drainage of any part or all of the primary roads within the county before laying any hard surfacing; or

Second, it may hard surface in any one year, such portion of the roads in the primary system in its county as may be met by its allotted portion of the primary road fund for said year, plus any balance remaining to its credit from previous allotments, plus the special assessments on abutting and adjacent real estate as hereinafter provided; or it may proceed in any one year with draining and grading on one or more divisions of the primary system and with hard surfacing on other divisions of said system.

Third, it may proceed with said hard surfacing in a more rapid manner when authorized to do so by the voters of the county as hereinafter set forth, provided no hard surfacing shall be constructed on any division of the primary roads until the drainage and grading of said division shall have been fully completed.

It is hereby made the duty of the board of supervisors to proceed in the improvement of primary roads under this act as fast as the primary road fund is available, until the improvement of the primary system is completed; provided, however, that any county, after draining and grading its primary system, or any division thereof, shall have the right to surface same with gravel or oil or both if by resolution of the board of supervisors it elects so to do. Such graveling or oiling shall not be considered hard surfacing within the meaning of this act. * * *

The board of supervisors shall not proceed with hard surfacing of roads until such work shall be authorized by a majority vote of the electors of such county at a general election, or a special election, called for that purpose. " * * "

In addition to what is known as the primary roads we have secondary roads, which are also under the control of the board of supervisors. The law does not contemplate the hard surfacings of such roads until the primary systems have been improved.

THE NEW SCHOOL LAWS.

BY P. E. MC CLENAHAN.

The 38th General Assembly passed a large number of the most progressive school laws that have ever been placed upon the statute books of Iowa. These laws are the result of much study and investigation relative to the school problem in the State. They are based upon a substantial educational foundation, and will have a far reaching influence upon the future of education in the Hawkeye State.

A new progressive and up-to-date law which will make consolidation easier, and will put it upon a more substantial basis, was enacted.

A new minimum wage law was enacted, which bases the teacher's salary upon scholastic attainments. Already this is having marked effect upon the number of applications for teachers' certificates.

In the past the one-room rural school has been neglected, but the 38th General Assembly enacted the Evans-Smith Bill, which provides for the standard one-room school and appropriated one hundred thousand dollars to carry out the provisions of the Act.

A Teachers' Employment Bureau was created and made a department in the office of Public Instruction. It was not the intention of the bill that the department of public instruction be responsible for the teachers, but simply to make the office a clearing house so that the teachers and school boards could get together.

A new County Board of Education was created for the purpose of hearing appeal cases and to be of especial assistance to the County Superintendents of schools.

Vocational Education was provided for very generously, both for the present year, and the future development. In connection with this work educational provision was made for those students who have to go to work before they are sixteen years of age.

A bill was enacted which provides for the closing of small one-room schools where the attendance was not five or more.

All school legislation enacted by the last General Assembly was progressive, and will be far-reaching and beneficial in its influence.

TUBERCULOSIS ERADICATION.

BY ROBERT D. WALL.

The 38th General Assembly of the State of Iowa enacted a law which now appears as Chapter 287 of the Session Laws of the 38th General Assembly.

This law which has made a liberal provision for reimbursement for tubercular cattle and the control of contagious and infectious diseases among live stock in the State of Iowa will stand out as one of the most important steps ever taken by the General Assembly of the state of Iowa, for the control and eradication of live stock diseases, and which will mean a universal benefit to the live stock industry.

Provision is made for the cooperation of the Commission of Animal Health with the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, in the establishment of what is known as tuberculosi-free accredited herds. This cooperation is being carried on by a number of states and present indications are that it is meeting with general favor among the live stock men, both in the grade and purebred cattle business.

The reimbursement provided for under the Section covering State and accredited herd tests serves both as a stimulus for the stockman to eradicate tuberculosi from his herd and to maintain a healthy herd and brings about a feeling of cooperation rather than oppression, when it is found necessary to apply a test to cattle suspected of being tubercular. While it is probable that it will be necessary to materially increase the appropriation for the eradication of tuberculosi within the next few years to cover the necessary indemnities this disease can be so controlled that the condemnations will be fewer and therefore, consume less money by way of indemnities, and the money so expended can then be turned to the purpose of maintaining healthy herds and the prevention of other diseases.

The State of Iowa has in the neighborhood of 4,500,000,000 head of cattle and there are more than 10,000 herds in the state containing purebred cattle. It is estimated that 8% of the cattle in the state of Iowa are tubercular as shown by averaging the tests made on several hundred herds. While this may not appear to be a large percent it entails very severe loss when taking into consideration the infection transmitted to hogs following tubercular cattle. Iowa alone feeds millions of dollars worth of pork each year that is found to be tubercular, more or less of which is condemned as unfit for food.

Any one desiring to have their herd accredited with a view of eradicating tuberculosi may apply to the Commission of Animal Health at Des Moines and arrangements will be made for either a Federal accredited herd test or a State test. In the former the Government also provides for reimbursement. There are certain restrictions however, imposed by the Bureau of Animal Industry before a test of this kind will be granted. In applying a State test indemnity is paid only by the State and the detail requirements of the Government accredited herd plan are not imperative.

UNIFORM SALES ACT.

BY DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

The 38th General Assembly, by the enacting of Chapter 306, adopted what is known as the uniform sales act. This act was framed by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and was enforced by the American Bar Association several years ago. It has been in force in some states for ever ten years. Among the first states to adopt it were Connecticut and New Jersey. Shortly after, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Ohio, Maryland, New York, Wisconsin, Michigan, Arizona, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Nevada adopted the same law. It was introduced in the legislatures of a number of other states during the last few years and has met with approval in many of them.

The purpose of this law was to provide a uniform law governing the sale of goods and merchandise. The law provides what is necessary to constitute a contract for the sale of goods. It states what shall constitute price, conditions and warranties, sale by sample, transfer of properties between the seller and the buyer, when the title to the property shall be deemed to have been transferred, the performance of the contract, stoppage in transit, rescission by the seller, actions for breach of contract, and many other elements that enter into contracts for the sale of goods.

The reasons which prompted the enacting of the uniform negotiable instrument law and of the uniform bill of lading act, apply with equal force to the uniform sales act.

SYNOPSIS OF THE NEW MOTOR VEHICLE LAW.

BY R. M. WILLIAMS, SUPT. MOTOR VEHICLE DEPT.

The Thirty-eighth General Assembly enacted a motor vehicle law which revolutionizes the method of motor vehicle registration in the State of Iowa. Under this law the manner of computing the fee for the registration of automobiles is entirely changed; the fee now being based on the manufacturer's list price and the weight of the car. The fee is one per cent of the list price, fixed at the next even one hundred dollars above the list price, and forty cents per one hundred pounds of weight, fixed at the next even one hundred pounds of weight of the vehicle fully equipped. The fee for motor cycles is fixed at five dollars per year. After an automobile or motor cycle has been registered five times the fee is reduced one-half on the list price only.

The fee for trucks is based on the loading capacity and ranges from $15.00 for a truck of one ton or less capacity to $175.00 for one having a capacity of six tons. The fee for each ton of load capacity above six tons is $50.00 in addition to the six ton rate. No license is issued for a truck having a capacity of over six tons without permission of the municipal authorities if operated within the limits of a city or town or from the State Highway Commission if operated on the public highways of the State. The fee for trailers is also based on the load capacity and ranges in fees from $3.00 to $60.00 per year. New number plates are to be issued annually and all registrations, except dealers and chauffeurs, are to be made through the office of the County Treasurers of the several counties. The fee for Chauffeur's license is $2.00 per year and that of dealers $25.00 per year. Extra dealers plates are furnished at $15.00 per pair.

Reports of licenses issued are made to the Secretary of State each day and reports of fees collected are made monthly. The Secretary of State will maintain both a numerical and alphabetical index of all registrations made in the State. The County Treasurers will also maintain a numerical and alphabetical index but for his county only. Lists showing assignment of license numbers to the different counties will be published for the information of peace officers and the general public.

THE ENGINEERS LICENSE LAW.

BY LAFAYETTE HIGGINS.

Senate File 186-35th G. A., which provides for the examination and registration of professional engineers and land surveyors and defines professional engineering and professional land surveying, places the profession of engineering upon the same plane as the professions of law and medicine. It is expected that the enforcement of the provisions of the act will result in standardizing the work of the several branches of engineering, economize in the execution of engineering projects, and will safeguard the public against the employment of incompetent and inexperienced engineers. The economic loss to the state of Iowa in years past, by reason of incompetent engineering is hard to estimate, but to engineers competent to estimate such loss, it appears that the cost of errors will total many millions of dollars. This fact has finally become sufficiently impressed upon the minds of the people to demand that the engineers, upon whom rests the responsibility of designing and supervising public improvements, shall be fully equipped for their duties and that state certification of such competency is a necessary safeguard in the execution of public work.

THE NEW PLUMBERS LICENSE LAW.

BY LAFAYETTE HIGGINS.

Senate File 214-38th G. A., which amends the present plumbing laws and empowers the State Board of Health to establish a code of rules governing the installation of plumbing in the State of Iowa, is a forward step in the direction of the enactment of a state building code.

The effect of the new law, if properly enforced, will be to prevent the practice of cheap and imperfect plumbing. The provisions of the law are such that any municipality in the state or any property owner in the state, will be protected against imperfect workmanship and inadequate installations, for the reason that the plumbing code to be adopted under this act must define both the workmanship and materials necessary in sanitary plumbing and also provides for a state certification of licensed plumbers. The demand for a state building code has been insistent for the past six years. Plumbing regulations will necessarily constitute a considerable part of such building code and when such building code is provided for by the statute it will include the plumbing code provided for in this act.

HISTORICAL REVIEW OF LEGISLATION.

Relating to the Temple of Justice to be Erected Upon the Capitol Extension.

BY ARTHUR J. SMALL.

Owing to congestion of the State House, the imperative need of another building has been apparent for some years. Two types have been under consideration, one an office building for general office purposes, and the other a judiciary building or temple of justice to house the judicial departments of state government and the State Law Library, now housed in the Capitol.

In 1913 a bill was introduced by Senator Thomas J. B. Robinson, of Franklin County, (Senate File 63), and a companion bill in the House by Representative John W. Jacobs, of Calhoun County, (House File 140), providing for a commission and the purchase of a site near the Capitol, and the erection of an office building. This was defeated but during the same session a bill was passed providing for the extension and improvement of the State Capitol grounds and the adoption of landscape plans prepared by E. L. Masqueray of St. Paul, (House File 669), by the Committee on Appropriations, Ch. 14, laws of 1913. Among other things, this bill provided for the purchase of additional grounds near the Capitol and the location of buildings, monuments, etc. No further attempt was made to erect a building during this session.

In 1916 Senator Clem F. Kimball, of Pottawattamie County, introduced Senate File 114 and Representative Neff, also of Pottawattamie County, introduced a companion bill, House File 83, providing for the creation of a building commission and making an appropriation of $10,000 for plans and specifications for the erection of a fireproof building to be known as the "Temple of Justice." These bills were defeated. In the same session Representative Neff introduced House File 281, providing for the erection of a temple of justice, the cost not to exceed $750,000 to be paid out of the Extension Fund. This bill also was defeated.

In 1917 the Senate Committee on Public Buildings introduced Senate File 491, championed by Senator Kimball, providing for a Commission and for the erection of a judiciary building on the Capitol grounds to be paid for out of the Extension Fund. The bill as amended provided that the cost should not exceed $500,000. This bill passed the Senate but failed in the House.

In 1919 Representative W. F. Moore, of Guthrie County, introduced House File 157 providing for the erection of a fireproof building upon the Capitol grounds to be, both a memorial to soldiers and sailors, housing relics, mementos and trophies of the late German-European war, and also a judiciary building to house the Supreme Court, State Law Library and other judicial departments of the State. The building was to cost approximately $1,500,000. This bill was defeated in the House.

XIV LAWS OF THE THIRTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

During the same session Senator Kimball introduced a similar bill, being Senate File 73, in which he provided for a soldiers' and sailors' memorial building to house, among other things, trophies, etc., of the European war and also the judicial departments of the state, including the State Law Library. The bill was amended by striking out the memorial feature and giving it the title of the "Temple of Justice" to include the State Library, the Supreme Court, the Clerk of the Supreme Court, the Court Reporter, Attorney General, Railroad Commission, Commerce Council and the Board of Parole. This bill as amended became a law. (See Laws 1919, Ch. 349.) It provided, among other things, for a joint committee consisting of two members from each the House and the Senate, the Executive Council, the members of the Supreme Court with the present Chief Justice as chairman, which shall prepare plans and erect on the Capitol grounds a Temple of Justice, the cost not to exceed $1,000,000, part to be taken from the Extension Fund, the balance from the War Emergency Fund as provided for in Ch. 207, Laws of 1917.

The Speaker of the House appointed Representatives W. F. Moore, of Guthrie County, and A. O. Hauge, of Polk County; the President of the Senate appointed Senators Clem F. Kimball, of Pottawattamie County, and W. G. Haskell, of Linn County, to serve permanently as members of the committee with the Executive Council and Supreme Court. Chief Justice Scott M. Ladd is Chairman of the Committee and Secretary of State W. C. Ramsey is Secretary. The Committee has selected five firms of architects, namely: Temple and Burrows, Davenport; Proudfoot, Bird and Rawson, Des Moines; Boyd and Moore, Des Moines; William L. Steel, Sioux City; and William J. Brown, Cedar Rapids.

It is contemplated that work of construction shall begin early in the spring of 1920.

THE NEW VENEREAL DISEASE LAW.

BY DR. GUILFORD H. SUMMER.

The Thirty-eighth General Assembly enacted Chapter 299, relating to Venereal Diseases. All cities and communities should read this law and work in harmony for the enforcement.

All truly medical men know the cause of venereal diseases; they know that human carriers afford their chief mode of dissemination; they know that in prevalence and injury to the people they are not outranked by any others of the communicable disease group; and they know that theoretically all persons should proceed to apply these facts exactly as all intelligent persons apply similar facts concerning other preventable diseases.

When all is simplified, we would say that this means the adoption and enforcement of (1) measures for the discovery, treatment, and control of individuals already infected; (2) measures for the elimination of conditions of environment favoring the dissemination of the infection; (3) measures for the protection of individuals not yet infected.

It should be impressed upon all the people that, in practice, the application of such measures is exceedingly difficult, and cannot proceed more rapidly than the formation of public opinion upon the importance of eradicating these diseases. It seems that the people of Iowa are aroused to the point that strong measures must and shall be adopted and enforced to eradicate those awful diseases from our state:

The Surgeon General of the United States Army and the Attorney General of the United States have ordered that in states where cantonments have been located, all restrictive measures with reference to venereal diseases must be rigidly enforced in order that the soldiers of the cantonments may be protected. The officers who are attempting to enforce these laws are simply doing their patriotic duty, and it is the duty of every patriotic citizen to render every assistance within his power to see that all rules and regulations relating to venereal diseases are rigidly enforced.

IOWA STATE PARKS.

BY EDGAR R. HARLAN.

The 37th G. A. created the Iowa Board of Conservation whose duty it should be to advise with the Executive Council upon the areas suitable to reserve for State Parks. Funds were to be derived by dividing the gun licenses fund in two and using half thereof.

The 38th G. A. amended the law by affording the Board certain positive authority and placing at its disposal a hundred thousand dollars a year. The Board was appointed by the Executive Council and consists of Dr. L. H. Pammel of Ames, President; Edgar R. Harlan, Des Moines, Secretary; John F. Ford, Fort Dodge and Joseph Kelso, Bellevue.

Areas suited for reservation are those where lakes, rivers, forests, springs and other conditions fit them for recreation; where the rocks, soils, trees, plants, birds, animals and other things make them suitable for the scientist; where there have occurred the events of importance in prehistoric times or while the Indians and white men mingled, or more recently, which may be said to be historic, or where from the altitudes or other conditions there is peculiar scenic interest. Some areas have one, some all these values.

It is intended to select such areas as are unproductive of agriculture, and to handle other areas so as not to interfere with industry. It is expected that present conditions which do not allow of any recreation or scientific research except by trespass or private consent, shall be changed so that each person in the state shall be within easy driving distance of a spot where he can rest or study undisturbed for a day or week.

REVISION OF THE IOWA CODE

BY ORA WILLIAMS.

The Thirty-Eighth General Assembly made plans to hold a special session for the exclusive purpose of revising the Code of Iowa and this will probably be held commencing in January, 1920, upon call of the governor. By authority of Chapter 50 a commission to prepare the preliminary work needed before revision can be made was appointed and is at work, consisting of J. H. Trewin, Cedar Rapids; J. C. Mabry, Albia; and U. G. Whitney, Des Moines. Mr. Trawin, the chairman, was a member of the Code commission which prepared the Code of 1897. Mr. Whitney is reporter of the supreme court.

The commission is engaged in publishing a complete edition of the law of Iowa, as it now exists, eliminating all repealed sections and grouping the portions in force now so they will appear in their proper relation, and this Compiled Code will form the basis for the work of revision by the legislature. The commission will also publish an exhaustive report upon the changes suggested or improvements that are recommended, and also a series of bills pointing the way to proper revision of the various chapters of the Code. When the Thirty-eighth general assembly meets to formally act upon the revision and to complete the work thus commenced, it is expected that the bills submitted will be used and by reference to the report and comparison with the Compiled Code, a new complete Code will be made in a few months.

The last new Code was prepared in 1897 and supplements were issued in 1903, 1907, 1913 and 1915, since which time two new volumes of Session laws have been added. It is planned that the new Code will be in one volume with annotations in a separate volume of almost equal size.

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

PROCLAIMED BY THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS JULY 4, 1776.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such forms, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and, accordingly, all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present king of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these states. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world:

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained, and, when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature—a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the repository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the state remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these states; for that purpose obstructing the laws of naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render military independent of, and superior to, the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws, giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation—

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us;

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of the states;

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world;

For imposing taxes on us without our consent;

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury;

For transporting us beyond seas, to be tried for pretended offenses;

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province; establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies;

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments;

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here by declaring us out of his protection and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely parallel in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress, in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts, by their legislature, to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity; and we have conjured them, by the ties of our common kindred, to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They, too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in general congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name and by the authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, that these united colonies are, and of right out to be, free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that, as free and independent states, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a congress of the United States, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

Sec. 2. (1)* The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states; and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature.

(2) No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state in which he shall be chosen.

(3) [Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this union according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons.] The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative, and, until such enumeration shall be made, the state of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

(4) When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election, to fill such vacancies.

(5) The house of representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

Sec. 3. (1) The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, chosen by the legislature thereof for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.

(2) Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen, by resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

(3) No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen.

(4) The vice-president of the United States shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote, unless they be equally divided.

*The figures in brackets are inserted for convenience of reference; they are not in the original.

The foregoing clause included in brackets is amended by Sec. 2 of the 14th amendment, post.

(5) The senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore, in the absence of the vice-president, or when he shall exercise the office of president of the United States.

(6) The senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the president of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

(7) Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States; but the party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

Sec. 4. (1) The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof, but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators.

(2) The congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Sec. 5. (1) Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

(2) Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

(3) Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

(4) Neither house, during the session of congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

Sec. 6. (1) The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the sessions of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house they shall not be questioned in any other place.

(2) No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased, during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

Sec. 7. (1) All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives, but the senate may propose or concur with amendments, as on other bills.

(2) Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the president of the United States; if he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and, if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house, respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the president within ten days (Sunday excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the congress by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

(3) Every order, resolution or vote to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the president of the United States, and, before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or, being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

Sec. 8. The congress shall have power:—

(1) To lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States.

(2) To borrow money on the credit of the United States;

(3) To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states, and with the Indian tribes;

(4) To establish a uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States;

(5) To coin money, regulate the value thereof and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures;

(6) To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States;

(7) To establish post offices and post roads;

(8) To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries;

(9) To constitute tribunals inferior to the supreme court;

(10) To define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offenses against the law of nations;

(11) To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water;

(12) To raise and support armies; but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years;

(13) To provide and maintain a navy;

(14) To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces;

(15) To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the union, suppress insurrections and repel invasions;

(16) To provide for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States; reserving to the states, respectively, the appointment of the officers and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by congress;

(17) To exercise exclusive legislation, in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular states and the acceptance of congress, become the seat of the government of the United States, and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the state in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock yards and other needful buildings; and—

(18) To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

Sec. 9. (1) The migration or importation of such persons as any of the states now existing shall think proper to admit shall not be prohibited by the congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

(2) The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it.

(3) No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed.

(4) No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken.

(5) No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any state.

(6) No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one state over those of another; nor shall vessels bound to or from one state be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another.

(7) No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law, and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

(8) No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States; and no person holding any office of profit or trust under them shall, without the consent of the congress, accept of any present, emolument, office or title, of any kind whatever, from any king, prince or foreign state.

Sec. 10. (1) No state shall enter into any treaty, alliance or confederation; grant letters of marque or reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, or grant any title of nobility.

(2) No state shall, without the consent of congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws; and the net produce of all duties and imposts, laid by any state on imports or exports, shall be for the use of the treasury of the United States; and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and control of the congress.

(3) No state shall, without the consent of congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another state, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II.

Section 1. (1) The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years, and, together with the vice-president chosen for the same term, be elected as follows:

The electors shall meet in their respective states and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately choose, by ballot, one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then, from the five highest on the list, the said house shall, in like manner, choose the president. But in choosing the president the votes shall be taken by states, the representation for each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice-president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them, by ballot, the vice-president.

[The foregoing clause has been superseded and annulled by the twelfth amendment, post.]

(3) The congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes; which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

(4) No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

(5) In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice-president, and the congress may by law provide for the case of removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the president and vice-president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officer shall act accordingly until the disability be removed or a president shall be elected.

(6) The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States or any of them.

(7) Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the constitution of the United States."

Sec. 2. (1) The president shall be commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several states when called into the actual service of the United States; he may require the opinion in writing of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices; and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

(2) He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate shall appoint, ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States, whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for and which shall be established by law. But the congress, may by law, vest the appointment of such inferior officers as they think proper in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

(3) The president shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions, which shall expire at the end of their next session.

Sec. 3. He shall from time to time give to the congress information of the state of the Union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them; and, in case of disagreement between them with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper. He shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

Sec. 4. The president, vice-president, and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may, from time to time, ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior; and shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

Sec. 2. (1) The judicial power shall extend to all cases in law and equity arising under this constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority; to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls; to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction to controversies to which the United States shall be a party; to controversies between two or more states, between a state and citizens of another state, between citizens of different states, between citizens of the same state claiming lands under grants of different states, and between a state, or the citizens thereof, and foreign states, citizens or subjects.

(2) In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be a party, the supreme court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases, before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions and under such regulations as the congress shall make.

(3) The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury; and such trial shall be held in the state where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any state, the trial shall be at such place or places as the congress may by law have directed.

Sec. 3. (1) Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

(2) The congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason, but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture, except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1. Full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records and judicial proceedings of every other state. And the congress may, by general laws, prescribe the manner in which such acts, records and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

Sec. 2. (1) The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states.

(2) A person charged in any state with treason, felony or other crime, who shall flee from justice and be found in another state, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime.

(3) No person held to service or labor in one state, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

Sec. 3. (1) New states may be admitted by the congress into this Union; but no new state shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state, nor any state be formed by the junction of two or more states, or parts of states, without the consent of the legislatures of the states concerned as well as of the congress.

(2) The congress shall have power to dispose of, and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States or of any particular state.

Sec. 4. The United States shall guarantee to every state in this Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and, on application of the legislature, or the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened), against domestic violence.

ARTICLE V.

The congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution, or, on the application of the legislature of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the congress; provided that no amendment which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI.

(1) All debts contracted and engagements entered into before the adoption of this constitution shall be as valid against the United States under this constitution as under the confederation.

(2) This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

(3) The senators and representatives before mentioned and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support this constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII.

The ratification of the conventions of nine states shall be sufficient for the establishment of this constitution between the states so ratifying the same.

Done in convention, by the unanimous consent of the states present, the seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and of the independence of the United States of America the twelfth. In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or of the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

ARTICLE II.

A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

ARTICLE III.

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service, in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject, for the same offense, to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

ARTICLE VI.

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor; and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

ARTICLE VII.

In suits at common law where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved; and no fact, tried by a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

ARTICLE VIII.

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted.

ARTICLE IX.

The enumeration in the constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE X.

The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.

ARTICLE XI.

The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another state, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign state.

ARTICLE XII.

Section 1. The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for president and vice-president, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as president, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as vice-president; and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as president, and of all persons voted for as vice-president, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate; the president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted; the person having the greatest number of votes for president shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three, on the list of those voted for as president, the house of representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken, by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the house of representatives shall not choose a president, whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the vice-president, shall act as president, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the president.

Sec. 2. The person having the greatest number of votes as vice-president shall be the vice-president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the senate shall choose the vice-president; a quorum for that purpose, shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice.

Sec. 3. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of president shall be eligible to that of vice-president of the United States.

ARTICLE XIII.

Section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president and vice-president of the United States, representatives in congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a senator or representative in congress, or elector of president and vice-president, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in an insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE XV.

Section 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 2. The congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE XVI.

The congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

ARTICLE XVII.

Section 1. The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislatures.

Sec. 2. When vacancies happen in the representation of any state in the senate, the executive authority of such state shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies; provided, that the legislature of any state may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointment until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

Sec. 3. This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the constitution.

(Recommended by the convention of the states to congress Sept. 11, 1787, and by it submitted to the states for ratification, which by the concurrence of nine states, was consummated and proclaimed Sept. 13, 1788.)

LAW AS TO PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION.*

The presidential succession is fixed by chapter 4 of the acts of the Forty-ninth congress, first session. In case of the removal, death, resignation or inability of both the president and vice-president, then the secretary of state shall act as president until the disability of the president or vice-president is removed or a president is elected. If there be no secretary of state, then the secretary of the treasury will act; and the remainder of the order of succession is as follows: The secretary of war, attorney-general, postmaster-general, secretary of the navy, and secretary of the interior. The acting president must, upon taking office, convene congress, if not at the time in session, in extraordinary session, giving twenty days' notice. This act applies only to such cabinet officers as shall have been appointed by the advice and consent of the senate, and are eligible under the constitution to the presidency.

CONSTITUTION OF IOWA

Preamble. We, the People of the State of Iowa, grateful to the Supreme Being for the blessings hitherto enjoyed, and feeling our dependence on Him for a continuation of those blessings, do ordain and establish a free and independent government, by the name of the State of Iowa, the boundaries whereof shall be as follows:

Boundaries. Beginning in the middle of the main channel of the Mississippi river, at a point due east of the middle of the mouth of the main channel of the Des Moines river; thence up the middle of the main channel of the said Des Moines river, to a point on said river where the northern boundary line of the state of Missouri—as established by the constitution of that state, adopted June 12, 1820—crosses the said middle of the main channel of the said Des Moines river; thence westwardly along the said northern boundary line of the state of Missouri, as established at the time aforesaid, until an extension of said line intersects the middle of the main channel of the Missouri river; thence up the middle of the main channel of the said Missouri river to a point opposite the middle of the main channel of the said Missouri river at a point opposite the middle of the main channel of the Big Sioux river, according to Nicollet's map; thence up the main channel of the said Big Sioux river, according to the said map, until it is intersected by the parallel of forty-three degrees and thirty minutes, north latitude; thence east along said parallel of forty-three degrees and thirty minutes, until said parallel intersects the middle of the main channel of the Mississippi river; thence down the middle of the main channel of the said Mississippi river to the place of beginning.

ARTICLE I.—BILL OF RIGHTS.

Rights of persons. Section 1. All men are, by nature, free and equal, and have certain inalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and pursuing and obtaining safety and happiness.

Political power. Sec. 2. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for the protection, security, and benefit of the people, and they have the right, at all times, to alter or reform the same, whenever the public good may require it.

Religion. Sec. 3. The general assembly shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; nor shall any person be compelled to attend any place of worship, pay tithes, taxes, or other rates, for building or repairing places of worship, or the maintenance of any minister or ministry.

Religious test. Sec. 4. No religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office of public trust, and no person shall be deprived of any of his rights, privileges, or capacities, or disqualified from the performance of any of his public or private duties, or rendered incompetent to give evidence in any court of law or equity, in consequence of his opinions on the subject of religion; and any party to any judicial proceeding shall have the right to use as a witness, or take the testimony of, any other person, not disqualified on account of interest, who may be cognizant of any fact material to the case; and parties to suits may be witnesses, as provided by law.

Duelling. Sec. 5. Any citizen of this state who may hereafter be engaged, either directly or indirectly, in a duel, either as principal or accessory before the fact, shall forever be disqualified from holding any office under the constitution and laws of this state.

Laws uniform. Sec. 6. All laws of a general nature shall have a uniform operation; the general assembly shall not grant to any citizen or class of citizens, privileges or immunities, which upon the same terms shall not equally belong to all citizens.

Liberty of speech and the press. Sec. 7. Every person may speak, write and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right. No law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech, or of the press. In all prosecutions or indictments for libel, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury, and if it appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous was true, and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted.

Personal security. Sec. 8. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable seizures and searches, shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue but on probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons and things to be seized.

Trial by jury; due process of law. Sec. 9. The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate; but the general assembly may authorize trial by a jury of a less number than twelve men in inferior courts; but no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law.

Rights of persons accused. Sec. 10. In all criminal prosecutions, and in cases involving the life or liberty of an individual, the accused shall have a right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury; to be informed of the accusation against him; to have a copy of the same when demanded; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for his witnesses; and to have the assistance of counsel.

When indictment necessary. Sec. 11. All offenses less than felony, and in which the punishment does not exceed a fine of one hundred dollars, or imprisonment for thirty days, shall be tried summarily before a justice of the peace, or other officer authorized by law, on information under oath, without indictment, or the intervention of a grand jury, saving to the defendant the right of appeal; and no person shall be held to answer for any higher criminal offense, unless on presentment or indictment by a grand jury, except in cases arising in the army or navy, or in the militia, when in actual service, in time of war or public danger.

Twice tried; bail. Sec. 12. No person shall, after acquittal, be tried for the same offense. All persons shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses, where the proof is evident, or the presumption great.

Habeas corpus. Sec. 13. The writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended or refused when application is made as required by law, unless, in case of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it.

Military. Sec. 14. The military shall be subordinate to the civil power. No standing army shall be kept up by the state in time of peace; and in time of war no appropriation for a standing army shall be for a longer time than two years.

Quartering soldiers. Sec. 15. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war except in the manner prescribed by law.

Treason. Sec. 16. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it, adhering to its enemies, or giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason, unless on the evidence of two witnesses to the same overt act, or confession in open court.

Bail; punishments. Sec. 17. Excessive bail shall not be required; excessive fines shall not be imposed, and cruel and unusual punishment shall not be inflicted.

Eminent domain. Sec. 18. Private property shall not be taken for public use without just compensation first being made, or secured to be made, to the owner thereof, as soon as the damages shall be assessed by a jury, who shall not take into consideration any advantages that may result to said owner on account of the improvement for which it is taken.

[Amendment.] The general assembly, however, may pass laws permitting the owners of lands to construct drains, ditches, and levees for agricultural, sanitary or mining purposes across the lands of others, and provide for the organization of drainage districts, vest the proper authorities with power to construct and maintain levees, drains, and ditches and to keep in repair all drains, ditches and levees heretofore constructed under the laws of the state, by special assessments upon the property benefited thereby. The general assembly may provide by law for the condemnation of such real estate as shall be necessary for the construction and maintenance of such drains, ditches and levees, and prescribe the method of making such condemnation.

Imprisonment for debt. Sec. 19. No person shall be imprisoned for debt in any civil action, on mense or final process, unless in case of fraud; and no person shall be imprisoned for a military fine in time of peace.

Petition. Sec. 20. The people have the right freely to assemble together to counsel for the common good; to make known their opinions to their representatives; and to petition for a redress of grievances.

Attainder; ex post facto law; obligation of contract. Sec. 21. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, shall ever be passed.

Resident aliens. Sec. 22. Foreigners who are, or may hereafter become residents of this state, shall enjoy the same rights in respect to the possession, enjoyment, and descent of property, as native-born citizens.

Slavery. Sec. 23. There shall be no slavery in this state; nor shall there be involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crime.

Reservation of rents. Sec. 24. No lease or grant of agricultural lands, reserving any rent or service of any kind, shall be valid for a longer period than twenty years.

Rights retained. Sec. 25. This enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others, retained by the people.

ARTICLE II.—RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.

Electors. Section 1. Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of this state six months next preceding the election, and of the county in which he claims his vote, sixty days, shall be entitled to vote at all elections which are now or hereafter may be authorized by law.

Privileged from arrest. Sec. 2. Electors shall, in all cases except treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest on the days of election, during their attendance at such elections, going to and returning therefrom.

From military duty. Sec. 3. No elector shall be obliged to perform military duty on the day of election, except in time of war or public danger.

Persons in military service. Sec. 4. No person in the military, naval or marine service of the United States shall be considered a resident of this state by being stationed in any garrison, barrack, or military or naval place or station within this state.

Insane. Sec. 5. No idiot or insane person, or person convicted of any infamous crime, shall be entitled to the privilege of an elector.

Ballot. Sec. 6. All elections by the people shall be by ballot.

General election. Sec. 7. The general election for state, district, county and township officers in the year 1916 shall be held in the same month and on the same day as that fixed by the laws of the United States for the election of presidential electors, or of president and vice-president of the United States; and thereafter such election shall be held at such time as the general assembly may by law provide.

ARTICLE III.—OF THE DISTRIBUTION OF POWERS.

Departments of government. Section 1. The powers of the government of Iowa shall be divided into three separate departments: The legislative, the executive and the judicial; and no person charged with the exercise of powers properly belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any function appertaining to either of the others, except in cases hereinafter expressly directed or permitted.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

General assembly. Section 1. The legislative authority of this state shall be vested in a general assembly, which shall consist of a senate and a house of representatives; and the style of every law shall be—"Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa."

Sessions. Sec. 2. The sessions of the general assembly shall be biennial and shall commence on the second Monday in January next ensuing the election of its members; unless the governor of the state, shall, in the meantime, convene the general assembly by proclamation.

Representatives. Sec. 3. The members of the house of representatives shall be chosen every second year, by the qualified electors of their respective districts, on the second Tuesday in October, except the years of the presidential election, when the election shall be on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, and their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next after their election, and continue two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Eligibility. Sec. 4. No person shall be member of the house of representatives who shall not have attained the age of twenty-one years; be a male citizen of the United States, and shall have been an inhabitant of this state one year next preceding his election, and at the time of his election shall have had an actual residence of sixty days in the county or district he may have been chosen to represent.

Senators. Sec. 5. Senators shall be chosen for the term of four years, at the same time and place as representatives; they shall be twenty-five years of age, and possess the qualifications of representatives as to residence and citizenship.

Number and classification. Sec. 6. The number of senators shall not be less than one-third nor more than one-half the representative body; and shall be so classified by lot that one class, being as nearly one-half as possible, shall be elected every two years. When the number of senators is increased, they shall be annexed by lot to one or the other of the two classes, so as to keep them as nearly equal in numbers as practicable.

Elections determined. Sec. 7. Each house shall choose its own officers, and judge of the qualification, election, and return of its own members. A contested election shall be determined in such manner as shall be directed by law.

Quorum. Sec. 8. A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to transact business; but a small number may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Authority of the house. Sec. 9. Each house shall sit upon its own adjournments, keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same; determine its rules of proceedings, punish members for disorderly behavior, and with the consent of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same offense, and shall have all other powers necessary for a branch of the general assembly of a free and independent state.

Protest. Sec. 10. Every member of the general assembly shall have the liberty to dissent from or protest against any act or resolution which he may think injurious to the public or an individual, and have the reasons for his dissent entered on the journals; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house, on any question, shall, at the desire of any two members present, be entered on the journals.

Privilege. Sec. 11. Senators and representatives, in all cases except treason, felony, or breach of the peace, shall be privileged from arrest during the session of the general assembly, and in going to or returning from the same.

Vacancies. Sec. 12. When vacancies occur in either house, the governor, or the person exercising the functions of governor, shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

Doors open. Sec. 13. The doors of each house shall be open, except on such occasions as, in the opinion of the house, may require secrecy.

Adjournments. Sec. 14. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which they may be sitting.

Bills. Sec. 15. Bills may originate in either house, and may be amended, altered, or rejected by the other; and every bill having passed both houses, shall be signed by the speaker and president of their respective houses.

Approval. Sec. 16. Every bill which shall have passed the general assembly, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the governor. If he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which shall enter the same upon their journal, and proceed to reconsider it; if, after such reconsideration, it again pass both houses, by yeas and nays, by a majority of two-thirds of the members of each house, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor's objections. If any bill shall not be returned within three days after it shall have been presented to him, Sunday excepted, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the general assembly, by adjournment, prevent such return. Any bill submitted to the governor for his approval during the last three days of a session of the general assembly, shall be deposited by him in the office of the secretary of state within thirty days after the adjournment, with his approval, if approved by him, and with his objections, if he disproves thereof.

Majority vote. Sec. 17. No bill shall be passed unless by the assent of a majority of all the members elected to each branch of the general assembly, and the question upon the final passage shall be taken immediately upon its last reading, and the yeas and nays entered on the journal.

Receipts and expenditures. Sec. 18. An accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public money shall be attached to and published with the laws at every regular session of the general assembly.

Impeachment. Sec. 19. The house of representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment, and all impeachments shall be tried by the senate. When sitting for that purpose, the senators shall be upon oaths or affirmation; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Who liable to judgment. Sec. 20. The governor, judges of the supreme and district courts, and other state officers, shall be liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor or malfeasance in office, but judgment in such cases shall extend only to removal from office, and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under this state; but the party convicted or acquitted shall nevertheless be liable to indictment, trial, and punishment according to law. All other civil officers shall be tried for misdemeanors and malfeasance in office, in such manner as the general assembly may provide.

Members not appointed to office. Sec. 21. No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any civil office of profit under this state, which shall have been created, or the emoluments of which shall have been increased during such term, except such offices as may be filled by elections by the people.

Disqualification. Sec. 22. No person holding any lucrative office under the United States, or this state, or any other power, shall be eligible to hold a seat in the general assembly. But offices in the militia, to which there is attached no annual salary, or the office of justice of the peace, or postmaster, whose compensation does not exceed one hundred dollars per annum, or notary public, shall not be deemed lucrative.

Failure to account. Sec. 23. No person who may hereafter be a collector or holder of public moneys, shall have a seat in either house of the general assembly, or be eligible to hold any office of trust or profit in this state, until he shall have accounted for and paid into the treasury all sums for which he may be liable.

Money drawn. Sec. 24. No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law.

Compensation of members. Sec. 25. Each member of the first general assembly under this constitution shall receive three dollars per diem while in session; and the further sum of three dollars for every twenty miles traveled in going to and returning from the place where such session is held, by the nearest traveled route; after which they shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by law; but no general assembly shall have the power to increase the compensation of its members. And when convened in extra session they shall receive the same mileage and per diem compensation as fixed by law for the regular session, and none other.

Laws, when to take effect; publication. Sec. 26. No law of the general assembly, passed at a regular session, of a public nature, shall take effect until the fourth day of July next, after the passage thereof. Laws passed at a special session shall take effect ninety days after the adjournment of the general assembly by which they were passed. If the general assembly shall deem any law of immediate importance, they may provide that the same shall take effect by publication in newspapers in the state.

Divorce. Sec. 27. No divorce shall be granted by the general assembly.

Lotteries. Sec. 28. No lottery shall be authorized by this state; nor shall the sale of lottery tickets be allowed.

Acts; one subject; expressed in title. Sec. 29. Every act shall embrace but one subject, and matters properly connected therewith; which subject shall be expressed in the title. But if any subject shall be embraced in an act which shall not be expressed in the title, such act shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall not be expressed in the title.

Local or special laws. Sec. 30. The general assembly shall not pass local or special laws in the following cases:

For the assessment and collection of taxes for state, county, or road purposes;

For laying out, opening, and working roads or highways;

For changing the names of persons;

For the incorporation of cities and towns;

For vacating roads, town plats, streets, alleys, or public squares;

For locating or changing county seats.

Laws general and uniform; boundaries of counties. In all the cases above enumerated, and in all other cases where a general law can be made applicable, all laws shall be general, and of uniform operation throughout the state; and no law changing the boundary lines of any county shall have effect until upon being submitted to the people of the counties affected by the change, at a general election, it shall be approved by a majority of the votes in each county, cast for and against it.

Extra compensation. Sec. 31. No extra compensation shall be made to any officer, public agent, or contractor, after the service shall have been rendered, or the contract entered into; nor shall any money be paid on any claim, the subject-matter of which shall not have been provided for by pre-existing laws, and no public money or property shall be appropriated for local or private purposes, unless such appropriation, compensation, or claim be allowed by two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the general assembly.

Oath of members. Sec. 32. Members of the general assembly shall, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will support the constitution of the United States, and the constitution of the state of Iowa, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of senator (or representative, as the case may be,) according to the best of my ability." And members of the general assembly are hereby empowered to administer to each other the said oath or affirmation.

Census. Sec. 33. The general assembly shall, in the years one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and every ten years thereafter, cause an enumeration to be made of all the inhabitants of the state.

Senators; number; apportionment. Sec. 34. The senate shall be composed of fifty members to be elected from the several senatorial districts, established by law and at the next session of the general assembly held following the taking of the state and national census, they shall be apportioned among the several counties or districts of the state, according to population as shown by the last preceding census.

Representatives; number; apportionment; districts. Sec. 25. The house of representatives shall consist of not more than one hundred and eight members. The ratio of representation shall be determined by dividing the whole number of the population of the state as shown by the last preceding state or national census, by the whole number of counties then existing or organized, but each county shall constitute one representative district and be entitled to one representative, but each county having a population in excess of the ratio number, as herein provided of three-fifths or more of such ratio number shall be entitled to one additional representative, but said addition shall extend only to the nine counties having the greatest population.

Ratio and apportionment. Sec. 26. The general assembly shall, at the first regular session held following the adoption of this amendment, and at each succeeding regular session held next after the taking of such census, fix the ratio of representations, and apportion the additional representatives, as hereinbefore required.

Districts. Sec. 27. When a congressional, senatorial, or representative district shall be composed of two or more counties, it shall not be entirely separated by any county belonging to another district; and no county shall be divided in forming a congressional, senatorial, or representative district.

Elections by general assembly. Sec. 28. In all elections by the general assembly, the members thereof shall vote viva voce, and the votes shall be entered on the journal.

ARTICLE IV.—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Governor. Section 1. The supreme executive power of this state shall be vested in a chief magistrate, who shall be styled the governor of the state of Iowa.

Election and term. Sec. 2. The governor shall be elected by the qualified electors at the time and place of voting for members of the general assembly, and shall hold his office two years from the time of his installation, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Lieutenant-governor; returns of elections. Sec. 3. There shall be a lieutenant-governor, who shall hold his office two years, and be elected at the same time as the governor. In voting for governor and lieutenant-governor, the electors shall designate for whom they vote as governor, and for whom as lieutenant-governor. The returns of every election for governor and lieutenant-governor, shall be sealed up and transmitted to the seat of government of the state, directed to the speaker of the house of representatives, who shall open and publish them in the presence of both houses of the general assembly.

Election by general assembly. Sec. 4. The persons respectively having the highest number of votes, for governor and lieutenant-governor, shall be declared duly elected; but in case two or more persons shall have an equal, and the highest number of votes for either office, the general assembly shall, by joint vote, forthwith proceed to elect one of said persons governor, or lieutenant-governor, as the case may be.

Contested elections. Sec. 5. Contested elections for governor, or lieutenant-governor, shall be determined by the general assembly in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

Eligibility. Sec. 6. No person shall be eligible to the office of governor, or lieutenant-governor, who shall not have been a citizen of the United States, and a resident of the state two years next preceding the election, and attained the age of thirty years at the time of said election, Commander-in-chief. Sec. 7. The governor shall be commander-in-chief of the militia, the army, and navy of this state.

Duties. Sec. 8. He shall transact all executive business with the officers of government, civil and military, and may require information in writing from the officers of the executive department upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

Execution of laws. Sec. 9. He shall take care that the laws are faithfully executed.

Vacancies. Sec. 10. When any office shall, from any cause, become vacant, and no mode is provided by the constitution and laws for filling such vacancy, the governor shall have power to fill such vacancy, by granting a commission, which shall expire at the end of the next session of the general assembly, or at the next election by the people.

Convening assembly. Sec. 11. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the general assembly by proclamation, and shall state to both houses, when assembled, the purpose for which they shall have been convened.

Message. Sec. 12. He shall communicate, by message, to the general assembly, at every regular session, the condition of the state, and recommend such matters as he shall deem expedient.

Adjournment. Sec. 13. In case of disagreement between the two houses with respect to the time of adjournment, the governor shall have power to adjourn the general assembly to such time as he may think proper; but no such adjournment shall be beyond the time fixed for the regular meeting of the next general assembly.

Disqualification. Sec. 14. No person shall, while holding any office under the authority of the United States, or this state, execute the office of governor, or lieutenant-governor, except as hereinafter expressly provided.

Term; compensation of lieutenant-governor. Sec. 15. The official term of governor and lieutenant-governor, shall commence on the second Monday of January next after their election, and continue for two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The lieutenant-governor, while acting as governor, shall receive the same pay as provided for governor; and while presiding in the senate, shall receive as compensation therefor, the same mileage and double the per diem pay provided for a senator, and none other.

Pardons. Sec. 16. The governor shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons, after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law. Upon conviction for treason, he shall have power to suspend the execution of the sentence until the case shall be reported to the general assembly at its next meeting, when the general assembly shall either grant a pardon, commute the sentence, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve. He shall have power to remit fines and forfeitures, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and shall report to the general assembly, at its next meeting, each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon granted, and the reasons therefor; and also all persons in whose favor remission of fines and forfeitures shall have been made, and the several amounts remitted.

Lieutenant-governor to act as governor. Sec. 17. In case of the death, impeachment, resignation, removal from office, or other disability of the governor, the powers and duties of the office for the residue of the term, or until he shall be acquitted, or the disability removed, shall devolve upon the lieutenant-governor.

President of senate. Sec. 18. The lieutenant-governor shall be president of the senate, but shall only vote when the senate is equally divided, and in case of his absence, or impeachment, or when he shall exercise the office of governor, the senate shall choose a president pro tempore.

Vacancies. Sec. 19. If the lieutenant-governor, while acting as governor, shall be impeached, displaced, resign, or die, or otherwise become incapable of performing the duties of the office, the president pro tempore of the senate shall act as governor until the vacancy is filled, or the disability removed; and if the president of the senate, for any of the above causes, shall be rendered incapable of performing the duties pertaining to the office of governor, the same shall devolve upon the speaker of the house of representatives.

Seal of state. Sec. 20. There shall be a seal of this state, which shall be kept by the governor, and used by him officially, and shall be called the great seal of the state of Iowa.

Grants and commissions. Sec. 21. All grants and commissions shall be in the name and by the authority of the people of the state of Iowa, sealed with the great seal of the state, signed by the governor, and countersigned by the secretary of state.

Secretary, auditor and treasurer. Sec. 22. A secretary of state, auditor of state, and treasurer of state, shall be elected by the qualified electors, who shall continue in office two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified; and perform such duties as may be required by law.

ARTICLE V.—JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Courts. Section 1. The judicial power shall be vested in a supreme court, district court, and such other courts, inferior to the supreme court, as the general assembly may, from time to time, establish.

Supreme court. Sec. 2. The supreme court shall consist of three judges, two of whom shall constitute a quorum to hold court.

Judges elected. Sec. 3. The judges of the supreme court shall be elected by the qualified electors of the state, and shall hold their court at such time and place as the general assembly may prescribe. The judges of the supreme court so elected, shall be classified so that one judge shall go out of office every two years; and the judge holding the shortest term of office under such classification, shall be chief justice of the court during his term, and so on in rotation. After the expiration of their terms of office, under such classification, the term of each judge of the supreme court shall be six years, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. The judges of the supreme courts shall be ineligible to any other office in the state, during the term for which they shall have been elected.

Jurisdiction. Sec. 4. The supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction only in cases in chancery, and shall constitute a court for the correction of errors at law, under such restrictions as the general assembly may by law prescribe; and shall have power to issue all writs and process necessary to secure justice to parties, and exercise a supervisory control over all inferior judicial tribunals throughout the state.

District court and judge. Sec. 5. The district court shall consist of a single judge, who shall be elected by the qualified electors of the district in which he resides. The judge of the district court shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified; and shall be ineligible to any other office, except that of judge of the supreme court, during the term for which he was elected.

Jurisdiction. Sec. 6. The district court shall be a court of law and equity, which shall be distinct and separate jurisdictions, and have jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters arising in their respective districts, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

Conservators of the peace. Sec. 7. The judges of the supreme and district courts shall be conservators of the peace throughout the state.

Style of process. Sec. 8. The style of all process shall be "The State of Iowa," and all prosecutions shall be conducted in the name and by the authority of the same.

Salaries. Sec. 9. The salary of each judge of the supreme court shall be two thousand dollars per annum; and that of each district judge one thousand six hundred dollars per annum, until the year eighteen hundred and sixty; after which time they shall severally receive such compensation as the general assembly may, by law, prescribe; which compensation shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which they shall have been elected.

[Amendment.] At any regular session of the general assembly, the state may be divided into the necessary judicial districts for district court purposes, or the said districts may be reorganized, and the number of the districts and the judges of said courts increased or diminished; but no reorganization of the districts or diminution of the judges shall have the effect of removing a judge from office.

When chosen. Sec. 11. The judges of the supreme and district courts shall be chosen at the general election; and the term of office of each judge shall commence on the first day of January next after his election.

Attorney-general. Sec. 12. The general assembly shall provide, by law, for the election of an attorney-general by the people, whose term of office shall be two years, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

County attorney. Sec. 13. The qualified electors of each county shall, at the general election in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-six, and every two years thereafter elect a county attorney, who shall be a resident of the county for which he is elected, and shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Carrying into effect. Sec. 14. It shall be the duty of the general assembly to provide for the carrying into effect of this article, and to provide for a general system of practice in all the courts of this state.

The grand jury. Sec. 15. The grand jury may consist of any number of members not less than five, nor more than fifteen, as the general assembly may by law provide, or the general assembly may provide for holding persons to answer for any criminal offense without the intervention of the grand jury.

ARTICLE VI.—MILITIA.

Who constitute. Section 1. The militia of this state shall be composed of all able-bodied male citizens, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, except such as are or may hereafter be exempt by the laws of the United States, or of this state; and shall be armed, equipped, and trained, as the general assembly may provide by law.

Exemption. Sec. 2. No person or persons, conscientiously scrupulous of bearing arms shall be compelled to do military duty in time of peace; provided that such person or persons shall pay an equivalent for such exemption in the same manner as other citizens.

Officers. Sec. 3. All commissioned officers of the militia (staff officers excepted) shall be elected by the persons liable to perform military duty, and shall be commissioned by the governor.

ARTICLE VII.—STATE DEBTS.

Credit not to be loaned. Section 1. The credit of the state shall not, in any manner, be given or loaned to, or in aid of, any individual, association, or corporation; and the state shall never assume, or become responsible for the debts or liabilities of any individual, association, or corporation, unless incurred in time of war for the benefit of the state.

Limitation. Sec. 2. The state may contract debts to supply casual deficits or failures in revenue; or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the money arising from the creation of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Losses to school funds. Sec. 3. All losses to the permanent school, or university fund of this state, which shall have been occasioned by the defalcation, mismanagement, or fraud of the agents or officers controlling and managing the same, shall be audited by the proper authorities of the state. The amount so audited shall be a permanent funded debt against the state, in favor of the respective fund sustaining the loss, upon which not less than six per cent annual interest shall be paid. The amount of liability so created shall not be counted as a part of the indebtedness authorized by the second section of this article.

War debts. Sec. 4. In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the state in war; but the money arising from the debts so contracted shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Question of incurring debt submitted. Sec. 5. Except the debts hereinbefore specified in this article, no debt shall be hereafter contracted by, or on behalf of this state, unless such debt shall be authorized by some law for some single work or object, to be distinctly specified therein; and such law shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax, sufficient to pay the interest on such debt, as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt, within twenty years from the time of the contracting thereof; but no such law shall take effect until at a general election it shall have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election; and all money raised by authority of such law, shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated, or to the payment of the debt created thereby; and such law shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county, if one is published therein, throughout the state, for three months preceding the election at which it is submitted to the people.

Legislature may repeal. Sec. 6. The legislature may, at any time, after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same; and may at any time forbid the contracting of any further debt, or liability, under such law; but the tax imposed by such law, in proportion to the debt or liability which may have been contracted in pursuance thereof, shall remain in force and be irrepealable; and be annually collected, until the principal and interest are fully paid.

Tax imposed distinctly stated. Sec. 7. Every law which imposes, continues, or receives a tax, shall distinctly state the tax, and the object to which it is to be applied; and it shall not be sufficient to refer to any other law to fix such tax or object.

ARTICLE VIII.—CORPORATIONS.

How created. Section 1. No corporation shall be created by special laws; but the general assembly shall provide by general laws, for the organization of all corporations hereafter to be created, except as hereinafter provided.

Property taxable. Sec. 2. The property of all corporations for pecuniary profit shall be subject to taxation the same as that of individuals.

State not to be a stockholder. Sec. 3. The state shall not become a stockholder in any corporation, nor shall it assume or pay the debt or liability of any corporation, unless incurred in time of war for the benefit of the state.

Municipal corporations. Sec. 4. No political or municipal corporation shall become a stockholder in any banking corporation, directly or indirectly.

Act creating banking associations. Sec. 5. No act of the general assembly, authorizing or creating corporations or associations with banking powers, nor amendments thereto, shall take effect, or in any manner be in force, until the same shall have been submitted, separately, to the people, at a general or special election, as provided by law, to be held not less than three months after the passage of the act, and shall have been approved by a majority of all the electors voting for and against it at such election.

State bank. Sec. 6. Subject to the provisions of the foregoing section, the general assembly may also provide for the establishment of a state bank with branches.

Specie basis. Sec. 7. If a state bank be established, it shall be founded on an actual specie basis, and the branches shall be mutually responsible for each other's liabilities upon all notes, bills and other issues intended for circulation as money.

General banking law. Sec. 8. If a general banking law shall be enacted, it shall provide for the registry and countersigning, by an officer of state, of all bills, or paper credit designed to circulate as money, and require security to the full amount thereof, to be deposited with the state treasurer, in United States stocks, or in interest-paying stocks of states in good credit and standing, to be rated at ten per cent below their average value in the city of New York, for the thirty days next preceding their deposit; and in case of a depreciation of any portion of such stock, to the amount of ten per cent on the dollar, the bank or banks owning said stock shall be required to make up said deficiency by depositing additional stocks; and said law shall also provide for the recording of the names of all stockholders in such corporations, the amount of stock held by each, the time of any transfer, and to whom.

Stockholders responsible. Sec. 9. Every stockholder in a banking corporation or institution shall be individually responsible and liable to its creditors, over and above the amount of stock by him or her held, to an amount equal to his or her respective shares so held, for all its liabilities accruing while he or she remains such stockholder.

Bill-holders preferred. Sec. 10. In case of the insolvency of any banking institution, the bill-holders shall have a preference over its other creditors.

Suspension of specie payments. Sec. 11. The suspension of specie payments by banking institutions shall never be permitted or sanctioned.

Amendment or repeal of charters; exclusive privileges. Sec. 12. Subject to the provisions of this article, the general assembly shall have power to amend or repeal all laws for the organization or creation of corporations, or granting of special or exclusive privileges or immunities, by a vote of two-thirds of each branch of the general assembly; and no exclusive privileges, except as in this article provided, shall ever be granted.

ARTICLE IX.—EDUCATION AND SCHOOL LANDS.

I.—EDUCATION.

Board of education. Section 1. The educational interest of the state, including common schools and other educational institutions, shall be under the management of a board of education, which shall consist of the lieutenant-governor, who shall be the presiding officer of the board, and have the casting vote in case of a tie, and one member to be elected from each judicial district in the state.

Who eligible. Sec. 2. No person shall be eligible as a member of said board who shall not have attained the age of twenty-five years, and shall have been one year a citizen of the state.

How elected. Sec. 3. One member of said board shall be chosen by the qualified electors of each district, and shall hold the office for the term of four years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. After the first election under this constitution, the board shall be divided, as nearly as practicable, into two equal classes, and the seats of the first class shall be vacated after the expiration of two years; and one-half of the board shall be chosen every two years thereafter.

First session. Sec. 4. The first session of the board of education shall be held at the seat of government, on the first Monday of December, after their election; after which the general assembly may fix the time and place of meeting.

Limited. Sec. 5. The session of the board shall be limited to twenty days, and but one session shall be held in any one year, except upon extraordinary occasions, when, upon the recommendation of two-thirds of the board, the governor may order a special session.

Secretary. Sec. 6. The board of education shall appoint a secretary, who shall be the executive officer of the board, and perform such duties as may be imposed upon him by the board, and the laws of the state. They shall keep a journal of their proceedings, which shall be published and distributed in the same manner as the journals of the general assembly.

Rules and regulations. Sec. 7. All rules and regulations made by the board shall be published and distributed to the several counties, townships, and school districts, as may be provided for by the board, and when so made, published, and distributed, they shall have the force and effect of law.

Power to make. Sec. 8. The board of education shall have full power and authority to legislate and make all needful rules and regulations in relation to common schools, and other educational institutions, that are instituted, to receive aid from the school or university fund of this state; but all acts, rules and regulations of said board may be altered, amended, or repealed by the general assembly; and when so altered, amended, or repealed, they shall not be reenacted by the board of education.

Governor ex-officio a member. Sec. 9. The governor of the state shall be, ex-officio, a member of said board Expenses. Sec. 10. The board shall have no power to levy taxes, or make appropriations of money. Their contingent expenses shall be provided for by the general assembly.

State university. Sec. 11. The state university shall be established at one place without branches at any other place, and the university fund shall be applied to that institution, and no other.

Common schools. Sec. 12. The board of education shall provide for the education of all the youths of the state, through a system of common schools, and such schools shall be organized and kept in each school district at least three months in each year. Any district failing, for two consecutive years, to organize and keep up a school, as aforesaid, may be deprived of their portion of the school fund.

Compensation. Sec. 13. The members of the board of education shall each receive the same per diem during the term of their session, and mileage going to and returning therefrom, as members of the general assembly.

Quorum; style of acts. Sec. 14. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but no rule, regulation, or law, for the government of common schools or other educational institutions shall pass without the concurrence of a majority of all the members of the board, which shall be expressed by the yeas and nays on the final passage. The style of all acts of the board shall be, "Be it enacted by the board of education of the state of Iowa."

Board may be abolished. Sec. 15. At any time after the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, the general assembly shall have power to abolish or reorganize said board of education, and provide for the educational interest of the state in any other manner that to them shall seem best and proper.

2.—SCHOOL FUNDS AND SCHOOL LANDS.

Under control of the general assembly. Section 1. The educational and school fund and lands, shall be under the control and management of the general assembly of this state.

Permanent fund. Sec. 2. The university lands, and the proceeds thereof, and all moneys belonging to said fund shall be a permanent fund for the sole use of the state university. The interest arising from the same shall be annually appropriated for the support and benefit of said university.

Lands appropriated. Sec. 3. The general assembly shall encourage, by all suitable means, the promotion of intellectual, scientific, moral, and agricultural improvement. The proceeds of all lands that have been, or hereafter may be, granted by the United States to this state, for the support of schools, which may have been or shall hereafter be sold, or disposed of, and the five hundred thousand acres of land granted to the new states, under an act of congress, distributing the proceeds of the public lands among the several states of the Union, approved in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and all estates of deceased persons who may have died without leaving a will or heir, and also such per cent. as has been or may hereafter be granted by congress, on the sale of lands in this state, shall be, and remain a perpetual fund, the interest of which, together with all rents of the unsold lands, and such other means as the general assembly may provide, shall be inviolably appropriated to the support of common schools throughout the state.

Fines, etc., how appropriated. Sec. 4. The money which may have been or shall be paid by persons as an equivalent from exemption from military duty, and the clear proceeds of all fines collected in the several counties for any breach of the penal laws, shall be exclusively applied in the several counties in which such money is paid, or fine collected, among the several school districts of said counties, in proportion to the number of youths subject to enumeration in such districts, to the support of common schools or the establishment of libraries, as the board of education shall from time to time provide.

Proceeds of lands. Sec. 5. The general assembly shall take measures for the protection, improvement, or other disposition of such lands as have been, or may hereafter be reserved, or granted by the United States, or any person or persons to this state, for the use of the university, and the funds accruing from the rents or sale of such lands, or from any other source for the purpose aforesaid, shall be, and remain, a permanent fund, the interest of which shall be applied to the support of said university, for the promotion of literature, the arts and sciences, as may be authorized by the terms of such grant. And it shall be the duty of the general assembly, as soon as may be, to provide effectual means for the improvement and permanent security of the funds of said university.

Agents of school funds. Sec. 6. The financial agents of the school funds shall be the same that, by law, receive and control the state and county revenue, for other civil purposes, under such regulations as may be provided by law.

Distribution. Sec. 7. The money subject to the support and maintenance of common schools shall be distributed to the districts in proportion to the number of youths, between the ages of five and twenty-one years, in such manner as may be provided by the general assembly.

ARTICLE X.—AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

How proposed; submission. Section 1. Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in either house of the general assembly; and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment shall be entered on their journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election, and shall be published, as provided by law, for three months previous to the time of making such choice; and if, in the general assembly so next chosen as aforesaid, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house, then it shall be the duty of the general assembly to submit such proposed amendment or amendments to the people in such manner, and at such time as the general assembly shall provide; and if the people shall approve and ratify such amendment or amendments by a majority of the electors qualified to vote for members of the general assembly, voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of the constitution of this state.

More than one. Sec. 2. If two or more amendments shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be submitted in such manner that the electors shall vote for or against each of such amendments separately.

Conventions. Sec. 3. At the general election to be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and in each tenth year thereafter, and also at such times as the general assembly may, by law, provide, the question, "Shall there be a convention to revise the constitution, and amend the same?" shall be decided by the electors qualified to vote for members of the general assembly; and in case a majority of the electors so qualified, voting at such election for and against such proposition, shall decide in favor of a convention for such purpose, the general assembly, at its next session, shall provide by law for the election of delegates to such convention.

ARTICLE XI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Jurisdiction of justice of the peace. Section 1. The jurisdiction of justices of the peace shall extend to all civil cases (except cases in chancery, and cases where the question of title to real estate may arise), where the amount in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars, and by the consent of parties may be extended to any amount not exceeding three hundred dollars.

Counties. Sec. 2. No new county shall be hereafter created containing less than four hundred and thirty-two square miles; nor shall the territory of any organized county be reduced below that area; except the county of Worth, and the counties west of it along the northern boundary of this state, may be organized without additional territory.

Indebtedness of political or municipal corporations. Sec. 3. No county, or other political or municipal corporation shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner, or for any purpose, to an amount in the aggregate, exceeding five per centum on the value of the taxable property within such county or corporation—to be ascertained by the last state and county tax lists, previous to the incurring of such indebtedness.

Boundaries. Sec. 4. The boundaries of the state may be enlarged, with the consent of congress and the general assembly.

Oath of office. Sec. 5. Every person elected or appointed to any office, shall, before entering upon the duties thereof, take an oath or affirmation to support the constitution of the United States, and of this state, and also an oath of office.

How vacancies filled. Sec. 6. In all cases of elections to fill vacancies in office occurring before the expiration of a full term, the person so elected shall hold for the residue of the unexpired term; and all persons appointed to fill vacancies in office, shall hold until the next general election, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Land grants located. Sec. 7. The general assembly shall not locate any of the public lands which have been, or may be granted by congress to this state, and the location of which may be given to the general assembly, upon lands actually settled, without the consent of the occupant. The extent of the claim of such occupant so exempted, shall not exceed three hundred and twenty acres.

Seat of government; state university. Sec. 8. The seat of government is hereby permanently established, as now fixed by law, at the city of Des Moines, in the county of Polk; and the state university at Iowa City, in the county of Johnson.

ARTICLE XII.—SCHEDULE.

Supreme law. Section 1. This constitution shall be the supreme law of the state, and any law inconsistent therewith, shall be void. The general assembly shall pass all laws necessary to carry this constitution into effect.

Laws in force. Sec. 2. All laws now in force, and not inconsistent with this constitution, shall remain in force until they shall expire or be repealed.

Proceedings not affected. Sec. 3. All indictments, prosecutions, suits, pleas, complaints, process, and other proceedings pending in any of the courts, shall be prosecuted to final judgment and execution; and all appeals, writs of error, certiorari, and injunctions, shall be carried on in the several courts, in the same manner as now provided by law, and all offenses, misdemeanors, and crimes that may have been committed before the taking effect of this constitution, shall be subject to indictment, trial, and punishment, in the same manner as they would have been had not this constitution been made.

Fines inure to the state. Sec. 4. All fines, penalties, or forfeitures due, or to become due, or accruing to the state, or to any county therein, or to the school fund, shall inure to the state, county, or school fund, in the manner prescribed by law.

Bonds in force. Sec. 5. All bonds executed to the state, or to any officer in his official capacity, shall remain in force and inure to the use of those concerned.

First election for governor and lieutenant-governor. Sec. 6. The first election under this constitution shall be held on the second Tuesday in October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, at which time the electors of the state shall elect the governor and lieutenant-governor. There shall also be elected at such election, the successors of such state senators as were elected at the August election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and members of the house of representatives, who shall be elected in accordance with the act of apportionment, enacted at the session of the general assembly which commenced on the first Monday of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

For secretary, auditor, etc. Sec. 7. The first election for secretary, auditor, and treasurer of state, attorney-general, district judges, members of the board of education, district attorneys, members of congress, and such state officers as shall be elected at the April election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven (except the superintendent of public instruction), and such county officers as were elected at the August election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, except prosecuting attorneys, shall be held on the second Tuesday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; provided that the time for which any district judge or other state or county officer elected at the April election in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight shall not extend beyond the time fixed for filling like offices at the October election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

For judges of supreme court. Sec. 8. The first election for judges of the supreme court, and such county officers as shall be elected at the August election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, shall be held on the second Tuesday of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

First session of general assembly. Sec. 9. The first regular session of the general assembly shall be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, commencing on the second Monday of January of said year.

Senators. Sec. 10. Senators elected at the August election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, shall continue in office until the second Tuesday of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, at which time their successors shall be elected as may be prescribed by law.

Offices not vacated. Sec. 11. Every person elected by popular vote, by a vote of the general assembly, or who may hold office by executive appointment, which office is continued by this constitution, and every person who shall be so elected or appointed to any such office, before the taking effect of this constitution (except as in this constitution otherwise provided), shall continue in office until the term for which such person has been or may be elected or appointed shall expire; but no such person shall continue in office after the taking effect of this constitution, for a longer period than the term of such office, in this constitution prescribed.

Judicial districts. Sec. 12. The general assembly, at the first session under this constitution, shall district the state into eleven judicial districts, for district court purposes; and shall also provide for the apportionment of the members of the general assembly in accordance with the provisions of this constitution.

Submission of constitution. Sec. 13. This constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the August election, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the several election districts in this state. The ballots at such election shall be written or printed as follows: Those in favor of the constitution, "new constitution—yes." Those against the constitution, "new constitution—no." The elections shall be conducted in the same manner as the general elections of this state, and the poll-books shall be returned and canvassed as provided in the twenty-fifth chapter of the code, and abstracts shall be forwarded to the secretary of state, which abstracts shall be canvassed in the manner provided for the canvass of state officers. And if it shall appear that a majority of all the votes cast at such election for and against this constitution are in favor of the same, the governor shall immediately issue his proclamation stating that fact, and such constitution shall be the constitution of the state of Iowa, and shall take effect from and after the publication of said proclamation.

Proposition to strike out the word "white." Sec. 14. At the same election that this constitution is submitted to the people for its adoption or rejection, a proposition to amend the same by striking out the word "white," from the article on the "right of suffrage," shall be separately submitted to the electors of this state for adoption or rejection, in the manner following, viz.: A separate ballot may be given by every person having a right to vote at said election, to be deposited in a separate box. And those given for the adoption of such proposition shall have the words, "shall the word 'white' be stricken out of the article on the 'right of suffrage?' yes." And those given against the proposition shall have the words, "shall the word 'white' be stricken out of the article on the 'right of suffrage?' no." And if at said election the number of ballots cast in favor of said proposition, shall be equal to a majority of those cast for and against this constitution, then said word "white" shall be stricken from said article and be no part thereof.

Mills county. Sec. 15. Until otherwise directed by law, the county of Mills shall be in and a part of the sixth judicial district of this state.

Biennial elections. Sec. 16. The first general election after the adoption of this amendment shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year nineteen hundred and six, and general elections shall be held biennially thereafter. In the year nineteen hundred and six there shall be elected a governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, attorney general, two judges of the supreme court, the successors of the judges of the district court whose terms of office expire on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and six, state senators who would otherwise be chosen in the year nineteen hundred and five and members of the house of representatives. The terms of office of the judges of the supreme court which would otherwise expire on December thirty-first, in odd-numbered years, and all other elective state, county and township officers, whose terms of office would otherwise expire in January in the year nineteen hundred and six, and members of the general assembly whose successors would otherwise be chosen at the general election in the year nineteen hundred and five, are hereby extended one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The terms of office of senators whose successors would otherwise be chosen in the year nineteen hundred and seven are hereby extended one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The general assembly shall make such changes in the law governing the time of election and terms of office of all other elective officers as shall be necessary to make the time of their election and terms of office conform to this amendment, and shall provide which of the judges of the supreme court shall serve as chief justice. The general assembly shall meet in regular session on the second Monday in January, in the year nineteen hundred and six and also on the second Monday in January in the year nineteen hundred and seven, and biennially thereafter.

Originally adopted in convention at Iowa City, the fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

STATE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

GOVERNOR.

Term of incumbent ends January, 1921. Compensation $5,000.

WILLIAM L. HARDING, of Sioux City, Woodbury County, Born in Iowa

Office	Name	Legal Residence	Birthplace	Compen- sation
Secretary to Governor.....	Charles E. Wilt.....	Shell Rock.....	N. Dakota.....	$ 2,400
Pardon Clerk.....	Emma K. Blaise.....	Des Moines.....	Iowa.....	1,800
Requisition Clerk.....	Emma D. Kasemeler.....	Des Moines.....	Iowa.....	1,300

The supreme executive power of the state is vested in the governor, whose term of office is two years. He receives an annual salary of $5,000 and an allowance of $600 for house rent, and $1,200 for services as member of the executive council.

No person shall be eligible who shall not have been a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state two years next preceding the election, and attained the age of thirty years at the time of said election.

He is commander-in-chief of the military forces of the state.

He transacts all executive business with the officers of government, civil and military, and may require information in writing from the officers of the executive department upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

When any office, from any cause, becomes vacant, and no mode is provided by the constitution and laws for filling such vacancy, the governor has power to fill such vacancy, by granting a commission, which expires at the end of the next session of the general assembly, or at the next election by the people.

He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the general assembly by proclamation, and shall state to both houses, when assembled, the purpose for which they shall have convened.

He is required to communicate, by message, to the general assembly, at every regular session, the condition of the state, and may make such recommendations to the body as he shall judge expedient.

In case of disagreement between the two houses with respect to the time of adjournment, the governor has power to adjourn the general assembly to such time as he may think proper; but no such adjournment shall be beyond the time fixed for the regular meeting of the next general assembly.

All bills must be submitted to him for approval, and a two-thirds vote of both branches of the legislature is required to pass a bill over his veto.

The governor has power to grant reprieves, commutation and pardons, after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law. Upon conviction for treason, he has power to suspend the execution of the sentence until the case shall be reported to the general assembly at its next meeting. He has power to remit fines and forfeitures, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and shall report to the general assembly, at its next meeting, each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon granted, and the reason therefor.

He appoints all principal officers of the state not elected by the people, and certain officers connected with the state government, by and with the consent of the senate.

He signs patents for state lands, and appoints and commissions notaries public and commissioners in other states to take acknowledgments of deeds for this state.

He may demand fugitives from justice from the executives of other states, and may issue warrants, upon the requests of other governors, for fugitives found in this state.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

Term of incumbent ends January, 1921.

ERNEST R. MOORE, Cedar Rapids, Linn County, Born in Iowa.

The lieutenant-governor is elected for a term of two years and is required to have the same qualifications, as to age and residence, as the governor. He does not give bond.

In case of the death, impeachment, resignation, removal from office, or other disability of the governor, the powers and duties of that office devolve upon the lieutenant-governor, for the residue of the term, or until the governor shall be acquitted, or the disability removed.

The lieutenant-governor is president of the senate, but can only vote when the senate is equally divided. In case of his death or other disability incapacitating him from discharging the duties of his office, the same devolve upon the president pro tempore of the senate.

He receives the same mileage and double the per diem of a senator. He maintains an office at the capitol building during the meetings of the general assembly.

*Appointed July 1, 1919, to fill vacancy by resignation of W. S. Allen.

The secretary of state is the head of the department of state. He is elected by the people for a term of two years, and receives a salary of $4,000 a year. He is ex officio a member of the executive council. He is also ex officio a member of the board of trustees of the state library and the historical department of Iowa and of the state board of health.

The secretary of state countersigns all commissions and proclamations issued by the governor, and keeps a record thereof in the executive register.

The enrolled copies of the constitution and the laws of the state, the authenticated copies of the journals of the senate and house of the general assemblies, and many other legislative and state papers are filed in his office. He prepares for publication certain laws and resolutions passed by the general assembly, and is charged with the work of distributing the codes, code supplements and session laws.

Certificates of nomination and all papers and records pertaining to the nomination, election and qualification of state and district officers are filed in his office.

All papers relative to the incorporation of cities and towns, the annexation or severance of territory, and the consolidation or abandonment of municipal corporations are transmitted to him and preserved as a part of the permanent records of his office.

Articles of incorporation of both domestic and foreign corporations, as well as all amendments thereto, are filed and recorded in his office, and certificates of authority to transact business within the state of Iowa are issued by him. Applications for the registration of trade-marks, labels and forms of advertising are made to him and certificates issued thereon.

He edits, publishes and distributes the Iowa Official Register, and is required by law to place therein historical, political and other statistics and facts of general value, but nothing of a partisan character.

The records, files, field notes and plats of survey, and other papers and documents of the state land office are in his custody. Patents for school, university, agricultural college, railroad, swamp and other lands, are prepared in the land office, and, when signed by the governor, are countersigned by the secretary of state and recorded in the patent record books in the land department. He makes a biennial report to the governor of the transactions of this department.

Iowa corporations organized for pecuniary profit, and all foreign corporations authorized to do business in this state, are required to report annually, in July, to the secretary of state and pay him an annual fee of one dollar each. The secretary of state is required to send, during May and June of each year, to each corporation of record in his office, a notice, advising as to the provisions of the law, and a blank for use of the corporation in making report. On receipt of annual report and fee, the secretary of state is required to issue to the corporation an annual permit.

The registration in the office of the secretary of state is required to be made of all charitable organizations soliciting public aid in the state and a permit must first be procured from his department before any such organization, its agents or representatives may lawfully solicit public donations in any county, city, or township in Iowa except within the county or adjoining counties in which such association or institution is located.

An important branch of the work in the office of the secretary of state is that relating to the administration of the so-called Blue Sky Law, the same being an act passed by the thirty-sixth general assembly to prevent fraud in the sale and disposition of stocks, bonds and other securities.

A record of the registration of motor vehicles is also kept by him.

The auditor of state keeps the accounts between the state and the United States, or any state, public official or person; makes settlement of accounts with county treasurers and receivers of state revenues; keeps accounts of all revenues, funds and income of the state and of all disbursements; settles accounts with public debtors for debts due the state; settles claims against the state treasury; superintends and enforces payment of moneys payable into the state treasury; superintends the fiscal affairs of the state and furnishes forms for reports to be made by county officials to the state; issues all warrants on the state treasurer of money directed by law to be paid out of the treasury; has custody of all books, securities, bonds, etc., pertaining to the fiscal affairs of the state, where such are not required to be kept in some other office; reports to the governor biennially as to the revenues, funds, income, taxable property, also as to expenditures and estimates expenditures for the biennial period following; makes apportionments of interest on the permanent school fund among the counties and directs the payment of the proceeds of escheats estates to the school fund.

The auditor of state also has charge of the municipal finance department, the county accounting department, as well as having supervision of loan and trust companies and building and loan associations; he appoints the building and loan examiners, the county examiners, and the examiners of municipal accounts. All reports by any of the companies or associations above named are made to him, all fees, except fees for incorporation, are paid to him, and all deposits required by law of any such companies or associations to be made with the state are deposited in the auditor's office. None of the companies or associations named can transact business in the state until they have received a certificate of authority from the auditor.

In addition to the above he is a member of the executive council of the state, which body constitutes the board of assessment and review and also has general supervision of the state's business, and is also a member of the state geological board and ex-officio member of the state board of health. He is also chairman of the state board of audit.

TREASURER OF STATE.

Term of incumbment ends January, 1921. Salary, $1,500.

EDWIN H. HOYT, of Manchester, Delaware County. Born in Iowa.

The public revenues of the state are received and disbursed by the treasury department; books are kept in which are recorded the names of all persons from whom money for any purpose is received, the time received, the purpose for which the money was remitted, and the amount thereof. Receipts in duplicate are issued for each item received, and the duplicate is filed with the state auditor. When remittance of state dues is made by bank draft, check or certificate of deposit, such draft, check or certificate must be deposited for collection in some bank in the city of Des Moines which has been previously designated as a depository for state funds, and no receipt for any sum remitted by check or draft is issued by the treasury department until the depository receiving the deposit notifies the department of the collection thereof. All county treasurers, auditors and superintendents of schools and all state officers, boards or commissions are required to remit to the state treasury, on or before the 15th of each month, all moneys received by them during the preceding calendar month. The treasurer of state, with the consent of the executive council, may designate banks in the city of Des Moines as depositories of state funds. Each bank so designated shall give bonds to be approved by the executive council, and shall pay interest on daily balances at such rate and at such times as may be agreed by the banks and the treasurer of state, with the approval of the executive council. At this time such depositories pay interest monthly at the rate of two per cent per annum.

Disbursements from the state treasury are made only upon warrants issued by the state auditor and a record is kept of each warrant paid, showing date of issue, date of payment, to whom payable, to whom paid and upon what account drawn. All accounts of each state institution under the board of control are paid by checks issued by this department in favor of the person to whom the account is payable. These accounts are not paid until after they have been audited by the board of control and an abstract of the total amount due on account of each institution and the names and postoffice addresses of the persons to whom each of the several accounts are payable has been forwarded to this department by the board of control, together with a warrant or warrants of the auditor of state to cover the total amount to be paid. The state treasurer is the custodian of the permanent endowment fund of the State Agricultural College. This fund amounts to about $680,000 and is loaned at not less than five per cent, secured by first mortgages upon real estate in Iowa. Only the interest may be used by the college. This interest is payable to the state treasurer and is by him paid to the treasurer of the college.

The treasurer of state is entrusted with the collection of the Collateral Inheritance Tax. The revenue from this source for the biennial period ending June 30th, 1918, amounted to $873,394.28 and as the thirty-eighth general assembly authorized examiners to examine the county records for unreported estates, subject to this tax, a large increase of the revenue from this department is expected.

The accounts of the department are examined by some one appointed from the governor's office and one from the auditor's office, once in every three months, and may be examined by the governor at any time.

The total receipts of the State of Iowa, from all sources, as shown by the books of this department, for the fiscal period ending June 30, 1918, were $19,933,082.45.

The commissioner of insurance is the executive head of the insurance department of Iowa and has general control, supervision and direction of all insurance business transacted in the state and is charged with the execution of the laws relating to insurance. All powers vested in, and all duties imposed upon the auditor of this state, relating in any way to insurance matters prior to July 1, 1914, were on that date vested in and made incumbent upon the commissioner of insurance.

The commissioner is authorized to conduct examinations of insurance organizations transacting business in the state, covering in detail their financial condition, evidence of solvency and methods and practices of their officers and agents. Domestic companies, associations and societies are required to be so examined at least biennially. The actuary and chief examiner are in charge of the examination work which is continuous. The companies are visited and the audits made in their offices. A written report of the findings of the examiners is filed with the department as a permanent record.

All deposits required by law to be made with the state by any such company, association or society, are directly in charge of the commissioner and a careful record is kept thereof, showing each item. A daily and monthly balance is maintained, showing the amount of securities on deposit to the credit of each company. Each security deposited is carefully examined and, before acceptance, must comply with the statutes governing investment of insurance funds. The companies and associations are required to keep their deposit up to the amount prescribed by law. No company or association is permitted to withdraw securities sufficient to bring the amount below the reserve required to be maintained on deposit. The amount of approved securities representing capital stock and the legal reserve value of policies of Iowa life companies and associations on deposit in this department on January 1, 1919, was $99,454,890.01.

All fees due the state from insurance companies and associations are paid to the commissioner of insurance.

The commissioner passes upon the articles of incorporation of new insurance organizations, and amendments thereto must also have his approval. No policies can be sold in the state until the policy forms have been approved by him, and all agents appointed by the companies and associations to represent them in the state must be licensed by the insurance department.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Term of incumbent ends January, 1921. Salary, $5,000.

H. M. HAVNER, of Marengo, Iowa County. Born in Iowa.

Office	Name	Legal Residence	Birthplace	Compensation
Assistant Attorney General	F. C. Davidson	Emmetsburg	Iowa	$4,000
Assistant Attorney General	Shelby Cullison	Harlan	Iowa	3,500

The attorney general is elected for a period of two years.

It is the duty of the attorney general to appear for the state, prosecute or defend all actions and proceedings, civil and criminal, in which the state shall be a party or interested, when requested to do so by the governor, executive council or general assembly or he may so appear on his own motion; and shall prosecute or defend for the state all causes in the supreme court in which the state is a party or interested.

The attorney general is given supervisory power over county attorneys and in a general way looks after the enforcement of the law over the entire state.

He shall also, when requested, give his opinion in writing upon all questions of law submitted to him by the general assembly, or either house thereof, the governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, and other state departments.

It is also his duty to prepare drafts for contracts, forms and other writings which may be required for the use of the state, and shall at the close of each biennial period report to the governor the condition of his office, the opinions rendered and the business transacted in the office.

In addition to the above, the attorney general is chairman of the state board of law examiners, whose duty it is to examine and pass upon the qualifications of all applicants for admission to the bar.

BOARD OF LAW EXAMINERS.

Chairman—H. M. HAVNER, Attorney General.

MEMBERS OF BOARD.

	Terms Expire
H. M. HAVNER, ex officio .
JAMES A. DEVITT, Oskaloosa	July 4, 1919
CHAS. W. LYON, Des Moines	July 4, 1919
CHAS. D. LEGGETT, Fairfield	July 4, 1920
RALPH PRINGLE, Red Oak	July 4, 1920
FRED W. SARGENT, Des Moines	July 4, 1920

The state board of law examiners was created by an act of the twenty-eighth general assembly which went into effect on the 4th day of July, 1901.

The attorney general is, by virtue of his office, chairman of the board, and the other members are appointed by the supreme court.

The members of the board are paid as compensation fifteen dollars per day out of the fund arising from examination fees. Under the statute the supreme court may also appoint from time to time, when necessary, temporary examiners to assist the commission, who shall serve for one examination only.

Every applicant for admission to the bar must pass an examination by the board as to his legal attainments, and also as to his preliminary educational qualifications, unless he furnishes proof of such qualification by presenting a diploma or certificate that he is a graduate of a college, high school, normal school or academy, or that he has regularly and in good faith pursued and successfully completed four years of the regular course of an accredited high school, or the certificate of the state board of educational examiners that he has successfully passed an examination by that board, or the certificate of the president of the state university or of any college in this state having an equivalent collegiate or liberal art study, that he has been found on proper certification or examination to be entitled to admission, without condition, as a student of such university or college, for which admission the applicant must have actually and in good faith acquired a general education substantially equivalent to that involved in the completion of a high school course of study of at least four years extent.

If the applicant fails to pass the examination he may not take a second examination within three months after such failure. Each applicant is required to pay an examination fee of five dollars, and one dollar for his certificate of admission.

EDWIN H. HOYT.

FRANK S. SEAW.

ORA WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Members of Board and Secretary ex officio members; Document editor appointed by the Governor for four years term. Term expires July 1, 1923.

State Document Editor	Ora Williams	Des Moines	Iowa	$3,000
Document Clerk & Accountant	Joseph Francis	Des Moines	Iowa	1,800
Stenographer and Clerk	Clara Zimmerman	Des Moines	Iowa	1,200
Janitor and Asst. Shipping Clk.	Jacob Kussell	Des Moines	Iowa	1,080

The Thirty-sixth General Assembly provided by legislation for a radical departure from old methods in handling the publication business of the state and created the office of document editor, defining his duties to be to "edit, revise and prepare manuscripts" of all publications of the state, and to "supervise the printing, binding and distribution of all reports, documents and publications" issued by the state or at state expense. The document department, which had charge of the custody and distribution of all such publications, was at the same time transferred to the document editor. The editing and supervision of all the publication work for the general assembly was also placed under the document editor and he was required to audit all bills for everything relating to printing and to keep all records and publish a biennial report. In still further carrying out the idea of concentrating the publication business of the state in one office the Thirty-Seventh general assembly created the state board of public printing and binding, with the governor, secretary of state, treasurer and auditor members ex officio and the state document editor secretary by virtue of his office. This board was given the duty of making contracts for everything pertaining to printing in all its forms and the purchase of the stock and these contracts to supersede the statutory prices for such printing under which the work had been done. The duties of state printer and state binder, which offices were abolished, were transferred to the document editor, and this change took place January 1, 1919. It is required that contracts shall be let on bids duly advertised for in accordance with Chapter 183, 27th general assembly. In December, 1918, the board awarded the contracts for 1919 to various contractors in and out of Des Moines.

The department has control of the contracts, supervises the printing, determines the number of copies of each publication issued, audits all bills and issues all orders for every kind of printing or expenditure related thereto.

Janitor	Verley Bykora	Des Moines	Penn.	1,080

The staff of the commander-in-chief consists of an adjutant general, with rank of brigadier general, who is chief of staff and acting quartermaster-general, an assistant adjutant general, with rank of major, and twelve aids who have the rank of lieutenant-colonel, except that any person so appointed, who has held a higher rank for a period of one year or more in the guard may be appointed with the rank of the highest rank so held by him, or the twelve aids may be detailed for such service from the active membership of the guard, but if so detailed they hold their rank in the guard and shall perform the duties of aid in addition to their regular duties.

The adjutant general is appointed by the governor. He issues and transmits all orders of the commander-in-chief and keeps a record of all appointments of officers commissioned by the governor, of all the general and special orders and regulations, and of such matters as pertain to the organization of the military force and his duties. He holds office for a period of four years, first period starting July 4, 1916, and also performs the duty of quartermaster-general in addition to his duties as adjutant general. He has charge of the state arsenal and grounds and all other property of the state kept or used for military purposes and receives and issues all quartermaster and ordnance stores and camp equipments upon the order of the commander-in-chief. He furnishes at the expense of the state such blanks and forms as are approved by the commander-in-chief. In each year, preceding a regular session of the general assembly, or at any other time the governor may direct, he makes out a detailed report of the transactions of this office, the expenses thereof and such other matters as shall be required by the commander-in-chief for the period since the last preceding report.

All muster rolls, reports, returns, enlistments, discharges and complete records of the organized militia are filed and made a matter of record in his office. The records of Iowa soldiers of the Civil and Spanish-American wars are on file in his office and all information desired from such records is furnished by him. Certificates of military service of Iowa soldiers of the late wars or past service in the organized militia are given by him under the seal of the state. He is the disbursing officer of all state appropriations for the use and support of the organized militia and as acting quartermaster-general all military property is committed to his custody which he is required to issue for the use of the militia, keeping an account of the same. He is required to furnish such reports to the organized militia of the state as the secretary of war may from time to time require. As chief of staff he is to perform his duties as such officer as directed by the commander-in-chief or required by the laws of Iowa governing its organized militia or by orders and regulations.

In addition to his duties as adjutant general the thirty-sixth general assembly required that he should perform the duties formerly imposed on the custodian of the capitol grounds and public buildings.

As such custodian it is his duty to take charge of and protect the capitol building and all furniture and other property connected therewith, to preserve the same from injury; to control and take care of the capitol grounds, walks, fences, trees, shrubbery, statuary and other property of the state; to take charge and have control of all buildings and grounds at the seat of government, not by law placed in charge of some other person; to appoint the necessary employes; to make sworn statement at the end of each month of expenses incurred, and to make a biennial report to the governor.

The powers and duties of the board of railroad commissioners are: To generally supervise all railroads in the state, both steam and electric, except street railroads; to inquire into any neglect or violation of the laws of the state by any railroad corporation doing business therein; to make examinations and inspections of the physical conditions, conduct and management of such railroads and report their condition to said companies; to stop and prevent railroad companies, under certain circumstances, from running or passing their trains over unsafe bridges; to adjudge changes in station houses, rolling stock and rates of fare; to make report on first Monday in December in each year to the governor of its doings for the preceding year, accompanied with appropriate suggestions and recommendations; to receive, tabulate, and report upon the annual reports filed with it by railroad companies; to examine any of the books, papers or documents of any such corporation; to examine under oath employes of such corporation; to issue subpoenas, administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses; to make and fix maximum schedules of freight rates for such corporations, such schedules to be deemed reasonable until disproved; to examine into rates in force, upon complaint that the rate charged by a railroad company, or that the maximum rates fixed by the commission are unreasonably high or discriminating, and to fix the rate again, which must not be higher than any rate established by law, such decision of the commission is prima facie evidence that the rate so made is a reasonable maximum rate; to bring suits to enforce its orders; to inquire into the management of the business of such carriers and to obtain from them full and complete information necessary to enable the commissioners to carry out the objects of the law; to hear, investigate and determine all complaints alleging unreasonable rates; unjust discrimination, undue preference, violation of the long and short haul clause, or other infractions of the commission law, and make proper orders thereupon; to establish joint through rates, upon application, over two or more connecting lines; and to have the same authority over express companies as the act confers concerning railroads.

Before any railway company may condemn lands for additional depot grounds, or for straightening or relocating track, the permission of the board must be obtained. Interlocking switches may be placed at grade railroad crossings or draw bridges, thus obviating the necessity of stopping trains before passing over such grade crossings or draw bridges, but before the interlocking switch may be used, consent of the board must be obtained.

The thirty-fifth general assembly gave to the commission the power to grant to individuals or corporations "engaged in the manufacture, sale, or distribution for sale of electric current for light, power, or heating purposes; the right within the state, except in cities and towns, to erect and maintain poles, wires, towers, fixtures and other necessary construction for the purpose of conducting electricity for lighting, power and heating purposes over, along and across any public land, highways or streams or the lands of any person or persons, and to acquire the necessary interests in real estate therefor." It also provided that transmission lines proceeding under the provisions of the law should be subject to "such reasonable regulations as the commission may from time to time, prescribe."

The thirty-fourth general assembly created the office of commerce counsel, to be appointed by the board of railroad commissioners for a term of four years, subject to confirmation by senate. The law provides that the counsel may appoint assistants, subject to the approval of the board of railroad commissioners. The duties of the office briefly are as follows:

DUTIES OF COMMERCE COUNSEL

The legal advisor of the board of railroad commissioners. To investigate and present matters with reference to intrastate rates to the board of railroad commissioners, prosecute the same before said board, or to any court to which same may be taken. To investigate on his own motion, or at the request of the board, all matters involving interstate rates in which the people of Iowa are interested, and present the same to the interstate commerce commission and prosecute same to the final determination. To act as attorney for and represent the board of railroad commissioners in all courts of this state or of the United States, in which the validity of any order of said board is in issue; to institute and prosecute in any of the courts any and all suits necessary to the proper enforcement of any rule or order of said railroad commissioners or make defense therein wherever said rule or order may be called in question.

The statutes of Iowa provide the sentence of a prisoner convicted of a felony shall be for the maximum term provided for the crime committed; thus leaving to the court imposing the sentence no discretion as to the time of confinement. The board of parole is given authority to release on parole outside the prison, all prisoners, except those sentenced for life terms. The law which provided for the fixing of a definite time of prison service by the judge before whom the trial was had, contemplated punishment for the particular crime; in other words, forfeiture of liberty on account of guilt, for a length of time which in the judgment of the judge would be the penalty the man should suffer. Hence, the oft repeated remark that a prisoner "has served as long as he should be required to serve for what he did."

The maximum sentence contemplates the keeping of a man in prison not alone for punishment, but for discipline, training, education and reformation, as well as example by which others may profit or be deterred from committing crime; this involves the consideration of past life, opportunities, environment, mental ability, criminal tendencies or want of them, and evidences of reformation and change in desires and ambitions. The board of parole has time and opportunity to investigate all these things. The object of the parole law is, that the man who gives evidence of the fact that he will be a law abiding citizen if given his liberty, shall be released on parole, always taking into account what would be a reasonable term to be served as an example. The marked difference between the definite term fixed when sentence is pronounced and the indeterminate sentence is that the first is for punishment on account of a particular crime, while the second contemplates not only the protection of society, but the study of the individual and the handling of him with a view of securing reformation from other causes than simply fear of imprisonment, which is not reformation at all. On the trial of a man indicted for crime, guilt or innocence may be established by evidence, but the evidence proper to be used for that purpose will not determine what the man has been or is, except as one may conclude from the single illegal act of which he is found guilty. The paroled man is kept under the control and supervision of the board of parole and in the custody of the warden of the prison; employment is found for him, he is placed in charge of some one whose duty it is to be in constant touch with him, to aid and encourage him, and keep the board advised of his conduct. The time he is on parole is not deducted from his prison sentence, and if returned to prison, he must serve the balance of his sentence unless paroled again. The prisoner, however, cannot be kept in prison longer than the maximum time provided by statute for the crime for which he was convicted. Rules and regulations are provided which must be observed by the man while on parole, and for the violation of which he may be remanded to prison. This reformatory method of handling prisoners had its origin in the law establishing the Elmira Reformatory in the state of New York in 1869. Now more than half of the states in the union have adopted it, and in most cases the laws closely follow the system as then approved in the state of New York. No state enacting laws providing for the maximum sentence and parole provisions has ever repealed them. No state has yet adopted the absolutely indeterminate sentence, although such a sentence was advocated by the author of the New York law and is favored by practically all criminologists and those who have had experience in prison management and administration of parole laws. The law provides that the board of parole shall have the power to parole, under such rules and regulations as it may adopt, all prisoners committed to the men's reformatory or penitentiary excepting those sentenced for life. When such life sentence is passed the consideration of those cases is primarily with the governor who, upon application for pardon or commutation of sentence must refer them to the board for advice and recommendation before he passes upon them.

*Paid from receipts of the Department of agriculture and State Fair.

The department of agriculture for the state of Iowa was created by legislative enactment of the twenty-eighth general assembly in the year 1900. The office of the department is in the northeast wing of the state capitol building, in the rooms formerly occupied by the Iowa state agricultural society (said society ceased to exist when the department of agriculture was created.) The department is managed by a board, styled the state board of agriculture, of which the governor, president of the State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, state dairy and food commissioner, and state veterinarian are ex officio members; other members are a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and one member from each of the eleven congressional districts of the state. The president, vice president, and district members are chosen at the annual agricultural convention, which is composed of delegates from each of the county and district fairs, county farmers' institutes, state dairy association, horticultural society, improved stock breeders' association, and members of the state board of agriculture. The president and vice president are elected for a term of one year, and the district members for a term of two years. The secretary and treasurer are elected by the board.

The department annually compiles and publishes the "Iowa Year Book of Agriculture." This book contains useful information upon various topics relating to agriculture, live stock, a review of the weather and crops for the preceding year, a synopsis of the work and proceedings of the state dairy and food department, state swine breeders' and state dairy associations, and such other matter as will be of interest to the farmer. It is also the duty of the secretary to carry out the provisions of the state law with reference to issuing state certificates of enrollment of all pure bred stallions and jacks and certificates of soundness for all grade stallions and jacks offered for public service, sale, exchange or transfer in the state of Iowa. It is also the duty of the secretary to prepare and send out the blanks, and receive the reports of the county and district fairs, farmers' institutes and short course associations entitled to receive state aid.

The thirty-third general assembly makes it the duty of the department to prepare and furnish blanks to the township assessors for the purpose of listing the acreage and yield of farm crops, the number and value of live stock, poultry and egg production, and other farm statistics and to tabulate the returns and publish same in the Iowa year book of agriculture.

By statute the state board of agriculture is made the custodian for the state fair grounds. It is also made the board of managers for the annual state fair. The state does not provide any support fund for the maintenance of the state fair, nor pay any of the yearly expenses or premiums of same, the statute providing that all expenditures connected with the holding of the fair must be paid out of the fair receipts. The title to the state fair grounds is in the name of the state of Iowa, all deeds and abstracts being on file in the state auditor's office.

Duties required of the state veterinary surgeon, include supervision of all contagious and infectious diseases among domestic animals, within the state and those in transit through the state; and to enforce rules and regulations of the animal health commission and to co-operate with the local boards of health and the United States department of agriculture in the eradication of contagious diseases among live stock, and take such action as the exigencies of the case may demand.

COMMISSION OF ANIMAL HEALTH. ✓

Appointed by the Governor. Term three years. Compensation $100 a year.

MEMBERS.

ROBT. D. WALL, State Veterinary Surgeon, Chairman, Des Moines.
 J. R. UNDERWOOD, Veterinarian, Des Moines.
 THOMAS DOWNING, Veterinarian, Washington.
 FRANK KINGSLEY, Stockman, McGregor.
 G. C. BANNICK, Stockman, Hennett.
 CHAS. ESCHER, Stockman, Botna.
 RAYMOND CASSIDY, Whiting.

The thirty-fourth general assembly created the commission of animal health, the members of which are to be appointed by the governor and are to consist of the state veterinary surgeon, who is to be the chairman and executive officer thereof, two veterinarians and two stockmen. The thirty-eighth general assembly provided two additional stockmen to serve for two-year terms. When the terms of the members of the commission expire their successors are to be appointed, the veterinarians to serve for three years and stockmen to serve for two years.

The commission is to hold at least two meetings a year and it has power and authority to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the prevention, suppression and quarantine of diseases among animals in the state and those being driven or transported through or into Iowa. Such rules and regulations are to be effective when approved by the executive council.

The state veterinary surgeon and the two veterinarians on the board constitute a board for the examination of applicants to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry.

The members of the Animal Health Commission, other than the state veterinary surgeon, are to receive $100 a year for their services and in addition thereto the veterinarians, other than the state veterinary surgeon, are to receive $100 for their services as members of the examining board.

The office of dairy commissioner was established May 1, 1886. On July 4, 1908, the office became that of the food and dairy commissioner. On July 4, 1907, the food law became effective and the work of the department was also increased by the passage of the commercial feeding stuffs and agricultural seed law. Later enactments make the department responsible for the laws governing the sale of paint, linseed oil, turpentine, calcium carbide and commercial fertilizer. The 35th general assembly also gave the department the enforcement of the sanitary law, which provides for the proper sanitation of all food producing establishments; the weight and measure law which provides for scale inspection and for general supervision of weights and measures and the use of such apparatus in connection with the purchase or sale of merchandise; and the cold storage law, which provides for the making of reports of stocks and gives the commissioner and assistants supervision over food products held in storage and limits the time that foods may be cold stored. The insecticide and fungicide law was enacted by the 37th general assembly and given to the dairy and food commissioner for enforcement. The 38th general assembly passed the egg law and the renovated butter law enforcement which is placed in the dairy and food commissioner.

The total annual expenditures amount to approximately $75,000. The term "food" is defined as including all articles used as food, drink, confectionery or condiment by man or beast. The inspectors employed by the dairy and food department are given authority to enter all places of business where food products are manufactured, stored or sold and all wagons used in the transportation of such products and authority is given for taking samples of any goods offered or exposed for sale within the state.

The department issues licenses to all users for commercial purposes of the Babcock test. The fee for the license is $2.50 per year for each operator. Milk inspection is extended to all incorporated cities and towns and a license fee of $1.00 a year is required of all persons selling milk from stores or vehicles.

A license fee of $3.00 is collected for each scale or weighing device where a fee is charged for weighing and the same license is required of all bakeries, candy factories, ice cream factories, canning factories, slaughter houses and meat markets. Dealers in eggs are issued annual licenses; the license fee is $1.00. Cold storage plants are required to pay an annual fee of $25. Condimental stock foods and tonics are included within the term "commercial feeding stuffs" and each manufacturer is required to pay a license fee of $100 annually.

The Iowa Library Commission was created by an act of the twenty-eighth general assembly in March, 1900. Two years later the Traveling Library previously under the State Library was transferred to the Commission.

The executive officer of the Commission is the secretary who also bears the title of director of library extension. The activities of the Commission consist (1) of the work of extension and supervision carried on by the secretary assisted by the organizer.

This consists of help given by personal correspondence and visits in the inaugurating of library projects and the arousing of interest in the submission of the question of tax support in communities without public libraries, and of advice and help in the selection of building plans, equipment and furniture, and the selection and purchase of books, in their classification and cataloging, the installation of modern methods and records whereby the efficiency of the library is greatly increased, the encouragement and information of library boards and the instruction of librarians. In addition addresses are made by the secretary before library boards, teachers' meetings, farmers' institutes and other public gatherings in the interest of libraries and reading throughout the state. All this help is available to communities and libraries without charge except the entertainment of the organizer when employed in a library.

(2) The second activity of the Commission is the Traveling Library which is made up (a) of fixed groups of 50 volumes each for general reading by adults and children. These groups become small libraries in the communities to which they go where they are loaned to individual borrowers free of charge; (b) of a general loan or subject collection for the use of students desiring material on specific subjects; (c) of books for the blind in New York Point loaned to any blind reader in the state; (d) of study club outlines and syllabi to assist in the preparation of programs; (e) picture collections for study club or exhibit purposes. These are all loaned with no charge except the cost of transportation, the books for three months and the pictures and outlines for two weeks.

(3) A periodical clearing house is also maintained by the Commission for the purpose of aiding small libraries in completing sets of standard periodicals without cost. (4) The work of publication includes the Iowa Library Quarterly, leaflets, lists and other material helpful in giving library information and increasing the reading of good books throughout the state.

STATE LIBRARIAN.

Term six years. Elected by Board of Library Trustees. Term expires April 30, 1920. Salary $5,000.

JOHNSON BRIGHAM, of Des Moines, Polk County. Born in New York.

Office	Name	Legal Residence	Birthplace	Compensation

The accession list of the general, law and legislative reference departments of the state library on the first day of July, 1918, included 153,073 volumes. The total accessions of the biennial period ending June 30, 1918, were 10,282 volumes. The historical department is separately reported.

The librarian notes with satisfaction the steadily growing utilization of the state library by advanced students of literature, philosophy, science and social problems, by debaters in the high schools and colleges of the state; also by state legislators and those interested in state legislation. This satisfaction is enhanced by the steadily increasing ability of the library to satisfy the wants of those who visit it with serious purposes. In fact the mission of the general library as a reference library—a final report for information in science, the mechanic arts, the fine arts, biography, general history, literature and philosophy, is finding generous recognition with students, scholars, educators, legislators, clubs devoted to research work and the school, college and public libraries of the state. With a single additional assistant, and latterly an apprentice, a legislative reference bureau has been developed during the past few years, and the use made of the new bureau by legislators, legislative committee clerks and persons interested in legislation, has steadily increased to such an extent that legislative reference work must be extended and its efficiency increased in anticipation of the increased demands certain to be made upon its resources. The thirty-fourth general assembly added greatly to the future efficiency of the state library, and contributed largely to the relief of the library board, by increasing the appropriations of the several departments as follows: The general library from $5,000 to $6,000; the historical department from $5,000 to $6,000, and the law department and legislative reference bureau from $4,000 to $6,000. The inclusion of the legislative reference bureau was the first legislative recognition of that increasingly efficient branch of the service beyond the appointment of a legislative reference assistant.

The law department of the state library has been materially strengthened by recent purchases bringing down to date several high-priced sets, and in other ways adding materially to the efficiency of that important department.

The completion of the valuable sets of standard periodicals, legal, scientific and miscellaneous, is one of the gratifying results of recent years, making the periodical feature of the library one of the strongest in the country.

The pressing need of the state library has long been a medical department that will serve the medical profession as the law department has long served the legal profession. A bill was introduced in the thirty-eighth general assembly embodying this need and passed with little opposition. It carries an appropriation of $2,000 for librarian's salary and $2,000 for books, periodicals, etc. It is hoped, by means of photography and by utilization of traveling library methods of reaching remote localities, to make the new department extremely serviceable to the medical profession in Iowa.

The crowning work of the thirty-eighth general assembly, as viewed from the standpoint of the library, was the appropriation of $1,000,000 for a Temple of Justice to be erected on the Capitol grounds, for the housing of the Supreme Court of Iowa, the state library, the attorney general's department, and other departments in close relation with the court.

As now organized this department dates from the first day of July, 1892. Its chief purpose is the collection of historical data relating to our own state and the territory of the middle west, of which it originally formed a part. Special efforts are made to collect Iowa newspapers from the earliest dates to the present time; works of state and general western history, biography and genealogy; works on the histories of all our wars from the earliest times; works relating to the North American Indians; county histories, maps, Iowa pamphlets, biographies of our noted men and women, printed or in manuscript; written or printed documents relating to early settlers and settlements; reports, catalogues and broadsides relating to the churches, educational and benevolent institutions of the state; in short, every species of data which can throw light upon local, state or western history. Two hundred ninety-five Iowa newspapers are currently received, and the department is endeavoring to acquire all Iowa papers. It has ceased the collection of papers from other states. The library is especially strong in genealogy, local history and the history of the civil war.

The department publishes The Annals of Iowa, an illustrated quarterly historical magazine of eighty pages; it was suspended during the war. This is made up largely of original contributions in history and biography. By direction of the trustees it is sent free to every organized library in our state. Its price to subscribers is $1 per year.

In addition to the Annals, the historical department is to be credited with the following publications, viz., thirteen biennial reports: "John Brown Among the Quakers and Other Sketches," by Hon. Irving B. Richman, "First Census of the Original Counties of Dubuque and Des Moines," edited by Dr. Benj. F. Shambaugh. "History of the Constitution of Iowa," by Dr. Shambaugh. Reports of the laws of Iowa, 1838-39 and of 1839-40, and the hitherto unpublished journals of the council and house of representatives of the extra session of 1840. "Early Settlement and Growth of Western Iowa," by Rev. John Todd, Rafinesque; life and biography, by T. J. Fitzpatrick; Downing's Civil War Diary, by Alexander G. Downing, and Iowa authors and their works.

The department has secured one hundred and forty fine oil portraits of distinguished Iowans, which are now on exhibition in the art gallery of the historical building, and has thousands of photographs and other black and white portraits and exhibits. More are promised in the near future.

The museum includes nine large cases for autograph letters, manuscripts and portraits; a collection of recent, aboriginal and prehistoric pottery found in our own state; a large collection of prehistoric implements, among which is an Iowa axe weighing 31 3-4 pounds—one of the largest ever discovered—with hundreds of flints; many teeth, tusks, and other bones of the mammoth and mastodon, all of which were found in Iowa; several large cases of birds found within our state; many Iowa mammals; a case of Indian baskets, bead work, implements and weapons, much of which were manufactured by the Mesquakie Indians of Tama county; a collection of arms—cannon, mortars, swivel guns, rifles, muskets, carbines, swords and pistols, in use during the Civil, Spanish and Philippine wars; and duplicates in bronze of most of the historic medals issued by the United States government.

Chapter 142 of the laws of the thirty-first general assembly made provision for the care and permanent preservation of the public archives by giving the state library and historical department custody of all the original public documents, papers, letters, records and other official manuscripts of the state executive and administrative departments, offices or officers, councils, boards, bureaus and commissions, ten years after the date of the current use of such public documents, papers, letters, records or other official manuscripts.

The act also provided that the public archives shall be housed in the historical, memorial and art building in rooms to be known as the hall of public archives.

Chapter 157 acts of the thirty-second general assembly provided that the executive council should superintend the arrangement, labeling, filing and calendaring of the archives, the same to be delivered to the state library and historical department for preservation.

An act of the thirty-sixth general assembly provided that all of the duties and responsibilities of the executive council and the board of trustees of the state library and historical department with respect to the public archives are transferred to the curator of the historical department to be administered under the direction of the above board of trustees; empowers the curator to certify copies and otherwise hold the same relation to the archives transferred as, for instance, that of the secretary of state to such as originated in his office.

The archives division includes: about five million documents and three thousand pound records that have been classified, cleaned, filed and indexed. In addition to the above there are great masses of documents and records in the storage cases, which have been removed from the state offices to this department.

Since January, 1918, the department has been engaged in assembling original materials relating to the contribution of Iowa to the present war and the collections, aimed at complete and authentic facts, already have invaluable material upon the following phases:

1. A biographical census record of every man and woman serving their country during the world war.
2. Iowa's honor roll.
3. Iowa's decorated men and women.
4. Iowa's members of congress.
5. Iowa's governor.
6. The state's executives.
7. The Iowa legislature.
8. A military section, to include history of the "Guard."
9. A law section to include both national and state laws.
10. A record of civilian activities.
11. An extensive biographical record of leaders and privates.
12. Short histories of army divisions, ship's crews, etc. in which a considerable number of Iowa men have served.
13. Iowans in the allied armies.
14. Iowans in the army of the central powers.
15. Finance.
16. Councils of defense.
17. Educational institutions.

} To include all war-time activities.

18. The philanthropic phase.
19. The Red Cross.
20. Chapter on industry.
21. Religious organizations.
22. Iowa's chaplains.
23. Social and fraternal organizations.
24. Boy Scouts and boys' working reserves.
25. Food and fuel administrations.
26. Iowa women in war-time.
27. Internal disloyalty.
28. Public health.
29. The press.
30. An Information series.
31. Short histories of the submarines, etc.
32. The premature announcement of peace.
33. The reconstruction period.

Besides the historical department the state library and the Iowa library commission are accommodated in the magnificent historical building which is now completed.

His chief duties are:

1. To analyze the official opinions of the Supreme Court (numbering fully 600 each year), and therefrom to write the syllabi and head notes to each case and to cause the same to be printed, bound, indexed and supplied with a table of cases.
2. To prepare and cause to be published the acts of each session of the general assembly.
3. To keep each and every section of the general statutes annotated to date.

The reporter, in his work and in all his expenditures, is under the direction of the judges of the Supreme Court.

The official reports are published, likewise under the direction of said judges, under contract with responsible bidders.

IOWA STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION.

JAMES W. HOLDEN, Chairman, Scranton, Iowa.

DEAN A. MARSTON, Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa.

WILLIAM COLLINSON, Chariton, Iowa. ✓

By the act of the thirty-fifth general assembly, creating the highway commission, the Dean of Engineering of the Iowa State College is ex officio a member of the commission. The other two members are appointed from different political parties for a term of four years.

The two commissioners appointed by the governor receive as compensation $10.00 per day, not to exceed one hundred days per year. The ex officio member of the commission receives no additional compensation. All members receive actual traveling expenses. Terms begin July 1st.

The highway commission was first established in Iowa under Chapter 105, acts of the thirtieth general assembly, which constituted the Iowa State College as an institution to act as the highway commission for the state. From 1904 until 1912, work was carried on under this law.

The thirty-fifth general assembly reorganized the entire system of road administration in the state and created a commission of three men as outlined above. The office of the commission is located at the Iowa State College and the duties prescribed by the law are such that an extensive organization is necessary. Under the law as amended by the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh general assemblies, the duties of the commission are as follows:

First. To devise and adopt plans of highway construction suited to the needs of the different counties of the state.

Second. To disseminate information and instruction to road officers of the state.

Third. To issue an annual report to the governor relative to the operations of the commission.

Fourth. To appoint such assistants as are necessary to carry on the work of the commission.

Fifth. To make investigations as to conditions of road and bridge work in the counties.

Sixth. To have general supervision over the county and township officers in the state and to enforce the provisions of the road law.

Seventh. To devise plans and conduct negotiations between railroad and local officials for the elimination of danger at railroad crossings.

Eighth. To assist county boards of supervisors and the attorney general in defense of patent suits.

Ninth. To have charge of the survey and administration of meandered lakes.

Tenth. To prepare plans and specifications for federal aid road projects and to supervise the construction and maintenance of same.

The work of the Department of Public Instruction. The duties of the superintendent of public instruction may be classified as educational, quasi-judicial, and ex-officio.

Executive. Among the duties of an educational nature may be named his general supervision over the county superintendents of the state, which necessitates his meeting with these officers at least twice each year, and the publication of numerous circulars of instruction and suggestion. He is at the head of the public school system of Iowa, and his duties as such leader are to appoint institutes, and approve institute faculties. He is required by law to promote among the people of the state a proper interest in the general subject of education, including industrial and commercial education, agriculture, manual and vocational training, domestic science and continuation work. Also to classify and define various public schools belonging to his department, and to formulate suitable courses of study therefor, and to publish and distribute such classifications and courses of study. It is also his duty to collect statistics, and report on education, and educational questions, and the condition of the public schools of the state, and to publish them in reports and pamphlets. Among the publications that have become a part of the educational needs of the state and are of national note may be named: The Manual of Methods for the Elementary Schools of Iowa, Special Day Book, Educational Directory, Proceedings of the Iowa State Teachers' Association, Standards for Approved Graded and High Schools, Reference Books for the Approved High Schools of Iowa, Outlines in Agriculture, Domestic Science and Manual Training, Outlines of Psychology and School Management, Outline of Music for Normal Training High Schools and Normal Training Courses in Four Year High Schools, and Iowa Day. Many others of minor importance on various subjects are published.

In order to aid him in organizing and classifying the public schools of the state, the superintendent of public instruction is permitted by law to appoint one normal training inspector, two graded and high school inspectors, and one inspector of rural and consolidated schools. He is also empowered to distribute to the normal training schools and the consolidated schools certain aids which is set aside for these schools under certain conditions. It is his duty to pass upon them finally, and to determine what schools shall receive state aid.

For the purpose of increasing the facilities for training teachers for the rural schools by requiring a review of such common branches as may be deemed essential by the superintendent of public instruction, and for innovations in elementary pedagogy, and the art of teaching elementary agriculture and home economics, provision is made for normal courses of study and training in such approved four-year high schools as the superintendent of public instruction may designate.

He reports biennially to the governor on the conditions of the public schools of the state, and makes suggestions and recommendations as investigation and experience dictate.

Judicial. The quasi-judicial duties of the superintendent of public instruction include the hearing of appeals from the decisions of county superintendents, the rendering of opinions, in writing, when requested by school officials (but in fact opinions are rendered to all who request them) and publication of the school laws and notes on the same, and pamphlets containing session laws.

Ex-officio duties. The superintendent of public instruction is ex-officio member of the Iowa library commission, president of the educational council, president of the State Teachers' Reading Circle board, president of the Educational Board of Examiners and president of State Board of Vocational Education.

As executive of the Educational Board of Examiners, a great amount of responsibility is incurred, since all licenses to teach are issued under authority of this board, and the work is conducted under his personal supervision.

THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.

OFFICERS OF THE BOARD.

WALTER L. BIERRING, President, Des Moines.
 G. H. SUMNER, Secretary, Des Moines.
 HENRY ALBERT, Director, State Board of Health Laboratory, Iowa State University, Iowa City.

ASSISTANTS TO THE SECRETARY.

Assistant Secretary, HENRY W. GREFE, Des Moines.
Chief Clerk, LYNN CLEMENS, Des Moines.
Assistant Registrar, PAULINE MUELLER, Des Moines.

CLERKS IN THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH OFFICE.

Chief Accountant, MARIE CALVERT, Des Moines.
Antitoxin Clerk, FAYE CLEMENS.
Extra and General Clerk, ELLA WENZEL, Des Moines.
Chief Clerk, Hotel Inspector, EVELYN REES, Des Moines.

COMPENSATION.

The members of the board receive $900 per year and railroad expenses for services as members of the state board of health, medical examiners, embalmers, nurses and optometry. The sanitary engineer, who is also a member of the board receives the sum of $2,500 per year, and necessary traveling and incidental expenses. The secretary receives $3,000 per year, the assistant secretary $1,500 per year; chief clerk $1,500 per year; the director of the bacteriological laboratory receives his compensation from the state university.

The state board of health has a general supervision of the lives and health of the people of the state and has power to make rules and regulations respecting the public health and declare that such rules and regulations when made shall have the force of legislative enactments.

The board through local boards of health establishes, maintains and releases quarantine; requires the disinfection of persons and premises exposed to contagion; supervises through its sanitary engineer the installing of water works systems, the construction of sewerage systems, and makes sanitary surveys through the sanitary engineer and the state laboratory of the board located at the state university, Iowa City. It investigates into the causes of diseases and issues to the people of the state instructions relative to the prevention of transmissible diseases and how to correct insanitary conditions in general which may exist in any part of the state.

The board also supervises the examination and registration of licensed embalmers. The result has been that the science and skill as well as the technique of the funeral director has been greatly improved and the public health has been better protected thereby. In connection with this work the board has adopted rules and regulations for the transportation of the dead so that bodies, dead of infectious diseases, may be so prepared as to be shipped without interference or danger to any point in the United States, Canada, Mexico or Cuba. The rules for the shipment of corpses are the same in the countries just mentioned—the benefits of which can hardly be appreciated unless one is unfortunate enough to require such services.

The board also supervises the examination, and licenses those who desire to practice nursing as registered or graduate nurses.

It is required to make rules and regulations for the inspection of petroleum products; to determine the manner and methods, and to prescribe the instruments and apparatus to be used for the government of inspectors. Such rules and regulations shall be approved by the governor, and when so approved shall be binding upon all inspectors. It is the duty of the state board of health, to examine lamps and apparatus to be used, as shall be presented to such board, and test said lamps or apparatus, and if it shall find any lamp or apparatus to be safe, said board shall enter the findings of the board upon the records of the proceedings of said board. It is further made the duty of the board to fix a standard of purity of oils and other illuminating materials to be used in mines and to establish regulations for testing the same, and when so determined and established shall be recognized by all of the courts of this state.

It is the duty of this board to dispose of unclaimed bodies by directing to what medical college of the state such bodies shall be sent for anatomical purposes.

In addition to the above specified duties the board supervises the disinterment, burial and transportation of all dead bodies within the state and keeps a record of such disinterments and burials.

The board also has a thoroughly equipped and up-to-date bacteriological laboratory at Iowa City, in connection with the state university, where upon short notice tests are made to determine the presence of tuberculosis, typhoid fever, diphtheria, rabies, etc., and where the best methods of disinfection are determined.

The physicians of the board of health and its secretary are constituted the members and secretary of the board of medical examiners and as such, determine the standing of medical colleges, examine their graduates, and license those who pass satisfactory examinations as physicians and osteopaths, with authority to refuse to issue certificates and to revoke those issued under certain specified conditions and the board also issues certificates on reciprocity with other states and is authorized to grant itinerant licenses.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH LABORATORY.

The thirty-second general assembly, in providing for the state hygienic laboratory, made an appropriation of six thousand dollars ($6,000) annually, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the salary of the director, assistants and the running expenses of the laboratory.

At the first meeting of the state board of health following the passage of chapter 101, acts of the thirtieth general assembly, it was decided at that time, on account of limited funds, a great deal of work which the laboratory should do in the interests of the public health must be postponed, and that the work of the laboratory must be limited to the routine diagnostic work in connection with diphtheria, typhoid fever, tuberculosis and rabies. Because of the action of the thirty-second general assembly, in appropriating six thousand dollars ($6,000) annually, the laboratory is able to do more and better work than formerly. The bacteriological and chemical analyses of public water supplies are problems of great importance and the state board of health feels that these should receive more attention in the future than in the past, hence it would recommend that the secretary and the director of the bacteriological laboratory be consulted freely when the public health is eminently concerned as in epidemics of typhoid fever. On such occasions the director of the laboratory shall make or cause to be made an investigation of the epidemic and have such bacteriological and chemical analyses of water and other substances made as are necessary to the finding and the removal of the causes of such epidemics. The rapid diagnosis of a certain infectious disease like diphtheria, being of such great importance in order that proper treatment may be begun as soon as possible, the board has devised a method (which places the diagnosis outfits for the collection of material, in the hands of every physician) by establishing one or more culture stations in every city and town in the state where the diagnosis outfits are kept constantly on hand and given free of charge to all physicians.

STATE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

President, WALTER L. BIERRING, M. D., Des Moines.

Secretary and Treasurer, GUILFORD H. SUMNER, M. D., Des Moines.

Members. The physicians of the state board of health.

Examinations are held in June and at such other times as may seem necessary.

Correspondence relating to practice of medicine or osteopathy should be sent to the secretary of this board.

Every person practicing medicine or osteopathy in the state is required to secure a certificate from this board.

Every physician or osteopath itinerating within the state is required to procure a special license.

The board is authorized to issue two classes of certificates; first to physicians, and second to osteopaths.

DEPARTMENT OF VITAL STATISTICS.

State Registrar of Vital Statistics, GUILFORD H. SUMNER, M. D., Des Moines.

Assistant, PAULINE MUELLER, Des Moines.

Compensation: State registrar receives no compensation; assistant receives $1,200 per annum.

Undertakers and coroners are required on or before the 5th day of each month to return to the state registrar certificates of death that have come under their professional or official notice for the month preceding. Clerks of district court report, on forms prescribed by the registrar, all marriages and divorces recorded in their respective offices, and the city. Births are reported by attending physicians, midwives and the people in general, to the clerk of court of the county wherein they occurred.

HOTEL INSPECTOR.

Inspector of Hotels, J. B. HESTNER, Des Moines.

His salary is fixed at $2,400 a year and it is made his duty to inspect every hotel once each year, or oftener on complaint of three or more patrons, and to require that the law relative to proper construction, fire escapes and cleanliness be enforced. Each hotel is required to pay a license fee, which is to be turned into the state treasury, and into the hotel inspection fund.

STATE BOARD OF OPTOMETRY EXAMINERS.

The board consists of three optometrists appointed by the Governor from a list of registered optometrists recommended by the Iowa State Association of Optometrists and one physician member of the state Board of Health appointed by the Governor. The Secretary of the State Board of Health acts as Secretary of this Board. ✓

MEMBERS.

JAMES G. McMASTERS, Optometrist, President, Cedar Rapids.
 C. N. PATRICK, Optometrist, Monticello.
 ALFRED J. DECKER, Optometrist, Newton.
 GEORGE F. SEVERS, M. D., Centerville.

The terms of all members of the board are for one year and expire June 30th each year. The members of the board receive five dollars a day for time actually employed. They also receive necessary traveling expenses. The fee for examination is fifteen dollars. Applicants are required to possess certain qualifications before they are admitted to examination. The board meets in the offices of the state board of health in the capitol building. The act creating the board does not apply to merchants or dealers who sell glasses as merchandise and who do not profess to be optometrists.

STATE FISH AND GAME WARDEN.

W. E. ALBERT, Lansing.

R. P. BANE, Secretary, Des Moines, Iowa.
 CHAS. S. HOBSON, Assistant Southwest District, Clarinda, Iowa.
 R. T. ST. JOHN, Assistant Northeast District, Riceville, Iowa.
 THEO. SOURS, Superintendent of Mississippi River District, Dubuque, Iowa.

Note—At time of going to press, the appointments for Deputy Game Wardens have not been made.

The duties of the fish and game warden, as defined by chapter 15 of the code, are as follows:

He shall make biennially a report to the governor of his doings, together with such information for the protection of fish and game as he may think proper. He shall make monthly an itemized statement to the executive council under oath of all moneys expended and for what purpose, and the number and varieties of fish distributed and in what waters; also all prosecutions made under the law. He shall have charge of the re-stocking and distribution of fish to the public waters of the state, and shall impartially and equitably distribute the same. He shall faithfully and impartially enforce obedience to the provisions of the fish and game laws. He may suspend for a specified period specified portions of fish and game laws and issue permits authorizing the persons to whom said permit is issued, to take from certain designated lakes of the state, having an area of not less than two square miles, certain fish designated in said permit in any quantities and for all purposes. He shall not permit seining in said lakes between the first day of December and the fifteenth day of June.

He may grant certificates to proper parties to collect birds, their nests or eggs for scientific purposes. He shall seize and take possession, without warrant, any fish, birds or animals which have been caught, taken or killed, at any time, in a manner or for a purpose or had in possession or under control, or have been shipped contrary to law, and shall sell the same for the purpose of paying any costs, and balance of proceeds, if any, shall be turned into the school fund of the county in which the seizure is made. He shall seize and destroy or sell without warrant or process, any net, seine, trap, contrivance, material, and substance whatever while in use or had and maintained for the purpose of catching, taking, killing, trapping or deceiving any fish, birds or animals contrary to the provisions of the fish and game laws. He may appoint such number of deputies as he may deem necessary, and their duties are to report all violations of the law, to make arrests where crime is committed in their province, and to aid the warden in the enforcement of the law. The provisions of the law make the state and game warden a state marshal, and it is his duty to ferret out offenders and bring them to justice.

By an act of the thirty-third general assembly, "no person shall hunt, kill or take any wild animal, bird or game in this state with a gun without first procuring a license." The fee for such license is one dollar a year for each citizen of the state and ten dollars a year for each non-resident or alien. The county auditors of the state issue the licenses. All licenses expire on the first of July of each year. Owners of land, their children and tenants are not required to procure a license to hunt on their own premises. Provision is made in the law for the amount of game that a non-resident may take from the state. Penalties are provided for the enforcement of the law. Another law of the thirty-third general assembly provides for an annual license under certain restrictions for the use of seines and nets in the Mississippi and Missouri rivers where they form part of the boundary line of the state.

By an act of the thirty-fifth general assembly, three district deputy wardens are provided for, to be appointed by the state fish and game warden. The state will be divided into districts with a man in charge in each as a general supervisor.

By an act of the thirty-sixth general assembly, no person shall keep game birds in possession for the purpose of propagation and sale, without first procuring a license from the State Fish and Game Warden, the fee for which is $2.00.

STATE MINE INSPECTORS.

Appointed by the Governor. Term four years. Expires July 4, 1923.

Office	District	Name	Legal Residence	Birthplace	Compensation
Inspector.....	First.....	W. E. Holland.....	Albia.....	Pa.....	$2,700
Inspector.....	Second.....	Rhys T. Rhys.....	Ottumwa.....	So. Wales.....	2,700
Inspector.....	Third.....	Edward Sweeney.....	Des Moines.....	England.....	2,700
Secretary.....	L. E. Stamm.....	Des Moines.....	Iowa.....	2,000

The office of state mine inspector was created by the eighteenth general assembly in the year 1830. At that time the mining of coal in this state was in its infancy. But few large mines were in operation and the tonnage of coal was small as compared to that of the present time. Then but one inspector was needed. Owing to the growth of the coal industry the twenty-first general assembly amended the mining laws and provided for three inspectors, and gave the governor power to divide the state into three inspection districts. Today the entire time of the three inspectors is taken up with the work of inspecting the mines of the state and seeing that they are worked in conformity with the mining laws of the state as regards safety to the employes therein, proper ventilation, condition of the shafts, escape ways in times of danger, safety catches on cages, condition of the cables for hoisting men and coal, and everything that would tend to guard against accidents to men employed in the mines.

A general office for the inspectors is maintained in the state house and a complete record is kept therein of all inspections, accidents, etc. in record books for that purpose. A monthly report of the general conditions of all mines is made to the mine inspectors and a general report of the conditions of the mines of the state, tonnage, accidents, number of employes, and other information relative to the coal industry, is published every two years. Copies of the state mining laws are also published and circulated. Blue prints of maps of all mines in the state, brought up to date once each year, are on file in the offices of the mine inspectors subject to public inspection. A secretary, elected by the inspectors, has charge of the general correspondence and books in the office, as the duties of the three inspectors keep them almost constantly in the field.

In 1900 Iowa produced 5,117,285 tons of coal and employed 13,041 men, and in 1918 the coal production amounted to 8,219,133 tons and 14,563 men were given employment in and around the mines. Between 250 and 300 mines are in operation in the 22 counties, which are divided into three inspection districts.

The first district includes the counties of Appanoose, Lucas, Taylor, Monroe (part), Wayne, Page and Adams. Mr. W. E. Holland of Albia, Iowa, is the inspector in this district, where mines employing 5,576 men, and producing 2,624,878 tons of coal during the calendar year 1918, are located.

The second district comprises the counties of Mahaska, Marion, Monroe (part), Jasper, Keokuk, Van Buren, Davis, Jefferson, Wapello and Warren. Mr. Rhys T. Rhys of Ottumwa is inspector for this district. 3,331,868 tons of coal were produced by the mines of the second district in 1918 and employment was given to 5,009 men.

The third district comprises the counties of Polk, Webster, Boone, Greene, Guthrie, Scott and Dallas. Mr. Edward Sweeney of Des Moines is the inspector. During the calendar year 1918 the mines in this district produced 2,262,387 tons of coal and employed 3,978 men.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS FOR MINE INSPECTORS, MINE FOREMEN AND HOISTING ENGINEERS.

Appointed by the Executive Council for a term of two years. Terms expire January 25, 1920. Compensation $5.00 per diem.

EDWARD GRAY, President, 1223 24th Street, Des Moines, operator.

B. H. SHIVERS, Secretary, 3209 School Street, Des Moines, engineer.

T. L. EVANS, Lockman, operator.

DAVID ANDERSON, Eldwell, miner.

JOHN CALDWELL, Centerville, miner.

The state board of mine examiners was created by the twenty-second general assembly, and is composed of five members; two coal operators, two miners, and one engineer. Their duties are to examine and issue certificates to those qualified to act as state mine inspectors, hoisting engineers and mine foremen. An examination for state mine inspectors is held the first Monday in March in even-numbered years in the office of the state mine inspectors in the state house. Examinations for hoisting engineers and mine foremen are held at various times during the year in different parts of the state. A fee of two dollars for registration, and an additional fee of two dollars is required of those taking and passing the examination for mine foremen and hoisting engineers. The law requires that each certificate issued by the board shall be recorded in the office of the examining board, and shall show the name, age, residence and years of experience of the person to whom it was issued.

STATE BOARD OF AUDIT.

FRANK S. SHAW, Auditor of State.

H. M. HAVNER, Attorney General, or W. R. C. KENDRICK, Assistant Attorney General.

R. E. BALES, Secretary Executive Council, or A. U. SWAN, Assistant Secretary Executive Council.

The state board of audit was created by the thirty-sixth general assembly and is composed of the auditor of state, the attorney general or one of his assistants, and the secretary of the executive council or his first assistant.

It is the duty of this board to audit all claims except those for salaries of various officers which are fixed by law and claims on account of the institutions under the control of the Iowa Board of Control of State Institutions and the Iowa State Board of Education. Before approving any claim it is the duty of this board to determine that such claim is fully and clearly authorized by law; that the officer, board, commission, department or executive council empowered to authorize the creation of the claim has granted or authorized the same and has certified the fact to the board of audit; that all the legal requirements have been observed, including notice and competition, if required by law; that the claim is in proper form and duly verified and that the charges are reasonable, proper and correct.

The board is authorized and directed to formulate such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary to enable it to determine: that services charged for were actually performed; the time necessary devoted to such service and the exact and necessary expenses incurred in the performance thereof. The board will require information relative to any and all other matters which will aid it in performing its duties and protecting the interests of the state, and may require a strict compliance with said rules before auditing any claim.

STATE BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY.

Appointed by the Governor. Term three years. ✓

Office	Name	Legal Residence	Birthplace	Term Expires
Chairman	Philip L. Billings	Waterloo	Iowa	Jan. 1, 1920
Secretary-Treasurer	A. H. Hammarsstrom	Clinton	Iowa	Jan. 1, 1921
Member	John W. Peisen	Idora		Jan. 1, 1922

The members of the board receive $10.00 per diem with expenses while the board is in session, but per diem and expense cannot exceed the amount of fees received from applicants.

Under the provisions of the law the board meets at least once annually to examine persons desiring to practice in Iowa as certified public accountants and issues certificates to those qualifying.

The examination fee is $25.00.

An applicant for examination must be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state of Iowa; must be 25 years of age or more and of good moral character; must be a graduate of a high school with a four year course, have an equivalent education, or pass a preliminary examination by the board; must have had at least three years of practical accounting experience, at least one of which shall have been as a public accountant.

The board may register the certificate of any person who is the lawful holder of a certified public accountant's certificate issued under the laws of another state, which extends similar privileges to certified public accountants of this state, or to holders of degree of certified public accountant or chartered accountant or the equivalent thereof, issued by any foreign government provided that the requirements of such certificate or degree are, in the judgment of the board, equivalent to those provided for Iowa.

Practicing as a certified public accountant or chartered accountant or posing as such without having secured the necessary certificate is made a misdemeanor under the law.

Persons granted a certificate to practice, must furnish bond to the auditor of state in the sum of $5,000.00.

The general assembly in 1884 provided for the creation of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the appointment of a commissioner, defining his duties, and his tenure of office. The work as outlined was purely statistical and was designed for the purpose of making inquiry into the conditions surrounding the employment of labor, its connection with the development of industries both mechanical and those arising from the natural resources of the state, the advantages and inducements offered in various localities for the establishment of desirable industries, the extent and productive value of industries already established and information relative to the home life and general welfare of the workers.

Information regarding working conditions in factories, strengthened by actual personal investigation made by the commissioners and exemplified in their reports, proved the necessity for periodical and systematic inspection of the factories and workshops by competent persons whose time could be devoted to their work. The legislature of 1902 provided for such inspection and the enforcement of requirements made. This inspection of factories, mercantile establishments, theaters, buildings, etc., embracing employment of over a half million workers, is one of the most important services the bureau renders to the state.

The increased activities of the bureau are indicated in part by the growth of the manufacturing industries, the 1895 census reporting 29,532 factory employes, our statistics of 1917 showing this number to have increased to 97,607.

Inspection efficiency is indicated by comparison of the last three biennial reports. For comparative purposes, taking the guarding of gears, removal or covering of set screws, and guarding of saws, jointers and dangerous machinery, the total of these recommendations for the first period is 2,442; for the second period, 2,096, and for the third period but 574, this decrease showing an improvement in three hazards ordinarily considered the most dangerous in manufacturing plants.

The present child labor law which has been operative since July 4, 1915, has been successful in checking child labor, and while the stress of war conditions brought an increase in the number of children employed, the conditions of employment were carefully guarded as were the prohibitions of age and other necessary standards of child welfare.

The thirty-sixth general assembly provided for the state free employment bureau, with one clerk to perform its duties as a part of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The purpose of the bureau was to prevent labor turnover, and to place men in jobs with the least economic waste. With the opening of the war, need was felt for extension of the service and offices were opened in twelve cities, with the result that from April 1, 1918, to January 1, 1919, 66,382 persons were sent into employment, with an actual record of 78 per cent placed in jobs.

BOARD OF VOTING MACHINE COMMISSIONERS.

Appointed by the Governor. Term five years. Compensation not to exceed $1,500.

The voting machine commission was created by an act of the twenty-eighth general assembly, providing for the use of voting machines at all state, county, city, town, and township elections. By this act the governor was authorized to appoint three commissioners, not more than two of whom should be from the same political party. The commissioners are appointed for the term of five years, subject to removal at the pleasure of the governor.

Individuals or corporations owning or interested in any voting machine may call upon the commissioners to examine the said voting machine. After such examination the commissioners are to report the results to the secretary of state, giving the capacity of such machine to register the vote of the people, its accuracy and efficiency, and its mechanical perfections or imperfections.

No board is acting at the present time.

EDUCATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

P. E. McCLENAHAN, Superintendent of Public Instruction, President ex officio.

WALTER A. JESSUP, President State University, ex officio.

HOMER H. SEERLEY, President State Normal School, ex officio.

RAYMOND A. PEARSON, President Iowa State College, ex officio.

MARY E. DEBOOS, Term expires April 1, 1921.

VIOLA SCHELL, Des Moines, Secretary.

FLORENCE ERICKSON, Des Moines, Stenographer.

DOROTHY I. GIBSON, Des Moines, Stenographer.

Composition—Three members of the board are members by reason of their official position, and two (one of whom must be a woman) are appointed by the governor for a term of four years.

Meetings—The board meets five times each year for the transaction of business at such times and places as the president directs.

Certificates—The educational board of examiners has charge of examinations for all teachers' certificates and issues all certificates except high school normal training certificates, which are issued by the superintendent of public instruction. There are three classes of certificates, viz., (1) state diplomas and state certificates, (2) uniform county certificates, (3) high school normal training certificates.

State certificates are issued upon (1) graduation from accredited Iowa colleges; (2) graduation from colleges and normal schools of other states which meet the Iowa standard; provided the applicants file proofs of two years' successful teaching; (3) state certificates of other states which meet the Iowa standard; (4) examination. The state diploma is issued only upon examination.

Uniform county certificates are issued only upon examination.

High school normal training certificates are issued upon graduation from approved normal training high schools.

Accredited Schools—The educational board of examiners makes regulations for the granting of certificates to graduates of the regular and collegiate courses of the state university of Iowa, the state teachers' college, and the state college of agriculture and mechanic arts, and determines what other colleges and normal schools of the state are entitled to like recognition.

Library List—The board is required to prepare and publish a list of books suitable for rural school libraries, from which list the library committee of all rural schools must make selection when purchasing books for their libraries.

IOWA STATE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION.

I. S. T. A. OFFICERS FOR 1919.

President—F. C. ENSIGN, Professor of Education, Iowa City.

First Vice President—PROF. J. C. MCGLADE, Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls.

Southwest Vice President—WM. F. SHIRLEY, Principal of High School, Council Bluffs.

Southeast Vice President—EL. C. LYNN, County Superintendent, Donnellson.

Northwest Vice President—S. T. NEVELN, Superintendent of Schools, Le Mars.

Central Vice President—MAY A. HILLS, County Superintendent, Adel.

Secretary—CHAS. F. FYE, Des Moines.

Treasurer—CLAY D. SLINKER, Des Moines.

Executive Committee—GRACE D. BRADSHAW, Chairman, County Superintendent, Pocahontas.

C. P. COLGROVE, President Upper Iowa University, Fayette.

H. E. BLACKMAR, Superintendent of Schools, Ottumwa.

Organization—Pursuant to a call signed by D. F. Wells, then of the Muscatine schools, and seventeen others, a number of teachers met in the court house at Muscatine, May 10, 1854, and organized the Iowa state teachers' association, adopted a constitution and elected the following officers: President, J. A. Parvin, Muscatine; Vice-President, Rev. Daniel Lane, Davenport; Recording Secretary, D. Franklin Wells, Muscatine; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. Samuel Newberry, Dubuque; Treasurer, G. W. Drake, Oskaloosa; Executive Committee, Rev. Samuel Newberry, Dubuque; G. B. Denison, Muscatine; Rev. W. W. Woods, Iowa City; D. S. Sheldon, Davenport, and H. K. Edson, Denmark.

The real work of the association began with its second session which convened at Iowa City, December 27 and 28 of the same year. After a very important meeting this session adjourned to meet at Davenport, September 4, 1856. When the time came for this meeting, so few were present, it was abandoned.

An educational convention was called to meet at Iowa City, June 18 to 19, 1856. At this meeting a permanent organization was effected and the constitution of the association of 1854, somewhat modified, was adopted. Since that time a session has been held each year.

At the session in December, 1905, the semi-centennial anniversary of the association was celebrated by a special campfire program, which was participated in, either in person or by letter, by many of the veterans in education in Iowa.

In the fall of 1917 a reorganization of the association was effected by the incorporation of the five district or section associations with the Iowa state teachers association and the establishment of a permanent office in the city of Des Moines with a permanent secretary in charge.

DIRECTOR OF WEATHER AND CROP SERVICE.

Appointed by the Governor. Term two years. Term expires June 30, 1920. Salary $1,500.

CHARLES D. REED, of Polk County; Postoffice, Des Moines.

The state weather and crop service was established in June, 1890, since which date it has been maintained in co-operation with the U. S. weather bureau. Under existing statutes the director is appointed by the governor upon recommendation of the state board of agriculture, and all expenditures are drawn upon vouchers issued by the president and secretary of that board. It is made the duty of the director to establish volunteer weather and crop stations to the number of two or more in each county, to appoint observers thereat and receive reports therefrom of meteorological and crop conditions; to tabulate reports for permanent records of climate and crops; to edit and cause to be printed a monthly weather and crop review; to issue weekly weather and crop bulletins during the crop season, April 1 to October 1, and to compile an annual report which shall contain a complete review and summary of the service for the year, which may include articles and papers upon the subject of meteorological science and climatology, and which shall be printed and bound in such numbers as the executive council shall direct. The director's compensation for such service shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars per year.

INSPECTORS OF BOATS.

Appointed by the Governor. Term two years. Term expires first Monday in May, 1980. Compensation, fees.

GEORGE B. FREEMAN.....	Mason City, Cerro Gordo county
JACOB B. THOMPSON.....	Spirit Lake, Dickinson county
ALONZO JENKS.....	Leon, Decatur county
OTIS DAVIS.....	Iowa City, Johnson county
DAN MORSEY, JR.....	Ottumwa, Wapello county
H. C. DALY.....	Emmetsburg, Palo Alto county

The inspectors are appointed by the governor to hold office for a term of two years from the first Monday in May in the even-numbered years. Each inspector is required to make an annual report to the governor on or before the first day of January, giving in detail the number and date of licenses granted pilots and engineers, number and kind of boats inspected, the fees received therefor, and other matters considered useful and of general interest.

The law provides that "any inspector, on the request of owner, agent or master of any boat other than a row boat, upon the inland waters of the state having a carrying capacity of five or more passengers, shall carefully and thoroughly inspect such boat, its appliances and machinery, and, if found in proper condition and safe for the carriage of persons or passengers, give his certificate thereof, including therein the number of persons or passengers that may be carried, and on what waters; which certificate, or a copy thereof, shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the boat, and any boat so inspected and certified shall be entitled to run for the season following the date thereof. In like manner, upon the request of any pilot or engineer for a license as such the inspector shall forthwith investigate the competency of the applicant, his acquaintance with and experience in his business, his habits as to sobriety, and other qualifications, and, if found capable of performing well his duties, and of good habits, he shall issue his certificate authorizing him to act as pilot or engineer, as the case may be, for five years from the date thereof, unless sooner revoked for cause, which revocation when made shall take effect upon the approval of the governor. The inspector may charge and require advance payment for inspection, for each sailboat, one dollar, each boat propelled by other power with a capacity of not more than twenty persons, five dollars; those of greater capacity, ten dollars, and for each applicant for license as pilot or engineer, three dollars."

The penalty for hiring or offering to hire such boat for the carriage of passengers, without first securing the certificate above mentioned, or for permitting or receiving for carriage a greater number of persons than authorized in the said certificate, is a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or both fine and imprisonment. The same penalty applies to anybody acting as a pilot or engineer without first having obtained a license, or having obtained such license, continuing to follow such avocation after his certificate has been revoked.

This department was established in 1913 by legislative act. It has jurisdiction in the matter of adjusting claims for personal injury arising out of and occurring in course of employment where the same is not agricultural, clerical, domestic or casual. The deputy commissioner is invested with full authority of administration in the absence or disability of the commissioner.

In cases of controversy arbitration is resorted to, each party in interest appointing an arbitrator, the commissioner or deputy acting as chairman of the committee.

Appeal may be taken from the decision of the arbitration committee to the courts under statutory limitation.

Employers not under insurance are definitely excluded from the provisions of the act. With the approval of the insurance and industrial commissioners employers may be authorized to carry their own risks upon satisfactory financial showing.

The department has a standing appropriation of $20,000 annually.

STATE OIL INSPECTORS.

Appointed by the Governor. Term two years. Terms expire June, 1919. Compensation Chief Oil Inspector, salary $2,800; other Inspectors, $100 per month; Clerk $1,200.

JOHN P. RISLEY, Des Moines, Chief Inspector.

J. T. SMITH, Burlington.	DAN O'NEILL, Fort Dodge.
A. D. FLEU, Davenport.	G. M. DAVIS, Carroll.
R. M. GARRISON, Cedar Rapids.	C. W. KENT, Sioux City.
W. B. COWAN, Waukon.	G. B. HARDELL, Council Bluffs.
S. B. HUMBERT, Cedar Falls.	J. W. HALL, Osceola.
W. C. KIMBERLY, Marshalltown.	J. P. EARLY, Albia.
J. W. RAMSAY, Garner.

AGNES LEE HERMANSEN, Clerk, Des Moines.

The state is divided into fourteen inspection districts which may be changed as the exigencies for the service may require.

An inspector is appointed for each inspection district, one of which is designated as chief inspector, who exercises supervision over the entire inspection service of the state. The state fixes his bond at $10,000.00. No person interested in the manufacture or sale, either directly or indirectly, in petroleum products can serve as inspector, or act as surety on his official bond, which is fixed by statute at $5,000.00. Inspectors may be removed for neglect or failure in the performance of their official duties.

Inspectors are furnished by the state with suitable apparatus for making inspection of all illuminating oils sold within the state, which includes miners' oil and oils used for illuminating boats, railway cars and street cars. A sample is taken by the inspector from each tank or barrel and subjected to a test. For petroleum oil (kerosene) the closed cup test is used. If the vapor arising from the heating process ignites at a temperature of 100 degrees or less, the entire lot from which the sample is taken is rejected and cannot be sold for illuminating purposes within the state. Miners' oil is subjected to a gravity test of 22 degrees, Taghblue hydrometer, at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit. Oils used for illuminating boats, street or railway cars are tested to an igniting or burning point of 300 degrees Fahrenheit.

All persons for whom inspections are made must report directly to the chief oil inspector of state all inspections made for them for each month. This is compared with the inspector's report for the same month, and if any discrepancies are found, corrections are required until a complete check is secured.

Rules and regulations for making inspections are formulated and adopted by the state board of health and become effective and a part of the law when approved by the governor.

STATE FIRE MARSHAL.

Appointed by the Governor. Term four years. Compensation, $2,500.

J. A. TRACY, of Sioux City, Woodbury County. Term expires July 1, 1919.

Name	Office	Legal Residence	Compensation
W. S. Campbell	Deputy state fire marshal	Fairfield	$2,000
E. J. Frowick	Assistant state fire marshal	Des Moines	1,800
Lee M. Dowis	Assistant state fire marshal	Centerville	1,600
Laura M. Pedersen	Chief clerk and stenographer	Des Moines	1,300

The office of state fire marshal was created by an act of the thirty-fourth general assembly. The principal duties of the fire marshal are to investigate the cause, origin and circumstances of every fire occurring in the state; to determine if any building or structures, by reason of want of proper repair or by reason of age and dilapidated condition, are especially liable to fire and to order their repair or removal; to require teachers in public and private schools to have at least one fire drill a month and instruct the pupils at least four times a year in the causes and dangers of fires; to make an annual report to the governor. For the purpose of enforcing the orders of the fire marshal suitable penalties and fines are provided and he and his deputy are empowered to administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. If the state fire marshal shall be of the opinion that there is evidence sufficient to charge any person with the crime of arson or criminal conduct in connection with any fire he shall cause such person to be arrested. Provision is made for the appointment of a deputy fire marshal and of such other help as may be necessary. Reports are required to be made to the fire marshal by all chiefs of fire departments of each and every fire, and where there is no established fire department the report is to be made by the mayor of incorporated cities and towns, and by township clerks outside of incorporated cities and towns. An appropriation of $14,500 a year is provided for defraying the expenses of the office.

BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS.

Appointed by the Governor for a term of five years. Compensation $5.00 per diem.

Name	Residence	Term Expires
Dr. George Brooks, President.....	Greenfield.....	July 31, 1921
Dr. C. B. Miller, Vice-President.....	Cedar Falls.....	July 31, 1922
Dr. J. A. West, Secretary-Treasurer.....	Des Moines.....	July 31, 1919
Dr. C. E. Westwood.....	Stour City.....	July 31, 1920
Dr. F. W. Conover.....	Decorah.....	July 31, 1923

Under the provisions of the law the board of dental examiners must hold one or more meetings annually for the examination of applicants for license. An applicant must be in possession of a diploma from a four years high school or its equivalent, also for a reputable dental school (reputable being construed to be a college that maintains a course equal to that recommended by the National Board of Dental Examiners.) No European diplomas are accepted. The fee for examination is $20.00.

The passing grade is 80%. Practical examination in operative and prosthetic dentistry; written examination in anatomy, physiology, chemistry, pathology, therapeutics, materia medica, anaesthesia, histology, hygiene, bacteriology, prosthetic dentistry, oral surgery, metallurgy, operative dentistry, orthodontia and jurisprudence.

The fee for interchange license is $25.00, for exchange certificate is $5.00. Iowa has reciprocity with District of Columbia, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Wisconsin, Tennessee, Illinois, Missouri and Vermont.

Upon the payment to the board of the fee of $25.00 a renewal license is issued to any one who failed to record his license with the county clerk within six months after its issue.

Duplicate license is issued to any one whose license has been lost or destroyed; fee for same is $2.00.

The dental board is under the law concerning boards and commissions which provides that all moneys collected must be turned into the state treasury each month. A bill for expenses and per diem must be rendered to the executive council each month.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Established by law in the year 1857. Located at Iowa City.

OFFICERS.

President—EUCLID SANDERS.

Treasurer—PAUL A. KORAB.

BOARD OF CURATORS.

Elected by the Society—J. W. Rich, Euclid Sanders, Arthur J. Cox, Marvin H. Dey, Henry G. Walker, Henry Albert, S. A. Swisher, Chas. M. Dutcher, Geo. E. Grier.

Appointed by the Governor—A. F. Allen, Marsh W. Bailey, J. P. Cruikshank, Charles J. Fulton, J. J. McConnell, John T. Moffit, Byron W. Newberry, Chas. E. Pickett, J. B. Weaver.

BENJAMIN F. SHAMBAUGH, Superintendent and Editor.

The state historical society of Iowa was organized January, 1857. The objects of the society today are practically the same as set forth in its original constitution. "To preserve in authentic form a library of books, pamphlets, maps, charts, manuscripts, papers, paintings, statuary and other material illustrative of the history of Iowa, * * * to exhibit faithfully the antiquities and the past and present resources of the state; and to promote the study of history by lectures, and diffuse and publish information relating to the description and history of Iowa." The activities of the state historical society of Iowa are now largely confined to critical historical research and publication.

Since its organization the society has published three different quarterly magazines. From 1863 to 1874, inclusive, it published The Annals of Iowa, 12 volumes, now called the first series. From 1885 to 1902, inclusive, it published The Iowa Historical Record, 18 volumes. From 1903 to date the society has published The Iowa Journal of History and Politics, now in its seventeenth volume.

Numerous other publications have been issued by the society, the most important of which are the Messages and Proclamations of the Governors of Iowa, in seven volumes; The Executive Journal of Iowa, 1838-1843; the Lucas Journal of the War of 1812; six volumes in the Iowa Economic History Series; nine volumes in the Iowa Biographical Series; three volumes in the Iowa Applied History Series; two volumes in the Iowa Social History Series; the Proceedings of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Constitution of Iowa; a volume entitled Amana; The Community of True Inspiration; the Territorial Governors of the Old Northwest; the Battle of Shiloh; the Hollanders of Iowa; the Quakers of Iowa; the History of Senatorial Elections in Iowa; the History of Township Government in Iowa; four volumes on the History of Education in Iowa; Third Party Movements Since the Civil War—With Special Reference to Iowa; Marches of the Dragoons in the Mississippi Valley; Old Fort Snelling, and The Spirit Lake Massacre. The society has also issued a monthly series entitled Iowa and War, of which eighteen numbers have appeared.

The library of the society now contains over 52,000 titles. The membership of the society now includes about six hundred and fifty active members and twenty-four auxiliary members. One hundred and sixty public and college libraries within the state have been designated as official depositories for the publications of the society, and sixty libraries and institutions outside of the state have been designated as exchange depositories.

The law which provided for the organization of the Iowa Geological Survey outlined its work to be that of making "a complete survey of the natural resources of the state in their economic and scientific aspects, including the determination of the characteristics of the various formations and the investigation of the different ores, coals, clays, building stones and other useful materials."

The present geological survey was organized in 1892 and since that time has been engaged in two lines of research. The first of these is the detailed study of the geology of the state by counties. In this work all the natural features of interest and value are studied and described, such as the general character of the surface, its soils, water resources, deposits of valuable minerals and other like topics.

The second line of work has been that of special investigation of the minerals of the state. Thus the coal deposits have twice been studied and reported on and an extensive examination of the peat beds has been made. Similar studies have been made of the lead and zinc of the Dubuque region and of the gypsum field at Fort Dodge. The clays of the state and their qualities have been investigated and the availability and suitability for road and concrete purposes of the sand, gravel and limestone deposits have been determined. The survey has since its organization kept careful records of the deep wells of the state and has also carried on an investigation of the character of surface waters. A resource which will be of increasing importance as Iowa becomes more of an industrial state is that of water power, which has been closely studied for several years. A large amount of work remains yet to be done before our knowledge of the geology of the state is complete, as much of the earlier study was of necessity largely reconnaissance work and needs to be supplemented by the results of later work done under more favorable conditions.

For several years past the state survey has co-operated with the national survey in the making of topographic maps of the Des Moines valley. These maps show the character of the surface, the drainage, and elevations above sea level, as well as cultural features. They are of especial value in coal prospecting, engineering and drainage projects. Parts of Hamilton, Boone, Story, Dallas, Polk, Warren, Marion, Mahaska, Lucas, and Monroe counties have been covered. These maps are printed by the federal government and may be purchased at a cost of ten cents each from the United States Geological Survey or from the Iowa Geological Survey. They are bounded not by county lines but by meridians of longitude and parallels of latitude and each map covers about 225 square miles. Topographic surveys were made in the northeast part of Iowa by the United States Geological Survey a number of years ago and the maps covering this area are available also.

IOWA STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

President—S. A. BEACH, Aimes.

Vice President—C. G. BLODGETT, Mt. Pleasant.

Secretary—WESLEY GREENE, Des Moines.

Treasurer—FRANK O. HARRINGTON, Williamsburg.

Librarian—WESLEY GREENE, Des Moines.

DIRECTORS.

First District—J. H. WILEY, Bonaparte.

Second District—W. T. RICHEY, Albia.

Third District—F. P. SPENCER, Randolph.

Fourth District—S. W. SNYDER, Center Point.

Fifth District—Millard Harrington, Williamsburg.

Sixth District—Charles O. Garrett, Des Moines.

Seventh District—W. P. DAWSON, Aurelia.

Eighth District—Charles H. True, Edgewood.

Ninth District—William C. Haviland, Fort Dodge.

Tenth District—P. F. Kinne, Storm Lake.

Eleventh District—Charles F. Gardner, Osage.

Twelfth District—Eugene Secor, Forest City.

The directors for the odd-numbered districts are elected in the even-numbered years, and those for the even-numbered districts in the odd-numbered years.

Any resident of the state is eligible to membership in the society. The secretary will on application furnish information relating to membership.

The annual meeting begins on Tuesday before the second Wednesday in December of each year.

The society publishes an annual report full of valuable and interesting papers.

The object of this society is the promotion and encouragement of horticulture and arboriculture in the state by the collection and dissemination of practical information regarding the cultivation of such fruits, flowers and trees as are best adapted to the soil and climate of the state. The rooms of the society are kept open at all times for the reception of visitors. All communications on horticultural topics will be promptly answered by the secretary.

STATE FORESTRY COMMISSIONER.

WESLEY GREENE, of Scott county, secretary of the state horticultural society is ex officio state forestry commissioner. His address is Des Moines, Iowa. He serves as commissioner without compensation. The law authorizes him to appoint deputies to serve without salary for each county or group of counties, who shall assist him in the performance of his duties, and also make report to him annually of forestry matters for the use of the horticultural society.

The object of the law is to encourage the planting of forest and fruit trees in the state. The act provides that any person owning land in the state may plant or select a tract of land not less than two acres in area for a forest reservation, provided there shall not be less than two hundred forest trees growing on each acre and that cattle, horses, mules, sheep, goats and hogs are not permitted on said reservation.

A fruit reservation shall not be less than one or more than ten acres in area and can be claimed for a period of eight years after planting; provided that there are not less than forty apple trees, or seventy other fruit trees growing on each acre, under proper care.

Forest and fruit tree reservations are assessed at a taxable value of one dollar an acre.

Any landowner in this state wishing to enter a forest or fruit tree reservation, or both, should do so when the assessor is listing property for assessment.

"The object of the academy shall be the encouragement of scientific work in the state of Iowa."

Membership is not limited to those giving their time to the advancement of science either in teaching or in original research, but is open to those interested in scientific subjects.

Members of the academy are divided into four groups: (1) fellows, who shall be elected from residents of the state of Iowa actively engaged in scientific work; (2) associates, residents of the state of Iowa who are interested in the progress of science, but not direct contributors to original research; (3) corresponding fellows, fellows who have moved outside the state, and (4) honorary fellows, to be elected by vote from original workers in science in other states.

Papers of general interest in addition to those that are technically scientific are presented at each annual meeting.

Meetings are held each spring, time and place being fixed by the executive committee.

The academy publishes each year a volume containing a report of the proceedings of the annual meeting and the papers which have been presented at that time.

SUPREME COURT OF IOWA.

ORGANIZATION.

The supreme court consists of seven judges, four of whom constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but one alone may adjourn from day to day, or to a particular day, or until the next term.

The judge whose term first expires is the chief justice, and so on in rotation, except when the term of two of the justices expire at the same time the senior in age serves first as chief justice.

JURISDICTION.

The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction only in cases in chancery and constitutes a court for the correction of errors at law. It has appellate jurisdiction over all judgments and decisions of all courts of records, except as otherwise provided by law.

An appeal may also be taken to the supreme court from:

1. An order made affecting a substantial right in an action, when such order, in effect, determines the action and prevents a judgment from which an appeal might be taken;
2. A final order made in special actions affecting a substantial right therein, or made on a summary application in an action after judgment;
3. An order which grants or refuses, continues or modifies a provisional remedy; grants or refuses, dissolves or refuses to dissolve an injunction or attachment; or grants or refuses a new trial; or sustains or overrules a demurrer;
4. An intermediate order involving the merits or materially affecting the final decision;
5. An order or judgment on habeas corpus.

If any of the above orders or judgments are made or rendered by a judge, the same are reviewable, the same as if made by a court.

*will be chief justice after January 1, 1920.

The supreme court has power to issue all writs and processes necessary to secure justice to parties, and to enforce its appellate jurisdiction, and it may exercise supervisory control over all inferior judicial tribunals.

It may enforce its mandates upon inferior courts and officers by fine and imprisonment, which imprisonment may continue until mandates are obeyed.

TERMS.

There are three regular terms in each year, held as follows, to-wit: The first term beginning with the second Tuesday in January and ending with the first Monday of May; the second beginning with the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May and ending with the third Monday of September, and the third beginning with the first Tuesday after the third Monday of September and ending with the third Saturday of December.

The time allotted to each term is divided as nearly as practicable into periods of four weeks each, the first part of each period is devoted to the argument and submission of cases, and the second to consultation and the preparation of opinions. Cases assigned for each period are called in their order as shown on the term docket but no more submissions are taken for one period than in the judgment of the court can be properly considered and determined before the next succeeding session. All causes on the docket are heard at each term unless continued or otherwise disposed of by order of court.

The regular public sessions of the court are held in the supreme court room at the capitol, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M., standard time. On Tuesday and Friday of the first and second week of each four weeks' period submission of motions are taken before calling the calendar. Motions noticed for a day when the court is not sitting are taken on the next motion day on which the court sits.

Judgments of affirmance, rulings and orders in causes submitted and orders authorized by law may be made and entered by the court at any time regardless of the term of court.

APPEALS IN CIVIL CASES.

Appeals from the superior and district courts may be taken to the supreme court at any time within six months from the rendition of the judgment or order appealed from, and not afterwards. No appeal shall be taken in any cause in which the amount in controversy between the parties, as shown by the pleadings does not exceed one hundred dollars, unless the trial judge shall, during the term in which judgment is entered, certify that the cause is one in which the appeal should be allowed, and upon certificate being filed the same shall be appealable regardless of the amount in controversy, but this limitation shall not affect the right of appeal in any action in which an interest in real estate is involved, nor shall the right of appeal be affected by the remission of any part of the verdict or judgment returned or rendered.

APPEALS IN CRIMINAL CASES.

Appeals from the final judgment of the district court may be taken in all criminal cases within six months after the judgment is rendered; and either the defendant or the state may appeal. Upon appeal the supreme court may affirm, reverse or modify the judgment or render such judgment as the district court should have done. It may order a new trial or reduce the punishment, but cannot increase it. If the state appeals, the court cannot reverse or modify the judgment so as to increase the punishment, but may affirm it and shall point out any error in the proceedings and its decision shall be obligatory as law.

SALARY.

The salary of each justice is six thousand dollars ($6,000) a year. Each general assembly also appropriates sufficient funds for the payment of stenographers, bailiffs and such other incidental expenses as may be incurred by the court.

THE DISTRICT COURTS OF IOWA.

There are at the present time sixty-four judges of the district court of the state of Iowa. The state is divided into twenty-one judicial districts and each district is entitled to from one to five judges, the number being fixed by statute. The judges are elected for terms of four years and receive an annual salary of $3,500. Each judge appoints a shorthand reporter, who receives $8 per day for each day's attendance upon said court, and in case the per diem does not equal $1,000, then the county or counties composing the district make up the deficiency in proportion to the number of days of court held in such county or counties.

The following is the section of the code governing the jurisdiction of the district court:

SECTION 225. Jurisdiction—civil, criminal, probate—successor of circuit court. The district court shall have general original and exclusive jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings and remedies, both civil and criminal, except in cases where exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction is or may hereafter be conferred upon some other court or tribunal by the constitution and laws of the state, and shall have and exercise all the powers usually possessed and exercised by courts of record. It shall also possess and exercise jurisdiction in all appeals and writs of error taken in civil and criminal actions and special proceedings authorized to be taken from all inferior courts, tribunals, boards or officers, under any provisions of the laws of this state, and shall have a general supervision thereof, in all matters, to prevent and correct abuses, where no other remedy is provided.

First. The district court of each county shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction to probate the wills of, and to grant administration upon the estates of, all persons who at the time of their death were residents of the county and of non-residents of the state who die leaving property within the county subject to administration, or whose property is afterwards brought into the county.

Second. To appoint guardians of the persons and property of all persons resident in the county subject to guardianship.

Third. To appoint guardians of the property of all such persons non-residents of the state who have property within the county subject to guardianship, or whose property is afterwards brought into the county.

Fourth. It shall have jurisdiction in all matters in relation to the appointment of executors and trustees, and the management and disposition of the property of and settlement of such estates; provided, that where jurisdiction has heretofore been acquired, the same shall be retained until such estate is closed.

The district court shall succeed to and exercise full authority and jurisdiction over the records of the circuit court, and may enforce all judgments, decrees and orders thereof in the same manner and to the same extent as it may exercise like jurisdiction and authority over its own records, and for the purpose of the issuance of process, and of any and all other acts necessary to the due and efficient enforcement of the orders, judgments and decrees of the circuit courts the records thereof shall be deemed records of the district court.

Transcripts and process from the judgments, decrees and records of the circuit court shall be issued by the clerk of the district court and under the seal of his office.

SUPERIOR COURTS.

The statutes provide that any city containing four thousand inhabitants, whether organized under a special charter or under the general law for incorporation of cities and towns, may establish a superior court. There are at present seven of such courts, located respectively in the cities of Council Bluffs, Cedar Rapids, Grinnell, Keokuk, Oelwein, Perry and Shenandoah. The judges are elected for terms of four years and receive an annual salary of $2,000, which is paid quarterly, the first two quarters being paid from the city treasury and the last two quarters from the county treasury of the county in which said court is located.

The judges of the superior courts appoint a shorthand reporter, who receives five dollars per day for each day's attendance upon said court.

The following is a copy of the section of the code, as amended, governing the jurisdiction of the superior court:

Said court shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in all civil matters, except in probate matters and actions for divorce, alimony and separate maintenance. It shall have exclusive original jurisdiction to try and determine all actions, civil and criminal, for the violation of city ordinances, and all jurisdiction conferred on police courts as now or as may hereafter be provided by law, and concurrent jurisdiction with justices of the peace. Writs of errors and appeals may be taken thereto from justices' courts in the township in which the court is held, and, by consent of parties, from any other township in the county. For the trial of criminal actions on information and complaint, the court shall be open at such times and under such rules as it shall prescribe. In actions by attachment, where real property is levied on by writ of attachment, the officer levying the writ shall make entry thereof in the incumbrance book in the office of the clerk of the district court, in like manner and with like effect as of levies made in the district court. Parties may be committed to the city prison for confinement or punishment, instead of the county jail, at the option of the judge. In the absence of the judge, or in case of his inability to act, then, during such time, proceedings for the violation of city ordinances may be had before a justice of the peace, residing in such city.

Superior courts shall have original concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts of the state of Iowa, in all matters pertaining to the detention and treatment of dipsomaniacs, inebriates and those addicted to the excessive use of narcotics, as provided in title XII, chapter 2-a of the supplement to the code, 1907, and the same proceeding shall be held so far as applicable. Whenever the words "district judge," "district court" or "judge of the district court" appear in title XII, chapter 2-a the same shall be construed to apply to the superior courts or the judge thereof to the same extent that the same applies to the district court or the judge thereof.

†Since July 1, 1916, the high school inspectors have been paid by the state educational institutions of higher learning.

On July 1, 1909, the management and control of the State University, the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, and the Iowa State Teachers College was assumed by the Iowa State Board of Education. This board consists of nine members, who are appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate, under the provisions of an act of the thirty-third general assembly, approved by the governor March 29, 1909, and effective on publication. By chapter 141 of the acts of the thirty-fourth general assembly, the College for the Blind was placed under the control of this board, and the thirty-seventh general assembly transferred the supervision of the School for the Deaf from the Board of Control of State Institutions to the State Board of Education. Under the provisions of the law, not more than five members of the board may be members of the same political party; and not more than one alumnus from each of the institutions may be members of the board. As required by the act, three of the members of the board were appointed for two years, three for four years, and three for six years. Subsequent appointments on the board, except to fill vacancies, are to be for terms of six years. Offices at the seat of the state government are to be furnished the board by the executive council, and the board also maintains an office at each of the three institutions. Members of the board are not required to give bond; and they are to receive a compensation of ten dollars per day for the time actually employed in the performance of their duties not exceeding sixty days in any one year, and are also allowed traveling expenses. The board is required to have four regular meetings each year and may hold additional ones on the call of the president or secretary. The duties of the board as set out in the act as follows:

Sec. 4. The state board of education shall have power to elect a president from its members; a president and treasurer for each of said educational institutions, and professors, instructors, officers and employes; to fix the compensation to be paid to such officers and employes; to make rules and regulations for the government of said schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state; to manage and control the property, both real and personal, belonging to said educational institutions; to execute trusts or other obligations now or hereafter committed to the institutions; to direct the expenditure of all appropriations the general assembly shall, from time to time, make to said institutions, and the expenditure of any other moneys; and to do such other acts as are necessary and proper for the execution of the powers and duties conferred upon them by law. * * *

Members of the board choose, from outside their own membership, a finance committee of three members, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party. Each member of the finance committee receives a compensation of thirty-six hundred dollars a year, and serves for three years unless sooner removed by the board. The board designates one of the finance committee as chairman and one as secretary, and the secretary of this committee also serves as secretary of the board. The secretary has charge of the general offices and of all books and papers of the board at the seat of government. The members of the committee, in addition to their salaries, are entitled to mileage and necessary expenses. Each member of the finance committee is required to file a bond in the sum of $25,000, which is to be approved by the governor. The members of the finance committee are required to visit each of the institutions once a month, and to familiarize themselves with the work there being done.

All official correspondence with the board should be addressed to the secretary of the Iowa State Board of Education, Capitol Building, Des Moines, Iowa.

STATE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA—IOWA CITY.

President—WALTER ALBERT JESSUP, PH. D., Iowa City.

Secretary—W. H. BATES, Iowa City.

Financial Agent—W. J. MCCHESENEY, Iowa City.

Superintendent of Grounds and Buildings—J. M. FISK, Iowa City.

The State University of Iowa, established February 25, 1847.

An act of congress, July 20, 1840, authorized the secretary of the treasury to set apart and reserve from sale of lands in the territory of Iowa for the use and support of a university to be established when Iowa should become a state. In 1846 Iowa was admitted into the union with a constitution which provided that the general assembly should take measures to care for the lands granted and for the application of the income to support the university. In accordance with this provision the first general assembly on February 25, 1847, passed an act establishing and locating at Iowa City a state university. The capitol building and the land upon which it stood were donated to the university in view of the contemplated removal of the seat of government from Iowa.

City. Delay in removing the capital prevented the opening of the institution until March, 1855. The organization of departments began in the same year. From 1858 until 1860, owing to the lack of funds, the normal department was the only one in operation, and the university was reorganized in 1860. The law department was established in 1868, the medical department in 1870, the homeopathic medical department in 1876, the dental department in 1882, the department of pharmacy in 1885, the graduate college in 1900, the college of applied science in 1905, the college of fine arts, or Mark Ranney memorial institute of fine arts, in 1911 (discontinued in 1913), and the college of education in 1913. In the course of the evolution of the university the various departments became, and now are, colleges.

From 1847 to 1870 the management of the university was in the hands of trustees, elected throughout most of the period by the legislature. In 1870 the legislature substituted a board of regents, consisting, aside from ex-officio members, of one member from each congressional district. In 1909, pursuant to an act of the thirty-third general assembly, the control of the state university of Iowa, together with that of the Iowa state teachers' college and the Iowa state college of agriculture and mechanic arts, passed into the hands of a state board of education.

The state university of Iowa is an integral part of the public school system of the state. As contemplated in its establishment, the work of the university is based upon the preparation afforded by the duly accredited high schools of the state, whose students are admitted to the undergraduate and professional courses upon the presentation of the proper certificates—except in the colleges of medicine and law, which require two years of collegiate work in preparation. The state, through the university, undertakes to furnish instruction in the various branches requisite for an education in the liberal arts, law, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, fine arts, nursing, commerce, engineering, etc. It also aims to encourage research work in all departments.

The university embraces the following colleges and schools:

The Graduate College;

The College of Liberal Arts;

The College of Law;

The College of Medicine;

The College of Homeopathic Medicine;

The College of Dentistry.

The College of Pharmacy;

The College of Applied Science;

The College of Education;

The School of Commerce;

The Schools for Nurses (Medical and Homeopathic Medical).

The School of Music.

Integral parts of the institution are also: The summer Session, including the Iowa Lakeside Laboratory at Lake Okoboji, the School for Library Training.

The Graduate College unites the university's equipment for advanced study and research, its courses beginning where the courses in the other colleges end. It offers work leading to the degrees of M. A., M. S., and Ph. D.

The College of Liberal Arts is the center around which the university has grown. It offers upwards of three hundred liberal and vocational courses in the arts and sciences, these courses leading to the degree of B. A., and B. S., the latter only in connection with combined courses in liberal arts and professional studies (see below).

The College of Law offers a course of three years leading to the degree of LL. B. For admission two years of study in a liberal arts college are required.

The College of Medicine offers a course of four years leading to the degree of M. D. The college is recognized by the American Medical Association in "Class A." Two years of liberal arts study are required for admission.

The College of Homeopathic Medicine offers a course of four years, leading to the degree of M. D. Its departments of surgery, obstetrics and gynecology, ophthalmology, etc., materia medica, and theory and practice of medicine have been established by statute. Its other departments (anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, etc.) are shared with the College of Medicine.

The College of Dentistry offers a course of four years leading to the degree of D. D. S. The college is one of the six leading dental colleges in the country which meet the standards of the Dental Faculties Association of American Universities.

The College of Pharmacy offers a two years' course leading to the degree of Ph. G., and a three years' course leading to the degree of Ph. C.

The College of Applied Science offers courses in civil, sanitary, mechanical, electrical and general engineering, and in chemistry. These are each of four years and lead to the degree of B. E. A five-year course is also arranged. Advanced degrees are given in C. E., M. E., etc.

The College of Education unites the various facilities of the university for the training of teachers, with special reference to administrative work and the higher positions. Its courses lead to the certificate of the College of Education.

The School of Commerce, established in September, 1914, is organized within the College of Liberal Arts and its course leads to the degree of B. S. in Commerce.

The Schools for Nurses are two in number, one conducted in the university hospital under the direction of the faculty of the College of Medicine, the other in the university of homeopathic hospital under the direction of the faculty of the College of Homeopathic Medicine.

The School of Music is a part of the College of Liberal Arts. It offers courses in piano, voice, pipe organ, violin, band instruments, and in the history and theory of music.

The Summer Session of two terms, one of six weeks, from June 16 to July 26, the other four weeks, from July 28 to August 23, is a regular session of the university. The session also includes the Iowa Lakeside Laboratory and the School for Library Training.

"Combined courses" in Liberal Arts and professional studies permit the attainment in a shortened period of the double degrees of B. S. or B. A. and M. D.; B. A. and LL. B.; B. S. and D. D. S.; B. S. and B. E.; and D. D. S. and M. D.

Attendance of the university in 1917-18, 3,303, divided as follows:

	Men	Women	Total

Total income for 1917-18, $1,772,147.85. Total value of university property, upwards of $4,500,000. Academic year begins fourth week of September and ends last week of August.

FACULTY.

The staff of administration and instruction, for the year 1917-1918, included 469 members. Below are given the names of professors, associate professors and assistant professors only:

Emil Louis Boerner, Ph. G. Phar. D., Professor Emeritus of Practical Pharmacy.

Charles Herbert Cogswell, M. D., Professor Emeritus of Obstetrics and Diseases of Children, College of Homeopathic Medicine.

George Thomas White Patrick, B. A., B. D., Ph. D., Professor of Philosophy.

Charles Bundy Wilson, B. A., M. A., Professor and Head of the Department of German Language and Literature.

Charles Cleveland Nutting, B. A., M. A., Professor and Head of the Department of Zoology, and Curator of the Zoology Museum.

James Renwick Guthrie, B. S., M. A., M. D., Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology & Dean Emeritus of the College of Medicine.

Isaac Althaus Loos, B. A., M. A., B. D., D. C. L., LL. D., Professor of Economics.

Elbert William Rockwood, B. S., M. A., M. D., Ph. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Chemistry.

George Royal, M. D., Professor of Materia Medica and Therapeutics, and Dean of the College of Homeopathic Medicine.

Charles Sumner Chase, B. S., M. D., M. A., Professor of Materia Medica and Pharmacology.

Frank Thomas Breene, D. D. S., M. D., Professor of Operative and Dental Therapeutics and Dean of the College of Dentistry.

Gilbert Logan Houser, B. S., M. S., Ph. D., Professor of Animal Biology and Director of Laboratories.

Benjamin Franklin Shambaugh, B. Ph., M. A., Ph. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Political Science, and Superintendent of the State Historical Society.

William Robert Whitels, B. S., M. S., M. D., Professor of Obstetrics and Head of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Elmer Almy Wilcox, B. A., Professor of Law.

Lee Wallace Dean, B. S., M. S., M. D., F. A. C. S., Professor and Head of the Department of Ophthalmology, Oto-Laryngology, and Oral Surgery, and Dean of the College of Medicine.

Ernest Albert Rogers, D. D. S., M. D., Professor of Roentgenology and Clinical Dentistry, General Hygiene, Dental Jurisprudence, General Anaesthesia, and Superintendent of Dental Infirmary.

Bohumil Shrněk, C. E., M. S., Professor and Head of the Department of Botany, and Curator of the Herbarium.

Franklin Hazen Potter, A. B., A. M., Professor of Latin.

Carl Emil Seashore, B. A., Ph. D., Professor of Psychology, Head of the Department of Philosophy and Psychology, and Dean of the Graduate College.

Wilber John Teeters, B. S., M. S., Ph. C., Professor of Pharmacy, and Pharmacognosy, Director of the Pharmaceutical Laboratories, and Dean of the College of Pharmacy.

Harry Grant Plum, B. Ph., M. A., Ph. D., Professor of European History.

Henry Frederick Wickham, M. S., Professor of Entomology, and Assistant Curator of the Zoological Museum.

William LeClaire Bywater, M. D., O. et A., Chir., Professor of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology, College of Homeopathic Medicine, and Vice-Dean of the College of Homeopathic Medicine.

John Thomas McClintock, B. A., M. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Physiology, and Junior Dean of the College of Medicine.

Henry Albert, B. S., M. S., M. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Pathology and Bacteriology, and Director of the Laboratories of the State Board of Health.

Henry James Prentiss, M. E., M. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Anatomy, Histology, and Embryology, and Director of the Laboratories of Histology and Embryology.

William Galt Raymond, C. E., LL. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Civil Engineering, and Dean of the College of Applied Science.

Forest Chester Ensign, B. Ph., M. A., Professor of Education.

Arthur Hillyer Ford, B. S. in E. E., E. E., Professor and Head of the Department of Electrical Engineering.

- Edwin Diller Starbuck, A. B., M. A., Ph. D., Professor of Philosophy.
- Charles Heald Weller, B. A., Ph. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Greek and History of Art, and University Editor.
- Frank Conqueleou Titzell, M. D., LL. B., Professor of Surgery, College of Homeopathic Medicine.
- Herbert Clifford Dorcas, B. Ph., M. A., University Examiner and Registrar.
- Frederick Carlos Eastman, B. A., M. A., Ph. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Latin.
- Byron James Lambert, F. Ph., B. S. in C. E., C. E., Professor and Head of the Department of Structural Engineering.
- Stephen Hayes Bush, A. B., A. M., Professor and Head of the Department of Romance Languages.
- Hugo Claude Horack, F. Ph., LL. B., Professor of Law.
- George Frederick Kay, B. A., M. A., Ph. D., F. G. S. A., Professor of Economic Geology and Petrology, and Head of the Department of Geology. State Geologist.
- Richard Summa, DD. S., Professor and Head of the Department of Orthodontia and Prosthetic Dentistry.
- Roscoe Henry Volland, D. D. S., M. D., Professor and Head of Dental Pathology and Operative Technique.
- Sherman Melville Woodward, M. S., M. A., Professor and Head of the Department of Mechanics and Hydraulics.
- Robert Bradford Wylie, B. S., Ph. D., Professor of Morphological Botany.
- Frederick Goodson Higbee, B. S., M. E., Professor and Head of the Department of Descriptive Geometry and Drawing.
- Burton Percival Fleming, B. S., M. E., Professor of Steam Engineering and Head of the Department of Mechanical Engineering.
- George Walter Stewart, A. B., Ph. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Physics.
- Walter Percy Bordwell, B. L., LL. B., LL. M., Ph. D., Professor of Law.
- Clarence Van Epps, B. S., M. D., Professor of Therapeutics and Assistant Professor of Clinical Medicine.
- Campbell Palmer Howard, B. A., M. D., Professor of Internal Medicine and Head of the Department of Theory and Practice.
- Erwin Schenk, B. S., M. D., Professor of Theory and Practice, College of Homeopathic Medicine.
- Ralph Otto, B. A., LL. B., Professor of Law.
- Charles Atherton Cumming, Professor and Head of the Department of Graphic and Plastic Arts.
- Paul Skeels Peirce, Ph. B., Ph. D., Professor of Economics.
- Arthur Carleton Trowbridge, B. S., Ph. D., Professor of Geology.
- Orle Erb Klingaman, A. B., M. A., Director of the Extension Division.
- Ruth Aimee Wardall, A. B., A. M., Professor and Head of the Department of Home Economics.
- John Wilkinson Cogswell, B. S., M. D., Professor of Gynecology and Obstetrics, College of Homeopathic Medicine.
- John Blair Kessler, M. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Dermatology.
- Charles Joseph Rowan, A. B., M. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Surgery, and Director of the University Hospital.
- William Edwin Hays, Professor and Head of the Department of Music.
- Gilbert Giddings Benjamin, Ph. B., A. M., Ph. D., Professor of History.
- Norris Arthur Brisco, B. A., M. A., Ph. D., Professor of Commerce and Head of the Department of Economics, Sociology and Commerce.
- Frank Edwin Horack, B. Ph., A. M., Ph. D., Professor of Political Science.
- Anna Marie Klingebagen, B. A., Ph. M., Professor of History and Dean of Women.
- Jane Ellen Roberts, B. Ph., Librarian.
- Arthur Steindler, M. D., Professor of Orthopedics.
- Albert Henry Byfield, A. B., M. D., Professor and Head of the Department of Pediatrics.

- George Bain Jenkins, M. D., Professor of Anatomy.
 Ellsworth Faris, B. S., M. A., Ph. D., Professor of Psychology and Acting Director of Child Welfare Research Station.
 Thomas Garfield Caywood, M. E., Professor of Drawing and Descriptive Geometry.
 Ernest Horn, B. S., A. M., Ph. D., Professor of Education.
 Bird Thomas Baldwin, B. S., M. A., Ph. D., Research Professor of Educational Psychology and Director of the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station.
 William Fletcher Russell, A. B., Ph. D., Prof. of Education and Dean College of Education.
 Andrew Curtis Wright, U. S. A. Retired, Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

IOWA STATE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND MECHANIC ARTS—
 AMES.

OFFICERS AND WORK.

- Raymond Allen Pearson, D. of Agr., LL. D., President.
 Edgar Williams Stanton, B. Sc., LL. D., M. Sc., Vice-President, Secretary of the College, Dean of the Junior College and Professor of Mathematics.
 Herman Knapp, B. S. A., Treasurer and Registrar.
 Orange Howard Cessna, D. D., Chaplain.
 Charles Franklin Curtiss, M. S. A., D. Sc., Dean of the Division of Agriculture, Director of Agricultural Experiment Station.
 Anson Marston, C. E., Dean of the Division of Engineering, Professor of Civil Engineering, Director of Engineering Experiment Station.
 Charles Henry Stange, D. V. M., Dean of the Division of Veterinary Medicine, Professor of Theory and Practice and Diagnosis.
 Robert Earle Buchanan, M. S., Ph. D., Dean of the Division of Industrial Science and Professor of Bacteriology.
 Catharine J. MacKay, M. S., Dean of the Division of Home Economics and Professor of Home Economics.
 Spencer Ambrose Beach, B. S. A., M. S., Vice Dean of the Division of Agriculture, Professor of Horticulture.
 Samuel Walker Beyer, B. S., Ph. D., Vice Dean of the Division of Engineering, Professor of Geology and Mining Engineering.
 Maria M. Roberts, B. L., Vice Dean of the Junior College, Professor of Mathematics.
 Harold Edward Bamis, D. V. M., Vice Dean of Division of Veterinary Medicine and Professor of Veterinary Surgery.
 Thomas Sloss, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds.
 Charles G. Tilden, M. D. College Physician and Sanitary Officer.
 Frederica Shattuck, B. A., Advisor for Women.
 Vera Morlan Dixon, B. S., Asst. Librarian.

This college was formally opened on March 17, 1869. Provision for maintaining its scope of work was given by state and federal legislation. In 1858 the state legislature first provided for the establishment of such an institution. In 1862 congress provided for the support of instruction in agriculture and the mechanic arts in each state, under certain provisions. In the same year the general assembly of Iowa accepted the federal grant and thus entered into contract with the United States government. In later years other federal and state legislation has increased the support of the institution and has enlarged and strengthened its work along its special lines.

The college is governed by the state board of education consisting of nine members appointed by the governor. The work of the college is conducted along the following five major lines:

Agriculture, Engineering, Home Economics, Industrial Science, Veterinary Medicine.

GRADUATE AND UNDER GRADUATE COURSES.

In each of these five major lines stated above, collegiate and graduate instruction is given, leading to Bachelor's, Master's and Doctor's degrees.

Graduate instruction is adapted to the needed requirements of candidates for different degrees. Undergraduate or collegiate instruction is given in four-year, five-year, and six-year courses offered in the different divisions of the college, and jointly between divisions. Graduate and undergraduate courses are fully described in the college catalog, and include courses in agricultural education, agricultural engineering, animal husbandry, ceramics, chemical engineering, dairying, electrical engineering, farm crops and soils, farm management, forestry, home economics, horticulture, industrial science, mechanical engineering, mining engineering, structure design, and veterinary medicine.

NON-COLLEGIATE COURSE.

These courses are offered especially for young men and women who have not completed the requirements for admission to collegiate courses. They include two year courses in Agriculture, vocational work in Engineering, Home Economics, Rural Structure Design, and one year courses in Dairying, Bee-keeping, and Livestock Management.

SUMMER SESSION.

The summer session is divided into two six weeks periods in which some courses especially adapted to public school teachers are offered, including work in Agriculture, Home Economics, Manual Training, Industrial Science, and Vocational Education, work for rural and grade teachers. Special attention is given to collegiate and graduate courses.

WINTER SHORT COURSES.

These are given at different times on different subjects with one special week known as Short Course or Convention Week.

ENROLLMENT.

Total attendance in 1917-18 was 5,397, divided as follows: Industrial Science, 85; Agricultural (collegiate) 703; Agricultural Engineering, 42; Engineering, (collegiate) 532; Graduate Division, 103; Home Economics, (collegiate) 614; Veterinary Medicine, 111; Summer School, 419; Non-collegiate Agriculture, 198; Non-collegiate Engineering, 121; Non-collegiate Home Economics, 36; Non-collegiate Music, 19; Winter Short Course, 2,584; Six-week Garden Club, Leader's Course, 9.

OPENING AND CLOSING DATES.

The first quarter opens September 22, 1919, and closes December 18, 1919. The second quarter opens December 27, 1919, and closes March 13, 1920. The third quarter opens March 22, 1920, and closes June 4, 1920. The summer session is given in two halves beginning June 14, 1920, and closing August 26, 1920.

AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION.

Charles Franklin Curtiss, B. Sc., D. S., Director, Ames.

The Iowa Agricultural Experiment Station was established in accordance with an act of congress, approved March 2, 1887, for the purpose of aiding "In acquiring and diffusing among the people of the United States useful and practical information on subjects connected with agriculture, and to promote scientific investigation and experiments respecting the principles and application of agricultural science."

This station derives its support in part from the national government and in part from the state, as follows: For the year 1917-1918 from the national government, $30,000.00, from the state $151,205.78; the latter amount includes the purchase price of the Patten farm at Charles City, Iowa.

The work of the Agricultural Experiment Station now includes the following lines of investigation: Farm crops and soils, farm management, animal husbandry, horticulture and forestry, agricultural engineering, botany, dairying, entomology, chemistry, bacteriology, rural sociology, and agricultural economics. The results of investigations and experiments along these lines are published in bulletins and circulars which are distributed free to all residents of the state who apply for them. During the biennial period ending June 30, 1918 the Agricultural Experiment Station published sixteen (16) regular bulletins, sixteen (16) research bulletins, twenty-five (25) circulars, four (4) soil reports and five (5) miscellaneous bulletins, making a total of sixty-six (66) bulletins.

In the first year of the biennium, the number of publications distributed was 409,336. In the second year the number amounted to 458,441, making a total of 867,777 publications distributed during the last biennial period.

The work in the Agricultural Experiment Station is of direct service to the agricultural interests in the state and nation. The results of experiment station investigations serve as the basis for agricultural instruction from the standpoint of both the college and extension work. It is now universally recognized that little progress can be made by agricultural colleges, either in teaching their students or in carrying information directly to farmers, until definite data has been secured concerning the scientific and practical problems which constitute the basis of our present day agriculture.

ENGINEERING EXPERIMENT STATION.

Including Good Roads Experimentation.

Anson Marston, C. E., Director, Ames.

The Engineering Experiment Station was established at the Iowa State College by the legislature of Iowa in 1904 to afford a service, through scientific investigations, evolution of new devices and methods, educational information on technical subjects and tests and analysis of materials; for the manufacturing and other engineering population and industries of Iowa; for the agricultural industries of the state in the solution of their engineering problems; for the urban and rural population of the state in the solution of the engineering problems of urban and rural life.

From the first the station has carried on original investigations along lines of vital interest to the people of Iowa, including drainage, sewerage and sewage disposal, water supply, roads and road traffic, pavements, bridges, clay products, concrete materials and other materials of construction, lighting, steam and electric power, engineering economics and others. The results have been published in more than fifty bulletins for free distribution. Any of these bulletins not out of print will be sent free upon request addressed to Director Anson Marston, Engineering Experiment Station, Ames, Iowa.

The station has given special attention to water supply, sewerage and lighting for farm homes.

Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) annually is available for station work.

For many years the station has made tests and analysis of construction and other materials for state departments, counties, townships, cities, factories, corporations and individual citizens of Iowa. The charges for such tests are at least equal to those charged by responsible commercial testing laboratories, as the station will not assume the role of competitor with commercial laboratories. The station stands ready to make check tests or to act as final authority on questions of this nature, but would prefer that all routine tests be made by outside laboratories. The amount and character of the testing work is so restricted as not to interfere seriously with the investigational work.

VETERINARY INVESTIGATIONS.

C. H. Stange, Dean.

This work was organized under provisions made by the thirty-fifth general assembly. Considerable information concerning hemorrhagic septicemia in cattle has been secured, a serum produced and a number of herds treated. Other diseases have been studied and much time has been given to hog cholera and complications of this disease.

EXTENSION WORK.

R. A. Pearson, President.

The extension work of the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts is divided into two branches—agricultural extension and engineering extension.

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION.

R. K. Bliss, Director.

The agricultural extension work was established permanently by enactment of the thirty-first general assembly of Iowa. This act provided for giving lectures and demonstrations on the growing of crops and fruits, on stock raising, dairying, land drainage and kindred subjects, including domestic science. Specific mention was made in this act on instruction in corn and stock judging at the agricultural fairs, institutes and clubs and aid in conducting short courses of instruction at suitable places throughout the state.

ENGINEERING EXTENSION.

D. C. Faber, Acting Director.

The thirty-fifth general assembly of Iowa provided an appropriation for the establishment of engineering extension and trade school work. Two-year courses in trades and industry are conducted at the college for young men wishing to prepare themselves for expert positions in industrial lines. Short courses of instruction and technical institutes are conducted in industrial centers. Technical information is supplied municipalities and civic organizations. Bulletins of information are issued from time to time.

HOG CHOLERA SERUM PLANT.

C. H. Stange, Director.

This work was started under an appropriation of $35,000 made by the thirty-fifth general assembly for the production of biological products, especially hog cholera serum. The plant is self-supporting. Permanent buildings have been erected. Up to December 31, 1918, 25,730,357 cubic centimeters of serum had been produced. This serum was used in treating 10,091 herds.

STATE APIARIST.

Appointed by the State Board of Education. Term at pleasure of Board. Appropriation $1,500 annually.

F. Erick Millen, of Ames, Story County.

By an act of the thirty-seventh general assembly of Iowa, the state board of education was authorized to appoint a state apiarist to work under the supervision of the director of agricultural extension and professor of entomology of Iowa State College. Previous to July 1, 1917, the duties of this office were carried by the inspector of bees, who was appointed by the governor.

It is the duty of the apiarist to give lectures and demonstrations in the state of Iowa on the production of honey, the care of the apiary, the marketing of honey, and upon other kindred subjects relative to the care of bees and the profitable production of honey. Also, upon request the apiarist shall examine the bees in a locality suspected of being affected with any of the contagious diseases common to bees. It is the duty of the apiarist to furnish the owner of the bees, without cost, written instructions in regard to the nature of the disease and the best methods of treating it. It is a misdemeanor of anyone to fail to properly take care of a colony of diseased bees or in other ways cause the spread of contagious diseases among bees.

The state apiarist also is required to make an annual report to the governor, stating the number of apiaries visited, number of demonstrations held, number of lectures given, the number of examinations made upon the request of the beekeepers, together with such other matters of general interest concerning the business of bookkeeping.

IOWA STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE—CEDAR FALLS.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS, ADDRESS, CEDAR FALLS.

President—HOMER H. SEENLEY, M. A., LL. D.
Business Secretary—BENJAMIN BOARDMAN, Ph. B.
Executive Secretary—ANNA R. WILD.
Treasurer—ROGER LEAVITT.
Registrar and Examiner—CHARLES S. CORBY, B. S.
Director of Extension—JOHN C. McGLADE, B. Ph.
Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds—JAMES E. ROBINSON.
Dean of Women—MRS. MARION McFARLAND WALKER, B. A.
Adviser of Men—LESLIE I. REED, M. A.
Librarian—ANNE STUART DUNCAN, B. L.
Matron of Hospital—MRS. ANNIS M. POTTER.
Head of Bartlett Hall—HELEN BROEKSMIT, B. A.
Manager of Cafeteria—MILDRED WALLS-ROBINSON, B. S.

This institution was founded in 1876 as a school for the instruction and training of teachers for the public schools. It used the title of Iowa State Normal School from 1876 to 1909 and since that time the title Iowa State Teachers College, authorized by an act of the general assembly. It is a college in its standards as to graduating with a degree from its courses, though it admits and instructs teachers and grants diplomas of special varieties for all classes of teachers, rural and elementary, needed by the public schools. For admission to college courses, graduation from an accredited high school is required. For admission to sub-collegiate courses and rural teachers work an elementary education is required. For information regarding courses and organization of the institution see another page in this publication.

The institution is organized to give teacher education and training and does not undertake any other kind of educational work. Its courses are planned to give efficiency and capability to the students as workers in public schools. Its field of service grants preparation to high school teachers, to elementary and primary teachers, and to all kinds of special teachers now demanded by the public schools of the state. Its plan is that of a vocational school and everything that is done has a bearing upon the training of young men and women for service in the system of public education maintained in the state. Its degree graduates are admitted without conditions to the graduate schools of the universities and its alumni hold important positions in public service in every state where they are employed. Its diplomas are Bachelor of Arts in Education, Special Teacher Diplomas such as Primary, Junior College, Kindergarten, Art, Public School Music, Manual Arts, Home Economics, Physical Education, Commercial, Rural Education, Rural Teacher and Normal Course. In addition music teachers are granted diplomas for piano, organ, violin and voice.

The college year is divided into four quarters of twelve weeks each and a class graduates at the end of each quarter, thus giving much flexibility to the courses and a superior opportunity for candidates for graduation in their practice in teaching in the training schools. The training schools are located on the campus—all grades being organized from the kindergarten to the senior in the high school—in the school buildings in the Cedar Falls and East Waterloo city schools and in seven civil township systems in Black Hawk county. The expanse of this organization gives unusual opportunities for practical development and for the acquiring of capability in instruction. Students are able to be admitted at the opening of each quarter and by continuous attendance can complete a four year college course in three calendar years.

The enrollment of students and training schools in 1917-18 was as follows: College Graduates, 68; College Course Students, 472; Two and Three Year Diploma Course Students, 1071; Special Students, 81; Sub-Collegiate and Rural Teacher Students, 1597; Special Music Students, 124; Extension Summer School Students, 1917, 338; Total enrolled in Institution, 3,767. Training Schools: Campus High Schools and Grades, 352; City High School and Grades, 498; Rural Demonstration Schools, 585; Consolidated Schools, 804. Total Pupils, 2249.

The extension service consists of Saturday classes meeting in the several counties of the state, receiving all day instruction in the subjects and topics approved by the county superintendent and continuing from month to month and from year to year for the improvement in scholarship and methods of the teachers in service. In 1917-18 there were 16,665 teachers enrolled in the study center classes. Credit Extension Classes are organized in the cities and towns where 15 students can be secured for one class in a college subject. In 1917-18, 372 were so enrolled as students.

The value of the permanent improvements and equipments is estimated to be $1,500,000.00. This annual support, granted by the state in 1917-18, and including balance on hand at the opening of the year was $510,885.81. The income from all other sources such as laboratory fees, hospital fees, student tuitions, etc., was $92, 395.43.

IOWA SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF—COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Supintendent—HENRY W. ROTHERT.
Physician—ALFRED P. HANCHETT, M. D.
Steward—JOHN F. SCHULTS.
Matron—JENNIE HAMBEL.

The income for the support of this institution, and to meet the ordinary and current expenses, including the compensation of officials, teachers and other employees, the purchase of food, supplies, clothing, furniture and furnishings, books, maps, apparatus, and other expenses, is $24.00 a month for nine months of each year for each resident pupil actually supported by the school. Whenever the average number of pupils in any month is less than 275, the school is entitled to draw $6,600.00 from the State Treasury.

Therefore, the regular annual appropriation for the support of this institution is not less than $59,400.00.

Every resident not less than five or more than twenty-one years of age too deaf to be educated in the common schools, and every such person who is over twenty-one and under thirty-five years of age who has the consent of the board of control, is entitled to receive an education in the institution at the expense of the state. Non-residents similarly situated may be entitled to an education therein upon the payment of sixty-six dollars quarterly in advance.

The session of the school begins the first day of October and continues until the last day of June of each year. Pupils should come promptly at the beginning and remain until the end of the session.

IOWA COLLEGE FOR THE BLIND—VINTON.

Superintendent—F. E. PALMER.

Physician—J. E. LUCKEY, M. D.

Visiting Ophthalmic Surgeon—LEE WALLACE DEAN, M. D.

Steward—LESTER NEULEN.

The aim and purpose of this institution is purely educational. The literary work covers a period of twelve years and is outlined similar to the work done in the public school, having a fully accredited high school. The department of music is supplied with a number of pianos, one pipe organ, and a number of stringed instruments. All students who have talent in music are given a thorough course in this department. All students are required to do work in the industrial department. The girls are taught knitting, crocheting, fancy-work, hand and machine sewing, and domestic science. The boys are taught netting, weaving, broom making, cane seating, manual training and piano tuning. These advantages are free to all blind children of school age and those who have vision so defective as to prevent them from attending the public schools, providing they are mentally normal. The school year begins the first Wednesday in September and closes the last week in May. For further information address the superintendent.

The Board of Control of State Institutions was created under the provisions of chapter 118, laws of the twenty-seventh general assembly, which with the amendments thereto, clothes the board with full power to manage, control and govern, subject only to the limitations contained in the act, the following named institutions:

Iowa Soldiers' Home at Marshalltown.
 Iowa Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Davenport.
 Institution for Feeble-Minded Children at Glenwood.
 State Sanatorium for the Treatment of Tuberculosis at Oakdale.
 Training School for Boys at Eldora.
 Training School for Girls at Mitchellville.
 Mt. Pleasant State Hospital at Mt. Pleasant.
 Independence State Hospital at Independence.
 Clarinda State Hospital at Clarinda.
 Cherokee State Hospital at Cherokee.
 State Hospital for Inebriates at Knoxville.
 Hospital for Female Inebriates at Mt. Pleasant.
 Penitentiary at Ft. Madison.

Men's Reformatory at Anamosa.

Women's Reformatory at Rockwell City.

State Hospital and Colony for Epileptics at Woodward.

The board is required to inspect county and private institutions in which insane persons are kept, associations and societies receiving friendless children and detention homes provided for juvenile offenders.

Prior to July 1, 1898, the foregoing state institutions, except the reformatory and penitentiary were in charge of separate boards, each of which had its officers and each had a secretary and treasurer.

The board of control was organized on April 6, 1898, and took full control, as provided by statute, on July 1, 1898, of the institutions subject to its control. At that time the various boards of trustees and commissioners ceased to exist.

The board publishes quarterly a bulletin of over one hundred pages, devoted to the scientific investigation of the treatment of insanity and epilepsy and the feeble-minded, and information embodying the experience of soldiers' homes, charitable, reformatory and penal institutions in this and other countries.

As provided by law, under the direction of the board the state institutions under its control are supplied with goods for their support on competitive bids, thus procuring proper supplies at the lowest market prices. An opportunity to bid is afforded anyone who asks for it.

The board is required to investigate the management and financial condition of the state institutions under its control to determine questions as to the sanity of patients in state hospitals, and to determine when persons shall be admitted to them as state charges, and is required to divide the state into hospital districts. It is required to make biennial reports to the governor and legislature showing the cost of operating the institutions for the preceding two years and to visit all institutions twice each year. Some member of the board or its agent is also required to visit each hospital once each month. It is required to meet the superintendents and other heads of institutions in quarterly conferences, to gather statistics, to publish a bulletin, to require official bonds of certain institution officers, to make a semi-annual invoice of all the stores of the institutions, to fix annually the salaries of officers and employees not fixed by law, and to appoint a state architect and perform other duties provided by law.

IOWA SOLDIERS' HOME—MARSHALLTOWN.

Commandant—B. C. WHITEHILL.

Adjutant—J. C. LOPKE.

Quartermaster—CARL SCHAFFNER.

Surgeon—G. A. MARSHAN, M. D.

Assistant Surgeon—G. A. CASSIDY, M. D.

Chaplain—H. O. PRATT.

Chief Engineer—C. E. HOCKETT.

The United States government pays to the state of Iowa the sum of $100 per year for each male inmate of the soldiers' home who served in any war in which the United States was engaged, which amount is used as a part of the support fund of the institution.

Persons who have sufficient means for their own support may be admitted to the home on payment of the cost of their support, which cost shall be fixed from time to time by the board of control of state institutions. Provided, however, that no person having sufficient means for his or her own support shall be received or permitted to remain in the home unless there be room for all eligible applicants who do not have such means, but pension money received by any member of the home from the United States government shall not be taken from him for his support in the home.

The regular appropriation by the state is $22 per month for each member, and $10 per month for each officer and employe not a member of the home.

IOWA SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' HOME—DAVENPORT.

Superintendent—FRED L. MAHANNAH.

Physician—WM. L. ALLEN, M. D.

Steward—WALTER A. SWANSON.

Head Matron—HARRIETT R. ROWLES.

There is in connection with this institution a school building, pleasant, commodious and well lighted, and it is the policy of the board to have the course of instruction of a high standard. A kindergarten is operated for the very young pupils.

The age limit beyond which children are not kept in the home is sixteen years. Fewer than 20 per cent remain to the age limit.

A library of well selected juvenile literature is a source of pleasure and profitable entertainment to the children, as from necessity their pastimes and pleasures are somewhat circumscribed.

It is the aim to provide the children with plenty of good, comfortable clothing, and to have them taught to take care of the same. All their clothing is manufactured at the home, the large girls assisting in its manufacture. The table is supplied with a good variety of plain, wholesome food and a reasonable amount of luxuries.

The home is supported by a regular appropriation of $25 per month for each inmate and the actual transportation charges of inmates to and from the institution. Each county is liable to the state for the support of its children to the extent of $7.50 per month, except soldiers' orphans, who are cared for at the expense of the state.

INSTITUTION FOR FEEBLE-MINDED CHILDREN—GLENWOOD

Superintendent—GEORGE MCCRIDGE, M. D.

Physician and Assistant Superintendent—ROY MOON, M. D.

Assistant Physician—J. A. EDWARDS.

Steward and storekeeper—ED C. COOK.

There is a regular appropriation for this institution of $17 per month for each inmate.

The purposes or objects of this institution are to provide special methods of training for the class of children deficient in mind or marked with such peculiarities as to deprive them of the benefits and privileges provided for children with normal faculties. The object is to make each child as nearly self-supporting as practicable, and to approach as nearly as possible the movements and actions of normal people. It further aims to provide a home for those who are not susceptible of mental culture, relying wholly on others to supply their simple wants.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR BOYS—ELDORA.

Superintendent—WILLIAM L. KUSEL.

Assistant Superintendent—GEORGE H. ILIFF.

Steward—J. W. PHELPS.

Physician—E. O. KOENEMAN, M. D.

Matron—SUSIE ILIFF.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS—MITCHELLVILLE.

Superintendent—LUCY M. SICKELS.

Physician—A. H. LEONARD, M. D.

Matron—ELLA C. BARNES.

Storekeeper—MARGARET McGRATH.

There is appropriated for the support of these schools the sum of $24.00 monthly for each boy and $18.00 monthly for each girl inmate.

The object of the institutions is the reformation of juvenile delinquents. They are not prisons but compulsory educational institutions where wayward boys and girls are brought under the influence of Christian instructors and taught by example, as well as precept, the better ways of life and where the moral, intellectual and industrial education of the child is carried on at one and the same time.

Any boy or girl over ten and under eighteen years of age, excepting married women, prostitutes, or any girl who is pregnant, found guilty in any court of record of any crime excepting that of murder, may be ordered committed, if a boy to the school at Eldora, and if a girl to the school at Mitchellville. Any boy or girl may be discharged, or paroled from the school, at any time after one year's training, upon satisfactory evidence or reformation. They may also in exceptional cases be paroled or discharged in less than one year.

MOUNT PLEASANT STATE HOSPITAL.

Superintendent—CHARLES F. APPELEGATE, M. D.
First Assistant Physician—R. A. STEWART, M. D.
Second Assistant Physician—H. J. HINKLE, M. D.
Woman Physician—CLARA EIRLEY.
Steward—RALPH HULINGS.
Matron—OLGA MARSHALL.

The amount allowed for the support of this hospital is $24.00 per month for each patient. All expenses of the hospital, except for special purposes, are paid from this allowance, and the amount is charged to the counties from which patients are sent.

INDEPENDENCE STATE HOSPITAL.

Superintendent—WILLIAM P. CRUMBACKER, M. D.
First Assistant Physician—H. A. LINDSAY, M. D.
Second Assistant Physician—GEO. BOODY, M. D.
Woman Physician—MARGARET A. FLEMING, M. D.
Steward—JAMES NETTCOTT.
Matron—LOTTA LINDSAY.

The amount allowed for the support of this hospital is $24.00 per month for each patient.

CLARINDA STATE HOSPITAL.

Superintendent—MAX E. WITTE, M. D.
First Assistant Physician—R. D. SMITH, M. D.
Woman Physician—PAULINE M. LEADER.
Steward—WM. HUNTER.
Matron—ANNA BLAIR.

The amount allowed for the support of this hospital is $24.00 per month for each patient.

CHEROKEE STATE HOSPITAL.

Superintendent—GEORGE DONOHUE, M. D.
First Assistant Physician—R. G. EATON, M. D.
Second Assistant Physician—C. H. TURNER, M. D.
Third Assistant Physician—A. R. BURGESS, M. D.
Woman Physician—ALTA E. BORDNER, M. D.
Steward—J. E. WIRTH.
Dietitian—HELEN STEWART.

The amount allowed for the support of this hospital is $24.00 per month for each patient.

STATE HOSPITAL AND COLONY FOR EPILEPTICS.

Superintendent—M. N. VOLDENG, M. D.

Assistant Physician—W. G. MORGAN, M. D.

Steward—EMMA K. MARTIN.

This institution, located near the town of Woodward, was opened September 3, 1917, and has a population of 127.

A new building with a capacity of 150 patients was opened for the reception of custodial cases January 6, 1919. It is expected to add new buildings as the requirements demand. The site consists of 1144 acres of choice agricultural land, all in one body, in Boone and Dallas counties. The buildings are, in the main, one story in height, fireproof construction, arranged on the cottage plan.

STATE HOSPITAL FOR INEBRIATES—KNOXVILLE.

Superintendent—M. C. MACKIN, M. D.

Steward, Storekeeper, Bookkeeper and Matron—ELIZABETH KEOGH.

STATE SANATORIUM FOR THE TREATMENT OF TUBERCULOSIS—OAKDALE.

Superintendent—H. V. SCARBOROUGH, M. D.

Assistant Superintendent—M. A. CUNNINGHAM, M. D.

Steward—CARL A. WISSLER.

Matron—MRS. C. A. WISSLER.

The amount allowed for the support of this sanatorium is $50 per month for each patient.

PENITENTIARY AT FORT MADISON.

Warden—J. R. PERKINS.

Deputy Warden—B. F. SKYLES.

Assistant Deputy Warden—J. J. DATIN.

Clerk—A. C. ROWLAND.

Chaplain—I. T. HAWK.

Physician—AUSTIN PHILPOTT, M. D.

Hospital Steward—J. KNIGHT.

MEN'S REFORMATORY AT ANAMOSA.

Warden—J. N. BAUMEL.

Deputy Warden—F. L. BRINACOMBE.

Assistant Deputy Warden—H. T. SMITH.

Clerk—J. M. CONWAY.

Chaplains—REV. ROBT. POWERS AND REV. E. A. SCHLAMAN.

Matron—MRS. J. A. BRUMMIT.

Physician—JOHN DALE PAUL.

Engineer and Electrician—W. E. JOHNSON.

The prisoners of the penal institutions are employed largely on state work, quite a number being employed on construction work at other institutions, and in the building and improving of highways adjacent to the institutions. The large farm at Clive, purchased as a custodial farm, was turned over to the board of control and has been operated as an industry by prisoners from Ft. Madison.

The manufacture of chairs at the penitentiary and butter tubs at the reformatory, has given employment to about 200 men, with very satisfactory results.

CENTRAL COLLEGE—PELLA, IOWA.

In the fall of 1854 the academic department of Central University of Iowa opened for work, and by 1861 freshmen, sophomore and junior classes in the collegiate department were doing regular work. During 1861-62 one hundred twenty-three professors and students enlisted in the army. Since that time the college has had a varied and checkered career, with many ups and downs, but has steadily continued its work and has constantly strengthened and enlarged it.

In religious affiliation the institution was for sixty-three years Baptist. In June, 1916, it passed under the control of the Reformed Church of America. It is governed by a self-perpetuating board of trustees. Rev. B. F. Brinkman of Pella, is president of the board of trustees. Rev. Milton J. Hoffman, D. D., is president of the institution. The college maintains the regular work, leading to the liberal arts degree; departments emphasizing vocational training and meeting the state regulations concerning these departments; Central Academy, offering the four-year course including work in Normal Training for the grade and rural schools of Iowa, and commercial work. Central Conservatory of Music offers work leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music and to a teacher's certificate for public school work.

For the year 1917-18 the number of students of college grade is 66, the total attendance being 212.

THIRTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

THE LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The legislative department of the state of Iowa is vested in a general assembly, which consists of a senate and house of representatives.

The senate consists of fifty members. Senators are elected for terms of four years; twenty-one senators being elected at one general election and twenty-nine at the next.

The house of representatives consists at present of one hundred and eight members, who are elected for a term of two years.

Sessions of the general assembly are held biennially in the odd numbered years, and they commence on the second Monday of January.

The compensation of the members of the thirty-seventh general assembly was $1,000 for the session. This is in accordance with an act of the thirty-fourth general assembly which went into effect July 4, 1911. They were also allowed five cents a mile from their homes to the capital and return for traveling expenses. Members are permitted to draw such stationery as they need during the session, the cost to the state for the supplies varying from $1.50 to $14.00 per member. No allowance is permitted for postage.

The lieutenant governor is the presiding officer of the senate. His pay is twice that of a member, being $2,000 for the session of the thirty-eighth general assembly.

The speaker of the house is chosen by the members from among their own membership. His pay is twice that of a member, being $2,000 for the session.

The lieutenant-governor appoints all committees in the senate and the speaker of the house all committees in the house.

In the regular proceedings of the senate motions made by members are not seconded but are put directly by the presiding officer, the formality of a second being waived. In the house all motions are seconded before being placed before the house by the speaker.

Sessions in both branches of the general assembly are opened by prayer. No regular chaplains are employed, but ministers from Des Moines and elsewhere over the state are assigned dates for these services and are allowed $5 for each opening prayer.

Bills passed are re-written (enrolled) by the enrolling clerk of the branch of the general assembly where the bill originates; they are then signed by the president of the senate and speaker of the house in presence of these respective bodies, in open session; then by the governor, if meeting with his approval, and then are filed with the secretary of state and by him bound in book form, after the close of a session.

JOINT RULES OF THE THIRTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

DISAGREEMENT AND CONFERENCE.

1. Whenever either house shall amend a measure and the other house shall refuse to concur in and adopt the amendment, the house which has adopted such amendment shall either insist on or recede from the same. But when a measure originating in one house is amended in the other, the house in which it originated may amend such amendment and a motion therefor shall take precedence of a motion to concur. In case said house refuses to concur, the house which adopted the amendment may either recede from or insist upon such amendment, and a motion to recede takes precedence of a motion to insist. In case a motion to insist on the amendment be decided in the negative, such action shall be deemed a receding from the amendment and so entered upon the journal of the house. In case the amendment is insisted upon, the house so insisting shall request a committee of conference on the subject of disagreement, and shall appoint a committee therefor. The other house shall thereupon appoint such a committee. Unless another number is specified in said request, such conference committee shall consist of four members from each house. They shall meet at a convenient time, to be agreed upon by their chairman, and having conferred freely, each shall report to their respective house the result of their conference. In case of agreement, the report shall be first made, with the papers referred accompanying it, to the house which refused to concur, and there acted upon; and such action shall be immediately reported by the secretary or clerk to the other house, the papers referred accompanying the message. In case of disagreement of conference committee, the papers shall remain with the house which insisted on the amendment. The agreeing report of a conference committee shall be made, read and signed in duplicate by all the members of the committee, or by a majority of those of each house, one of the duplicates being retained by the committee of each house.

PRESENTATION OF MESSAGES.

2. When a message shall be sent from either house to the other, it shall be announced at the door of the house to which it is sent by the doorkeeper thereof, and shall be respectfully communicated to the chair by the person by whom it is sent.

TRANSMISSION OF MESSAGES.

3. All messages between the two houses shall be communicated by the secretary or chief clerk or their respective assistants.

ENROLLMENT OF BILLS.

4. When a bill shall have passed both houses it shall be duly enrolled by the enrolling clerk of the house in which it originated, and the fact of its origin shall be certified by the endorsement of the secretary or clerk thereof.

EXAMINATION OF ENROLLED BILLS.

5. When the bills are enrolled they shall be examined by a joint committee of two from the senate and two from the house of representatives, who shall be a standing committee for that purpose, and who shall carefully compare the enrollment with the engrossed bills, as passed in the house, correct any errors therein, and make report thereof forthwith to their respective houses.

AUTHENTICATION OF ENROLLED BILLS.

6. After the report, each bill shall be signed, first by the speaker of the house of representatives, and then by the president of the senate, in the presence of their respective houses.

TRANSMISSION OF BILLS TO THE GOVERNOR.

7. After a bill shall have been thus signed in each house, it shall be forthwith presented, by committee of the house in which the bill originated, to the governor, for his approval, and they shall forthwith report the date of presentation, which shall be entered upon the journal of the house in which the bill originated.

CONCERNING OTHER ENROLLMENTS.

8. All orders, resolutions, memorials or other votes, which are to be presented to the governor for his approval, shall be enrolled, examined, signed and presented in the same manner as bills.

CERTIFICATION OF BILLS AND OTHER ENROLLMENTS.

9. When any bill, resolution or memorial, which shall have passed in one house, is rejected or adopted in the other, notice of such action shall be given to the house which passed the same. And each bill, resolution or memorial shall have properly endorsed thereon, at the time of its transmission, a statement, signed by the secretary or clerk, of the action which has been taken thereon by the house transmitting the same, with the date thereof.

REINTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND OTHER MEASURES.

10. When a bill, resolution or memorial which shall have passed one house is rejected in the other, it shall not be again introduced during the session without five days' notice and leave of a majority of the members of the house in which the same is sought to be introduced.

TRANSMISSION OF PAPERS.

11. Each house shall transmit to the other with any bill, resolution or memorial all papers upon which the same shall be founded.

PRINTING OF BILLS AND OTHER DOCUMENTS.

12. When any report, bill or resolution shall be ordered printed by either house, without stating the number, three hundred copies shall be printed for the use of both houses, but when any bill or resolution which may have passed one house is ordered printed by the other, a greater number of copies shall not be printed than the house making the order shall determine.

CONCERNING THE PRINTING OF DOCUMENTS.

13. It shall be the duty of the chief clerk of the house of representatives and the secretary of the senate, when any document, except bills and resolutions, is ordered to be printed in their respective houses, forthwith to communicate such order to the other house.

ROLL CALL IN JOINT CONVENTION.

14. In all elections in joint convention of the two houses, the names of all members shall be arranged in alphabetical order, and they shall be called upon to vote in the order in which they stand arranged.

RECORDS OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS.

15. It shall be the duty of the committee on claims in each house to keep a book of record, in which shall be entered each claim for money against the state referred to them, whether presented in favor of private persons or municipal or other corporations, entering therein the name of the claimant, the amount of the claim, the grounds therefor, with note of the evidence offered in support of the same, and the final conclusion of the committee thereon. At the close of the session said book of record shall be deposited with the auditor of state, to be kept by him, and he shall provide an index, showing the names of the claimants recorded therein. At any subsequent session the same shall be delivered, when desired, to the like committee having jurisdiction of such claims and shall always be open to the examination of the said committee of either house.

FORM OF BILLS.

16. All bills hereafter introduced shall be typewritten, on legal-cap paper, double spaced, and each line, except first and last lines of paragraphs, shall contain not less than five and one-half inches of typewritten matter.

RULES OF THE SENATE.

REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. The following order shall govern:
 - (1) Presentation of petitions and memorials, addressed to the senate or the general assembly.
 - (2) Introduction of bills.
 - (3) Resolutions.
 - (4) Communications on the president's table, including house messages.
 - (5) Reports of standing committees, in order in which they stand in the rules; except the committee on engrossed and enrolled bills, rules and printing.
 - (6) Reports of select committees.
 - (7) Unfinished business before the senate.
 - (8) Third reading of bills.
 - (9) General order of the day.

DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT.

2. The president shall take the chair at the hour to which the senate is adjourned and call the senate to order; and, if a quorum be present, he shall proceed with the regular order of daily business, unless otherwise ordered by the senate, or unless a special order for the day shall interfere therewith. He shall preserve order and decorum, and decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the senate. He shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise specially ordered. Immediately preceding the adjournment of each morning session, or, in case it cannot be done during that session, then as soon after the convening of the next following session as he may find most convenient, the president shall call for corrections of the journal of the last day's proceedings. He shall then cause any mistakes therein to be corrected by the secretary, and the journal shall then be approved.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE.

3. The senate shall, at its pleasure, elect a president pro tem, who shall hold his office during the remaining portion of the time for which the president was elected; and when the president shall, from any cause, be absent, the president pro tem shall preside, except when the chair is filled by appointment by the president.

MESSENGERS.

4. There shall be appointed by the lieutenant governor, at each session of the senate, to hold their positions during such session, but subject to be discharged by the president of the senate for inefficiency or misbehavior, or other reasons, in his judgment justifying such discharge, six messengers for the senate. And the president may appoint other messengers in the place of any discharged.

CALL OF THE SENATE.

5. One-fourth of the members may have a call of the senate and absent members sent for and their attendance enforced.

DEBATE AND DECORUM.

6. When a member is about to speak, in debate, or deliver any matter to the senate, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to "Mr. President," and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoid personalities and the imputation of improper motives.

MANNER OF VOTING.

7. When the vote is taken viva voce, questions shall be distinctly put in this form: viz.: "As many as are of the opinion (as the case may be) say 'aye.'" And after the affirmative voice is expressed: "As many as are of the contrary opinion say 'No.'" If the president doubt, or a division be called for, the senate shall divide—those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative.

DUTY AND RIGHT OF VOTING.

8. Every member present when a question is put shall vote, unless he shall, for special cause, be excused by a vote from the senate; but no member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is directly and personally interested, or except by consent of the senate, in any case where he was not present when his name was called in the taking of the vote. Provided, that any member who was absent by leave of the senate may vote at any time before the result is announced.

FORM AND WITHDRAWAL OF MOTIONS.

9. All motions (except to adjourn, postpone, or commit) shall be reduced to writing, if required by any member of the senate. Any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, provided the same has not been amended by the senate, and that no amendment is pending thereto.

ORDER AND PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS.

10. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, to postpone indefinitely, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named; and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit or postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall be again allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill or proposition. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have the precedence of a motion to amend; and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to the rejection of the bill.

MOTIONS NOT DEBATABLE.

11. A motion to adjourn, to lay on the table, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate, and all incidental questions of order arising after the motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided—whether an appeal or otherwise—without debate.

THE PREVIOUS QUESTION.

12. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate, and bring the senate to a direct vote upon the pending amendments and then upon the main question, unless otherwise indicated by the motion and ordered by the senate, except that the member in charge of the measure under consideration shall have ten minutes in which to close the discussion, immediately before the vote is taken upon the main question. If the previous question is decided in the negative, the senate shall proceed with the matter before it, the same as though the previous question had not been moved.

DIVISION OF THE QUESTION.

13. Any member may call for a division of a question which shall be divided, if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that one being taken away, substantive propositions shall remain for the decision of the senate. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but, a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendments to the matter attempted to be stricken out, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

RECONSIDERATION.

14. When a motion or question has been decided, any member having voted on the prevailing side may move a reconsideration, on the same or next legislative day.

CONCERNING THE PRINTING OF PAPERS.

15. A motion to print any paper presented to the senate may, on motion, be referred to the committee on printing, whose duty it shall be to report, at the earliest time practicable, on the propriety of printing.

INTRODUCTIONS, READINGS, AND FORM OF BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

16. Every bill shall be introduced on the report of a committee, or by leave, and shall at once be given its first reading. Every bill and joint resolution shall have received three several readings previous to its passage; but no bill or joint resolution shall have its second and third readings on the same day without a suspension of this rule; and every bill and joint resolution shall express in its title the object thereof. All rules of the senate applicable to bills shall apply with equal force to joint resolutions. Each bill and proposed joint resolution, when introduced, shall be typewritten double space, and accompanied by two copies thereof.

ENDORSEMENT AND PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS, BILLS, AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

17. Before the same is presented, there shall be endorsed on each petition a brief statement of the subject matter thereof, and on each bill and joint resolution the title thereof, and in either case the name of the senator presenting the same. In presenting a petition, the senator shall briefly state from his place in the senate chamber the subject matter to which the petition relates.

FIRST READING AND RECEPTION OR REJECTION OF BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

18. The first reading of a bill or joint resolution shall be for information, and, if objection be made to it, the question shall be: "Shall the bill (or joint resolution, as the case may be) be rejected?" If no objection be made, or the question to reject be lost, the bill or joint resolution shall go to its second reading without further questioning.

SECOND READING AND COMMITMENT.

19. Upon the second reading of a bill or joint resolution, the president shall refer the bill to an appropriate standing committee, unless otherwise ordered by the senate. If ordered by the senate to be considered by the committee of the whole, the senate shall fix the day for its consideration. If the bill or joint resolution be ordered to be engrossed, it shall be in order for its third reading any session after that day. No bill or joint resolution shall be committed or amended until it shall have been twice read.

COMMITMENT OF APPROPRIATION BILLS.

20a. All bills carrying appropriations or involving the expenditure of state funds shall be referred to the committee on appropriations, which the committee shall report back to the senate not later than the first Monday after March 1st. After the third legislative day prior to said Monday, house bills shall be reported back by said committee within three days from the reference thereto.

No amendment to any bill reported by the committee on appropriations, or to any item thereof, shall be in order, except such as is germane to the subject matter of the bill, or item thereof, sought to be amended, and shall retrench expenditures and reduce the amounts of money covered by the bill or items thereof.

TIME OF INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

20b. No bill shall be introduced in the senate after March 15th, except such bills as may be reported from standing committees as committee bills.

SCHEDULE AND CONSIDERATION OF APPROPRIATION BILLS.

20c. On or before the first Monday after March 10th, the committee on appropriations shall prepare an itemized schedule of all appropriations recommended by the committee on appropriations, and have the same printed and laid upon the desks of members, and no appropriation bill shall be taken up for consideration and passage until the third legislative day thereafter.

TIME OF INTRODUCTION OF APPROPRIATION BILLS.

20d. Bills carrying appropriations for state educational institutions and the institutions under the charge of the board of control shall not be introduced later than February 15th, and no bill carrying an appropriation for any purpose shall be introduced after March 1st, except by the committee on appropriations.

THIRD READING AND PASSAGE OF BILLS.

21. When a question is lost on engrossing a bill, or joint resolution for a third reading on a particular day, it shall not preclude a question to engross it for a third reading on a different day. After a third reading of a bill or a joint resolution, no amendment (except to fill blanks) shall be received, except by unanimous consent of the members present; and the vote on its final passage shall be immediately taken without debate.

COMMITMENT OF BILLS.

22. A bill or joint resolution may be committed at any time previous to its third reading.

THE FILLING OF BLANKS.

23. In filling blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be first put.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS.

24. On the return of a bill or joint resolution from the house, with an amendment, it shall be placed with the third reading of bills, unless the senate shall otherwise order. On the question of adopting the amendment the vote shall be taken on the final passage of the bill, and if the amendment be adopted by a constitutional majority, no further vote is necessary.

PRINTING OF BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

25. All bills and joint resolutions introduced, except local or legalizing bills, shall be printed, unless otherwise ordered by the senate, and committees may order to be printed any bills under consideration by them, and any substitutes for bills or resolutions reported by them.

TIME OF MAKING CERTAIN COMMITTEE REPORTS.

26. It shall be in order for the committee on engrossed and enrolled bills, on rules and on printing to report at any time, when no member is addressing the senate.

CONSIDERATION OF SPECIAL ORDERS.

27. When any special order of the day is not proceeded with on the day assigned, it shall stand as a general order on each succeeding day until disposed of, unless otherwise ordered, but its consideration cannot be moved until that order of business is reached, when it shall be taken up in order of its file, and shall be taken up in order of precedence.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS AFTER A SPECIAL ORDER.

28. When the pending question is interrupted by a "special order," it shall, upon the disposal of the special order, be before the senate in the same stage as if it had not been so interrupted.

COMMITTEE CLERKS.

29. Committees are permitted to employ clerks by the majority vote of the whole committee. All applicants for the position of committee clerkship shall be examined by a committee of three appointed by the president of the senate. The clerk shall be selected by such vote, and in like manner may be discharged for inefficiency, or when the services of the clerk become unnecessary. All committee clerks shall be competent stenographers and of good moral character. Any clerk may be discharged for inefficiency, immorality or indecent or unbecoming conduct, whether in or out of the senate chamber; and, upon the request of any senator or the president of the senate, made to the chairman of a committee, a meeting of the committee shall be called for the purpose of considering the question of the discharge of such clerk upon any of the grounds above specified.

DUTIES OF COMMITTEE CLERKS.

30. Clerks of senate committees, when not engaged in duties pertaining to such committees, or work assigned them by the committee chairman, shall be subject to the discretion of the secretary of the senate for any labor connected with the duties of his position or his assistants. The secretary shall, from time to time, make detail from said clerks to assist in preparing copy or correcting proof for the daily journal.

FORM OF COMMITTEE REPORTS.

31. All reports of committees on bills or resolutions shall be made in duplicate and be accompanied with the original bill or resolution to which the report relates. Provided, that this rule shall not apply to the reports of committees on enrolled and engrossed bills.

TIME OF MAKING COMMITTEE REPORTS.

31a. The chairman or clerk of a committee, except of the appropriation committee, to whom a bill is referred, shall note thereon the date of its reference, and it shall be the duty of each committee to report back all bills in its hands, within fifteen days after the order of reference, unless a different time is granted by a vote of the senate.

VOTING IN COMMITTEE.

32. When a vote is taken in any committee upon any bill or resolution before it, or any motion relating to the merits thereof, the chairman shall see that no person is present except the members and clerk of said committee, unless otherwise ordered by the committee.

SMOKING.

33. Smoking in the senate chamber is hereby prohibited, while the senate is in session. And any officer or employe who shall indulge in smoking while on duty in the senate chamber or doorways leading thereto shall thereby subject himself to liability of discharge.

ADMISSION TO SENATE CHAMBER AND PROHIBITION OF LOBBYING.

34. Admission to the floor of the senate chamber shall be granted by the doorkeeper to the governor and his private secretary, members of the house of representatives, the state officers and their deputies, judges of the several courts, ex-members of the legislature, ex-state officers, uniformed soldiers and sailors of the United States army and navy, and the regular reporters of the senate and clerks of committees. No persons, except those herein specified, shall be admitted, except upon special permission of the president of the senate, or of a member of the senate. And no person shall be permitted, by members or otherwise, to come upon the floor of the senate or into the cloak rooms to solicit or influence senators in their official action, or to sell any article or to solicit subscriptions. No officer, or employe elected or appointed by the senate or any of its committees, shall solicit or endeavor to influence members of the legislature in their official action. Any person violating this rule shall be summarily dismissed by the senate.

CLEARING OF LOBBY AND GALLERY.

35. In case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby or gallery, the presiding officer shall have the power to order the same cleared.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

36. Before acting on executive business, the senate chamber shall be cleared, by direction of the president, of all persons except members, the secretary, the sergeant-at-arms, members enjoined and the secretary and sergeant-at-arms sworn to observe secrecy.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

37. When an adjournment has been ordered by a vote of the senate and before adjournment is declared by the president of the senate, it shall be in order for the chairman of the several committees to announce in open senate the time and place of meeting of their respective committees.

SUSPENSION OF THE RULES AND TAKING FROM TABLE.

38. No standing rule or order of the senate shall be rescinded or suspended, nor shall any matter, tabled upon motion, be taken up, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, except an order fixing the hour to which the senate shall stand adjourned.

CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTIONS.

39. Resolutions, including concurrent resolutions, shall not be acted upon by the senate upon the day the same are introduced or received by the senate, but shall lie upon the table for one legislative day if any member object to the immediate consideration thereof. But if no member object, the same may have immediate consideration. Nothing in this rule shall abridge or prevent the usual right to reference to committee.

RULES OF PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE.

40. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Cushing's Manual shall govern the senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules or orders of the senate, and joint rules of the senate and house of representatives.

TIME OF CONVENING.

41. The hours to which the senate shall stand adjourned from day to day shall be 9 o'clock a. m. and 2 o'clock p. m., unless otherwise ordered by the senate.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES.

42. The duties of the officers and employes of the senate are as stated in the paragraph relating thereto, and appended to these rules.

DUTIES OF SECRETARY.

The secretary of the senate shall have charge of the secretary's desk, and shall see that no one is permitted therein except himself and those assisting him. He shall be responsible for the custody and safe-keeping of all bills, resolutions and other matters laid before or introduced into the senate, except while the same are in the possession of the committee to whom the same shall have been referred, and when delivering the same to said committee he shall take a proper receipt therefor. He shall see that the journal of each day's proceedings is correctly and fully kept, and fully made up before the next day's session, and be responsible for its safe-keeping. He shall have control of Room 25, which is assigned to said secretary for the use of himself and his assistants. He shall endorse on every bill or joint or concurrent resolution the date of its introduction, and by what senator, or of its receipt from the house, and also what action relating thereto is taken by the senate. The assistant secretaries shall be under his direction and he shall assign to them their several duties in connection with the duties of the secretary's desk.

DUTIES OF SERGEANT-AT-ARMS, FILE CLERK, BILL CLERK.

The sergeant-at-arms shall wear the appropriate badge of his office; shall attend the senate during its sessions; shall aid in the enforcement of order under the direction of the president of the senate; shall execute the commands of the senate from time to time, together with such process, issued by the authority thereof, as shall be directed to him by the presiding officers; shall see that the rule prohibiting smoking in the senate chamber is strictly enforced; shall, upon the request of any five members, have the senate chamber lighted up during any evening within the session, except Sunday, to an hour not later than 10 p. m.; shall see that no person, except one authorized to do so, disturbs or interferes with the desks of the members, or with the books, papers, etc., thereof; shall see that the printed bills and daily journals are, at the earliest practicable period, properly distributed and filed upon the desks of senators; shall have charge of the files in the senate room, and shall see that no copy of a bill is given out except to or upon the order of the president, a senator, or state officers; shall see that an additional doorkeeper is detailed for duty at the senate chamber upon each day within the session, except Sunday, from 8:30 a. m. to 10 p. m., but should not five members of the senate desire to occupy the chamber to that hour, the detail may be relieved at 9 p. m.; shall have charge of the messengers of the senate and see that they severally perform their duties, and shall promptly report to the president of the senate any inefficiency or violations of duty on the part of said messengers. He shall direct the file clerk, and bill clerk, if any employed, in the discharge of their duties.

DUTIES OF DOORKEEPER.

The doorkeeper of the senate shall wear his appropriate badge of office; shall have special charge of the main door of the chamber during the sittings of the senate, and shall see that the other doors of the senate are properly attended to; shall have general charge and oversight of the additional doorkeepers of the senate; shall detail such of the additional doorkeepers for such general or special duties as the sergeant-at-arms may deem proper and necessary for the efficiency of the senate and the protection of property within the chamber; shall see that the rule relating to the admission to the floor of the chamber is strictly enforced; shall, ten minutes before the opening of each session of the senate, see that the floor is cleared of all persons not entitled to occupy the same during the session; shall attend to seating visitors, and shall announce all committees and messengers from the governor or house.

JANITOR'S DUTIES.

The janitor of the senate shall have charge, under the direction of the sergeant-at-arms, of the cloak and retiring rooms adjoining the chamber, and shall see that the same are kept in proper order.

MESSENGERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

The messengers of the senate shall attend the senate during its sittings and perform the duties generally devolving on like employes. While the senate is sitting, two of their number shall be detailed for service in front of the secretary's desk. The messengers shall be under the direction of the sergeant-at-arms, while the senate is not sitting, and shall attend to such duties as he may assign them.

At least four messengers shall be on duty in the senate chamber upon every day of the session, except Sunday, from 8:30 a. m. until 6 p. m., whether the senate is in session or not.

VOTING IN EXECUTIVE SESSION.

43. In all executive sessions the method of voting shall be as follows: The secretary shall cut the senate roll call into slips, the roll shall be called, and each senator shall obtain the slip bearing his own name. After having marked his vote, the secretary shall collect same and hand to the presiding officer, who shall then obtain the result of the vote, and shall announce the result in this way: "The confirmation of..... is agreed to." or "The confirmation of..... is refused." The president shall then place these ballots in an envelope and seal it, and retain same until the close of the legislative session when he shall destroy them.

RULES OF THE HOUSE.

CALL TO ORDER.

1. He [the speaker] shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour to which the house shall have been adjourned; shall immediately call the members to order, and on appearance of a quorum shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read.

PRESERVATION OF ORDER.

2. He [the speaker] shall preserve order and decorum, and speak to points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and he shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the house by any two members.

DECORUM IN PUTTING QUESTIONS.

3. He [the speaker] shall rise to put a question but may state it sitting.

PUTTING THE QUESTION.

4. Questions shall be distinctively put in this form, to-wit: "As many as are of the opinion that (as the question may be) say 'aye,'" and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "As many as are of a contrary opinion, say 'no.'" If the speaker doubts, or a division is called for, the house shall be divided. Those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats, and afterward those in the negative.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE.

5. The house shall at its pleasure elect a speaker pro tempore. When the speaker shall from any cause be absent, the speaker pro tempore shall preside, except when the chair is filled by appointment by either the speaker or the speaker pro tempore. The speaker or the speaker pro tempore shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the speaker, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment. The acts of the speaker pro tempore shall have the same validity as those of the speaker. In the absence of both the speaker and the speaker pro tempore, the house shall name a speaker who shall preside over it and perform all the duties of speaker until such time as the speaker or speaker pro tempore shall be present, and his acts shall have the same force and validity as those of the regularly elected speaker.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES.

6. All committees shall be appointed by the speaker, unless otherwise especially directed by the house.

VOTE OF THE SPEAKER.

7. In all cases of a call of the yeas and nays, the speaker shall vote; in other cases he shall not be required to vote unless the house is equally divided, or unless his vote, if given to the minority, will make the division equal, and in case of such equal division the question shall be lost.

DOCUMENTS SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

8. All acts, addresses and joint resolutions shall be signed by the speaker, and all writs, warrants, subpoenas, issued by order of the house, shall be under his hand and attested by the clerk.

CLEARING THE LOBBY.

9. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby, the speaker or chairman of the committee of the whole house shall have power to have the same cleared.

REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS.

10. After the journal is read the following order shall govern:
1. Business pending at last previous adjournment.
 2. Petitions or remonstrances to be offered.
 3. Reports of committees.
 4. Resolutions laid over under Rule 34.
 5. Bills to be introduced.
 6. Resolutions.
 7. Messages and communications on the speaker's table.
 8. Bills and resolutions read a second time.
 9. Bills on their passage.
 10. Reports in the possession of the house shall be taken up in their order.

RECOGNITION AND DECORUM IN DEBATE.

11. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the house, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the presiding officer by his title, saying "Mr. Speaker," and shall not proceed until he shall be recognized by the chair, and shall confine himself to the question under debate and shall avoid personalities.

CALLING TO ORDER AND APPEALS FROM THE CHAIR.

12. When any member in speaking, or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the house, the speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, but may be permitted with leave of the house to explain; and the house shall, if appealed to, decide the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the chair shall be submitted to; if the decision be in favor of the member so called to order, he is at liberty to proceed. If the case requires it, he shall be liable to the censure of the house.

RECOGNITION BY THE CHAIR.

13. Should two or more members rise at the same time, the speaker shall designate the member entitled to speak.

LIMITATION ON DEBATE.

14. No member shall speak more than once on the same question without leave of the house, nor more than twice until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken, except as provided in section 26; provided further, when bills are being considered on their second reading debate thereon shall be limited to fifteen minutes to each member desiring to speak thereon, which may be extended by consent of the house.

DECORUM DURING DEBATE.

15. While the speaker is putting a question or addressing the house, no one shall walk out of or across the house; and when a member is speaking, no one shall engage in conversation or pass between him and the speaker.

LIMITATION ON RIGHT TO VOTE.

16. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is personally interested.

COUNT ON DIVISION OF HOUSE.

17. Upon a division and count of the house on any question, only those members standing in their places shall be counted.

DUTY OF VOTING.

18. Every member who shall be in the house when the question is put shall give his vote, unless the house for special reasons shall excuse him; but such a member must ask to be excused before commencing to take the vote on the main question.

STATING THE QUESTION.

19. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the speaker; or, being in writing, it shall be passed to the desk and read aloud by the clerk before debated.

FORM OF MOTIONS.

20. Every motion, except subsidiary or incidental motions, shall be reduced to writing if the speaker or any member desires it, but this exception shall not apply to motions to amend.

ENDORSEMENT OF BILLS AND OTHER PAPERS.

21. All bills, resolutions, petitions, memorials or other papers shall be accompanied by the name of the member presenting the same, and also the name of the county.

WITHDRAWAL OF MOTIONS.

22. After a motion is stated by the speaker, or read by the clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the house, but may be withdrawn by leave of the house.

ORDER AND PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS.

23. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received but to adjourn; to lay on the table; for the previous question; to postpone to a certain day; to commit or amend; to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged, and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit or postpone indefinitely being decided, shall again be allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill or proposition. A motion to strike out the enacting words of a bill shall have precedence of a motion to amend; and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection.

ORDER ON QUESTION OF COMMITMENT.

24. When a resolution shall be offered or a motion made to refer any subject, and different committees shall be proposed, question shall be taken in the following order: The committee of the whole house; a standing committee; a select committee.

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

25. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when a member is speaking, or the house voting.

PREVIOUS QUESTION.

26. The previous question shall always be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" When a member moves a previous question he shall specifically state in his motion whether it shall apply to the main question and the amendments, or to the amendment or amendments only. It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and when the motion prevails its effect shall be to put an end to all debate and to bring the house to a direct vote upon the question to which the motion applies, except when the motion applies to the main question, the member in charge of the measure under consideration, shall have ten (10) minutes in which to close the discussion before the vote is taken; when the motion applies to an amendment the person proposing the amendment shall have five minutes to close the discussion on the amendment. On a motion for the previous question, and prior to submitting the same, a call of the house shall be in order; but after such motion shall have been adopted no call shall be in order prior to the decision of the main question. If the previous question is decided in the negative the house shall proceed with the matter before it the same as though the previous question had not been moved.

MOTIONS NOT DEBATABLE.

27. Motions to lay on the table, to adjourn, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate.

EFFECT OF INDEFINITE POSTPONEMENT.

28. When a question is postponed indefinitely, it shall not be again acted upon during the session.

DIVISION OF THE QUESTION.

29. Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be subdivided if it comprehends questions so distinct that one being taken away, the rest may stand entire for the discussion of the house. A motion to strike out being lost shall preclude neither an amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.

COMMITMENT.

30. Motions and reports may be committed at the pleasure of the house.

IRRELEVANT AMENDMENTS.

31. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

RECONSIDERATION.

32. When a motion has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member of the majority, on the same or succeeding day, to move for a reconsideration thereof, and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions except the consideration of a conference report, a motion to fix the day to which the house shall adjourn, to adjourn, or to take a recess, and shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding day without the consent of the house; and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration, provided that such motion, if made during the last six days of the session, shall be disposed of when made. A motion to reconsider any vote by which a bill has passed or failed to pass the house, shall require a constitutional majority to be sustained.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

33. All petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the house shall be filed by the member with the chief clerk or his assistant prior to the convening of the house. When in the regular order of business the time is reached for presenting petitions or remonstrances, the chief clerk or his assistant shall read a list of the petitions on file, giving the member's name who filed the same and a brief resume of the contents thereof, and the same shall be referred to the committee of his selection unless otherwise ordered by the house. Each member upon filing any such petition, memorial or other paper shall endorse thereon his name and a failure to do so will cause the same to be ignored.

CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTIONS.

34. A proposition requesting information from the governor, secretary or any other state officer, and all resolutions shall lie on the table one day for consideration, and all such propositions shall be taken up for consideration in the order they were presented, immediately after the reports are called for from the select committee, and when adopted, the clerk shall cause the same to be delivered.

CALL OF THE HOUSE.

35. Any five members, if the speaker be in the chair, shall be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members.

METHOD OF CALLING THE ROLL.

36. Upon calls of the house, or in taking the yeas and nays on any question, the names of the members shall be called alphabetically, except that "Mr. Speaker" shall be called last.

ABSENCES AND EXCUSES.

37. No member shall absent himself from the service of the house without leave unless he be sick or unable to attend.

METHOD OF CALLING THE HOUSE.

38. Upon the call of the house, the names of the members shall be called by the clerk, and the absentees noted after which the names of the absentees shall again be called over, and the sergeant-at-arms be directed by the speaker to compel their attendance. Any member occupying his seat during a call of the house shall be counted by the speaker and his name entered in the journal as being present but not voting, for the purpose of making a quorum.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

39. No committee shall sit during the sitting of the house without special leave.

QUORUM AND DEMAND FOR THE YEAS AND NAYS.

40. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum, and upon demand of any two members the yeas and nays shall be ordered; the members demanding the yeas and nays shall arise for that purpose, and their names shall be entered in the journal.

TIME OF CONVENING.

41. The hours to which this house shall stand adjourned from day to day shall be nine o'clock a. m., and two o'clock p. m., unless otherwise ordered by the house.

COMMITTEE ON PAIRS.

42. A committee on pairs may be appointed, to consist of two persons, one of whom shall be selected by the members of each of the two dominant political parties represented in the house. It shall be the duty of the committee to arrange all pairs between members, and to announce such pairs and the time for which they shall continue, to the house, which announcement shall be entered on the journal. Thereafter neither member so paired shall vote (upon any question of a political or partisan nature) until the time of pairing has expired, unless such pair is sooner dissolved by the mutual agreement of the persons so paired. When pairs are dissolved such dissolution shall be entered on the journal of the house.

FORM OF BELLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

43. All bills and joint resolutions introduced in the house shall be typewritten or printed, accompanied by three carbon or true copies; one copy shall be marked and known as the "original" and one copy marked and designated as "printer's copy." The "original" shall, after registration, be subject to delivery to the chairman of the committee to which reference is made, unless otherwise ordered, and the "printer's copy" shall be delivered to the state printer.

TIME OF INTRODUCTION OF BILLS. APPROPRIATION BILLS. DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS.

44. Bills calling for appropriations for state educational institutions, the institutions in charge of the board of control, all claims and all appropriations for clerical help in the executive departments of the state of Iowa, shall be introduced not later than February 15, 1919; no bill carrying an appropriation for any purpose after March 1, 1918, and no other bill of any kind after March 10, 1919, except by standing committee as a committee bill, but this exception shall not be applicable to the appropriation bills which are herein specifically required to be introduced or reported not later than certain dates herein specified.

The appropriations committee shall report back to the house not later than March 10th, all bills in its hands.

Senate bills thereafter received carrying appropriations shall be referred to the appropriations committee, but must be reported back to the house within three days, and remain on the calendar three days before final consideration.

On or before March 10, 1919, the committee on appropriations shall prepare a schedule of all appropriations and have the same printed and laid upon the desks of the members, designating in such schedule such bills as may have already passed the house and such as remain to be considered.

READINGS OF BILLS.

45. Every bill shall receive three several readings, but no bill shall have its second and third reading on the same day.

FIRST READING AND RECEPTION OR REJECTION OF BILLS.

46. The first reading of the bill shall be for information; and if opposition be made to it, the question is: "Shall this bill be rejected?" If no opposition be made, or if the question to reject be negatived, the bill shall go to its second reading without a question.

SECOND READING AND COMMITMENT.

47. Upon a second reading of the bill, the speaker shall state that it is ready for commitment, amendment or engrossment; and if committed, then the question shall be whether to a select or a standing committee, or to a committee of the whole house. If to a committee of the whole house, the house shall determine on what day.

COMMITMENT OF APPROPRIATION AND REVENUE BILLS.

48. All bills to appropriate money shall be referred to the appropriations committee, and all bills pertaining to the levy, assessment or collection of taxes shall be referred to the committee on ways and means.

CONSIDERATION OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS.

49. After a bill has been committed and reported back it shall be considered on its second reading after the amendments of committee have been read.

RE-COMMITMENT.

50. After the commitment and report thereof to the house, or any time before its passage, a bill may be re-committed.

MANNER OF ENGROSSMENT.

51. All bills ordered to be engrossed shall be written with typewriter with black record ribbon.

CONSIDERATION OF BILLS UPON THIRD READING.

52. No amendment, unless by way of correcting an error or omission, shall be received to any bill on its third reading, and no debate shall be allowed on the same.

CERTIFICATION OF BILLS.

53. When a bill shall pass it shall be certified by the clerk noting the day of its passage at the foot thereof.

AMENDMENT AND SUSPENSION OF RULES.

54. No standing rule or order of the house shall be rescinded or changed without one day's notice being given of the motion therefor, nor shall any rule be suspended except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present; nor shall the order of business, as established by the rules of the house, be postponed or changed except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

TIME OF MAKING CERTAIN COMMITTEE REPORTS

55. It shall be in order for the committee on engrossed and enrolled bills to report at any time when no member is addressing the house.

PRINTING OF BILLS, MEMORIALS, AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

56. All bills, memorials and joint resolutions, except legalizing bills, shall be printed for the use and information of the members, unless otherwise ordered by the house.

COMMITTEE HEARINGS.

57. When any matter is referred to a standing committee by motion of any member, it shall be the duty of the chairman of such standing committee to notify such member of the time of the sitting upon such matter referred, and such member shall be permitted to confer with such committee during their consideration of such matter, but no one not a member of the committee shall be present when the final vote is taken on any matter under consideration, and no final action shall be taken by the committee upon any bill on the day of public hearing thereon.

COMMITTEE CLASSIFICATION OF BILLS.

58. Each standing committee of the house shall classify all bills referred to it. The bills of the greatest public importance shall be placed in the first class, and all other bills in the second class. Bills of the first class shall be first considered and reported to the house and no committee shall retain possession of any bill longer than ten days, except by consent of the house. But this shall not apply to the committee on appropriations.

RULES OF PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE

59. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the house in all cases where they are not inconsistent with the standing rules of this house and joint rules of both houses.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

60. Joint resolutions shall be framed and treated as a bill.

COMMITTEE PROCEDURE AND REPORTS.

61. The chairman or clerk of a committee to which a bill is referred shall note thereon the date of its reference and it shall be the duty of each committee to report back all bills on its hands within ten days after the order of reference unless longer time is granted by a vote of the house, except as provided by rule 58. The minority of any committee may present its recommendations in writing with the report of the committee, and the same shall be printed in the journal, and said recommendation may, by a vote of the house, be substituted for the report of the committee. The clerks of the different committees shall be subject to their respective chairmen.

When a motion which works a final disposition of a bill in the committee is up for adoption the roll of the committee shall be called and the yeas and nays entered in the minutes of the meeting; this last provision, however, shall not apply to the committee on appropriations and judiciary.

It shall be the duty of the chairman to see that the record of the committee meetings as herein provided, is properly kept, and that the same is deposited with the chief clerk of the house at the final adjournment of the session.

COMMITTEE QUORUM.

62. Seven members, or a majority, shall constitute a quorum of each standing committee.

DECORUM DURING SESSIONS.

63. No member or officer of the house shall be permitted to read newspapers within the bar of the house while the journal is being read, nor shall any person be permitted to smoke on the floor of the house during its session, or in the galleries at any time.

ADMISSION TO THE FLOOR OF THE HOUSE AND PROHIBITION OF LOBBYING.

64. No one shall be admitted to the floor of the house during its sessions, except members of the general assembly and employes in the performance of their duties, ex-members of the general assembly and officers of the state government, judges and ex-judges of the supreme, district and circuit courts, the families of members of the house, trustees, superintendents and officers of the state institutions, on the invitation of the member from the district in which the institution is located, and each member shall have the right to admit a friend who may be visiting him. Representatives of the press to be admitted to the reporters' gallery.

Lobbying shall not be permitted on the floor of the house while the house is in session.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES—CHIEF CLERK.

65. The clerk of the house shall have charge of the clerk's desk and shall see that no one is permitted therein except himself and those assisting him. REPUBLICAN PLATFORM--1918.

The following was adopted as the platform of the Republican party of Iowa at the state convention held in Des Moines, July 10, 1918:

The republicans of Iowa, in delegate convention assembled, hereby adopt the following declaration of principles and submit the same to the voters as their platform:

The republican party was born in the midst of the storm when the life of the nation hung in the balance. Its first president, the martyred Lincoln, kept the faith without faltering or wavering, and brought the ship of state to a safe port. The party has never halted for a moment in its fealty to the flag and to the principles of human liberty. Its leaders have been distinguished by their unselfishness and patriotic service to the nation. And this has been true since the day of Lincoln. We hereby consecrate all that we are and everything that we have to the winning of the world war.

This is not the war of any party; it is not the war of any section or class. It is the war of our nation. The burdens are being borne by all, without regard to creed or party or age or sex. It is so great that we must pass on to our children the duty of paying much of the cost. We, as republicans stand fully committed to the policy of treating the war and everything which relates thereto as the work of all the people and we invite to our standard every patriot who believes that Americans should meet this world crisis in the broadest spirit of genuine patriotism.

In this crisis of not only the life of the nation, but of the world as well, there is one duty which rises high above every partisan consideration and which should govern and control every citizen of the republic. That duty is to hold all that he has, or is, for the deliverance of the country and of mankind from the cruel, criminal and atrocious designs of the imperial government of Germany. No man should be elected to any high office, no matter what his party may be, unless he can fulfill this test in perfect measure. We can endure some degree of inefficiency, but we can tolerate no degree of disloyalty; no degree of selfishness. We are fighting an outlaw among nations. Our enemy has neither honor nor conscience nor civilization. We are struggling not alone for our own institutions, but for humanity and decency among the people of the earth. We have sent a million of the bravest men who ever wore a uniform across the sea and we will soon have a million more.

The supreme task is to win the war, speedily if we can, but to win it. No party feeling must be permitted to touch our consecration to this sacred undertaking.

That the republican party, full of the spirit of 1776 and the desire for liberty and the perpetual union of 1861, sends greetings to all of our brave and vallant men in the army and naval service of the United States and hereby express our pride in the men from Iowa that have joined the service of their country, knowing that they are the bravest and most sacrificing men that any state or country can produce.

In connection with the after war problems, we advocate the protective tariff as a means of safeguarding the welfare of the laboring men of this country and protecting them against the flooding of the markets of this country with the products of cheap labor of foreign lands. We advocate the protective tariff as a safeguard for the industries of this country, and as a means of making stable the social and economical situation after the war.

The republican party of Iowa reaffirms its declaration for equal suffrage. It urges immediate passage of the federal amendment by the United States senate and its ratification by the state, and commends our senators and representatives in congress for their support of this amendment.

That the republicans of Iowa will take no backward step on the temperance question and that we favor the ratification by the next general assembly of the federal prohibitory amendment to the constitution.

We favor a simplified ballot and to that end we recommend a modification of the primary and election laws.

That we heartily endorse the administration of W. L. Harding, governor of Iowa, in his patriotic and virtue leadership in support of this war, and all his activities, and we especially approve his efforts to bring about the universal public use of the English language in the state of Iowa.

We endorse and most heartily commend the distinguished and patriotic service of our senators, A. E. Cummins and W. E. Kenyon, and endorse and commend the election of our republican nominees for congress and state officers.

All voters subscribing to the fundamental principles of Democracy are invited to participate in the election of delegates to this convention.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee of Iowa at a meeting held June 12, 1918.

J. W. REYNOLDS, Chairman.

W. I. BRANAGAN, Secretary.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM—1918.

The Democracy of Iowa, in convention assembled, rejoices with the emancipated peoples of the Universe in the providential leadership of Woodrow Wilson in this, the greatest crisis in the history of the world. It dedicates itself anew to the overshadowing purpose of the present—to win the war, and it assures him of its enthusiastic approval of his acts and sympathy with his aims.

While we, as Americans devoted to honorable peace, three years ago reverently thanked God for Wilson and witnessed the sorry partisan spectacle of our opponents deriding him as unfit properly to guide the destinies of the nation, today we give room for Americans of every party that they may with like reverence thank God that the honor of our country and the well-being of our boys are in his keeping.

For a generation the Democratic party was so persistently maligned as unfitted for the custodianship of any great task, and as so utterly lacking in men of the vision or capacity to direct national affairs, that the party was denied opportunity to disprove the calumny until the cohesive power of public plunder no longer availed to keep together the corrupt corpse of the Republican party.

The party "lacking in leadership," "unfitted for the proper discharge of any public duty," "incompetent" and comprising "irreconcilable elements" has become, with opportunity, the greatest governing authority in the history of the republic. It has supplied not only President Wilson, whose humanity, wisdom, courage, and virtue have made him the accepted leader of the nations associated with us in the war, but it has given us in William G. McAdoo the greatest constructive genius ever in the cabinet; in the vilified Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, whose achievements baffle his enemies and give consolation to the mothers of America, whose sons have gone or will go to the fields of France; the patient, masterful Baker, who, like Daniels, was the butt of scorn and ridicule, and whom now a committee of congress—Republicans no less than Democrats—unanimously felicitates on the scope of his accomplishments. So complete and so satisfactory are the achievements of the President and his associates that the demand, born of partisanship, for a coalition cabinet, is heard no more, and the people of America resign their welfare with confidence and trust to the keeping of the Democratic party.

Not without reason is this faith. One of the first acts of the Wilson administration was to adopt, over the calamity cries and protests of every plumed knight of privilege and over the opposition of the leaders of the Republican party the Banking and Currency bill, which forever took from the money centers control of the nations banking reserves, which made financial panics forever impossible, which, when the European war broke, and the credit systems of the world tumbled into ruins protected the people of the United States against loss and suffering and the industries of the United States from prostration and ruin, and which today, by the operation of the rediscount privilege makes it possible for the country to absorb war issues of securities and have left money enough to keep the industries of the country going.

This law, the constructive masterpiece of fifty years of legislative history, was speedily followed by the act incorporating the shipping board, which gave to the government the right to build ships for the use of commerce. Like the currency bill, this legislation had to meet and overcome Republican opposition, and today we rejoice that it did this, because this organization thus created has made possible what otherwise were impossible—the speedy provision of a merchant marine to restore American commerce to the seas, and promote the speedy movement of troops and supplies to Europe.

The Democratic party is restoring the American flag, driven from the seas with the 3,000,000 tons of shipping it floated over by the Republican policy of exclusive tariffs, and is preparing for the day when, the war over, the industries of the United States will seek the markets of the world.

It was Democratic genius which conceived and drafted the rural credits bill, another forehanded measure which makes possible borrowing by struggling farmers for long periods, and not only reduced the rate of interest throughout the country, but equipped farmers better to meet the food demands of the world.

It was Democratic genius which evolved in the draft law the most democratic method ever devised for raising an army and enabled this country, fifteen months after it had entered the war, to confront the Hun with a million Americans in arms.

It was Democratic genius which shifted from the shoulders of the consuming millions the burden of taxation, and put this instead, in the tax on incomes, on the shoulders of wealth.

It was Democratic genius which created the war finance corporation, which effects to make sure that the money of the nation shall be used first to finance the country in war and, secondly, provide for the expansion or establishment of industries needful to successful prosecution of the war.

It was Democratic genius which evolved the means and supplied the skill for taking over as a war measure control of operation of the railroads of the country. Experience with government control is too brief to admit of fair judgment and while the first objective is to serve war needs, yet we are confident that the wisdom of the action will be repeatedly emphasized in benefits to shippers, travelers, employes, and investors, many of which are not now foreseen by the average man.

It was Democratic genius which liberated the spirits of the country's sailors and soldiers in provision for allowance for their dependents and in the further provision of war insurance for their families. The same foresight and solicitous regard which so admirably provides for them at home and abroad may be trusted to work out a practicable plan looking to training of the wounded in vocations suited to their abilities, so that they may not suffer from inability to support themselves in useful employment after serving their country on the field of battle; and to make such other provisions as may be necessary to enable all surviving soldiers and sailors to re-enter various avenues of employment and opportunity on most favorable terms at the conclusion of the war. The duty of making these provisions is dictated alike by conscience, gratitude, and economy and is one that we are sure, will be met by all the people of the nation unselfishly, and from a desire to help to the uttermost.

The Democratic genius which has anticipated and provided for every need of the nation will provide wisely for the conditions to obtain here, after the war. Confidence is begot by faith redeemed, and in the redemption of its promises to the people, no less than in the admirable wisdom it has revealed in handling each problem, the Democratic party has earned the right to enduring confidence.

The problems pressing for solution at the conclusion of the war will be so grave and so numerous as to call for the broadest constructive statesmanship and most careful preparation now to meet them. We bespeak for President Wilson the co-operation in his legislative endeavor of all citizens mindful of the gravity of his task, and we call for support only of those candidates for congress pledged to stand by his policies.

A measure of industrial democracy new to the world is to be one of the fruits of the war, and we rejoice in this for the higher estate the toiling masses are to enjoy. The task of making the world safe for political democracy is one which those who toil are making easier by their unflinching industry and loyal devotion to duty. It is fitting and proper that they shall be large beneficiaries in the new measure of democracy they are themselves unselfishly seeking to make a boon to all people dominated by the Prussian autocracy.

We rejoice in the war spirit of Iowa. We rejoice that here and there patriotic Republicans have driven from official life representatives more solicitous for the Prussian in America, than for the Americans in America, and we welcome as supporters of our President and his policies other men in and out of official life who adjourn politics and convene patriotism in order to hold up his hands.

We approve the candidacy of William S. Kenyon for re-election to the United States Senate, and point to this in proof that the Democracy of Iowa is broad enough and big enough to give credit where due and reward deserving even to the point of giving support to his candidacy.

We denounce the greed which robs in war time, and urge upon congress now to draft the revenue bill now in committee that taxation shall absorb the gains of profiteers. Excess profits taxes should be made to fall upon the lazy, no less than the earned income, and the injustice of taxing him who earns his living by his industry while absolving him whose income is the product of others' industry, forever ended. Profiteering in the necessities of life should be made a crime.

We recognize that the rank and file of the Republican party have full confidence in the President of the United States—the commander in chief of our great army and navy, who stands today by the common consent of the world, outside of our enemies, as the most dominant representative of the rights of the common people. We resent the impudent assumption of a few politicians, who, like Governor Harding in his speech at the Republican State Convention, sneeringly referred to the "democratic handicap, weakness and indecision" of the present administration which is carrying the burdens of this war. We protest against the policy of a few politicians who endeavor to damn the President of the United States by faint praise, and we resent the assumption of Governor Harding that "it was in response to this insistence of Republican leadership that the preparation we now have was brought forth." We give to the Republicans who have stood by the President, the highest possible credit, but we resent the effort of Governor Harding and other politicians who assume that the achievements of this war is solely the result of Republican effort, and that the Republicans in this effort have been handicapped by the obstacles which Democracy has placed in their way. The Governor of Iowa should emulate the example set by the really great men of his party and should remember that his country is at war and as the chief executive of a great state he should at all times loyally support the commander in chief of our army. He should remember that his belittling and slurring references to the officers of our country will be treated as a pleasing encouragement by our enemies.

The Governor of Iowa should be a leader and should be big enough to grasp fully the seriousness of the world's war; he should be possessed of such patriotism that he could disregard all partisan allegiance during the war. We believe his support of Burton E. Sweet, Harry E. Hull, Gilbert N. Haugen and C. W. Ramseyer, who are candidates for re-election to congress from this state, each of whom supported Germany more often than he supported America, convicts him of insincerity and proves he is actuated by blind spirit of partisanship.

We think the time opportune for the state to offer its credit along the line of the Farm Loan Act to the soldiers of the republic on their return so that they may acquire their own homes in Iowa on long time credits at the lowest possible rate of interest.

We endorse the action of congress in submitting to the legislatures of the states the proposed amendment to the federal constitution provided for national prohibition and favor such action as legally necessary to support our President therein.

We favor the speedy enactment of the pending federal amendment giving equal franchise to women, and pledge the Democratic members of the legislature of Iowa to ratify promptly such amendment, and in recognition of the splendid work they are doing in support of all war activities and believing in the principle of equal suffrage, we invite them to participate in the council of our party.

We favor such amendment to the primary election laws as will remove all existing evils as well as all opportunity for thwarting the will of the people in the selection of public officials.

We take pride in presenting to the people of Iowa our candidate for governor, Hon. Claude R. Porter. He is a lawyer of great ability, as evidenced in his selection by the government for the prosecution in another state of one of the most important cases arising within the present generation. He possesses a keen sense of responsibility and a lofty purpose to fulfill his every duty in life. His large ability, clean personal character, high ideals and supreme courage warrant our confidence that a careful consideration by the people of Iowa will result in his election as governor.

Primary Election June 3, 1918.

The term "Primary Election" is construed under the law to apply to an election by the members of various political parties for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for public office, for selecting delegates to conventions, and for the selection of party committeemen. The law provides that the primary election shall consist of an election by all political parties and shall be held at the various voting places of the several precincts on the first Monday in June, in the year 1912 and biennially thereafter, for the nomination of candidates for such offices as are to be filled at the general election in November next ensuing (except candidates for Judge of the Supreme, District and Superior Courts, which shall be by a Judicial Convention,) for senator in the congress of the United States, and for the electors of the President and Vice-President of the United States in the years in which senators or president and vice-president are to be elected.

The Board of Supervisors of each county (acting as a County Board of Canvassers) meet on the second Tuesday following the primary election in June and canvass the votes cast at the several precincts and make an abstract thereof. A separate abstract of the canvass duly certified is then forwarded to the Secretary of State for the following offices:

United States Senators.

Electors of the President and Vice-President of the United States.

All State Officers.

Representatives in Congress.

Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly.

On the second Monday after the June primary election, the Executive Council meets as a State Canvassing Board, and opens and canvasses the abstract returns received from each county in the state. Said board makes abstracts of its canvass, showing the number of ballots cast for each person voted for, and the person having the highest number of votes in the state or district (provided he receives 35 per cent of all the votes cast by the party for such office), is duly and legally nominated and is entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot for the General Election.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS FROM 1789 TO 1916.

AGGREGATE POPULAR VOTE AND ELECTORAL VOTE FOR CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT AT EACH ELECTION.

NOTE.—There is, properly speaking, no popular vote for President and Vice-President; the people vote for electors, and those, chosen in each state meet therein and vote for the candidates for President and Vice-President. The record of any popular vote for electors prior to 1824 is so meager and imperfect that a compilation would be useless. In most of the states, for more than a quarter century following the establishment of the Government, the State legislatures "appointed" the presidential electors, and the people therefore voted only indirectly for them, their choice being expressed by their votes for members of the legislature. In this tabulation only the aggregate electoral votes for candidates for President and Vice-President in the first nine quadrennial elections appear.

REFERENCES NOTES TO THE FIVE SUCCEEDING PAGES.

*The candidates starred were elected. (a) The first Republican party is claimed by the present Democratic party as its progenitor. (b) No candidate having a majority of the electoral vote, the House of Representatives elected Adams. (c) Candidates of the anti-Masonry party. (d) There being no choice, the Senate elected Johnson. (e) Eleven southern states, being within the belligerent territory, did not vote. (f) Three southern states disfranchised. (g) Horace Greeley died after election, and Democratic electors scattered their votes. (h) There being a dispute over the electoral vote of Florida, Louisiana, Oregon and South Carolina, they were referred by Congress to an electoral commission composed of eight Republicans and seven Democrats, which, by a strict party vote, awarded 185 electoral votes to Hayes and 184 to Tilden. (i) Free Democrat. (j) Free Silver Prohibition party. (k) In Massachusetts. There was also a native American ticket in that state, which received 184 votes. (m) Middle of the Road or Anti-Fusion People's party. (n) United Christian party (o) Union Reform party.

ELECTORAL VOTES.

1789. Previous to 1804 each elector voted for two candidates for President. The one who received the largest number of votes was declared president, and the one who received the next largest number of votes was declared Vice-President. The electoral votes for the first President of the United States were: George Washington, 69; John Adams, of Massachusetts, 34; John Jay, of New York, 9; R. H. Harrison, of Maryland, 6; John Rutledge, of South Carolina, 6; John Hancock, of Massachusetts, 4; George Clinton, of New York, 3; Samuel Huntington, of Connecticut, 2; John Milton, of Georgia, 2; James Armstrong, of Georgia; Benjamin Lincoln, of Massachusetts, and Edward Telfair, of Georgia, 1 vote each. Vacancies (votes not cast), 4. George Washington was chosen President and John Adams Vice-President.

1796. John Adams, Federalist, 71; Thomas Jefferson, Republican, 68; Thomas Pinckney, of South Carolina, Federalist, 59; Aaron Burr, of New York, Republican, 30; Samuel Adams, of Massachusetts, Republican, 15; Oliver Ellsworth, of Connecticut, Independent, 11; George Clinton, of New York, Republican, 7; John Jay, of New York, Federalist, 5; James Iredell, of North Carolina, Federalist, 3; George Washington, of Virginia, John Henry, of Maryland, and S. Johnson, of North Carolina, all Federalists, 2 votes each; Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, of South Carolina, Federalist, 1 vote. John Henry Adams was chosen President and Thomas Jefferson Vice-President.

1800. Thomas Jefferson, Republican, 73; Aaron Burr, Republican, 73; John Adams, Federalist, 65; Charles C. Pinckney, Federalist, 64; John Jay, Federalist, 1 vote. There being a tie vote for Jefferson and Burr, the choice devolved upon the House of Representatives. Jefferson received the votes of ten states, which, being the largest vote cast for a candidate, elected him President. Burr received the votes of four States, which being the next largest vote, elected him Vice-President. There were 2 blank votes.

1804. The Constitution of the United States having been amended, the electors at this election voted for a President and a Vice-President, instead of for two candidates for President. The result was as follows: For President, Thomas Jefferson, Republican, 162; Charles C. Pinckney, Federalist, 14. For Vice-President, George Clinton, Republican, 162; Rufus King, of New York, Federalist, 14. Jefferson was chosen President and Clinton Vice-President.

1808. For President, James Madison, of Virginia, Republican, 122; Charles C. Pinckney, of South Carolina, Federalist, 47; George Clinton, of New York, Republican, 8. For Vice-President, George Clinton, Republican, 113; Rufus King, of New York, Federalist, 47; John Langdon, of New Hampshire, 9; James Madison, 3; James Monroe, 3. Vacancy, 1. Madison was chosen President and Clinton Vice-President.

1812. For President, James Madison, Republican, 128; De Witt Clinton, of New York, Federalist, 89. For Vice President, Elbridge Gerry, of Massachusetts, 131; Jared Ingersoll, of Pennsylvania, Federalist, 88. Vacancy, 1. Madison was chosen President and Gerry Vice-President.

1816. For President, James Monroe, of Virginia, Republican, 183; Rufus King, of New York, Federalist, 34. For Vice-President, Daniel D. Tompkins, of New York, Republican, 183; John Eager Howard, of Maryland, Federalist, 22; James Ross, of Pennsylvania, 5; John Marshall, of Virginia, 4; Robert G. Harper, of Maryland, 3. Vacancies, 4. Monroe was chosen President and Tompkins Vice-President.

1820. For President, James Monroe of Virginia, Republican, 231; John Q. Adams, of Massachusetts, Republican, 1. For Vice-President, Daniel D. Tompkins, Republican, 219; Richard Stockton, of New Jersey, 8; Daniel Rodney, of Delaware, 4; Robert G. Harper, of Maryland, and Richard Rush, of Pennsylvania, 1 vote each. Vacancies, 3. James Monroe was chosen President and Daniel D. Tompkins Vice-President.

Jackson called himself a South Carolinian and his biographer, Kendall, recorded his birthplace in Lancaster county, South Carolina, but Parton has published documentary evidence to show that Jackson was born in Union county, North Carolina, less than a quarter of a mile from the South Carolina line. The Democratic party of today claims lineal descent from the first Republican party, and President Jefferson as its founder. Political parties were disorganized at the time of the election of John Quincy Adams. He claimed to be a Republican, but his doctrines were decidedly Federalistic. The opposition to his administration took the name of Democrats and elected Jackson President.
